Over all PERSONS in all CAUSES, is asserted and vindicated, against all Incroachments, and Innovations whatsoever.

THE Epiſtle Dedicatory.

To the Right Honourable Arthur Earl of Angleſey, one of His Majeſties moſt Honourable Privy Counſil, and Treaſurer of His Navy Royal; the Honourable Sir Harbottle Grimſton Baronet, Maſter of the Rolls; Sir Matthew Hale Knight, Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer; Sir Edward Atkins Knight, one of the Barons of that Court; Sir Wadham Windham Knight, one of His Majeſties Juſtices of the Kings Bench; Sir Richard Rainsford Knight, a Baron of the Court of Exchequer; The Right Worſhipfull Sir Robert Atkins, Knight of the Bath, Sollicitor General to the Queens Majeſty; and the reſt of the Worſhipfull Readers of the Honourable Society of LINCOLNS-INNE; his ever-Honoured kind Friends, and Fellow-Readers of that SOCIETY.

MY common relation to You all in general, as the eminenteſt Members of the Famous Society of LINCOLNS-INNE, (a fruitfull Mother for ſundry ages, of many able, learned, reverend, renowned Privy Counſellors, State-Officers, Judges, Juſtices, Barons in all Courts of Law, or Equity, both in England and Ireland, as well as of Eminent Serjeants, Readers, Barreſters and Students of the Lawes of England;) and my particular Obligations to each of You as my highly honoured cordial Friends; have engaged me (in point of duty and gratitude) to dedicate to Your Eminencies, this THIRD TOME, of An Exact Chronological Vindication, & Hiſtorical Demonſtration of the SUPREME ECCLESIASTICAL JURISDICTION of our Britiſh, Roman, Saxon, Daniſh, Norman, Engliſh KINGS, In, and Over all Matters, Cauſes, Perſons Spiritual as well as Temporal, throughout their Realms and Dominions: More particularly, during the Reigns of KING JOHN, and HENRY the THIRD, (by way of Appendix to my Second Tome:) but principally of our glorious KING EDWARD the FIRST, (the chief Subject matter of this Volume;) and emboldened me to publiſh it to the World, under the ſhelter of Your Venerable Names and Patronage.

And ſo much the rather was I induced thereunto, becauſe this Volume conſiſts for the moſt part of ſuch Records, Writs, Prohibitions, Bulls, Patents, Epiſtles, Procurations, Negotiations during their reigns, not formerly publiſhed, (illuſtrated with ſome few Hiſtorical paſſages) as are proper for your reſpective Conuſances, Profeſſions; which, in my humble opinion, will much conduce to aſſiſt and inable You in the faithfull diſcharge of thoſe high, honourable, publike Places of Truſt or Judicature, to which moſt of You are already, and the reſidue of You may hereafter be deſervedly advanced, through His Majeſties royal Favour, by Your vigilant ſtrenuous Defence of THE KINGS SUPREME ECCLESIASTICAL AUTHORITY, and of * all Juriſdictions, Privileges, Preeminences, Rights, Prerogatives annexed to his IMPERIAL CROWN, or Courts of Law; & the maintenance of all juſt Liberties of the conſciences, perſons, eſtates of his loyal Subjects, againſt the illegal exorbitant diſloyal Claims, Innovations, Uſurpations, Extortions, Vexations, Impoſitions, Cenſures, Practiſes, Conſpiracies or Deſigns of the Popes, See, Court of Rome, or other Eccleſiaſtical domeſtick Prelates, Perſons, Courts, or their ſubordinate Officers, to eclipſe, diminiſh, invade, undermine, or ſubvert all or any of them in the leaſt degree: by furniſhing You with great pleuty, variety of notable ancient Preſidents, Writs, Prohibitions, Judgements, Edicts, and Legal proceedings of all ſorts, even in the heighth of Popery and Prelacy, to reſtrain, countermine their diſloyal Vſurpations, extravagancies, oppreſſions, exceſſes, tending either to the prejudice of the Kings or peoples Rights. All which (if I miſtake miſtake not) will adde much light, luſtre, and ſome conſiderable Supplements to our ancient Treatiſes of the Common Law, the broken Caſes in Fitzherberts Abridgement, and proceedings in our Courts of Juſtice; yea, to the Hiſtory of our Church, State affairs, the Treaties, Negotiations between our Kings, the Biſhops, Cardinals, Legates, Court of Rome, and forraign Princes, during the reigns of the premiſed Kings, conteined in ſundry of their reſpective Epiſtles, Procurations, Bulls, Appeals, Inſtructions, Commiſſions, Patents, and Memorials (not extant in our printed Hiſtorians) which I diſcovered in the White Tower Chappel, and elſewhere, in our over-much neglected Records; many of which I reſcued as well from putrefaction as oblivion, and here moſt humbly preſent to Your moſt judicious peruſal.

It was my primitive intention, yea hope, to have compleated and publiſhed this Tome long ſince; but the late raging Peſtilence within the City and Suburbs of London (occaſioned by the outragious (a) Plague of Sinne in our own hearts, lives) which (b) ſwept away with the beſom of deſtruction more thouſands of people than any Plague therein in former ages, inforcing me to retire from the Records for divers Moneths; and the dreadfull conſuming fire ſucceeding it, (c) kindled and enraged by the ſuperabounding of all kinds of (d) Sodomitical ſinnes and flames of luſt, therein committed) which within few dayes ſpace turned the greateſt part of that Great, Rich, Famous City into (e) deſolate heaps of aſhes, rubbiſh, and conſumed my Printers Houſe, with all his Printing-Preſſes, yea, moſt of his Caſes, Letters, and of the printed Copies of my Firſt and Second, with 40. printed Sheets of this Third Tome, therein, to my great loſs; together with my daily long attendance in ſeveral Seſſions of Parliament, beſides other diverſions ſince, and my want of convenient Lodgings in the Tower near the Records; ſo much obſtructed, retarded my progreſs therein, and peruſal, ſorting, digeſting into order all the Records and Monuments in theſe 3. Kings reigns pertinent to my Theame, that I could not poſſibly compleat it ſooner; and may juſtly excuſe its long expected publication, together with all defects of ornament, method, and the Supplemental Appendixes, or Inſertions in improper places of this Tome, of ſome Records caſually omitted in their Chronological ſeries.

If

If any of Your Honours, Worſhips, or other curious Peruſers thereof, ſhall chance to blame or cenſure me (as I fear they will) as guilty of ſeveral ſuperfluities, or redundancies which might have been well omitted, eſpecially in theſe particulars:

1. For the multitude of Prohibitions, Suits, Informations or Attachments on them for things, cauſes of the ſelf-ſame kinde, or Nature.

2ly. For the ſuperfluity of Patents, Procurations of the ſame to Perſons employed to Rome, France, or in the Collections of Diſmes, and the like.

3ly. For the Repetitions of Licenſes to elect Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots in England and Ireland, and Patents to confirm, conſecrate, reſtore their Temporalties when elected, or confirmed by our Kings.

(f) Here, p. 587, to 603. 662, to 685, 699, to 722.

4ly. For the exceſſive multiplicity of the (f) Names of Biſhops, Abbots, Priors, Deans, Chapters, Parſons, Prebends, Vicars, Prebendaries, Religious Houſes, Pariſhes, and their reſpective Chappels, put out of King Edward the firſt his protection for refuſing to grant him an Ayde, without the Popes precedent aſſent thereto, for defence of the Church and Realm; who afterwards were enforced to make fines to, and compoſitions with him; whereupon they procured both general and particular Protections from him, at dearer rates then their denyed Ayde amounted to. And of the (g) Names of thoſe Biſhops, Abbots, Priors, Earls, Barons, Knights, Clergy-men and Laymen of Scotland, who made ſolemn, reiterated Oathes, Obligations, Deeds under their hands, ſeals, before ſpecial Commiſſioners, of their fidelity, obedience, and allegiance to King Edward the 1. and yet ſoon after moſt perfidiouſly violated them, by confederating with the French, and rebelling and taking arms againſt him.

(g) Here, p. 504, to 519, 550, 584, 653, to 666. 2051, 2052.

To the 1. of theſe I anſwer: That this ſtore can be no ſore, nor blameworthy redundancy in me, ſince uſual in all our Yearbooks, Reports, eſpecially in (h) Abridgements of the Law, ancient or modern; reporting ſeveral Prohibitions, Caſes, Suits between different perſons, in divers Terms, Years, Kings reigns of the ſelf-ſame kinde, form, without any blame or cenſure, as I have here done; on purpoſe to evidence the ſucceſſive reſtleſs Uſurpations, Innovations, Encroachments of Popes, Popiſh Prelates, Eccleſiaſtical Courts, Judges, Perſons from year to year, upon theſe Kings Crowns, Rights, Prerogatives, (h) See Statham's, Fitzherbert's, Brooke's, Aſhe's, Hughes, and Serjeant Rolls their Abridgments, Tables, & Serjeant Moore's and Judge Crooke's Reports.

rogatives, Courts of Law, and the peoples liberties; with their own Royal, and their Counſils, Judges care, diligence to reſtrain, prohibit, puniſh them; Which being the principal Subject-matter of this and my former Tomes; my omiſſion of any of them as ſuperfluous, might juſtly be cenſured not only for folly, but treachery in me both to the King, Subjects, and the Cauſe I plead.

To the 2. I return the ſelf-ſame anſwer, with this addition; that different Patents, Procurations, Commiſſions to the ſame or diverſe perſons, upon the ſame, like, or different occaſions, at divers times, under ſeveral or the ſame Kings, though running in the ſame or not much different general forms, muſt neceſſarily be recited, as well in my Collections as in the Records themſelves; elſe the Negotiations, Treaties, Things to which they relate, would become altogether defective, maimed, unintelligible, of little uſe, and give no ſatisfaction to any Judicious Readers. II.

The 3d. will eaſily be juſtified by the precedent anſwers to the two former, with this further reaſon; that the vacations, elections, confirmations, ſucceſſions of our Engliſh and Iriſh Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, Priors, our Kings Prerogative in, over them from time to time; the Clergies irregularities, uſurpations, abuſes in them, to the prejudice of our Kings Crowns, Dignities, Prerogatives; with their Royal Reprehenſions oppoſitions, preventions, puniſhments, or pardons of them, out of meer grace, not right; and the Eccleſiaſtical Hiſtory, affairs, of the Churches of England and Ireland could not poſſibly have been faithfully or fully related, nor well underſtood, without the frequent recitals of their ſeveral ſucceſſive Licenſes, Elections, Confirmations, Patents of reſtitution and the like, eſſential to Letters my Hiſtorical Demonſtration. III.

For the 4th. (which ſeems moſt liable to exception:) I anſwer, 1. That the Names of all thoſe perſons, places, being particularly enrolled, recorded with ſpecial care, by King Edwards expreſs command, into the Original Records themſelves, for a laſting monument, evidence to Poſterity of his Soveraign Right, Dominion, Juriſdiction, and Authority over the Clergy of England, and the Church, Prelates, Clergy, Nobility, Commonalty, Realm of Scotland, and of their ſubmiſſion, ſubjection, Oaths, Covenants and Allegiance made unto him in a moſt ſolemn publike manner, upon the premiſed extraordinary IV.

traordinary occaſions ; I could not deem it a ſuperfluity, but my neceſſary bounden duty, upon the ſame accounts carefully to inſert them all at large into their Tranſcripts ; which I likewiſe did upon 4. other Conſiderations : 1. To gratifie our Engliſh and Scotiſh Heraulds, and others delighting in Pedegrees, who may make good uſe of theſe Names of the Prelates, Nobility, Knights, Gentry, Clergy of England and Scotland, and the places of their reſidence, upon ſeveral occaſions. 2ly. To evidence what places had Religious Houſes, Pariſh-Churches, Chappelries in that age ; and what rates, compoſitions they then payd to the King ; which will eaſily ſhew to all concerned, what alterations have ſince been made in any of them. 3ly. To manifeſt the general Confederacy of the Engliſh Prelates, Clergy, in oppoſing the Aydes demanded of them by King Edward, without the Popes precedent licenſe : and their general and particular ſubſequent late repentances for it. 4ly. To evidence the univerſal deteſtable perjury, treachery of the Scotiſh Nobility, Nation, but eſpecially of their Prelates and Clergy, in violating their reiterated ſolemn Oathes and Obligations to King Edward, by their confederacy with the French, and rebellions, wars againſt him, not without the Popes clandeſtine inſtigation, and abetment.

Having cleared theſe exceptions, I hope to all ingenuous Readers ſatisfaction, I muſt crave leave to inform Your Honours and Worſhips, that ſince my Compleating of this Volume (upon other publike accounts, eſpecially that of Queengold) I have peruſed moſt of the Great Rolls and Records of King Henry the 1, 2. King John, Henry the 3d. and Edward the 1. (beſides other Kings reigns) in the Pipe, Kings, Lord Treaſurers Remembrancers, and the Clerk of the Pleas reſpective Offices, and other Treaſuries of Records in the Exchequer Court at Weſtminſter, wherein I found ſundry Tranſcripts of ſeveral Popes Bulls, relating to the Impoſitions, Grants of Diſmes and Aydes on, or by the Clergy of England or Ireland for our premiſed Kings themſelves, or pretended relief of the Holy Land, or to confirm ſome Priviledges, Exemptions, granted by them and our Kings to Religious Orders or Monaſteries, recorded or pleaded at large in that Court, the Originals whereof, for the moſt part, are extant in the Tower, or their tranſcripts enrolled in the dorſes of the Realm, to avoyd the Kings, Nobles, peoples diſpleaſures, and dyed in exile; whereupon his Conſtitutions were totally rejected as Nullities, and never put in execution for 85. years ſpace. But then his ſucceſſor John Stratford Archbiſhop of Canterbury (as ungratefull perfidious a Traytor to King Edward the 3. as Boniface was to King Henry the 3d.) in a Convocation of the Clergy held at London Anno 1342. in high contempt of the Kings Soveraign Authority, (from which he * alleged he was totally exempted, unaccountable to, and not to be judged by him for any crimes objected againſt him) revived and enlarged the exploded Conſtitutions of Boniface, with ſundry Additional Articles and new Clauſes of Excommunications, by his own uſurped Pontifical power, to the manifeſt derogation of the Rights and Prerogatives of the Kings Crown and Dignity, which he thereby endeavoured to wreſt from him: And then like an abſolute Legiſlator and Pope of our other World, commanded them to be publiſhed and inviolably obſerved throughout his Province in future times, in this imperious ſtile; (z) Hujus autem Concilii Conſtitutiones, & proviſa remedia præcipimus in noſtra Cantuarienſi provincia, futuris temporibus inviolabiliter obſervari. Mandantes Coepiſcopis et Suffraganeis univerſis, ut ipſas Conſtitutiones per ſe et alios, ut jus exigit, publicent et facient publicari, ac in publicam notitiam deduci; together with the old General Sentence of Excommunication, having ſundry new Clauſes of his own added thereunto: Hereupon King Edw. the 3. by two ſeveral Royal Writs, or Letters (made with adviſe of his Counſil, and ordered to be publiſhed at Canterbury and other places to all his Subjects,) ſtrictly prohibited the publication or execution of theſe Excommunications or Conſtitutions; therein at large relating this Archbiſhops ingratitude, treachery, inſolency, affronts, ſlanders of him, his Counſil, and Officers, and rendered this Character of him, them, and his deſignes in publiſhing them. Hereupon thoſe Antimonarchical Excommunications and Conſtitutions of Archbiſhop Boniface revived by him, together with his own, thus publikely cenſured, revoked by the King and his Counſil, were totally neglected, and not put in execution by our ſucceeding Archbiſhops, Biſhops, or Eccleſiaſtical Judges for 80. years ſpace or more, as William Lindewode himſelf thus acknowledgeth in his Preface to Henry Chichely Archbiſhop of Canterbury, præfixed to his Provinciale; Conſideravi equidem, quod quamquam Conſtitutiones ipſæ ex interioribus medullis Scripturarum, & ſacrorum Canonum, indubitatiſque tam Theologorum, quam Juris Canonici et Civilis autenticorum Doctorum ſententiis ad utilitatem Provinciæ Cantuar. ſubditorum extractæ: A compluribus (tamen) dictæ Provinciæ tam Patribus aliiſque Prælatis et Judicibus, quam ipſorum ſubditis neglectui quodammodo habeantur, adeo quod temporibus his perpauci ſunt qui ipſorum obſervationi, ut ratio exiget, invigilent. Whereupon this great Doctor of the Canon and Civil Law, (being then Official to the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, to bring theſe neglected Canons into credit, uſe, to enlarge the Juriſdiction of our Eccleſiaſtical Courts and Prelates) in the year 1423. at Bois St. Vincents in France, collected theſe two, and our other Archbiſhops Provincial Conſtitutions into one Body (as (c) himſelf thus relates) reſecatis ſuperfluis & quibuſdam ex eis abbreviatis correcte in unum Opus collegi, & ſub congruentibus Titulis ad inſtar libri Decretalium ſerioſius collocavi.

Anno tunc ſequenti eadem Statuta gloſſare propoſui ; which having accordingly gloſſed and accompliſhed about the 3d year of King Henry the 6. he dedicated his Provinciale to this Archbiſhop, tanquam veræ juris lucernam in Eccleſia Anglicana radiantem : which was afterwards printed Antwerpiæ, ſumma cura & diligentia Chriſtopheri Endovien. Anno ſalutis noſtræ 1525. 20 die Decembris ; Venales habentur London, in Cimiterio Sancti Pauli, apud Franciſcum Bryckman : By this his Provinciale and large Gloſſes on theſe Conſtitutions they began by degrees to be put in practiſe by our Biſhops and Canoniſts, as binding Eccleſiaſtical Lawes and Canons, to which all Clergymen and Laymen muſt ſubmit, enforcing obedience to them by their Eccleſiaſtical Courts and Cenſures. dreſſe whereof I thought it neceſſary to inform both our Prelates, Canoniſts, but eſpecially the Profeſſors of the Common Law, how theſe Canons, Conſtitutions were originally made, oppoſed, exploded, yet ſince by degrees revived, and put in execution, notwithſtanding our Kings, Nobles, Parliaments Appeals, Oppoſitions, Complaints, and Acts againſt them, wherewith few of them are acquainted.

And here I cannot but obſerve, That Sir Edward Cooke, as he hath in his (2) Commentary upon Articuli Cleri, taken ſpecial Notice of Archbiſhop Boniface and his Suffragans forementioned Conſtitutions, as made directly againſt the Lawes and Statutes of the Realm, and the Kings Royal Crown, Dignity, which occaſioned much difference between the Common and Eccleſiaſtical Law, Judges, Courts: So he likewiſe addes, That this Archbiſhop and his Clergy in a Parliament holden in the 51. year of H. 3. (which was their ultimum refugium, yet the right way) exhibited many Articles as grievances, called Articuli Cleri; which either by accident or induſtry are not to be found, yet ſome of their anſwers are extant; which he there recites, Ex fragmento Rotuli Parliamenti Anno 51 H. 3. as his Margin affirms, without any directions where to finde it. But under his correction, I conceive he is much miſtaken therein. For firſt, The Articles of Archbiſhop Boniface and his Clergy, were drawn and exhibited by them to King Henry the 3. and his Counſil, not Anno 51. but 41. of his reign, when theſe his Conſtitutions were made in purſuance of them, againſt the Kings Prohibitions. 2ly. Theſe Articles are mentioned by (3) Matthew Paris in his Hiſtory, and ſince printed in his (4) Additamenta; and in my (5) Second Tome, being 50. in number. 3ly. King Henry the 3d and his Counſil refuſed to give any anſwer at all to them, or any of them, upon their reiterated requeſts, but abſolutely rejected them, as the Archbiſhop and Clergy premiſe in their (6) Proeme to their Eccleſiaſtical Conſtitutions then made; neither doth Mat. Paris make mention of any anſwers to them, as no doubt he would have done, had there been any given. 4ly. There is no ſuch Fragment of any Parliament or other Roll An. 51 H. 3. now extant in the Tower or elſewhere that I can find, nor any Parliament held that year, but two in Ann. 52 & 53 H. 3. wherein the Statutes of Marlebridge, and Dictum de Kenilworth were made. 5ly. Not one of our Hiſtorians or Antiquaries make mention of any ſuch Articles of the Clergy in An. 51 H. 3. 6ly. The Anſwers he prints are unſutable to thoſe Articles in Matth. Paris Anno 41. both in their number, and matter, as all may clearly diſcern by comparing them. 7ly. Othobons Conſtitutions (made in a Council at London An. 52, or 53 H. 3. not 42. as * Sir Henry Spelmans Edition, and John de Atons too miſtake, as (7) Matthew Paris, (8) Matthew Weſtminſter, (9) Matthew Parker, and others, with the Clauſe and Patent Rolls of 49 & 50 H. 3. aſſure us, he arriving not, nor acting as a Legate till then within this Realm) make no mention of them. Upon all which conſiderations, I cannot but repute theſe anſwers he hath printed to be Apocryphal.

But his moſt unpardonable Overſight and Miſtake, is this; That in his very Proeme to his Second Inſtitutes on Magna Charta, he aſſerts, that the Writ of Proclamation iſſued by King Henry the 3d. 11 Decembris in the 19th year of his reign to the Mayor and Sheriffs of London, to prohibit all Schooles and Lectures of the Canon Lawes and Popes Decretals, (as King Stephen had done before him) then newly poliſhed, abridged by Raymundus, at Pope Gregory the 9th. his requeſt; qui eas ſolenniter et autentice per totius mundi latitudinem LEGI PRÆCEPIT & DIVULGARI, et ab multorum perniciem publicavit; as (10) Matthew Paris, (11) Platina, (12) Balæus, and (13) others relate; Uetuitque Jus Civile legi Lutetiæ, et aliis in locis vicinis: as (14) Gilbertus Genebrardus a Pariſian Divine obſerves, by theſe new Decretals, to which all other Lawes muſt give place, that they alone might rule the World; whereupon King Henry iſſuiſſued this Writ to prohibit them to be read upon, publiſhed, or put in execution; as being moſt derogatory to his Royal Prerogative, Lawes, Courts, and Subjects liberties, to be meant and intended only, of Schooles of the Common Law, and Readings upon the two Great Charters of Liberties and the Foreſt, which he had formerly ratified, and ſworn to obſerve. Which grand miſpriſion of his as I have (15) here refuted at large, by pregnant evidences; ſo the very ſeaſon wherein it was iſſued, ſoon after his removal of his ill Great Officers, Counſellors, Chief Juſticer, and putting honeſt, faithfull ones in their places, upon his comming to himſelf, ſight of his former miſcarriages, and reconciliation to his faithfull

How farre Popes, Biſhops, and their Canon Law Doctors have by their own Canons, Conſtitutions, and Gloſſes on them enlarged their Juriſdiction even to the nulling, altering of the Teſtaments and Legacies of deceaſed Perſons to pious uſes, contrary to their expreſs wills, thoſe who pleaſe may read at leiſure in the large folio Volume of Auguſtinus Barboſa, a grand Doctor of the Canon Law, & Epiſcopus Eugentinus, De Officio et Potestate Episcopi, (dedicated to the Virgin Mary) licenſed, printed at Rome, and newly reprinted Lugduni 1665. In what particulars they have advanced Themſelves, their Pontifical Mitres, Lawes, above the Imperial Crowns of all Chriſtian Emperors, Kings, and their municipal Lawes, I have (m) elſewhere evidenced, and ſhall here demonſtrate only in four other Inſtances worthy ſpecial obſervation.

First, they advance not only every Pope, but Biſhop, farre above all Chriſtian Emperors and Kings in the manner of their Unctions and Conſecrations: For whereas the Kings of Iſrael, when anointed to be Kings, had a Viol of Oyl, by Gods appointment, powred out upon their (n) HEADS, as it was upon the (o) High Prieſts Head, and were annoynted with the ſame Oyle that the High Prieſts were, as (p) moſt affirm; to evidence to all, that they were thereby made the (q) chief Car les Decretales des quatre vingts quatorze Papes precedents, vrayes ou ſuppoſees qui ont eſté inſerees audit Decret de Gratian, contiennent en ſubſtance les meſmes choſes que les dernieres, qui ne font que mieux exprimer et mettre en practique les Doctrines et maximes des premieres, que ſe reduiſent a ceci; Que le Pape eſt Lieutenant de Jeſus Chriſt, et a tout pouvoir tant au temporel qu'au ſpirituel: Eſt juge de tout le monde, et ne puit eſtre juge par aucune creature. † Que ſes Conſtitutions et Decretales doivent eſtre inviolablement obſervees par tous: Que celuy qui meſpriſe ou enfreint ſes mandements, ou diminue ſes privileges et ſon authorite, ou n'eſt d'accord avec luy, commet crime d'hereſie et d'infidelite, blaſpheme contre le Saint Eſprit, eſt anatheme et damne. Et auſſi nos Roys ont permis par meſgarde et tolerance, que l'eſdites Decretales ayent eſté leues et interpretees es Univerſites, et que la jeuneſſe Fraincoſe fuſt imbibee de ceſte doctrine. Et neantmoins ces oppoſitions, quoy que tardives, ſervirent a empeſcher, que la liberte des Eſgliſes de Gaule ne fuſt intirement eſteinte, comme ſera dit cy apres.

What great Cauſe he and our premiſed Kings had thus to oppoſe, ſuppreſs the Canons and Conſtitutions of Popes, yea of their own Prelates in their Councils and Synods, will further appear by theſe remarkable Clauſes in the moſt inſolent Epiſtle of John Peckham Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Ann. 9 E. 1. who then making ſundry Conſtitutions in a Provincial Council, prejudicial to the Kings Crown and Dignity, againſt (1) two ſucceſſive Writs of Prohibition to him and his Suffragans; for which King Edward the 1. was highly incenſed againſt them, the Archbiſhop thereupon thus juſtified them by theſe Antimonarchical Topicks, among others; (2) Quia igitur ab antiquo tempore inter Reges et Magnates Angliæ ex parte una; et Archiepiſcopos et Epiſcopos, ac Clerum ejuſdem Regni ex altera, duravit amara diſſentio, pro oppreſſione Eccleſiæ, contra Decreta Summorum Pontificum, contra Statuta Conciliorum, contra Sanctiones orthodoxorum Patrum, in quibus tribus ſumma authoritas, ſumma veritas, ſumma ſanctitas exiſtit. Supplicamus Regiæ Majeſtati, &c. (inſtead of ſubmitting himſelf and his Conſtitutions to the King and his Laws, as he ought;) to ſubmit himſelf, his Crown, Lawes, to the Canons, Lawes, and Conſtitutions then made by him and his Suffragans in the Council of Lambheth; becauſe there was no other means but this, to put a period to the conteſts between them, concerning the Churches pretended Liberties,

Which differences, Schiſms, Miſchiefs, can be neither totally nor finally compoſed, nor prevented, ſo long as ſuch Canons, Conſtitutions, Decrees ſhall have any force, countenance, continuance, and be rigorouſly executed in Eccleſiaſtical Courts, by Judges, Delegates, Officials, Canoniſts, only in Popes, or Biſhops own Names, rights, ſtiles, under their own ſeals alone, as * independent on the Crown.

* 1 Ed. 6. c. 2. 1. & 2. Phil. & Mar. c. 8.

For the clearer demonſtration whereof in our own Kingdom, I have with no ſmall pains and diligence, collected out of all the whole or decayed files, and confuſed heaps of broken, ſcattered Original Writs, and the Plea-Rolls, Patent, Clauſe and other Rolls in the White Tower Chappel or elſewhere, all Writs of Prohibitions iſſued out, and Attachments, Suits at our Kings or their grieved Subjects proſecutions, brought for contempts of them, yet extant, during the reigns of the 3. premiſed Kings, either againſt Popes Nuncioes, Collectors, Delegates, or our Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, Officials, Eccleſiaſtical Judges, or other perſons, upon ſeveral occaſions; but more eſpecially for holding, proſecuting ſuits belonging to theſe Kings Temporal Courts, and vexing their Subjects by illegal Excommunications, and Writs de Excommunicato capiendo grounded on them, on purpoſe to diſcourage, or diſable them, and deterr all others from ſuing for Prohibitions to reſtrain their Extravagant Uſurpations, in high contempt, and to the grand prejudice of the Kings Crown, Dignity, Courts, and Royal Authority; that ſo they might by degrees ingroſſe all temporal ſuits, cauſes into their own Courts, and trample all Secular Powers, Courts, Subjects, Laws, Liberties under their feet without controll; whereof I found ſuch multitudes, yet remaining, beſides thoſe quite putrified, torn, loſt or periſhed, as may not only ſatiate but ſurfet their Readers: the moſt whereof I have abbreviated, and inſerted into this Tome, as for the vindication of theſe Kings Eccleſiaſtical Soveraignty; and evidencing the inconſiſtency of theſe Canon Lawes and Conſtitutions with it, or the Kingdoms, Subjects peace and felicity; ſo for theſe two following reaſons.

First,

Firſt, To juſtify the practiſe of our late and preſent Judges in granting Prohibitions to Eccleſiaſtical Perſons, Courts, to reſtrain their uſurpations, and extravagances of all kindes, according to their Oathes, dutyes, againſt the * frequent clamors, and unjuſt complaints of our Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Canoniſts, and others to our Kings and their Counſil, as well ſince the Reformation of Religion as before; being warranted by ſuch multitudes of Preſidents from year to year even in times of Popery, when Popes and Prelates were moſt predominant: which will make a conſiderable Addition to the Preſidents of Prohibitions in punier times, formerly collected by the Judges for their own defence.

* See Cooke 2 Inſtitutes, p. 599, to 619. & The Judges Treatiſe and Collections of Prohibitions upon Archbiſhop Bancrofts Complaint, 3 & 7 Jacobi.

Secondly, To evidence the manifold unceſſant grievances, oppreſſions, vexations of the Subjects of this Realm in former ages, by reaſon of theſe diverſities of Laws, Juriſdictions, Courts, eſpecially ſince the Eccleſiaſtical depend not on the King, Parliament, or Common Lawes of England, and are not executed by ſpecial Commiſſions from the King, limiting their Juriſdictions, Proceedings, (y) by a derivative power from, by, and under him, nor in his Name, Right, Stile, Seal alone, like other Courts, and Proceſſe; Nor yet by our Biſhops and Ordinaries themſelves, who ought perſonally to execute their Eccleſiaſtical Judicatures and Juriſdiction (eſpecially if appropriated by divine right to their Epiſcopal office, as many of them pretend;) who cannot delegate their Judicial authority to any ſubordinate Officers, no more then the Kings Judges, or Juſtices of Peace, and ought to judge in proper perſon, not by Proxy; or elſe totally to diſclaim their Judicial authority, if they want leiſure or skill to execute it; and not to ſell, rent, or farm it out upon account to indigent, covetous Chancellors, Vicars, Commiſſaries, Officials, Surrogates who will give moſt for it, or to their kinred or neareſt allyes; ſince theſe (z) Officials, Surrogates in all ages, to fill their purſes, and make hay whiles the Sun ſhines, have moſt grievouſly vexed, fleeced, fleyed the people committed to their Epiſcopal care, by Citations, Interdicts, Ex officio, and other illegal Oathes, Articles, proceedings, Excommunications, impriſonments upon Writs de Excommunicato capiendo, for pretended offences, defamations of hereſie, incontinency, perjury, or other crimes, upon fames, or accuſations raiſed by themſelves or their creatures, (y) See 2 Ed. 6. c. 2. 37 H. 8 c. 17.

(z) Tota Officialis intentio eſt, ut ad opus Epiſcopi ſuæ, juriſdictionis commiſſus miſerimas oves, quaſi vice illius tondeat, emungat, excoriat. Iſti enim Epiſcoporum ſunt ſanguiſugæ, &c. & execrandis acquiſitionibus nihil ſibi præter peccati ſordem & fæculentiam retinentes. tures,or for trivial matters,contempts,non-payment of illega fees, or ſuing out Prohibitions to relieve themſelves by due courſe of Law, againſt their holding pleas of cauſes not belonging to them;whereby they have not only been banded up and down from Court to Court,place to place,like Tennis Balls, but even grownd to powder, like corn between two Milſtones, to their extraordinary oppreſſion, impoveriſhing,and diſcontent. Yea, the charges, delayes, difficulties in ſuing out Prohibitions for their juſt relief (eſpecially when Biſhops become predominant State-Officers) have been ſo great, that they have oft-times proved as bad, nay worſe then the maladies they ſhould redreſſe; ſo that thouſands have rather choſen to ſubmit to their Uſurpations, extravagant exactions, cenſures, and to purchaſe abſolutions from their excommunications, vexations, ſequeſtrations upon any terms, at deareſt rates, or to languiſh, periſh under them, then to ſeek redreſs againſt, and ſtrenuouſly to oppoſe them.

If theſe my Collections through Gods bleſſing on, and Your honorable Protection of them, ſhall prove inſtrumental to redreſs theſe publike abuſes and uſurpations,upon the Crown,Laws, & peoples Liberties; to ſettle a future conſtant harmony between the Crown and Miter, the Laity and Clergy, to the Glory of God,the Safety and advancement of the Proteſtant Religion; that ſo we may all from henceforth (a) endeavour to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, (b) increaſe and abound in love one towards another; (c) love one another with a pure heart fervently; and not (d) bite, devour one another any longer, leſt we be conſumed one of another, and become a prey to our common Romiſh adverſaries, now ſwarming every where amongſt us, (fomenting our Diviſions, Schiſms, animoſities againſt, and uſurpations upon each other;) I ſhall bleſs God for ſuch a happy ſucceſs thereof; and endeavour (through his Divine aſſiſtance) with all convenient expedition to compleat, publiſh my intended ſucceeding Tomes of this Heroick Subject.

To

To the Ingenuous Readers, especially Professors, Students of the COMMON LAW, and ENGLISH ANTIQUITIES.

GENTLEMEN,

I Here present to your judicious View and perusal, a large Tome, consisting for the most part of Records, Writs, Epistles, Patents, Bulls, Procurations, Antiquities not formerly printed, relating principally to the Ecclesiastical, and some Civil affairs of greatest note, in England, Scotland, France, Ireland, Rome, during the reigns of King John, Henry the 3d. and Edward the first: many of which I rescued as well from dust and putrefaction, as oblivion, and here bring forth to publike light; for the information, benefit of the present and succeeding age. Their particular Contents you may read at leisure in the Tome it self, all Epitomized in the Title, Chapters, but especially in the 14 Tables to it; wherein every of you may with speed and facility finde, select such Records and passages, as are most suitable to his Profession, Studies, Genius, or emergent Occasions; and all Great Officers both in Church, State, Courts of Justice, Common Lawyers, Canonists, Parliament Members, Historians, Heraulds, Divines, as well of the Roman as Reformed Religion, may find some Antiquities, Rarities, which may either instruct, direct, assist, advantage them at some time or other, though perchance sundry of them may seem trivial, useless, or superfluous for the present, unto many.

The multiplicity, variety of the Records are such, that I could only collect and digest them into a Chronological Order, (like Cases in our Year-books and Reports, independent on, and diverse from each other,) and that in a rude, plain, unpolished stile, most suitable to old moth-eaten, lacerated, musty Records and Antiquities, overspred with dust and Cobwebs (as very many of them were) my other publike imployments and extraordinary Diversions, affording me not sufficient time to polish or set them forth in a neater Dresse, or in delicate Language now most in fashion, fitter to garnish new Comedies, Play-books, than grave, serious Antiquities.

Since the finishing of my Additional Appendix of Records in the reigns of King John, and Henry the 3. prefixed to this Tome, I perused most of the Records in their reigns and Edward the firsts, (with all of Henry the 1. and 2.) extant in the several Treasuries, Offices in the Court of Exchequer; some whereof I have inserted into my Epistle Dedicatory: I shall here make bold to present you with two more in the Reign of King Henry the 3d. worthy special observation.

The 1. of them thus evidenceth his Royal piety, zeal, and Soveraign Authority in coming personally into the Court of Exchequer with his Counsil, and there with his own mouth commanding all the Sheriffs of England to attach all blasphemers of the Name of Jesus, and bring them to publike Justice at such time and place as he should prescribe, (a president worthy imitation in this atheistical, blasphemous, unzealous age) with his care for the execution of speedy Justice to all, especially Pupils, Orphans, Widdows; to prevent all oppressions of his Subjects by Sheriffs, or great men; and to preserve the Churches just Liberties, together with the rights of his Crown.

The 2d. This preſident of his, is ſufficiently juſtified by divine Authority; for [a] King Solomon depoſed Abiathar the High Prieſt from his Prieſthood, for Conſpiracy and Treaſon againſt him, in adhering to Adonijah who uſurped the kingdom, and made Zadok High Prieſt in his room, by his Supreme Eccleſiaſtical royal Authority: by which he might likewiſe have put him to death, as he told him, yet he ſpared his life for the preſent, out of meer grace; becauſe he did bear the Ark of the Lord God before David his father, and becauſe he had been afflicted in all wherein his father was afflicted, when he fled from Abſolon who uſurped his Crown. A clear Scripture Authority, that Chriſtian Emperors or Kings may lawfully depoſe not only Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other Clergy-men from their Offices and Biſhopricks, but likewiſe Popes themſelves, (who pretend they [b] ſucceed Aaron the Jewes High- High-Prieſts in their Authority, as well as St. Peter, and thence deduce Arguments for their Supremacy, and Title of Pontifex Maximus, which even the Chief Pagan Roman Prieſt, and afterwards their [c] Conſuls or Emperors only enjoyed) for Treaſon, Rebellion, or other Grand Offences, and likewiſe put them to death, without any violation of the Churches Liberties. For St. Paul himſelf (though an Apoſtle, [d] equal to St. Peter, and [e] joynt Biſhop of Rome together with him,) when he was [f] accuſed by the Jewes before Feſtus, (who layd many and grievous complaints againſt him, as an offender both againſt the Temple and Cæſar, to whoſe Judgement ſeat he appealed from their Judicature;) made this anſwer, If I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuſe not to dye; (to wit, by a legal Trial before Cæſar) where I ought to be judged: where he and St. Peter were afterwards condemned to death, Paul being beheaded, and Peter crucified at Rome with his head downwards, as [g] Hiſtorians relate; yea both of them expreſly enjoyn [h] every ſoul (whether an Apoſtle, Prophet, Pope, or other Clergyman, as well as Laick, as St. Chryſoſtome, Theodoret, Theophylact, Oecumenius, and others comment on it) to be ſubject, and ſubmit themſelves to the higher Powers, and to the King as SUPREAM, and that for Conſcience ſake, FOR SO IS THE WILL OF GOD; and that in an Epiſtle written to all that be in Rome, called to be Saints, by expreſſe evangelical precepts, backed with their own examples in ſubmitting to their capital Judgements, executions, as our [i] Saviour Chriſt himſelf did before them, leaving all Popes, Prelates, how great ſoever, an example, that they ſhould follow their ſteps therein, as [k] many of the firſt Martyred Biſhops of Rome did; without pleading any ſuch [l] Priviledges, Exemptions from Kings and Emperors Tribunals, or Corporal, Capital puniſhments, or Taxes (which they paid) as they ſince pretend to by their own Antimonarchical Canons, Decrees, and Conſtitutions, (or by Charters forcibly extorted from Chriſtian Emperors and Kings themſelves) or ſuch an unlimited power, as Popes and other Prelates now claim; That they are the Superior Judges of all Emperors and Kings, as well as inferiour Subjects, but they themſelves are to be judged by none but God himſelf; or at leaſt by Popes and Biſhops themſelves in Councils; Which they prove from the much perverted Text of St. Paul, 1 Cor. 2. 15. But he that is ſpiritual (that is, regenerated by Gods Spirit) judgeth (that is, diſcerneth) all things (that are revealed, taught by the Spirit of God) yet he himſelf is judged (or diſcerned) of no man; that is, of no natural or carnal man, for thoſe ſpiritual things, (not for viſible Crimes, or Capital offences) who perceiveth not the things of the ſpirit of God, neither can he know them, becauſe they are ſpiritually diſcerned, as the Text it ſelf and all antient Orthodox Commentators on it expreſly reſolve, againſt the abſurd ridiculous falſe Gloſſes of Modern Popes, Canoniſts, and Sycophants of Rome, who appropriate this Text only to the Pope himſelf, and to Biſhops, Clergymen, though meerly carnal, voyd of the Spirit of God, and that only for viſible carnal things and Crimes; whereof it never was, nor can be intended, againſt St. Pauls, and St. Peters expreſſe Doctrines in the forecited Texts, ſeconded with their practiſe.

And here I ſhall crave leave to inform you, how Popes, and Popiſh Archbiſhops, Prelates, Clergymen firſt procured, and then enlarged, ſupported their Exemptions from, and Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction over Chriſtian Emperors and Kings; not only by granting diſpenſations with their Oaths, Vows, unlawfull, inceſtuous, libidinous marriages, divorces, interpoſitions in their Treaties of Peace, Leagues, Wars againſt each other, by grants of Diſms, Indulgences, Priviledges for pretended aſſiſtance of the Holy Land againſt Saracens and Infidels; by declaring Baſtards to be legitimate heirs, and themſelves to be ſole Judges of Heretiks, Hereſy, Schiſms, and by confirming of Kings, Emperors grants, Priviledges, Exemptions to Monaſteries and other Churches; (which I have demonſtrated by ſeveral Inſtances in this and the precedent Tomes;) but more eſpecially by Monopolizing to themſelves by degrees the ſole power of conſecrating, crowning Emperors, Kings, and preſcribing Interrogatories, Oathes, Articles, Ceremonials, to them at their Coronations, eſpecially when they Crowned Uſurpers, and put by the right heirs from the Crown; which becauſe not hitherto fully cleared by any, I ſhall crave leave to preſent you with my collections, and obſervations of this kind, both in the Eaſtern and Weſtern Roman Empires, in the French, and our Britiſh, Saxon, Norman, Engliſh Kings Coronations, antecedent to King Johns, and Henry the Thirds; The rather, becauſe I have manifeſted how Popes and Biſhops advance themſelves above Emperors, Kings, in the late form of their Unctions not on the head but ſhoulders in their Coronations, in my Epiſtle Dedicatory. The [a] Hiſtories of the Roman Emperors, and other Kings lives inform us, that the Pagan and firſt Chriſtian Emperors, Kings, in all or moſt Kingdomes, were not Crowned or Conſecrated Emperors or Kings by Prieſts, Archflamines, Popes, Patriarchs, Archbiſhops, Biſhops or Clergymen, but only by themſelves, or their Predeceſſors, who aſſociated them in the preſent Government of their Empires, Kingdomes, or declared them to be their immediate ſucceſſors; or elſe by their Military Officers, Souldiers, Guards, or Nobles, by inveſting them with Imperial or Regal Ornaments, Robes, Scepter, or ſetting a Fillet, Diadem, or Crown of Gold upon their heads, with other Ceremonies, according to the uſage of their ſeveral Countries. But as for their Queens, they were uſually Crowned by the Emperors and Kings [b] themſelves with their own hands, not by any others.

I ſhall begin with the Coronations of the Chriſtian Roman Emperors of the Eaſt, and their Empreſſes, recorded in their Hiſtories. Upon the death of (1) Theodoſius the younger, Pulcheria promoted Marcianus though ancient to the Empire, upon condition to marry her; whereto he aſſenting, ſhe, Patriarcha & Senatu acceſſit, Imperatorem ſalutat, & Diademate cingit. After him Baſiliſcus being ſaluted Emperor, Zenonidem Auguſtali Corona ornat, & Marcum filium Cæſarem appellat, & tyrannico Edicto Concilium Chalcedonenſe abrogavit; which Decree the people enforced him to retract: The firſt Emperor crowned, or who had any Coronation Oath or Writing preſcribed him by the Patriarch of Conſtantinople, was (2) Anaſtaſius, who being elected Emperor by the Senate and Souldiers, about the year 486. Euphemius then Patriarch of Conſtantinople ſuſpecting him to be addicted to the Hereſie of Eutychius and the Manichees; thereupon would no wayes conſent to his Coronation, but peremptorily refuſed to Crown him, untill he ſhould deliver him a Writing under his hand, ratified with HIS OATH, wherein he ſhould plainly declare, that if he were crowned Emperor, he would maintain the true faith, and Synod of Chalcedon during his reign, and bring no novelty into the Church of God: Which Writing being aſſented to, drawen and ratified by his Oath, was delivered to Macedonius the Treaſurer to keep; and then the Patriarch Crowned him, quaſi jam tunc a Pontificibus Reges et Imperatores coronarentur, et eorum ſacro miniſterio Imperia ſuſciperent; as (3) Gilbertus Genebrardus obſerves. After which, the Emperor baniſhed Euphemius, deprived him of his Patriarchſhip, and made Macedonius Patriarch in his place; from whom he demanded his premiſed Hand-writing: For it is (ſaid he) a great diſcredit unto our Scepter, that our hand ſhould be kept to teſtifie againſt us, or that we ſhould be tyed to pen and paper. Which he refuſing to deliver up to him, ſaying, It ſhould never be reported by him, that he betrayed his faith: the Emperor likewiſe baniſhed and deprived Macedonius. ſo much was he exaſperated by the exacting of this Hand-writing and Oath from him at his Coronation. Platina and (4) ſome others write, that Pope Gelaſius the 1. excommunicated this Emperor, becauſe he favoured Hereticks and Acacius, who oppoſed his Supremacy; though others write, he only denyed communion with him; the firſt uſurpation of any Pope of this nature over an Emperor, which their ſucceſſors and Paraſites ſince, do much inſiſt on. The next Emperor I read of, Crowned by a Patriarch, was [b] Juſtinus the 2. crowned at Conſtantinople by Eutychius or John the Patriarch, Anno Chriſti 558. by bleſſing him, and ſetting the Crown upon his head, as Coryppus, and Eutropius inform us: which done Juſtin himſelf uxorem ſuam Sophiam nomine, et coronavit Auguſtam, as [c] Zonaras and Eutropius ſtory: Indeed [d] Anaſtaſius only, and [e] Baronius, with [f] Bernardinus Saccus out of him affirm, that Juſtinus the 1. was in the 5th year of his reign Crowned Emperor the ſecond time by by Pope John the 1. about the year of Chriſt 516. who repaired to him concerning the Arrian Hereſie, being formerly Crowned by John Patriarch of Conſtantinople, which ſeems improbable, becauſe no other Hiſtorians mention it; and [g] Johannes Zonaras expreſly writes of this Emperor, that falling ſick, morbique in ſpe vitæ dubia invaleſcente, Patriarcha Epiphanio & Primoribus advocatis, Juſtinianum Nepotem Imperatorem decernit, et ſuis manibus ejus Capiti Diadema imponit; according to ancient Cuſtome, though the Patriarch himſelf was preſent, which is obſervable, he receiving no other Coronation after his death. Hoc igitur facto, & cunctis convenientibus apud* Septimium, tunc Patriarcha Cyriacus a tyranno de orthodoxa fide, et ut ſine perturbatione ſerbaret Eccleſiam, EXTORSIT PROFESSIONEM, (as Eutropius ſtories.) Which profeſſion being made, ibi à Patriarcha Diademate ornatus, inde in Regiam ſe contulit, & quinta die Leontiam uxorem Auguſtam coronabit, (by ſetting the Crown upon her head as the Cuſtome then was, with his own hands.) This Uſurper contrary to his extorted profeſſion Anno 609. à Bonifacio Papa, rogatus, Phocas Imperator cum magna tamen contentione, ſtatuit, ut Eccleſia Romana eſſet aliarum Eccleſiarum magiſtra et domina. Which highly incenſed the Greek Patriarchs and Church againſt him. He at the inſtigation of Heraclius, being deſervedly ſlain for his tyranny by his own guards, Anno 613. [l] Heraclius à Sergio Patriarcha Cozonatus in Oratorio Sancti Stephani in palacio ſuo: Cozonata eſt etiam eodem die Eudochia ſponſa ejus in Auguſtam, et accepit uterque a Sergio Patriarcha Nuptiarum cozonas: & uno eodemque die Imperator ſimul et ſponſus oſtenditur, ſo Eutropius; or as Zonaras, ſtantem etiam Eudociam ſponſam diademate ornat: The next Coronation I finde, is that of [m] Stauratius, An 796. Nicephorus Imperator coronavit filium ſuum Stauratium per Tharaſium ſanctiſſimum Patriarcham in ambone majoris Eccleſiæ in Imperatorem. In all theſe and their ſucceſſors Coronations by the Patriarch, I find no mention at all of any anointing, Oath or promiſe made by any Greek Emperor to the Patriarch, to maintain the Churches liberties, Rites or Juriſdictions, but only the right faith; though they frequently by their Imperial power deprived, impriſoned, baniſhed many Patriarchs, and ſet up new in moſt of their places, reſtoring only ſome of them, as Zonaras, Cedrenus, Eutropius, Nicephorus, and the Magdeburgian Centuries record. to accept it, Arſenius Monachus (about the year 1262) Patriarcha creatus communi Pontificum ſententia & ſuffragio, Imperatoze maxime appzobante, et Pontificium illud ſuffragium (uti mozis eſt) confirmante, Imperatoz a Patriarcha unctus et diademate oznatus eſt; without any Oath, promiſe or Charter mentioned in the Greek Hiſtorians. This Emperor falling into a deadly ſickneſs, Moriens, Muzalonem, [c] cum Patriarcha Curatorem Imperii reliquit, donec filius Joannes ſextum tunc agente annum ad maturam ætatem adveniſſet: This Patriarch and Muzalo (generally hated by the Nobles) to ſecure the perſon of their pupil, and Muzalo from danger, cauſed the Nobles to take two Oathes one after another; the laſt whereof (more ſacred than the former) was in this form. Iurant omnes tàm Nobiles quam ex plebe militari; ſibique ac familiæ ſuæ quilibet exitium imprecantur, ni quod juraſſent, ſanctè ſervarent, ac Muzaloni tutelam, Imperatozis vero filio Imperium inſidiarum expers, et inviolatum, ad omnem ejus poſteritatem tuerentur. Within few dayes after at the Emperors funeral, the Soldiers entring the Temple with drawn Swords, barbarouſly ſlew Muzalo who fled to the holy table, with others of his adherents, and ſo terrified the Patriarch, that he reſigned the cuſtody of John, to Michael Palæologus, till he ſhould come to age: who aſpiring after the Empire, tum honoris cauſa populi Romani, tum etiam ad ſtatum interregni firmandum, Deſpotæ titulo ornatur, tam a Patriarcha, quam a filio Imperatozis: Soon after, viri auctoritate & nobilitate præſtantes circa Magneſiam clypeo inſidentem Michaelem Palæologum, Imperatozem appellant. Quo Patriarcha Arſenius audito, vehementer perturbatus, puero metuebat: ac primum in animo habuit, tam eum qui appellatus eſſet Imperatoz, quam qui appellaſſent, ſacris interdicere. Deinde mutato conſilio, moderatius & melius eſſe ratus eſt, eos ſancto jureſurando aſtringere, ne vel pueri vitæ inſidientur, vel de Imperio illi per dim aut fraudem eripiendo cogitent; itaque factum eſt Calendis Decembris. Sed priuſquam menſis elaberetur, iis ipſe qui hac timuerat, & illa ipſa pro ſecuritate pueri egerat, ſuis manibus, in ſacro ſuggeſtu Michaelis Palæolgi capiti cozonam imponit, et Imperatozio diademate virum oznat, ſententiis Senatus & ſacri ordinis impulſus. Cæterum non perpetuum illi decernit imperium, ſed quod tum rebus ità cogentibus, id ab eo adminiſtrandum eſſet, donec legitimus illius hæres & ſucceſſor adoleviſſet: tùm vero illi ſoli cedendum eſſe ultro & ſolio Regio, & omnibus Imperii inſignibus. Atque hæc ſanctioze jureſurando quam pzius firmabit: Poſt hæc Arſenius relicta ſede Patriarcha, ſe in maritimum Paſchatii Monaſteriolum quieſcendi cauſa contulit: Cauſa illius receſſus fuit Joannis contemptus. Whoſe eyes being ſoon after burnt out by Palæologus to make him uncapable of the Empire; thereupon after many complaints Arſenius Palæologum ſacris interdicit: who patiently endured his cenſure for ſome ſpace to pacifie the Patriarch; but not complying with him, he thereupon impeached him of ſeveral crimes, deprived him of the Patriarchſhip, baniſhed him, and promoted Germanus to the Patriarchſhip: who not long after deſerting it, upon the clamors of the people, that he uſurped the See living Arſenius, the Emperor made Joſeph Patriarch in his ſtead: by whoſe adviſe, to ingratiate himſelf with the people, and expiate his ſinnes, Imperator Michael, cum Patriarcha primum ſacrificium in Eccleſia cum cæteris Pontificibus peragiſſet, ante veſtibulum ſacri ſuggeſtus proſtratus, duo ſua peccata, perjurium, et illi Imperatozis execcationem pzofitetur, ſibique condonari petit. Primus igitur Patriarcha illi jacenti aſtans, condonationis ſingraphum quandam, ac poſt eum Pontifices ſuo quiſque ozdine eandem recitarunt. Ita lætus diſcedit Imperator tàm ob illam condonationem, quam quod Deum etiam ſibi placatum & reconcilatum exiſtimabat, though he reſtored not the Crown to the right heir, whoſe eyes he thus put out. From whence I ſhall obſerve, 1. That this uſurping of the Empire by this perjured Emperor, was the ground of the Patriarchs impoſing a New Oath upon him at his Coronation. 2ly. That his perfidious violation of this Oath, encouraged the Patriarch to excommunicate him. 3ly. That this excommunication was the occaſion of this Patriarchs deprivation and baniſhment by this uſurper. 4ly. That this Uſurper to ingratiate himſelf with the people and Prelates, made a publike confeſſion of his perjury, and crime in putting out the eyes of the right heir, and received publike abſolution both from his crime and ſentence thereupon, by a Writing made under the new Patriarchs and Biſhops hands.

After

After which this perjured Uſurper about the year 1270. to ſecure the Empire to himſelf and his poſterity, [d] Andronico filio ſuo Annam Pannoniam deſponſavit, ſimulque illum inſignibus Imperii ornat, in his life time, and for ſecuring his own life, Empire, and priviledges of the Greek Patriarchs, Clergy, (to induce them to crown him without oppoſition) he preſcribed his ſon this Coronation Oath by the Patriarchs adviſe. Cum Andronicus inſignibus Imperii à patre Michaele Palæologo ornaretur, ipſe patri jurat, ſe Det Eccleſiam pie veneraturum, ejuſque privilegia modis omnibus culturum, et inviolata conſervaturum eſſe: (A Clauſe never inſerted into the Oath, Writing, promiſe of any precedent Emperor) Poſtea, ſe bitam et Imperium patris ſui expertem inſidiarum uſque ad ejus obitum pro viribus conſervaturum. His peractis, omnis Romanus populus uſitatum juſjurandum Andronico novo Imperatori dedit. Patriarcha vero et Collegium Sacerdotum juſjurandum ſuum præſcriptum, in ſacros codices retulerunt: ſe et ſucceſſores ſuos, ejus Imperio non eſſe inſidiaturos, profitentes. Pater autem permiſit, edictis ſubſcribere rubris literis, cæterum ſine menſe & indictione: ſed, Andronicus, Chriſti gratia Imperator Romanorum.

Soon after this Oath preſcribed and taken, [e] Charles King of Italy, and Earl Baldwin, raiſing great forces to beſiege Conſtantinople, and unite the Empire thereof to that of Germany, by the Popes inſtigation; to prevent this danger Palæologus the elder ſent Embaſſadors to Pope Gregory, to mediate an accord between the Greek and Roman Churches; Cujus hæc tria Capita fuerunt; Primum, ut in ſacrorum voluminum Pſalmodiis Papæ, cum quatuor Patriarchis mentio fieret. Alterum, ut liceret cuivis Romam veterem, quæ Curia major et perfectior eſt, appellare. Tertium, ut illi Principatus in omnibus deferretur. Which agreement was ſo much oppoſed by the Patriarch Joſeph, that he deſerted his See, and the Colledge of the Prieſts mutinied the people againſt him: whom he could not pacifie by his perſwaſions, nor yet by impriſonments, exiles of Becas, & other Patriarchs, Biſhops, Prieſts who obſtinately oppoſed this accord; which rendred him ſo odious, that, poſt obitum Græcorum Imperatorem Palæologum ſacra arcent Sepulturæ Conſtantinopolitani Sacerdotes, quod Romanæ Eccleſiæ ſententiam in Concilio Lugdunenſi amplexus eſſet; whereupon he was privately buried in the night by his ſons command procul à caſtris, vix plebeia ſepultura, multa terra obrutus, id ſolum cavens, ne à feris diſcerperetur. After which, the Patriarchs of Conſtantinople grew ſo rebellious and refractory againſt the Emperors, that they were either baniſhed, deprived by them, or reſigned their Patriarchſhips when they could not have their wills. Whereupon they made choyce of aged, ſimple, and illiterate perſons to be Patriarchs, who through ignorance and ſimplicity were moſt apt to obey them, [g] ut dicto eis obedientes ſint tanquam mancipia et nullo ipſis verbo reſtragentur; no Oath at all (for ought I find) being impoſed on the ſucceeding Emperors, whether crowned in their Fathers or Grandfathers life, or after their deaths; witneſſe the [h] Coronation of Michael Palæologus the ſonne of Andronicus 4. Moreover it is obſervable, that in the form of the Coronation of he Greek Emperors collected by [y] Johannes Cantachuzenus about the year 1330. (afterwards Emperor himſelf) ſeconded by Codinus, and printed in [z] Mr. Selden, there is no mention of any Oath, condition or promiſe at all made by the Emperor at his Coronation to the Patriarch, relating to the Churches or Clergies priviledges or Liberties; only Patriarcha in formam Crucis VERTICEM Imperatoris, ſacro unguento perluit, & elato voce addit, Sanctus: Quod ſi adeſt Imperator antea coronatus, cum Patriarcha novo Imperatori coronam imponit, & exclamat Patriarcha, dignus, &c. Tum deſcendit de ambone Imperator, & paratam ibi Coronam à propinquis, aut Eunuchis, eam ſimiliter tenentibus, uxoris capiti imponit (according to their ancient Cuſtome, not the Patriarch) quæ maritum Imperatorem adorans, ità ſe illi ſubjectam profitetur. Hoc igitur modo Imperator Conjugem ſuam coronat. Si antea Corona ipſe indutus fuit, inter ſacra nuptiarum id facit. After which follow ſome prayers, without any Oath or promiſe exacted from him by the Patriarch, to prevent all ſuch Uſurpations over the Emperors by their Patriarchs, as ſome of them exerciſed, and Popes uſurped by degrees over the German Emperors by their Coronations.

The

The Cuſtome of Crowning the German Emperors, and anointing them on the Crowns of their heads at firſt, like the Roman, (ſince tranſlated by Pope Innocent the Third to their ſhoulders or armes,) [z] was derived to them from the Greeks, as Onuphrius, and Mr. Selden inform us.

The firſt Emperor Crowned in Rome by any Pope, was [a] Charles the Great, Anno Chriſti 800. crowned by Leo the Third (after his purgation upon Oath on the Holy Evangeliſts made before Charles, as his reſtorer, and Soveraign Judge of the Crimes objected againſt him,) cuncto Romano populo acclamante, Carolo Auguſto A DEO coronato (originally, but only miniſterially by the Pope) Magno et pacifico Imperatori Romanorum, vita et victoria. Poſt quas laudes, unctus oleo ab Apoſtolico in templo Sancti Petri, à CAPITE uſque ad pedes, et circundans Imperatoria veſte atque Corona 8 Kal. Januarii, Indictione nona, antiquorum jure Principum, ab eo adoratur, (not the Pope by him) et ablato Patricii nomine, Imperator & Auguſtus appellatur; without any Oath, Promiſe, homage, fealty or ſubjection then made by him to the Pope, or Roman Church; But on the contrary, Charles then received from this Pope, a Priviledge to elect and inveſt both the Pope, and all Archbiſhops, and Biſhops in his Empire, as [b] Ludovicus Pius his Sonne did, An. 815. and the Emperor Otho the 1. An. 964. who depoſed Pope John the 13. expelled Benedict, (ſet up by the Romans without his licenſe) created, and afterwards reſtored Leo the 8. who confirmed this priviledge, and Crowned him Emperor. Yea Henry the 5th, (though ſet up by Popes in his depoſed Fathers ſtead, by tyranny, war, rebellion, for defence of this Priviledge of Inveſtitures) when he came to Rome to be Crowned by Pope Paſchal the 2d. not only received [c] a new Charter of the premiſed Priviledges granted to Charles the Great, from this Pope and his Cardinals, ſubſcribed with their hands, ſeals, and ratified by their ſolemn Oathes; but likewiſe refuſed to take any corporal Oath to them to confirm his Covenants and agreement, upon their releaſe out of Priſon; dicens, Imperatorem nemini jurare debere, cum juramentorum ſacramenta ab omnibus ſunt ibi adhibenda; as [d] Hermoldus expreſly records. Which proves this Oath of Fealty which Gratian inſerts into his [e] Decrees, as made by the Emperor Otho to Pope John before his comming into Rome to be crowned, to be an Impoſture, ſince mentioned by no old Hiſtorians, yea contradicted by Othoes depoſing John, ſetting up another in his ſtead, and the new Priviledge of Inveſtitures granted him by Leo at his Coronation; Juramentum Ottonis quod fecit Domino Papæ Joanni. Tibi Domino Joanni Papæ ego Rex Otto promitto et jurare facio, per Patrem, & Filium, & Spiritum ſanctum, & per lignum hoc vivificæ crucis, & per has reliquias Sanctorum, quod ſi permittente Domino Romam venero, ſanctam Romanam Eccleſiam et te rectorem ipſius exaltabo, ſecundum meum poſſe; et vitam aut membra nunquam, neque ipſum honorem quem habes, mea voluntate, aut meo conſilio, aut meo aſſenſu, aut mea exhortatione perdes. Et in Roma nullum placitum aut ordinationem faciam de omnibus quæ ad te aut ad Romanos pertinent, ſine tuo conſilio; Et quicquid de terra ſancti Petri ad noſtram poteſtatem perdenerit tibi reddo, et cuicumque Italicum regimen commiſero jurare faciam illum, ut adjutor tui ſit ad defendendum terram ſancti Petri ſecundum ſuum poſſe. This Oath though forged, with ſome new Additions to it, Popiſh Canoniſts, Advocates hold the Emperor ought to take to the Pope, as bound thereto not only out of reverence, and ſpiritual devotion to the Pope and Church of Rome, whom he ought by natural right to defend, but as an Oath of Fealty, as being the Popes Vaſſal and inferiour, from whom he receives and holds his Crown; Upon which ground he ought to kiſſe the Popes feet, lye proſtrate before him when crowned, ſerve him as his Subdeacon, yea hold his ſtirrop, and then lead his horſe by the bridle for ſome ſpace, as you may read in [f] Dr. Marta, and others quoted by him; whoſe Arguments [g] Antonius de Roſellis (a learned Lawyer under the Emperors Sigiſmund and Frederick the 3.) recites, and then refutes in a ſpecial Chapter, to which I refer you. What Oathes of fealty and allegiance Popes have ſince extorted from the German Emperors at their Coronations, [1] by depriving thoſe who oppoſed their uſurpations by tumults and wars raiſed againſt them, and ſetting up Uſurpers in their ſteads,) will appear by theſe 2. Verſes engraven by the inſolent Pope Innocent the 2. on the walls of his Palace in Rome, after he had crowned [h] Lotharius Emperor.

Rex venit ante fores, jurans prius Urbis honores;
Poſt homo fit Papæ, ſumit quo dante Coronam.

I ſhall only obſerve, that [i] Popiſh Canoniſts, and Romiſh Doctors from the Popes Coronation of Emperors and Kings, argue his abſolute Spiritual and Temporal Monarchy over them, as their Soveraign Lord; becauſe they receive their Crowns and unction from him. A meer ridiculous conſequence, becauſe as they are both real and actual Emperors, Kings, before and without their Coronations, ſo Popes and Prelats are but their [k] meer Miniſterial Officers therein, to anoynt and ſet their Crowns upon their heads, when, where, and by what Biſhops they pleaſe to appoint, (as the Nobles are who carry their Imperial Robes, Crowns, Swords, Scepters, and perform other Services at their Coronations,) as they likewiſe are when they baptize, marry them, not their Lords: elſe if this Argument holds firm, the Cardinals who elect, conſecrate, crown the Pope himſelf, and his Confeſſor who abſolves him, muſt be his Lords Paramount both in his Spiritual and Temporal pretended Monarchy; and every Biſhop who conſecrates his Metropolitan, muſt thereby become his Soveraign, and abſolved from all ſubjection to him; which will prove fatal to the Popes Supremacy, and to Patriarchs, Metropolitans, Archbiſhops Hierarchies. All Pontificians therefore muſt renounce this Argument, and ſubſcribe to the reſolution of [l] Thomas Waldenſis, (a great ſtickler for the Pope, Biſhops, yet ingenuous in this particular.) Quanquam miniſterio Epiſcoporum ſolennitates adhibentur Regibus unctionis, jusjurandi, fidei et coronæ, non tamen habet Regia illa dignitas ortum a Sacerdotio, quanquam per Miniſterium Sacerdotis habeta Deo; ſicut nec ordinatus quiſquam habet ordinationis ortum a Præſule, aut Sacramentum Euchariſtiæ a Sacerdote quolibet celebrante; ab homine enim eſt ſolennitatis miniſterium, Deus vero ſolus largitur efficium: not the Pope or Biſhops.

I ſhall now paſſe from the Emperors to the Kings of France. After Charles the Great and Ludovicus Pius, were anointed Emperors by Popes at Rome, for defending them and that Church againſt their enemies, and declared it to be their duty, [m] ut defenſio, et exaltatio vel honor Sanctæ Dei Eccleſiæ congruus maneat, et pax et juſtitia in omni generalitate populi magis confirmetur; the Kings of France who were no Emperors, began to be crowned by their own Biſhops, who thereupon contrived and impoſed an Oath upon them at their Coronations, to advance their own Prelacy and Canons; which Oath, as [n] Peter de Marca Archbiſhop of Paris obſerves, ea mente eiſque verbis olim ita conceptum fuit, ut Reges tempore inaugurationis ſuæ, CUSTODIAM CANONUM ſubditis ſuis promitterent, Quod eo pertinebat, ut ſponderent nec a ſe violandos Canones, nec ab aliis. Extat illius Sacramenti antiqua formula, quod Philippus 1. patre Henrico Rege ſuperſtite, ac illius auctoritate præſtitit, anno 1059.

Ego Philippus, Deo propitiante, mox futurus Rex Francorum, in die ordinationis meæ promitto coram Deo & ſanctis ejus, quod unicuique de vobis et Eccleſiis vobis commiſſis CANONICUM PRIVILEGIUM, et debitam legem atque juſtitiam conſervabo, et defenſionem quantum potero (adjubante Domino) adhibebo, ſicut Rex in ſuo Regno, unicuique Epiſcopo et Eccleſiæ ſibi commiſſæ, per rectum exhibere debet. Populo quoque Nobis credito diſpenſationem legum in ſuo jure conſiſtentium, noſtra authoritate conceſſurum.

Hujus formulæ rotiora verba (adds Marca) tranſcripta ſunt ex ea quæ Hincmarus Remenſis Archiepiſcopus a ſe conceptam Ludovico Balbo Caroli Calvi filio porrexerat, cum Regnum Compendii ſuſcepturus ungeretur Anno 877. Sponſio autem illa [o] Ludovici excerpta eſt à Capitulis quæ [p] Carolus Calvus eodem Anno apud Cariſiacum *ſtatuerat. I ſhall not inſiſt upon the Unctions or *Coronations of the Kings of Jeruſalem, Spaine, Hungary, Denmarke, Sweden, Poland, Norway, Sicily, Scotland, or their Coronation Oathes, which were not ab origine, but came in by degrees in later ages, by the Practiſe of their Biſhops, to advance their Juriſdiction and Power over them, as their Vaſſals; witneſſe this Magiſterial reſolution of s Martinus Laudenſis, t Dr. Marta, and other Canoniſts, Omnes Reges qui unguntur ab Eccleſia, ſunt Vaſſalli Eccleſiæ; ergo idem dicendum eſt de Imperatore; & nullus eſt Regum qui non ſit ſubditus Romanæ Eccleſiæ. When theſe forraign Kings began to make any Corporal Oathes to Popes or their Metropolitans at their Coronations, I cannot certainly determine, only it is obſervable, that the Kings of Sicily (claimed by Popes as St. u Peters Patrimony, and thereupon uſually crowned by them) never uſed to take any Corporal Oath upon any occaſion, by the Cuſtom of that Kingdom; therefore not at their Coronations, as is evident by this Epiſtle of William King of Sicily to our x King Henry the 2d. Anno 1176. in anſwer to the requeſt of his Meſſengers, Qui & poſtulaverunt inſtantius, (to confirm a Mariage-contract between his daughter and this King with his Corporal Oath) ut idem manu propria juraremus : Quod quia regni noſtri ſemper, et noſtris fuit progenitoribus inſuetum PERSONALITER JURARE, non duximus expedire. Quare tradicti nuncii veſtri quæſierunt, ut ſicut ab honorabilibus perſonis feceratis illud in anima veſtra jurari, ſic et nos ſimiliter in anima noſtra fieri faceremus. Nos equidem, et quod a noſtris nunciis in veſtra præſentia conſtitutis ſuper conceſſione matrimonii ex parte noſtra juratum eſt, ratihabitione firmamus, et quod vobis præſentibus in anima veſtra juratum eſt, grato aſſenſu recepimus, ac ſi manu propria juraſſetis, cum unum et idem putemus Sacramentum quod vel manu propria fit, vel in anima jubentis et præſentis juratur. If then the Kings of Sicily never uſed in that or former ages to make or ſubſcribe any Corporal Oath with their own hands; Whereupon this King refuſed, though importuned to ratifie this marriage agreement with ſuch an Oath, ſubmitting only, that his proxies ſhould ſwear for him on his Soul, as King Henries likewiſe did, it is certain they then never made any perſonal Oath to the Pope, or their Metropolitans at their Coronations; and probably very few Kings elſe, till ſucceeding ages.

in regem magnifice erexerunt, one of the firſt Kings crowned by our Biſhops. Leland writes, that he ſaw the form of his Crown in his Seal, repreſented to us in [i] Mr. Selden, and Speeds Hiſtory, An. 537. King Arthur after all his foreign Victories returning into Britain in triumph, reſolved to be new CROWNED at Caerleon on the feaſt of Pentecoſt. The form and ſolemnity of his ſecond and his Queens Coronation too, (the firſt of this kind, if real) is thus related by [k] Geoffry Monmouth. Cum igitur ſolennitas Pentecoſtes advenire inciperet, poſt tantum triumphum maxima lætitia fluctuans, Arturus affectavit Curiam ilico tenere in urbe Legionum, regnique Diadema capiti ſuo imponere. Wherupon, inviting and ſummoning by his Meſſengers all the Kings, Dukes, Nobles, and Metropolitans ſubject to him, there appeared 12 Kings, ſundry Dukes, Conſuls, Nobles from all quarters (whoſe names he recites) Trium etiam Metropolitanarum ſedium Archipræſules, Londonienſis videlicet, Eboracenſis, necnon ex urbe Legionum Dubritius. Hic Britanniæ Primas, & Apoſtolicæ ſedis Legatus (if we may credit him) tanta religione clarebat, ut quemcunque languore gravatum ſuis orationibus ſanaret. Omnibus denique in urbe congregatis, ſolennitate inſtante, Archipræſules ad palatium ducuntur, ut Regem diademate regali coronarent. Dubricius ergò, quoniam in ſua dioceſi Curia tenebatur, paratus ad celebrandum obſequium, hujus rei curam ſuſcepit. Rege tandem inſignito, ad templum Metropolitanæ ſedis ornatè conducitur: à dextro enim & à levo latere, duo Archipontifices ipſum tenebant. Quatuor autem Reges, Albaniæ atque Cornubiæ, Demetiæ & Venedociæ, quorum illud jus fuerat, quatuor aureos gladios ferentes ante ipſum, præibant. Conventus quoque multimodorum ordinatorum, miris modulationibus præcinebat. Ex alia autem parte Reginam ſuis inſignibus laureatam, Archipræſules atque Pontifices ad templum Deo dicatarum puellarum conducebant. Quatuor quoque prædictorum Regum Reginæ quatuor albas columnas de more præferebant. Mulieres autem quæ aderant illam quam maximo gaudio ſequebantur. Poſtremò peracta proceſſione, tot organa, tot cantus fiunt in utriſque templis, ita ut pro nimia dulcedine milites qui aderant neſcirent quod templorum prius peterent. Catervatim ergò nunc ad hoc, nunc ad illud ruebant, nec ſi totus dies celebrationi deditus eſſet, tædium aliquod ipſis generaret. Divinis tandem obſequiis in utroque celebratis, Rex et Regina diademata ſua deponunt, aſſumptiſque levioribus ornamentis, ille ad ſuum palacium cum viris, hæc ad aliud cum mulieribus exaltata incedunt. I omit the reſidue of this ſolemnity, wherein I obſerve no ſolemn Unction or form of Prayers, or ſetting the Crown on the Kings head in the Church, but only in his Palace, mentioned in this ſolemnity, without any Oath adminiſtred to him. [l] An. 540. Mordredus Arthuri Nepos (in his abſence) cui idem Arthurus Britanniæ regnum commiſit, per tyrannidem et proditionem Diademate ipſius ſeſe fecerat inſigniri. An. 542. Rex Arthurus de vita deſperans, Conſtantino cognato ſuo Britanniæ conceſſit Diadema. After whoſe death, Anno 545. Aurelius Conanus, per omnia Diademate dignus, niſi civilis belli fuiſſet amator, regnum obtinuit, by force, treachery and tyranny, impriſoning his Uncle who ought to have reigned, and murdering his two ſonnes. After which as [m] Gildas our antienteſt Britiſh Hiſtorian, (who writ about the year 564. or ſoon after,) complains and relates. UNGEBANTUR REGES non per Deum, ſed qui cæteris crudeliores extarent, & paulo poſt ab UNCTORIBUS, non pro veri examinatione trucidabantur, aliis electis truncioribus, &c. Reges habet Britannia, ſed TYRANNOS; which paſſage is recited verbatim by *Galfr. Whence ſome conceive our Britiſh Kings were anointed when crowned, and that ſometimes by their Archbiſhops, or Biſhops; other times by their Nobles, who ſoon after murthered, and ſucceeded them; rather as Tyrants then Kings. After many Civil Wars and Uſurpations between the Britiſh Tyrants, and Saxon invaders, about the year 603. [n] Cadwin by the unanimous conſent of all the Princes and Nobles of the Britons aſſembled together at Legeceſter, was elected and made King of the Britons; Inſignito illo regni Diademate. He conquering the Saxons; thereupon regabat Cadwinum Edwinus, ut ſibi Diadema habere liceret; ut advenæ Saxones, quiſquis proditores ejus extiterant, in uno cum illo Regio Diademate incipiant inſigniri. Which his Counſellors refuſed to aſſent unto; aiebant enim, Contra jus, veterumque traditionem eſſe, Inſulam UNIUS CORONÆ DUOBUS CORONATIS SUBMITTI DEBERE; Cadwallo after him [o] Quendam ſolemnitatem Pentecoſtes Diadema Britanniæ portando celebravit, where univerſi Anglorum Reges præter Oſwinum ſolùm adeſſent;

Of his or Cadwalladers the two laſt Britiſh Kings Unctions, there is no expreſs mention in our Hiſtorians, of any Coronation Oath, or promiſe made by them or any Britiſh King, much leſſe to maintain the Churches or Clergies Liberties.

As for our firſt Saxon Kings who expelled the Brittons, and by their ſwords erected their ſeveral kingdoms, there is no mention of their Coronations or Unctions in Beda, Florentius Wygornienſis, Simeon Dunelmenſis, Henry Huntindon, or other of our antient Hiſtorians. The firſt of our Saxon Kings preſented to us with a Diadem, is Aidulf King of the Eaſt-Angles, about the year 674. After him, upon the expulſion of Beorred King of Mercia for his Tyranny, Offam [p] in Regem tam Clerus quam populus coronavit, An. 758. who ſtamped a Crown on his coyns; whoſe ſucceſſors uſed ſeveral forms of Crowns till the Conquerors time; which you may view in Speeds Hiſtory, and Mr. [q] Seldens Titles of Honor. The firſt Saxon King we read to be anoynted, was Egbert, about the year 790. whom his father King Offa, loving his eaſe, [r] ante mortem ſuam in Regem inunctum ſucceſſorem dimiſit. Ille ſedulo paternæ immanitatis veſtigia declinans; privilegia omnium eccleſiarum, quæ ſeculo ſuo genitor attenuaberat (by ſevering all the Biſhopricks in his Kingdom from the See of Canterbury) prona devotione rebocavit; Prædium quoque quod Pater Malmesburiæ abſtulerat, reddidit in manus Cuthberti tunc illius loci Abbatis, hortatu Athelardi Archiepiſcopi Cantuariæ, ſtrenui ſanè & Deo digni viri; moſt likely at his anoynting him King; as the coherence of the ſtory intimates, he living but 4. moneths after. Anno 854. Æthelwlfus Rex filium ſuum Ælfredum (being but 5. years old) magno nobilium & etiam ignobilium numero conſipatum, maximiſque muneribus honorifice Romam tranſmiſit, quo tempore Dominus Leo Papa 4. Apoſtolicæ ſedi præerat; qui præfatum infantem Æthelredum oppido ordinans, UNXIT IN REGEM, (ſui patris rogatu) & in filium adoptionis ſibimet accipiens, confirmavit; as [s] Aſſerius Menevenſis his Tutor, [t] Simeon Dunelmenſis, (who adds, & ad patriam atque ad Patrem cum benedictione Sancti Petri Apoſtoli direxit) [u] Florentius Wygornienſis, [x] Radulphus de Diceto, [y] Johannis Bromton, and others out of them relate. [z] William Malmesburienſis writing of his advancement to the Crown, An. 872. after Æthelwlfus death, records, Ælfredus filius Æthelwulphi junior, qui unctionem Regiam et Coronam a Papa Leone olim Romæ ſuſceperat, ut prædiximus, regnum accepit; without any new Unction or Coronation that wee read of. [a] Matthew Weſtminſter ſtories, Anno Chriſti 854. Rex magnificus Occidentalium Saxonum Æthelwulphus, cum honore maximo Romam profectus, duxit ſecum Ælfredum filium ſuum juniorem, quem cæteris omnibus plus dilexit, ut à Papa Leone moribus pariter & Religione informaretur ibidem (which Florentius Wygornienſis, and the premiſed Hiſtorians referr to the year next after his premiſed miſſion thither, and Unction) ubi cum anno integro Rex cum filio demoratus fuiſſet, fecit filium ſuum ibi a Papa in Regem coronari; atque ad patriam rediens; exorta eſt contra Regem prædictum quorundam Magnatum conſpiratio, ita quod facta conſpiratione ab Æthelbaldo filio Regis primogenito, & Sciriburnenſi Epiſcopo Alſtano, cum Eandulfo Somerſatenſis pagi Comite, quod à Roma repatrians nunquam reponeretur in regnum. Cauſa una erat, quod filium minorem Ælfredum, quaſi aliis à regni ſorte excluſis, in Regem Romæ fecerat coronari; Whereupon he divided his Realm between himſelf and his eldeſt ſonne Æthelbald. Our elegant Hiſtorian [b] Aelredus Abbas Rievallu informs us, that this King, Ælfredum filium ſuum minorem miſit Romam, ut ſanctiſſimorum Apoſtolorum precibus commendaretur, & à Summo Pontifice benediceretur. Venerabilis autem Summus Sacerdos Leo vultum & ſtatum pueri contemplans, cum in eo divinæ præſentiam majeſtatis ſcintillantium virtutum indiciis perſenſiſſet, tempus & ætatem regnandi Regiæ unctionis Sacramento præbeniens, ſicut quondam ſanctus Samuel puerum David, ita eum in Regem ſanctiſſimus Præſul devotiſſime conſecrabit. Verum poſtmodum cum Patre Romam repetens, paternorum honorum in omnibus cooperator & adjutor eſſe promeruit. To which he ſubjoynes of King Edward, A famoſiſſimo quippe & chriſtianiſſimo Rege Aluredo omnium Regum Angliæ ſanctus Leo Papa in ipſa urbe Roma conſecravit et unxit in Regem, generatione ſextus. Hence [c] Johannes de Bromton writes, Regiam unctionem primus omnium Regum a Papa, ut ſcribitur, accepit. And [d] William Thorn in his Chronicle affirms, Iſte Elfredus fuit primus Rex Angliæ qui inunctus erat. Yet [e] Mr. Selden thinks this Unction was only at his Confirmation, and was miſtaken miſtaken for his Royal Unction at his Coronation, by all theſe Hiſtorians; (which is improbable) thoſe who were confirmed in that age being anoynted with holy Chriſme in the foreheads.

After this I find frequent mention of our Saxon Kings conſecrations at their Coronations by their own Metropolitans or Biſhops, but none of them by the Pope: for the very next year after, [c] An. 855. Eadmundus ex proſapia antiquorum Saxonum originem ducens, provinciæ Orientalium Anglorum culmen regiminis ſuſcepit, anno à nativitate ſua 13. ab omnibus regionis illius Magnatibus et populis Rex electus, et ad regimen multum renitens compulſus, ab Humberto Helmhamenſi Epiſcopo, in villa Regia quæ Bures nuncupatur, munus conſecrationis accepit, et coronatur.

[d] Anno 901. after King Alfreds death, Eadwardus ejus primogenitus, regni Angliæ diademate eſt inſignitus, conſecratus in Regem a Pleimundo Dorobernenſi Archiepiſcopo apud Kingeſtune; After his deceaſe, [e] Anno 940. Æthelſtanus, or Adelſtanus filius ejus primogenitus apud Kingeſtonam, Regiam Villam Rex creatus, ab Æthelmo Dorobernenſi Archiepiſcopo conſecratur. [f] Anno 945. Eadmundus Rex Anglorum conſecratus eſt ab Odone Dorobernenſi Archiepiſcopo apud Kingeſtune; after whoſe murder, An. 946. Eadredus frater ejus conſecratus eſt ab Odone Archiepiſcopo apud Kingeſtune, et regni Diadema ab eo ſuſcipit. An. 955. Succeſſit ei in regnum Eadwinus, Eadmundi Regis filius, & apud Kingeſtonam ab Odone Cant. Archiepiſcopo Regiam unctionem ſuſcepit; as Mat. Weſtminſter; or Rex conſecratus eſt, as others ſtory. [g] An. 973. Eadgarus Rex Anglorum Pacificus (in the 15. or rather 16. year of his reign, not before) Anno ætatis ſuæ 30. 5 Idus Maii die Pentecoſtes, à beatis Præſulibus Dunſtano & Oſwaldo, et à cæteris totius Angliæ antiſtitibus, præſentibus Magnatibus univerſis apud Akemanceſtre, or Civitate Acamanni, quæ hodiè Bathonia dicitur, Coronam poſtabit, et ibidem cum maximo honore benedicitur, conſecratur, et in Regem inungitur. After his deceaſe [h] Anno 975, there ariſing a conteſt which of his ſonnes ſhould ſucceed him, thereupon Archipræſules Dunſtanus & Oſwaldus cum Coepiſcopis, Abbatibus, Ducibuſque quamplurimis in unum convenerunt, et Eadwardum, (ut pater ejus præceperat) eligerunt, electum conſecrarunt, et in Regem unxerunt apud Kingeſtune. Upon his treacherous murder by his Mother-in-law to advance her ſonne, his Brother Æthelredus a ſanctis Præſulibus Dunſtano Cantuarienſi, & Oſwaldo Eboracenſi, & decem Epiſcopis die Dominica 8. Kal. Maii [i] Anno 979. in Kingſtona Regni diadema ſuſcepit, et ad regni faſtigium eſt conſecratus. All theſe conſecrations of our Saxon Kings were without any ſolemn Oath or promiſe made by them at their Coronations, to or before their Archbiſhops or Biſhops. Mr. [k] Selden hath printed an ancient Saxon Pontifical concerning the Ceremonies, Rites and Prayers uſed in the anoynting, and crowning of our Saxon Kings and Queens, made by their Biſhops much about this time, having no Coronation Oath or Interrogatories; many of which prayers, as well as the anoynting and crowning are ſtill retained, and yet uſed at the Coronations of our Kings and Queens.

King Æthelred deceaſing [l] Anno 1016, poſt multas hujus vitæ tribulationes, Canutus the Dane then invading and poſſeſſing a great part of the Realm: Poſt mortem ejus, Epiſcopi, Abbates, Duces, & quique Nobiliores Angliæ, & maxima pars Regni, tàm Clericorum quam Laicorum, in unum congregati, pari conſenſu, ad eum in Suthamptoniam venientes, in Dominum et Regem ſibi Canutum eligerunt, omnemq; progeniē Regis Æthelredi coram illo abnegando repudiantes, pacem cum eo compoſuerunt, et fidelitatem juraverunt: Quibus et ille JURAVIT, Quod et ſecundum Deum et ſecundum ſæculum fidelis eſſe vellet eis Dominus. This is the firſt ſolemn Coronation Oath I find made by any of our Kings, and that by a foreign invader, uſurper of the Crown, upon the abjuration of the Right heir, and Saxon royal Line by treacherous perfidious Biſhops, Abbots, Clergymen, Nobles, to eſtabliſh him and his poſterity in the Royal Throne. Cnute hereupon, after his pilgrimage to Rome, more advanced the Privileges of the Clergy then any of our former Kings, putting them only to their purgations for Capital crimes whereof they were accuſed before the Biſhops, the [m] original ground of exempting Clergymen from ſecular Juriſdiction for capital crimes, and of other incroachments in ſucceeding ages. At Cives Londonienſes, & pars Nobilium qui eo tempore conſiſtebant Londoniæ, Clitonem Eadmundum unanimo conſenſu in Regem lebavere, qui à Levingo Dorobornenſi Archiepiſcopo chiepiſcopo apud Londonias conſecratus eſt; without any Oath at all, like his predeceſſors, being right heir to the Crown; who ſoon after conquered Cnute in 5. ſet battles, and had probably for ever driven him and the Danes quite out of the Realm, had thoſe perfidious Prelates, Nobles, and others who revolted to, and Crowned Knute for their King, adhered to him, and thoſe Saxons who crowned him being their lawful King. After Cnutes deceaſe, [n] Harald his reputed Son, regni Angliæ diademate inſignitus eſt; without any mention of his Unction or Oath. He dying about 4. years after, An. 1040. Hardecnute then in Flanders, was ſent for by the unanimous conſent of the Nobles, as well Engliſh as Danes, as right heir to Cnute, ut ad Angliam veniret, Regni Diadema ſuſcepturus. Qui conſiliis Magnatum illico adquieſcens, æſtate media venit in Angliam, & gratanter ab omnibus ſuſceptus, ab Eadſio Cantuarienſi Archiepiſcopo in Regem eſt conſecratus, regnique ſolio mox ſublimatus, apud Londoniam, without any Oath.

After his ſhort reign, [o] Anno 1042. ejus frater Edwardus (ſtiled the Confeſſor) annuente Clero & populo Londoniis in Regem eligitur, & ab Archiepiſcopo Cantuarienſi Eadſio, & Eborac. I find Archbiſhop Stratford in his inſolent Epiſtle to King Edward the 1. (wherein he advanceth the Popes, Biſhops Authority, Canons, Conſtitutions, above the Crowns, Lawes, Cuſtomes of Kings and Emperors, who muſt ſubject their necks to them; and that Clergymen are not obnoxious to any Secular Powers, Judges, for Capital offences, but only to their Biſhops, by the Lawes of King Cnute) affirms, Sanctus etiam [p] Edwardus in regnum Angliæ ſublimatus, PRIUS JURAVIT, ſe Leges Canuti Regis inviolabiliter ſervaturum. And then aſſerts, that the Church was in poſſeſſion of the Liberties he contended for, tribus temporibus Regum diverſarum linguarum Inſulæ prædictæ, et præcipue et indubitanter tempore Sancti Edwardi; who ratified the Lawes of Knute. I muſt acknowledge, that in the Laws of [q] King Edward the Confeſſor, cap. 17. (not in Cnutes) I find this Law inſerted, De Regis Officio, & de Jure & appendiciis Coronæ regni Britanniæ. Rex autem, quia Vicarius ſummi Regis eſt, ad hoc eſt conſtitutus, ut regnum terrenum, & populum Domini, et ſuper omnia ſanctam veneretur Eccleſiam ejus, et regat, et ab injuriosis defendat, et maleficos ab ea ebellat, et deſtruat, et penitus diſperdat. Quod niſi fecerit, nec nomen Regis in eo conſtabit, verum teſtante Papa Joanne nomen Regis perdit, &c. (After which followes in a different Character, as an additional Appendix ſince annexed to this Law.) Debet verò de jure Rex omnes terras & honores, omnes dignitates, & jura & libertates Coronæ regni hujus in integrum cum omni integritate, et ſine diminutione obſervare, et defendere; diſperſa et dilapidata, et amiſſa regni jura in priſtinum ſtatum et debitum ſtatum omnibus rebocare, &c. Debet vero Rex Deum timere ſuper omnia et diligere, et mandata ejus per totum regnum ſuum ſervare. Debet etiam ſanctam Eccleſiam regni ſui cum omni integritate et libertate, juxta Conſtitutiones Patrum et prædeceſſorum ſervare, fovere, manutenere, regere, et contra inimicos defendere, ita ut Deus præ cæteris honoretur, et præ oculis ſemper habeatur. Debet etiam bonas leges, et conſuetudines approbatas erigere, prabas autem delere, et omnes a Regno deponere. Debet judicium rectum in regno facere, et juſtitiam per conſilium Procerum regni ſui tenere. Iſta vero debet omnia Rex in propria perſona, inſpectis et tactis ſacroſanctis Evangeliis, et ſuper ſacras et ſanctas reliquias coram regno, et Sacerdotio, et Clero JURARE, antequam ab Archiepiſcopis et Epiſcopis regni coronetur. From whence ſundry perſons have concluded, that King Edward the Confeſſor, yea all or moſt of our Saxon Kings before him at their Coronations, took ſuch an Oath as this Law mentions, before they were Crowned by the Archbiſhops and Biſhops; but finding no mention of any ſuch Oath preſcribed to him or his predeceſſors, in any of our ancient Hiſtorians, rians, and ſome Clauſes thereof being tranſcribed verbatim out of the Great Charter of King John, and Henry de Bracton, I cannot but eſteem it a figment of punier times, after ſuch Oathes impoſed on ſucceeding Kings by our Biſhops at their Coronations, to enlarge, ſupport their own and their Churches Juriſdictions, priviledges, beyond their antient limits.

As for the Coronation Oath mentioned in Bracton, viz.[r] That the King (of England) at his Coronation ought BY AN OATH taken in the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, to promiſe theſe 3. things to the people ſubject to him. Imprimis, ſe eſſe præcepturum, et pro viribus opem impenſurum, ut ECCLESIÆ DEI & omni populo Chriſtiano vera pax omni ſuo tempore obſervetur. Secundò, ut rapacitates, et omnes iniquitates, omnibus gradibus interdicat: Tercio, ut in omnibus judiciis æquitatem præcipiat & miſericordiam, & quod per juſtitiam ſuam firma gaudeant pace univerſi: without any Clauſe concerning King Cnutes Lawes, or defence of the Churches Liberties, it relates not to Edward the Confeſſors Law or Oath. It is very true, that the [f] Pope and Prelates taking advantage of this King Edwards extraordinary devotion and ſimplicity, encroached ſome more priviledges then they had before, eſpecially the Monaſteries of Weſtminſter and Ramſey, as his Charters to them demonſtrate; which he thus prefaced; [t] Summum Regibus et Principibus bonum eſt ſanctam Eccleſiam Dei exaltare et honorare, quia cum eam exaltant et honorant, cum ea, et in ea, et per eam exaltantur et honorantur; Which though true in a right ſence; yet not as abuſed, to the diminution of the Rights, Prerogatives, Revenues of the Crown, the Common Lawes of the Realm, or Laymens Liberties, or to advance the Prelates, Clergy above them, as their Lords paramount, who then engroſſed to themſelves alone, the Title of the Church, excluding the Laity, whereas this King included the Chriſtian Laity within the Title of the Church, as well as the Clergy.

But though Harold when Crowned King by Archbiſhop Alfred took no Coronation Oath, yet Florentius Wygornienſis ſtories of him, Qui ut regni gubernacula ſuſceperat, leges iniquas ſtatuere, æquas cæpit condere, Eccleſiarum et Monaſteriorum patronus fieri; Epiſcopos, Abbates, Monachos, Clericos, colere ſimul et venerari; to obtain their favour and aſſiſtance; he being as (a) Ingulphus, (b) William Malmesbury, (c) Ailredus Abbas, (d) Henry Huntindon, (e) *Mat. as (though a baſtard) near allied to Edward the Confeſſor, who deſigned him to be his heir and ſucceſſor, (his ſword proving more ſucceſsful than Harolds,) refuſed to be crowned by Stigand Archbiſhop of Canterbury, (whom he ſoon after deprived, impriſoned till his death,) but was crowned by Aldred Archbiſhop of Yorke, (though he conſecrated and crowned Harold King) who preſcribed him an Oath, as [o] Simeon Dunelmenſis, [p] Florentius Wygornienſis, [q] Roger de Hoveden, [r] Thomas Stubbs, and others thus relate. Ipſa Nativitatis die ab Aldredo Eboracenſium Archiepiſcopo apud Weſtmonaſt. in Regem totius Angliæ ſublimiter coronatum inunxit, et conſecrabit honorifice, prius (ut idem Archiepiſcopus ab eo exigebat) ante Altare Sancti Petri Apoſtoli, coram Clero et populo JURE JURANDO PROMITTENS, se belle Sanctas Eccleſias ac Rectores earum defendere, (which Clauſe occurrs not in any former Oath) necnon et cunctum populum ſibi ſubjectum juſte et regali prœvidentia regere; Rectam legem ſtatuere et tenere; rapinas, inſuſtaque judicia penitus amovere, or interdicere. The [t] Chronicle of Bromton thus relates the ſtory of his Coronation and Oath. Cumque Willielmus Dux Normanniæ, Conqueſtor Angliæ, tyranni nomen exhorreſceret; & nomen legitimi Principis induere vellet, à Stigando Cantuarienſi Archiepiſcopo in Regem petiit conſecrari; Ille verò, ut quidem dicunt, cruento viro, & alieni juris invaſori manus imponere formidans, nullatenus adquievit: undè licet ipſe Willielmus eundem Stigandum *ut noverat, multis modis blandè honoravit, ipſum tamen nunquam poſtmodum cordialiter amavit, &c. But this was no expreſſe clauſe in the Oath preſcribed him by Aldred at his Coronation, but in a ſubſequent Oath Anno 1072. This [z] Archbiſhop Aldred from his very Crowning and preſcribing this Coronation Oath to King William, grew ſo inſolent, and exerciſed ſuch authority over him, like a Father, ut cum ille cæteris imperaret, ab eo ſibi imperari æquanimiter ſineret. ent Right, Priviledge of Inveſtitures of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Abbots, per annulum et baculum; and publickly to renounce it, to the prejudice of his Succeſſors, in a * Council at London, Anno Dom. 1107. wherein, annuit Rex & ſtatuit, ut ab eo tempore in reliquum, nunquam per donationem baculi paſtoralis vel annuli, quiſquam de Epiſcopatu vel Abbatia per Regem vel quamlibet laicum manum Inveſtiretur in Anglia; to the great impairing of the Rights of his Crown, Nobles, the diſhonour of himſelf and his ſucceſſors, and grand advancement of the Popes and Prelates Juriſdictions. Moreover this priviledge of crowning our Kings, and preſcribing an Oath, Charter to King Henry when crowned, ſo puffed up Archbiſhop Ralph, (Anſelms next ſucceſſor) that at the ſolemn Coronation of his Queen Adeliſia, he imperiouſly commanded the King to pull off his Crown, and could hardly be perſwaded by the Nobles preſent not to pull, or ſtrike it off his head in a moſt arrogant manner, becauſe he or his predeceſſor had not ſet it thereon; thus related by [i] Matthew Parker his ſucceſſor, and others. Cum Rex poſt Pentecoſten Londinum rediens coronâ inſignitus in throno ſederet, et tum Regina conſecranda et coronanda eſſet, Rodulphus Archiepiſcopus tunc miſſam celebraturus, ſacris altaribus aſſitiſſet, advertit Regem ſedere in ſolio ſuo coronatum, & admiratus eſt; Sciens regni coronam ſe illi non impoſuiſſe, nec illam ab alio poſitam ſe præſente, jure ferre debuiſſe. Divertit igitur infulatus & ſui Patriarchatus ſtola redimitus ab altari, & ad Regem (quia abſente Anſelmo, à Thoma Eboracenſi Archiepiſcopo, in conſecratione Diadema impoſitum ei eſt) acceſſit. Cui accedenti Rex comiter aſſurrexit. Quæſivit Archiepiſcopus, quis ejus capiti Coronam impoſuiſſet? Ad quo Rex demiſſo vultu, Mea, inquit, haud refert, ideoque neque illius memini. At Archiepiſcopus atra bile percitus, inquit: Nullo id jure fecit, quiſquis ille fuerit: proinde aut tu a gerenda Corona ceſſabis, aut ego ab adminiſtranda miſſa, nec quamdiu capiti ſuo hoc modo inſederit, propoſiti negotii executor non exiſtam. Ad hæc Rex nihilò turbatus, vultu placido & modeſto reſpondit: Si, ut ais, hoc Diadema capiti meo non jure imponitur, tu id facias, quod juri cenſeas conſentaneum, ego non refragabor. Quo dicto, acceſſit propius Archiepiſcopus, manuſque ad Diadema Regis capiti detrahendum attollens, cum Rex etiam fibulam ſub mento ligatam, qua Diadema capiti vinciretur, ſolveret; Proceres, Regis modeſtiam, et Archiepiſcopi iracundiam admirantes, una voce in Archiepiſcopum ferebantur, inſtabantq; ne in tam ſolemni Reginæ coronatione Regi Diadema auferret. Quorum clamoribus actus Rodulphus vix eſt inflexus, quin Regiam coronam de capite Regis excuſſiſſet. Eadmerus, and Gervaſius Dorobornenſis write; Pontifex elevatis manibus ſuſtulit coronam de capite Regis. Quod hi qui circumſtabant intuentes, omnes clara voce Pontificem parcere, et Regio capiti Coronam remittere petiverunt. Adquievit ille, et mox juxta Regem Coronatum aſtans, Canticum Gloria in excelſis, exorſus eſt, & ſubſequentia, ut conſuevit, choro canente, miſſa illa quietè peracta eſt. Ex quo perſpici poſſit (writes Archbiſhop Parker) quam intempeſtive et impudenter lenitate Principis, illius generis homines abuſi ſunt, qui Monachali ſanctitate ſe digniores reliquis, et in Principes habere imperium putabant; by this pretended Right of Crowning them.

Upon the death of this Archbiſhop Ralph, his next ſucceſſor William Corbell, together with the reſt of the Biſhops advanced by this Kings favour, after his deceaſe, thinking that King Henry (though very indulgent to them) uſed himſelf not altogether for their purpoſe, and that they ſhould do God good ſervice in providing for the better advancement of the Church, if they might ſet up and create a King chiefly by their eſpecial means and authority, who would follow their Counſel better, and reform ſuch things as they judged amiſſe, (as [k] Raphael Holinſhed obſerves) contrary to their expreſſe Oathes to King Henry, and Maude his right heir (to crown her Queen after his deceaſe,) moſt perfidiouſly put her by the Crown, (as they did Robert his elder brother, when they crowned him in his ſtead) electing and Crowning Stephen his Nephew againſt his and their Oaths, for their King; Willielmus quoque Cant. Archiepiſcopus, qui primus Sacramentum fecerat Imperatrici de regno Angliæ, Stephanum (proh dolor, adds Hoveden) in Regem benedixit. The Solemnities and Prayers uſed at his and his Queens Coronation, are at large recorded in Gervaſius Tilburienſis his Chronica, col. 1587, 1588. to which I referr you. NEC (ſicut aiunt) A VOBIS EXACTA: (as this Pope writ to theſe Biſhops, for which he and Becket were much incenſed againſt them) Sed potius JURAMENTO ASSERITUR CONFIRMATUM, ut Regni conſuetudines antiquas, SUB QUIBUS DIGNITAS PERICLITATUR ECCLESIÆ, illibatæ debeant omni tempore obſervari. In quo etſi multum præſumpti Regis vehementia nos perturbat, amplius tamen de veſtra et aliorum Epiſcoporum veſtrorum poſſumus infirmitate moveri, qui quod dolendo dixim̃us, facti ſunt arietes non habentes cornua, &c. Noveritis itaque vos, tamdiu ab Epiſcopali officio, commiſſa Nobis a Deo auctoritate ſuſpenſos, donec ad ſedem Apoſtolicam, de tanto exceſſu ſatisfacturi, accedatis, niſi præfato Archiepiſcopo ita ſatisfacere curaveritis, ut pœnam iſtam ipſe judicet relaxandam. Theſe high affronts, (together with [u] Beckets inſolent Letter to the King, telling him; That by the Canon not Common Lawes, nor yet by the Secular power, but by the Biſhops and Prieſts, Almighty God would have the Clergy of the Chriſtian Church to be governed and ruled; that Chriſtian Kings ought to ſubmit all their doings unto Eccleſiaſtical Rulers, and not to preſerre themſelves; for it is written (in the Canon Law) That none ought to judge the Biſhops, but only the Church, neither doth it pertain to mans Law to give ſentence upon any ſuch; but many Biſhops have excommunicated Kings and Emperors, &c.) ſo highly incenſed [x] King Henry the 2d. againſt Pope Alexander, that by the adviſe of Gilbert Biſhop of London and others, he ſent expreſſe Meſſengers and ſolemn Letters to this Pope, in quibus expreſſe Domino Papæ denunciarent, quod niſi ſuperbiam Thomæ Cantuarienſis Archiepiſcopi ſeveritatis pede contereret; Ipſe, et omnes Barones Angliæ, cum viris Eccleſiaſticis ab ejus obedientia recederent: And the King was ſo extraordinarily enraged againſt Archbiſhop [y] Becket, that he was almoſt beſides himſelf; aſſerens, ſe ignobiles et ignavos homines nutriviſſe, quorum nec unus tot ſibi illatas injurias voluerit vindicare. Whereupon 4. of his Courtiers juramento ſe conſtrinxerunt, to reduce Becket to a dutifull ſubmiſſion to the King, by abſolving thoſe Biſhops excommunicated and ſuſpended for Crowning his ſonne; (unde videtur, quod et vellet Coronam de Capite tollere; as they told Becket,) or elſe to kill him; who refuſing to abſolve them upon the Kings Meſſage to, and their expoſtulations with him, they thereupon ſlew him as an incorrigible obſtinate Traytor, and Rebel to his Soveraign, though ſoon after Canonized, adored by the Pope and Clergy for a moſt glorious Saint and Martyr for the Liberties of Holy Church, whoſe blood was more effectual to ſave thoſe who prayed to him, then the blood of Chriſt himſelf.

From which paſſages, I ſhall obſerve theſe three particulars; 1. What a uſurped abſolute power Becket and the Archbiſhops of Canterbury claimed, in and by reaſon of their frequent Coronation of our Kings, that they muſt not be crowned but by what Biſhops they pleaſed, as a right belonging to them, the violation whereof, though by our Kings expreſſe commands in their abſence, demerited the ſevereſt Eccleſiaſtical cenſures. 2ly. Pope Alexanders and Beckets outragious indignation againſt the Archbiſhop of Yorke, and other Biſhops who crowned young King Henry, for not propoſing to, and exacting from him a Cautionary Oath at his Coronation, for the confirmation of the Churches Liberties, which they impoſed on and exacted from Henry the 1. and King Stephen, to the great derogation of the Churches honor and priviledges, but only this laudable, uſual Oath, perpetually to maintain the antient Conſtitutions and Liberties of the Kingdom, by which the pretended Liberties and Canons of the Church they contended for were endangered. 3ly. King Henry the 2. his great indignation, magnanimous Oppoſition and reſolution againſt theſe uſurpations and proceedings both of the Pope and Archbiſhops, as tending to his uncrowning, unkinging; threatning totally to renounce and caſt off both the Pope and Church of Rome, if they did not right him therein againſt Beckets inſolencies: and animating his Courtiers to kill him as an unſufferable, incorrigible Arch-Traytor, not worthy to breath any longer within his Dominions.

In this Kings Coronation (during whoſe reign the Pope and Prelates uſurped more, and greater Juriſdictions over his Perſon, Crown, Realm, than in all former Kings reigns, as [i] I have already evidenced) we may obſerve: Firſt, Archbiſhop Huberts arrogant, cunning, diſloyal ſpeech; wherein by his own Archiepiſcopal Authority (as the Grand Oracle, Pillar both of Church and State) he proclamed before all the reſt of the Biſhops of England, (being 13 in number named by [k] Hoveden) beſides Johanne Dublinenſi, & de Kaguſe Archiepiſcopo, & Rogero de Sancto Andræa in Scotia, being there preſent and aſſenting to it, and before all the Nobles and people then preſent at his Coronation; That the Crown of England was meerly Arbitrary, and elective at the peoples devotion, adding to the Lay-Peers Conditions, theſe his Clergy Sophiſmes, and ſecond ſeed-plot of Treaſons; implying, That as he got the Crown by election, ſo he might as juſtly loſe it, by ejection or demerit, (as he afterwards did, upon this very ground, as [l] John Speed obſerves.) 2ly. Wherein we may obſerve; 1. That King Henry by and with the adviſe of the Popes Legate, as well as of his Nobles, was anoynted and crowned King, not by the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, but by the Biſhops of Wincheſter and Bath; and that not as an elective King, as his Father King John; and as Lewes the French Kings ſon, elected, crowned King by the rebellious Barons, but ſoon after rejected, and ſent packing into France, never to return again into England. 2ly. A Coronation Oath adminiſtred to him though but an infant of 9. years, the ſame in ſubſtance with that which his Father King John took at his Coronation. 3ly. A new Additional Clauſe added to it by the Popes Legate, never taken by any King before or ſince, faithfully to pay the 1000. marks which his father had conferred on the Church of Rome, ſo long as he ſhould hold the Kingdomes of England and Ireland, for which he made his homage to the Church of Rome and Pope Innocent before his actual Unction and Coronation, as King. 4ly. That the next day after he received all the Homages and Fealties of the Biſhops, Earls, Barons, and others, as his father did at his Coronation, who very ill obſerved them.

Without any other Interrogation, Admonition or Clauſe, concerning maintaining and defending the holy Church and her Liberties. The firſt Clauſe in this Oath, was taken verbatim out of the premiſed Oath enforced upon King John by Stephen Langeton Archbiſhop of Canterbury before his abſolution from his Excommunication, not extant in his Coronation Oath.

I find in moſt of the Writs of Ad Jura Regia, (of which there were multitudes in this King Edwards reign) this Clauſe relating to this his Coronation Oath, quod ad hoc, or pzout JURAMENTI VINCULO tenemur et aſtringimur. And in the printed ſtatutes of 15 E. 3. Parl. 1. and the Kings Proclamation for reverſing it, 18 E. 3. Stat. 3. c. 1, 2. & 25 E. 3. Stat. 6. againſt Proviſions, there are theſe Clauſes inſerted concerning this Oath: By the bond of OUR OATH, we be bound to the obſervance and defence of the Lawes and Cuſtoms of the Realm; The King as he is bounden by HIS OATH to doe the ſame to be kept as the Law of this Realm. The King having regard to the quietneſſe of his people, which he chiefly deſireth to maintain in quietneſſe and peace, and to govern according to the Lawes, Uſages, and Franchiſes of this Land, AS HE IS BOUND BY HIS OATH MADE AT HIS CORONATION.

After King Edward the 3d. departed this life, his Grandchild Richard the 2d. was crowned King. The [b] Petitions, Claims of Nobles and others to do ſpecial ſervices at his Coronation, by their tenures; with the Judgements given on them; and the ſolemnities, Ceremonies uſed at his Coronation, are ſpecially recorded at large in the Clauſe Roll of An. 1 R. 2. m. 43, 44, 45. with this Title to them. Proceſſus factus in Coronatione Domini Regis Angliæ Richardi ſecundi, Anno regni ſui primo. At the cloze whereof there is this Memorial entred. Memorandum, quod prædictus Rex Caſtellæ & Legionis, Dux Lancaſtriæ & Seneſchallus Angliæ; iſtum proceſſum per manus ſuas proprias in Cancellaria Domini Regis liberavit, ibidem in Rotulis Cancellariæ irrotulandum. In which unqueſtionable Record, the Oath which the Archbiſhop of Canterbury (Simon Sudbury) then preſcribed to and received from him, is thus recorded.

b Moſt of them printed in John Speeds Hiſtory of Great Britain, p. 728, 729, 730.

In the Parliament Roll of 1 H. 4. nu. 16 & 17. after the recording of King Richard the 2. his Renunciation of his Right to the Crown, and the Articles then publiquely drawn up and read againſt him in that Parliament, they thus record the particular branches of the Coronation Oath which the Kings of England uſed to make to the Archbiſhop, and King Richard took at his Coronation.

The ſame Solemnities, Ceremonials, Prayers, Speeches uſed at this King Richards Coronation, and the Interrogations, Oath preſcribed to K. Edward the 3d. (without the new additions to King Richards) for ought appears to me continued without any alteration till K. Edw. the 6. together with this Petition, or Monitio Epiſcoporum ad Regem, et legitur ab uno, (not mentioned by Walſingham, but in the Roman, & other of our own Pontificals, tending only to eſtabliſh Biſhops Canonical Priviledges, Lawes and Conſtitutions;) Domine Rex, à vobis perdonari petimus, ut unicuique de Nobis et Eccleſiis Nobis commiſſis, Priuilegium et Debitam Legem atque Juſtitiam et defenſionem exhibeatis, ſicut Rex in ſuo regno debet unicuique Epiſcopo et Abbati et Eccleſiis ſibi commiſſis. Whereunto Reſpondit ſic Rex, (by their preſcription, before he muſt be Crowned) Animo libenti & devoto promitto vobis, et perdono vobis et unicuique veſtrum, et Eccleſiis vobis commiſſis Canonicum Priuilegium, (defined by the Popes and their own Canons) & debitam legem & juſtitiam ſervabo, & defenſionem quantum potero, adjuvante Deo exhibebo; ſicut Rex in regno unicuique Epiſcopo, Abbati, et Eccleſiis ſibi commiſſis, per rectum exhibere debet. But by reaſon of King Edward the 6. his tender years, and the changes then made in the Religion publikely profeſſed, ſome Alterations were made both in the Ceremonies, Prayers, and Oath it ſelf at his Coronation, by the Lord Protector and ten of the Privy Counſils adviſe, whereof Thomas Cranmer Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and Cuthbert Tonſtall Biſhop of Durham were two; who preſcribed him this new Oath, different in ſome particulars from all preceding it.

The Archbiſhop ſtanding before the King, ſhall ask him with a loud voyce in manner and form following;

Will ye grant to keep to the people of England and other your Realms and Dominions, the the Laws and Liberties of your Realm, and other your Realms and Dominions. * I grant and promiſe.

* The Kings Anſwers.

You ſhall keep to your ſtrength and power, to the Church of God, and to all the people, holy peace and concord. I ſhall keep.

You ſhall make to be done after your ſtrength and power, equal and rightfull juſtice in all your Dooms and Judgements, with mercy and truth. I ſhall do.

Do ye grant to make no new Lawes, but ſuch as be to the glory and honour of God, and to the good of the Commonwealth; and that the ſame ſhall be made by the conſent of your people, as hath been accuſtomed? I grant and promiſe.

Then ſhall the King riſe out of his Chair, and by them that before aſſiſted him, be led to the High Altar, where he ſhall make a ſolemn Oath upon the Sacrament, laid upon the High Altar, in the ſight of all the people, to obſerve the premiſes; and laying his hand again upon the Book, ſhall ſay;

The things which I have before promiſed, I ſhall obſerve and keep: So God help me and theſe holy Evangeliſts, by me bodily touched upon this holy Altar.

At the Coronations of King James and King Charles the 1, and 2. the Interrogations to, and Oath taken by King Edward the 3d. were uſed and taken by them, with moſt of the premiſed Ceremonies, Prayers, paſſages uſed at King Richard the the 2d. his Coronation, ſome whereof were omitted at King Edward the ſixths. Which having [a] elſewhere publiſhed at large, I ſhall here omit.

a In the Second Part of My Signal Loyalty. &c. p. 241, to 327.

By theſe Hiſtorial Collections of the Coronations of forreign Emperors, Kings, and our own Britiſh, Saxon, Daniſh, Norman, Engliſh Kings, by Popes, Patriarchs, Archbiſhops and Biſhops, with the ſeveral Oathes, promiſes they exacted from them, and altered, enlarged by degrees when crowned, eſpecially when they ſet the Crown upon Uſurpers heads, and diſinherited the right lawful heirs, you may moſt clearly diſcover, what ſucceſſive encroachments they made upon their Royal Soveraignties. What ſtrange Concluſions many Popes, Popiſh Biſhops, Canoniſts and others have thence deduced, I ſhall here briefly inform you.

1. That all Chriſtian Emperors, Kings, Princes, receive their Crowns, Swords, Scepters, Royalties, and Royal dignities only from Popes, Patriarchs, Archbiſhops, Biſhops, as Pope Boniface the 8. with ſundry other Popes, Popiſh Canoniſts, Jeſuites, and our Archbiſhops Aldred of Yorke, Ralph and Hubert of Canterbury have aſſerted; who are ſolidly refuted by [b] John Servin, Advocate to King Henry the 4th. of France in his Vindicia, and others forecited.

b In Melchior Goldaſtus Monarch. Rom. Imperii, Tom. 3. Francofurti 1613. p. 269, to 2134.

2ly. That the Pope and every Biſhop is Superior to Emperors and Kings, becauſe without contradiction the leſſe is bleſſed, conſecrated by the greater, Hebr. 7. 7. as Emperors, Kings, are by Popes and Biſhops, not they by them; Yea, Epiſcopus ſuperminet Regibus, et quibuſcumque aliis terrenis Principibus dignitate eſt præferendus, quantum plumbum bincitur ab auro: Et Sacerdotium tanto maius eſt Imperio et omni ſeculari Principatu, quanto cœlum terra præcioſius, et anima eſt corpori præferenda; as our [c] Thomas Waldenſis, Cardinal [d] Bellarmin, and others determine.

d De Pontifice Romano, l. 1. c. 7. De Laicis, c. 8 & 10. See my Epiſtle Dedicatory to Tome 1.

3ly. That as they conſecrate, bleſſe, crown them Emperors and Kings: ſo by the like reaſon they may execrate, excommunicate, uncrown them, if they violate the Oaths and Conditions preſcribed to them at their Coronations: which was our Archbiſhop Aldreds, Ralph and Huberts doctrine, as well as Popes. Hence Pope Gregory the 9th, upon Sir* Robert de Twenge and others threſhing out the corn and plundering the goods of Italian Clergymen beneficed in England by Papal proviſions, was ſo highly offended with King Henry the 3d, that in an overſharp Letter to him, he vehemently reprehended him for ſuffering ſuch rapines in his Realm to be done to Eccleſiaſtical perſons, non habens reſpectum ad juramenta quæ juraverat tempore Coronationis ſuæ, non ſolum de pace Eccleſiæ manutenenda, verum etiam de recta juſtitia tam Clericis quam Laicis ſervanda. Mandavit igitur Regi in eiſdem literis ſub pœna Excommunicationis et Interdicti firmiter præcipiens, quatinus diligenti facta inquiſitione, ſi quos hujus violentiæ inveniret authores tam graviter puniret obnoxios, ut ex pœna illorum cæteris metum incuteret & terrorem.

* Mat. Paris Hiſt. Ang'. p. 362. Here, Tom. 2. p. 496.

4ly. That Emperors, Kings are but the Popes, Biſhops Vaſſals, and their Coronation Oathes meer Oathes of Fealty to them, as their ſuperiour Lords.

5ly. That

5ly. That by theſe their Oathes, and the Liberties, Priviledges of the Church, the perſons of Popes, Biſhops, and all inferiour Clergymen, are totally *exempted from the ſecular Juriſdiction, Judicature of Emperors, Kings, their Judges, and Courts; ſo that they neither can nor ought at all to impriſon, condemn, execute, baniſh, deprive them for any capital Crimes or Offences whatſoever, but muſt referr them wholly to be tried, judged, purged in, by and before a Synod of Biſhops, or their own Metropolitans or Ordinaries; & that they ought not to put them to death till firſt convicted, degraded, and delivered up by them to the ſecular powers. Upon which account [e] Adam de Arleton Biſhop of Hereford in the 17. year of K. Edward the 2. being accuſed, arreſted and examined of High Treaſon, before the King and all the Lords in Parliament, for receiving, ayding, counſelling, maintaining Mortimer, with other Enemies of the King, and furniſhing them with great ſtore of armed men: peremptorily refuſed to anſwer his Charge without the connivance and conſent of the Archbiſhop, and the other Biſhops his Peers, becauſe he was a Miniſter, a Member of the Church, and a Biſhop. Whereupon the Archbiſhop and Biſhops preſently demanded him as a Member of the Church, to be delivered to their Cuſtody and Triall: Some few dayes after the King reſolving to arraign him for this Treaſon before his Royal Tribunal; the Biſhops hearing of it, thereupon the Archbiſhops of Canterbury, York, and Dublin, accompanied with ten Biſhops more, and a great troop of men, with their croſſes born up before them, marched to the Court where he was to be arraigned, chaſed away the Kings Officers, took the Priſoner from the Barre by force before he had made any anſwer, and carryed him away with them; firmly enjoyning all there preſent on the behalf of God, that none of them under pain of Excommunication ſhould preſume to lay violent hands upon this Traytor to bring him back to the barr, whom they had thus violently reſcued from publike Juſtice. The King being exceedingly moved with this unparalleld inſolency and affront, as he had reaſon, commanded the Inqueſt to be impannelled in his abſence; who finding him guilty of the Treaſon and Rebellion whereof he was indicted, according to the truth of the matter: he thereupon ſeiſed his Temporalties, Lands, Goods, and baniſhed the Biſhop; who notwithſtanding his proſcription, was by confederacy of theſe Archbiſhops and Biſhops with ſtrong hand kept ſafe from the Kings Juſtice, in the Archbiſhop of Canterbury (Walter Reynolds) his cuſtody: And not long after, this Trayterous Prelate and his Reſcuers confederating with the Queen and young Prince Edward, by force of armes impriſoned, depoſed the King himſelf, without any Trial, Crowned his Son King in his ſtead; and then murdered him, by this Trayterous Biſhops ambiguous unpointed Adviſe, Edwardum occidere nolite timere bonum eſt.

6ly. That Kings and Emperors by the Oathes taken at their Coronations, are bound to obey, maintain, execute all the Popes, Biſhops Eccleſiaſtical Decrees, Canons, Conſtitutions, Cenſures of Excommunication, Interdicts, Deprivation, yea of death it ſelf in caſes of Hereſy or Apoſtacy, and to become their Bayliffs, Gaolers, Executioners, without examining the juſtice or legality of their proceedings or ſentences, under pain of being excommunicated, interdicted, and deprived of their Offices; as not only Popes, but [f] Boniface, John Peckham, John Stratford, and other Archbiſhops of Canterbury and their Suffragans have reſolved in their Convocations, and Conſtitutions. Hence our learned Martyr William Tyndall, in a [g] Book printed Cum Privilegio, London 1573. complained, That the Biſhops with the Pope by a certain Conſpiration and ſecret Treaſon, have with falſhood taken from all Kings and Emperors their right and duties, which now they call their Freedoms, Liberties and Priviledges, AND HAVE MADE EVERY KING SWEAR TO DEFEND THEIR FALSHOOD AGAINST THEMSELVES. So that if any man ſhall contend to reſtore Kings again unto their Duties and Right, and to the room and authority which they have of God, and of ſhadowes to make them Kings indeed, and to put the World into order again, then the Kings deliver up their ſwords and authority unto theſe Hypocrites to ſlay them. The Emperors and Kings are now adayes but even Hangmen unto the Popes and Biſhops, to kill whomſoever they condemn, without any more adoe, as Pilate was unto the Scribes and Phariſes, and the High Biſhop (or Prieſt) to Hang and Crucify Chriſt. For as thoſe Prelates anſwered Pilate (when he asked what ill he had done?) If he were not an evil doer, we would not have brought him unto thee; as who ſhould ſay, we are

That it ſubjects thoſe perſons who took it to a confiſcation of all their goods to the King, for the breach of it, or any particular Clauſe, Article thereof, without any other legal proceſſe, trial, conviction, and likewiſe to a Writ de Hæretico comburendo; though the violation of any branch thereof was never declared Hereſie by Scripture, nor by any of the 4. firſt General Councils; nor was againſt any Article of the Nicene or Apoſtles Creeds. 5ly. That it obliged them to ſubmit to all penances they ſhould impoſe upon them, and to betray, diſcover to them and their Officers, both the perſons, books, writings of all others reputed Lollards. By which exorbitant Oath and proceedings, the Biſhops became Maſters of all mens lives, liberties, eſtates whom they pleaſed to accuſe of Hereſie, or declared to be Hereticks, and would not wholly ſubmit themſelves to their Eccleſiaſtical uſurped authority; which made every Archbiſhop and Biſhop an abſolute Pope within his own Province and Dioceſſe.

What ſtrange, * &c. and Viſitation Oaths, Articles, for turning our Communion Tables into Altars, and railing them in Altar-wiſe againſt the Eaſt end of Chancels, bowing to, or towards the Altar; receiving the Communion only at their new Rayles, with other Innovations, tending to the countenancing or introduction of Popiſh ſuperſtition, devotion, Ceremonies, contrary to our Lawes, have of late times been rigorouſly impoſed upon Miniſters, Church-wardens and others, by Eccleſiaſtical cenſures, to the general diſcontent, ſcandal, oppreſſion, grievance of the people, by ſundry Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, in their Synods, Viſitations, enforcing every Church-warden to pay 4 s. 4 d. or more, for taking his Oath, and 6 s. 8 d. or 12 d. for their Books of Articles, beſides extorted fees for every preſentment on them; (a new extortion, againſt all Lawes and Canons too) their own printed Canons, Conſtitutions, Viſitation Oathes, and Books of Articles, ; with the * Votes paſſed againſt them in Parliament, That they were againſt the Kings Prerogative, the fundamental Lawes of the Realm, the Liberty and property of the Subject, and of dangerous conſequence; the Impeachments of ſeveral Biſhops for them by the whole Houſe of Commons, and the Statutes of 17 Caroli 1. ch. 17. & 13 Car. 2. ch. 12. & 13 Car. 2. ch. 1. declaring, condemning ſuch Oaths and all others made or impoſed by any Authority without the Kings Majeſties royal aſſent, and both Houſes of Parliament, to be null and voyd in their firſt Creation to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever, and againſt the fundamental Lawes and Liberties of this Kingdom, will at large demonſtrate.

9ly. Some of our Archbiſhops of Canterbury have grown ſo inſolent, that becauſe ſome of our Kings were not crowned by them, or their predeceſſors in their abſence, when exiled by them for their Treaſons and Rebellions, as upon that account alone to pull the Crown violently from the Kings head at the ſolemn Coronation of the Queen; and to excommunicate all thoſe Biſhops who preſumed to Crown them by their royal appointment, without their licenſe or deputation, as the premiſed inſtances of Ralph de Turbine and Thomas Becket evidence: whoſe ſucceſſors (like the Archbiſhops of Rhemes in France) have claimed it as their peculiar priviledge, to crown all our Kings, as if they had no Liberty or Prerogative left them to be Crowned by what Biſhops, perſons, and at what times, places themſelves ſhall think meet to appoint, as they have frequently done.

10ly. Sundry Popes, Popiſh Prelates, Canoniſts heretofore, yea Popiſh Prieſts and Jeſuites of late, have from hence affirmed, the Coronations of Emperors, Kings by them to be an eſſential antecedent qualification to conſtitute them real, legal Emperors, Kings, and that they were not ſuch by deſcent or election, before they were conſecrated by, and received their Crowns, Scepters, and other Enſignes of Royalty from the hands of Popes or Biſhops. Upon this falſe pretence, Watſon and Clarke, two Italianated Roman Prieſts, conſpired with the Lords Cobham, Gray, and others to ſeiſe King James and Prince Henry his ſonne at Greenwich, upon their firſt arrival out of Scotland, and to impriſon them in Dover Caſtle, or the Tower, till they ſhould obtain their own pardons, a toleration of the Popiſh Religion, and a removal of ſome Counſellors of State; or elſe to put ſome further project in execution againſt them; affirming to thoſe they drew into their Conſpiracy, and pleading it at their arraignments for this Treaſon; [h] That the Act was lawfull, and no Treaſon, being done before the Coronation, for that King James WAS NO KING Of ENGLAND, BEFORE HE WAS ANOYNTED; and the Crown ſolemnly ſet on his Head: Theſe Prieſts were condemned and executed as Traytors, but the Lords Cobham, and Gray, and other their ſeduced Proſelytes were pardoned by the Kings grace, upon their acknowledgement of, and craving pardon for their Treaſon, grounded upon this falſe Doctrine. Upon this account, the Guyſian Jeſuitical faction in [i] France aſſerted ſome few years before, That they might lawfully take up arms againſt, depoſe, murder and ſtab King Henry the 4. of France to death, becauſe he was not Crowned and anointed King by their Popiſh Biſhops, from whom he ſhould have received his Royal Crown and Authority; and ſo was no lawfull King, but a Tyrant. Which erronious treaſonable Doctrine, is largely refuted by ſundry preſidents, reaſons in point of Law and Divinity, by [k] Sir Edward Cooke in Calvins caſe, by Dr. Crakenthorpe, in his Defence of Conſtantine, c. 14. p. 341, 342. and [l] Johannes Servin Advocate to King Henry the 4, in his Vindiciæ, to whom I referr you; who prove the Coronation, Unction of Kings to be a meer Ornamental Ceremony, which many Emperors, Kings never uſed, received, being Emperors, Kings, by and from their very Elections, deſcents, without and before this Ceremony; as Hiſtorians atteſt, and ſundry eminent [m] Lawyers and [n] Divines reſolve.

verſies of faith, &c. yet not to ordain any thing contrary to Gods written Word; as many Popes, Biſhops have done in their Councils and Synods, wherein themſelves preſided: Therefore the Chriſtian people muſt be included under the Title of Holy Church, which our Kings ſwear to defend, as well as the Biſhops and Clergy; and their own demands to our Kings, for themſelves, and all the Churches committed to their Care, with the forms of Inſtitutions to Churches, evidence the people rather to be the Church then themſelves, who are but Overſeers Paſtors and Curates of the Church.

12ly. Popes and Popiſh Prelates have from hence uſurped a power to impoſe and enforce upon Emperors, Kings, and other Laymen whom they have interdicted or excommunicated, a cautionary Oath, [p] De ſtando et parendo mandatis Eccleſiæ, before they would abſolve them; now lately revived by ſome, againſt the expreſſe Cuſtom, Lawes, Liberties of our Realm, declared and ſworn to by all the Biſhops and Nobles of the Realm in the Parliamentary Great Council held at Clarendon under King Henry the ſecond: Yet they themſelves by ſeveral [q] Canons declare, that no Pope nor Biſhop ought to ſwear or take an Oath before any Emperor, King, or Council, but only in the caſe of faith, to purge himſelf from ſuſpition of Hereſie; nor any Clerk to take an Oath as a Witneſſe or otherwiſe in any Temporal Court, or cauſe, eſpecially if trivial, as all Laymen ought to do, without the Popes or Biſhops ſpecial licenſe firſt obtained; but their aſſertions, in verbo Epiſcopi, or Sacerdotis muſt be allowed, inſtead of an Oath, as equivalent to it; Ne manus per quam corpus & ſanguis Chriſti conficitur JURAMENTO polluetur; as I have [r] elſewhere more largely evidenced.

13ly. A reverend French Doctor of Divinity promoted in our Church, in a [s] Treatiſe newly publiſhed, recites our Kings Coronation Oath at large, and from thence obſerves, That the King in his Oath, ſwears in a manner, THRICE FOR THE CLERGY PARTICULARLY, and for no other eſtate of the Realm beſides; to intimate, that as your Law calls the Clergy, A High State, and One of the greateſt States of the Realm; ſo it deſerves a ſpecial Care and High regard proportionable. That by this Juratory Oath, the King ſwears in ſpecial; That he will be a Protector and Defender of the Biſhops and Clergy, not only of their Perſons, as ſo qualified with ſuch Rights, and Liberties, but alſo of their Poſſeſſions: By vertue of which Oath the King and all others are in point of Conſcience obliged to reſtore to the Church, Biſhops, Clergy, not only all the lands and poſſeſſions taken from them during the late Warrs; but likewiſe all Mannors, Lands, Rents, Revenues whatſoever, heretofore taken away from any Biſhopricks, Abbies, Monaſteries, Monks, Nounes, Maſſe or Chantry Prieſts whatſoever by any of our Kings by the Legiſlative power in Parliaments, in former ages, [t] under pain of incurring the ſins of Periury, Sacrilege, and drawing down the Curſes of God and their founders, and exemplary deſtruction, judgements on themſelves, their families, yea the whole Kingdom and Nation; as he magiſterially reſolves, becauſe, being once given, conſecrated to God and his Church, they can never be taken away from them, or converted to any ſecular uſes by Kings, Parliaments, or other Soveraign powers, for any offenſes, idolatrous or ſuperſtitious uſes limited by the donors, nor for any crimes or abuſes of thoſe to whom they were given, there being an eternal holineſſe annexed to them, which cannot be obliterated. For anſwer whereunto; I would deſire this confident Doctor to reſolve theſe Quares; 1. Whether any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Prieſt or Clergyman, can or ought by the Law of God to covet or deſire any more, than a [u] competent, convenient maintenance, anſwerable to his diligence, labor, care in the conſciencious diſcharge of his Miniſterial Function, in feeding the flock of Chriſt which he hath purchaſed with his own blood? And whether thoſe who labor not in the Word and doctrine, preach not in ſeaſon and out of ſeaſon, neglect their paſtoral duties, feeding themſelves not their flocks, or reſide not with them, can lay any claim by divine right to any Church-revenues; ſince Chriſt himſelf reſolves, [x] that none but Labourers in and Preachers of the Goſpel, are worthy of their meat, hire: and thoſe that labor not, (by [y] St. Pauls reſolution) ought not to eat? Whence this Maxime in Law and Divinity, Beneficium propter officium, had its original. ther Chriſtian Kings and States may not lawfully without guilt of Sacriledge, or violation of their Oaths, reſume and take away ſuch ſuperfluous Mannors, Lands given by their Anceſtors from the Crown to any Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Prieſts or other Clergymen, for the neglect of their paſtoral duties, eſpecially in caſes of publike neceſſity, ſo as they reſerve a competent, ſufficient maintenance for thoſe who are pious, laborious, worthy of * double honour and encouragement?

Then much more may the Temporal Lands and Revenues given to them, being not of divine inſtitution, nor ſo immediately conſecrated to Gods ſervice, nor capable of any real inherent holineſſe, as they are, loſe their relative holineſſe, by their Crimes, or abuſes of them; and thereupon be converted to other uſes by our Kings and Parliaments, without any Sacriledge, if they ſee juſt cauſe: ſo as Gods ſervice be ſtill ſupported in all places neceſſary.

6ly. Whether the Lands or Revenues given and dedicated to one religious Order of Monks or Nunnes, upon their diſſolution, can be juſtly challenged by any other religious Order to whom they were never granted nor deſigned; any more then lands given or bequeathed to one perſon and his heirs, or to one City or Corporation and their ſucceſſors, can be juſtly claimed by another perſon or Corporation upon the attainders or diſſolutions of thoſe to whom they were given, for any treaſon or felony? If not, as is moſt certain by [r] all divine and human Lawes: then how can any of our Evangelical Biſhops, Presbyters, Prieſts or Deacons, who are of divine inſtitution, by any Lawes of God or man, challenge a lawfull Title, right, intereſt in, or to all or any the Livings, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Revenues heretofore given, dedicated, appropriated to any Orders of Monks, Freers, Nunnes, Monaſteries, of meer Papal, not Divine inſtitution, by any of our antient Kings or others, either for the expiation of their horrid ſcandalous Sinnes, Murders, Rapines, Adulteries, Whoredoms, Perjuries, or other Crimes; or elſe for the ſalvation of their own and others ſouls, and ranſoming them from Hell or Purgatory flames, by their merits, faſtings, alms, or prayers for them to the Virgin Mary, and other Saints departed; in high derogation of the all-ſatisfactory merits, mediation of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, the [ſ] ſole Mediator between God and man, the only Advocate and propitiation for the ſins of men: and condemn it as moſt impious, inexpiable Sacriledge, not to reſtore them to their actual poſſeſſion, to whom they were never given, dedicated, nor intended, and that for the performance of ſuch ſuperſtitious Popiſh ſervices, which themſelves condemn, and neither can nor ought to perform? If then St. Pauls divinity be orthodox, and his aſſertion legal, [t] We have an Altar whereof they have no right to eat, which ſerve the Tabernacle. And the Prieſthood being changed, there is made alſo of neceſſity a change of the Law: ſo that the Cities, Glebes, Oblations anciently belonging to the Jewiſh High Prieſts, Prieſts and Levites aboliſhed by Chriſts prieſthood, could not be thereby legally challenged or tranſmitted to the Apoſtles and Miniſters of the Goſpel. Our clamorous Doctor and his Confederates muſt henceforth give over their pretended divine and legal claims, titles, to all or any of our diſſolved Abbyes and Monaſteries, Lands, Revenues, with their Satyrical invectives againſt all who refuſe to reſign or reſtore them to thoſe Churches, Church-men, to whom they were never given, and from whom they were not taken; for fear they incurre the Prophet Iſay his Cenſure of the covetous lazy Prieſts in his age; [u] They are all dumb doggs, ſleeping, lying down, loving to ſlumber: Yea, they are greedy doggs, who can never have enough: ſhepherds that cannot underſtand, they all look to their own way, every one for his gain from his quarter. Come ye, ſay they, we will fetch wine, & we will fill our ſelves with ſtrong drink, and to morrow ſhall be as this day, and much more abundant; as the fat lazie Monks and Abbots did; eſpecially if they can can once effect their long proſecuted deſign of gaining all antient Abbey Lands and Revenues by their Satyrical invectives againſt Sacrilege.

Now whereas this [a] Doctor argues; that admit the Clergymen were guilty of all the crimes laid to their charge, yet their perſonal delinquency cannot forfeit their Lands which they have in Jure Eccleſiæ, & in Jure Dei, they being but uſufructuaries of the profits of them during their lives; and in nature of Tenants for life, who cannot forfeit Gods inheritance and fee.

a Sacriledge arraigned, ch. 8 p. 156, 157.

I anſwer: 1. That all our [b] Lawbooks reſolve; that Biſhops, Abbots, and other Clergymen are ſeized of their Lands in fee in Jure Eccleſiæ; and not tenants for life. 2ly. That they may therefore forfeit the Lands they have in Jure Eccleſiæ & Dei, either by [c] alienations of them for life, or in fee to their baſtards, whores, kinred, others, againſt the donors intentions, or by their neglecting and ceaſing to perform the Divine ſervices, and works of piety, charity, devotion for which they were ſpecially given to them; and that by the expreſſe proviſion, words of the Statutes of 13 E. 1. c. 41. & 6 E. 1. cap. 4. which gives the Donors and their heirs Writs of Contra formam collationis, and of Ceſſavit, to recover the Lands ſo forfeited by their abuſes, or non-performance of the divine ſervices, or almes for which they were given. 3ly. This is evident by ſundry memorable preſidents, recorded in our Hiſtories, Records and Law-books: The 1. is that of the [d] Abbeſſe and Nunnes of Berkeley in Gloceſterſhire, who being all bigg with childe by Earl Godwins Nephew, and ſo found by inquiſition, King Edward the Confeſſor thereupon diſſolved the Monaſtery for their whoredoms, and gave the Lands to Earl Godwin, from whom the Barons of Berkeley have enjoyed it as the ſeat of their Barony for many hundred years. The 2. the [e] Abbeſſe of Ambresbury, who having three baſtard children after her profeſſion, and about 30. of her Nunnes being likewiſe convicted of incontinency; thereupon their order was diſſolved, and their lands given by King Henry the 2. to the Nuns of the Order of Font-Ebrard in Picardy by the adviſe of Pope Alexander, Richard Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and the reſt of our Biſhops, Earls, and Barons, as the [f] Charters, Patents of Henry the 2. Richard the 1. King John, Henry 3. 4. & 6. aſſure us, and Roger Hoveden, Gervaſius, Bromton, Henry de Knyghton, and others ſtory. To which I might adde the preſidents of the Nuns of St. Eligius in Paris, Anno 1107. of Argentol, and of St. Johns of Laudune, Anno 1129. who for their infamous, diabolical whoredomes, were deprived, ejected, ſuppreſſed, and their Lands, Monaſteries, transferred to others. Nunneries (as [g] Nicholaus de Clemangiis and others complain) degenerating frequently into Stewes and Brothels, Non Dei ſanctuaria, ſed Veneris execranda proſtibula. The 3. is the famous Order of the Knights of the Temple of Jeruſalem, who being inſtituted about the year of Chriſt 1118. and endowed with moſt [h] ample poſſeſſions, priviledges both by Chriſtian Emperors, our own and other Kings, Popes Bulls, and Decrees of Councils, for the defence of the Holy Land, Chriſtianity and Chriſtians againſt the Saracens and other Infidels, were yet for their intollerable pride, avarice, abuſe of priviledges, Apoſtacy, Sodomy, and other crimes, (whereof many of them were accuſed, and found guilty by their own confeſſions, if we believe Pope Clements Bull) upon the frequent complaints of the French King & others againſt them, after near 200 years continuance, notwithſtanding their Bulls, Priviledges, in the General Council of Vienna, totally and finally ſuppreſſed by that Council and Pope Clement the 5*th*. An. Dom. 1312. whereupon all their perſons were impriſoned in one day throughout England, France and Chriſtendom; their Manors (amounting to 9000. in all places,) with their Lands, goods in England, ſeiſed into the hands of K. Edw. the 2. as eſcheated to him & other Lords by Law by their diſſolution; though moſt of their lands afterwards by the Decree of this Council, and a ſpecial Act of Parliament, were tranſlated to the Hoſpitallers, as our * Records, [i] Hiſtorians and the Bulls of this Pope to the Archbiſhops and Biſhops of England, and Archbiſhop of Yorke, at large relate. I pretermit all other particular advantages, and encroachments of Juriſdiction of leſſer moment, which Popes, Popiſh Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Prieſts, Canoniſts, and Divines have uſurped by, and deduced from the Coronation Oathes preſcribed by them to Emperors and Kings. But theſe recited are of ſuch publike, grand concernment to their Prerogatives, Soveraignties, Crowns, their Kingdoms, Peoples Laws, Liberties, and ſo pertinent to my Subject-matter in this, the precedent, as well as ſubſequent Tomes, that I could not pretermit, but recommend them to your ſpecial obſervations.

I have only one thing more to inform you of; that ſince the finiſhing of this Tome, I have diſcovered two groſſe miſtakes together, relating to King John, his ſucceſſors and Realm, in a modern Great French Hiſtorian, Andre de Cheſne his Hiſtoire D'angleterre, Deſcoſſe, & D'irland, [x] newly printed in two large fobo Volumes at Paris: who relating the ſtory of King Johns reſignation of his Crown, and Realms of England and Ireland to Pope Innocent, and homage to him as his Vaſſal and Tributarie under the annual rent of 1000 marks; affirms, 1. Que de ſon temps meſme, et juſque a ce que le Roy Henry 8. renonca le Pape et Leſgliſe Romaine l'an MD. XXXIV. le cens et tribut annuel fut tous jours payen: when as the payment thereof was oft oppoſed, and conſtantly denyed from the 17 year of Edward the 1. ſince which it was never payd, though demanded by Popes from him and his ſucceſſors; yea it was unanimouſly and magnanimouſly reſolved againſt both by the King, Prelates, Nobles and Commons in the Parliament of 40 E. 3. Rot. Parl. nu. 7, 8. in caſe the Pope ſhould demand it. 2ly. Que Roys Inas par une humble piete, tenoit ſon Royaume tributaire a l'Egliſe Romaine, environ l'an 740. teſtement que chacun maiſon deboit payer une piece de argent, & les appelloient vulgairement, Les deniers de Saint Pierre: which he ſtiles and reputes le Tribut annuel; et deſlors l'Angleterre n'aboit jammes faitly de faire la maitly donne aux Papes juſque a ce que Henry viii. tout le premier fit defenſe de leber cet argent. When as Peter-pence was never granted nor payd as a Tribute to the Pope or Church of Rome, but as a meer voluntary Almes to the Engliſh School in Rome, and its payment frequently interrupted, denyed, before our King Henry the 8. aboliſhed it by Act of Parliament; as I have [y] largely evidenced, againſt Baronius and other Pontifician Hiſtorians and Divines before this new Hiſtorians Books came forth in print: The very ſame I finde [z] likewiſe aſſerted in, Divers Traitez ſur les Droicts & Prerogatives des Royes de France, printed A Paris, avec Privilege le Roy, Anno 1666. p. 79. who from thence argues, the Precedency of the Kings of France before the Kings of England, for that they held their Crowns immediately from God, when as the Kings of England (as Offa, Inas, Ethelwolfe, and King John) rendred themſelves Tributaries and Vaſſals to the Pope.

Since the compleating of this Tome and the Epiſtles to it, one Mr. Creſſy a Benedictin Monk (an Apoſtate from the Church of England, who writ two or three * Pamphlets againſt our Church & Religion to ingratiate himſelf with the Roman party, and advance Oral Tradition above the Scriptures, as the only Rule of Faith) hath publiſhed a large * folio Volume, of the Church Hiſtory of Britany, from the beginning of Chriſtianity till the Norman Conqueſt, dedicated to the QUEEN: wherein though he impertinently mentions my Church-Hiſtory in his Preface to the Reader, yet he neither refutes nor takes Notice of any paſſages in my former Tomes throughout his Hiſtory, as I and others expected.

Lo here this Archbishop, who used to prove and confirm other mens Wills after their deaths, had his own Will ratified by this Kings Royal Charter for the good of his soul, as Supreme Ordinary, during his life, to make it valid, irrevocable after his decease.

About the same time the King confirmed to this Archbishop and his Successors all the donations of Lands, Liberties, Customs, Exemptions, and all other things granted to the Church of Canterbury by any of his Predecessors, or any other Ecclesiastical or Secular Persons, by this short Charter.

Johannes Dei gratia, &c. Inter ea quæ ad conservationem justiciæ pertinere noscuntur, nihil specialius Regibus et Principibus Christianis incumbit, quam dignitates Ecclesiasticas in sua stabilitate tueri. Et ne fortè per * obliviones hominum, rerumque ac temporum mutabilitates, ea quæ pia consideratione gesta sunt, præcipuè per judicium diffinita, novis in posterum possint implicari calumpniis, auctenticorum scriptorum patrocinio communire. Cum autem inter nos et dilectum nostrum in Christo Willielmum de Rupetra Lexoviensem Episcopum, super jure et potestate ab antiquis temporibus antecessorum nostrorum in Civitate et Banlenca Lexovien. ad nos pertinente contentio verteretur, tandem ne quid de jure Episcopi et Ecclesiæ Lexovien. videretur nobis aliquatenus usurpasse, fecimus per multitudinem legitimorum et antiquorum Militum de vicinia illa juramentis interpositis recognosci, quantum juris ad nos in Civitate et in Banlenca prædicta, quantum ad ipsum Episcopum Lexoviensem, et quantum ad Militem quendam Robertum scilicet cognominatum Vicecomitem pertinebat, qui videlicet Miles Vicecomitatum sibi apud Lexovium hereditario jure competere asserebat. Recognitum est autem in Curia nostra coram nobis et Baronibus nostris per testimonia Decem et octo Militum juratorum, nos tantummodo tria placita quæ de Spata vocantur, in illa Civitate et Banlenca habere, videlicet de summonicione exercitus, De via Curiæ nostræ, et de moneta. Quæ etiam tria placita per manum dicti Episcopi vel Ballivorum suorum ante nos vel Senescallum nostrum ibidem inter assisas nostras debent adduci. Ita tamen, quod nihil de emendis alicujus istorum trium placitorum sibi posset Episcopus vendicare; Sed eas per manum ipsius vel Ballivorum suorum debemus habere. Et præter hæc tria placita nichil nobis juris in prædicta Civitate remanet aut Banlenca. Cætera autem omnia jura et placita, tam de Spata quam alia quibuscunque modis vel causis eveniant, cum eorum emendis ad Episcopum sine omni contradictione pertinent et querela. Recognitum fuit eciam per eosdem Milites, quod prædictus Robertus nichil juris vel hæreditatis habuit in prædicto Vicecomitatu. Ipsequa Robertus postmodum in Curia nostra coram nobis et Baronibus nostris remisit ipsi Episcopo et successoribus suis imperpetuum totum jus quod sibi vendicaverat et clamaverat in Vicecom. illo. Quare volumus et firmiter præcipimus, quod idem Episcopus et omnes successores sui libere habeant, teneant et possideant Civitatem et Banlencam suam cum omnibus immunitatibus suprædictis, absque omni molestia, gravamine et exactione per nos seu per ministros nostros ibi deinceps facienda, sicut superius in hac pagina prænotatum est.

Clauſ. 9 Johan. Regis, m. 3. REX G. de Aties, &c. Scias quod reddidimus Venerabili patri noſtro *J. Yea he was so zealous to protect all such dutifull, loyal, religious persons, Clerks, from violence by any of the Popes Instruments or others, that he commanded the Sheriffs to make this publike proclamation throughout their Counties by way of terror; that he would hang up any on the next Oak that should be attainted of doing or speaking any evil against them contrary to his protection.

PRæcipimus tibi, quod clamari facias sine dilatione per Com. tuum, quod nulli sicut diligunt corpora et catalla sua, malum faciant vel dicant viris religiosis, vel Clericis, contra pacem nostram. The like restitution and protection he granted by several Patents, to William Priest of Bradewater, William de Wrotham Archdeacon of Taunton, the Abbot of Saint Edmund, the Canons of Exeter, and sundry others. Ibid. m. 3, 5. 7, 8, 9.

The Church of Exeter wanting a Bishop during the Interdict, the King out of his piety and Ecclesiastical soveraignty, sent the Archbishop of Armach Primate of Ireland, thither, to execute his Episcopal Office in that Bishoprick, giving order to defray his expences out of the Mannors of the Bishoprick, as this Writ records.

REX Custod. Episcopatus Exon. &c. Sciatis quod misimus venerabilem patrem E. Armachan. Archiepiscopum et Hiberniæ Primatem, ad exequendum Episcopale officium in Episcopatu Exon. Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod cum contingerit ipsum facere transitum per dominica maneria Episcopatus, inveniatis ei rationabile esturerium suum cum sex equis: et computabitur vobis ad Scaccarium nostrum. Teste meipso apud Divis. 19 die Julii. Cl. 9 Johan. Reg. m. 3.

Thus did the King provide for his peoples souls, which the Pope and Bishops who interdicted the Realm endeavoured to starve and destroy, by interdicting all Divine publick worship, Service and Sacraments.

Moreover, the King the same year soon after the Interdict, by his Ecclesiastical prerogative, nominated and sent a Bishop into Ireland to the Bishoprick of Limerick then void, commanding his Justice of Ireland first to invest him therein, and then to induce the Clergy thereof to elect and receive him for their Bishop; as this Record assures us.

REX M. Justic. Hybern. &c. Sciatis, quod concessimus Magistro Gaufrido Personæ Ecclesiæ de Dungarvan Episcopatum Lymeric. qui vacat: Et volumus et assentimus, ut præficiatur Episcopus Ecclesiæ Limericensi: Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod Episcopatum illum ei habere faciatis, et moneatis et inducatis Clerum illius Episcopatus, quod ipsum eligant et recipiant in Episcopum. [a] REX omnibus Decanis, Personis, Vicariis & Clericis in Archidiaconatu Stafford. constitutis, salutem. In which Patent there are 4. points observable; 1. That by an English Archdeacons taking an Archbishoprick in Ireland, his Archdeaconry in England became voyd in Law even in K. John's reign, upon his confirmation before his consecration. * See Crooke 2 Report, p. 691. Woodlyes case.

2ly. That the King claimed the right of granting this Archdeaconry upon his translation to the Archbishoprick, only by reason of the Bishoprick of Chester's vacancy, to whom the patronage belonged; † not by reason of his Translation: Of which there are many like presidents in antient Records. 3ly. That he granted it by way of collation, not presentation. 4ly. That during King John's Excommunication, and his Kingdoms Interdict by the Pope, there are above one hundred presidents of his presenting Clerks to Benefices, Archdeaconries, Prebendaries belonging to vacant Bishopricks, Abbies, and others, which he seised into his hands for the Treasons or Contempts of the Archbishop, Bishops, Abbots and Clergymen, who interdicted and fled out of the Realm, or submitted to the Interdict, as likewise sundry Licenses granted by him for Elections, and his Royal assent to elections of Bishops, Abbots and Priors, extant in the Patent-Rolls of 9, 14, and 15. years of his reign. So little did he regard his Excommunication or Interdict by the Pope.

power to diſpoſe of their Church-goods by Will, and Biſhops or Ordinaries Juriſdiction to diſtribute their Clerks Goods dying inteſtate, for the good of their Souls, they then having no Wives nor Children, as Lay-men had, to whoſe goods therefore this Charter never extended; but only to Church-mens goods belonging to their Churches. An. 15 Johan. Regis.

Before this Charter of King Stephen, the antient Law, cuſtome of England was, that if any Biſhop, Abbot, or other Eccleſiaſtical perſon who held of the King, and received his Temporalties from him deceaſed, all his goods and chattels (except the ornaments of his Church, Chappel dedicated to God's Service, or the ſtock annexed to his Biſhoprick by the Kings ſpecial Charters) [a] belonged of right to the King, eſpecially if he dyed inteſtate; neither could any of them by Law make a Will, or deviſe his goods or chattels, unleſs the King out of his ſpecial grace, by ſpecial Patents authorized them to deviſe them by their Teſtaments; neither did the Laws of King [b] Cnute, the Confeſſor, and Conquerour, or Charter of K. Henry the 1. extend to Biſhops, Abbots or Clergy-men, who had neither Wives nor Children, being then prohibited by ſundry Canons to marry, but only to the temporal Barons and Lay-ſubjects who had Wives and Children, as the words of their Laws, Charters, the old Writs De rationabili parte bonorum grounded on them, and the words thereof, ([c] Cum ſecundum conſuetudinem regni noſtri hactenus obtentam, pueri poſt mortem patrum ſuorum habere debent rationabiles partes ſuas quæ fuerunt patrum ſuorum, &c.) demonſtrate, and King Stephen's Charter intimates; which had been needleſs, uſeleſs, had the Law or cuſtome of England been then concurrent with it. Neither was this the Prerogative only of the Kings of England in that age, but alſo of France; as is evident by this memorable acknowledgement of the Biſhop elect, Dean and Chapter of Maſcon in France to King Philip Auguſtus, Anno Domini 1201.

And that this was the ancient Law, right, prerogative of the Kings of Scotland then, and in the reign of our King Edward the 1. I ſhall * elſewhere evidence by our own Records. If then the Biſhops and Clergy of England and Scotland could not diſpoſe of their own goods and chattels by Will, but by the Kings ſpecial licenſe, and abſolutely and wholly belonged to the Kings of England, France and Scotland if they dyed inteſtate, by their Prerogatives; not to the Archbiſhops, Biſhops or Church to diſpoſe, or diſtribute to their Kinred, Churches, or any pious uſes for their Souls pretended benefit: then doubtleſs they had no legal Juriſdiction or authority at all to diſtribute or diſpoſe of any Lay-mens goods or chattels in thoſe times, to any pious or other uſes.

Whereupon the Biſhops not long after to revive, confirm and enlarge this their new-acquired Juriſdiction granted them by this Uſurper's Charter (which † expired with King Stephen, and never bound his Succeſſors and extended only to the Goods of Clergy-men) endeavoured to extend it to the Goods, Chattels of all Engliſh Free-men of the Laity; for which end they cunningly inſerted the premiſed Clauſe, amongſt others, into King John's Great Charter: Which, although in the Kings and Nobles intentions, it gave them no Juriſdiction at all either to grant Adminiſtrations of, or diſtribute any Inteſtates Goods for the benefit of their Souls, which they wholly left by expreſs words to the adminiſtration and diſtribution of their neareſt Kinred, Parents, Friends, yet by colour of theſe three words, per viſum Eccleſiæ, by the view of the Church; (which if a perſonal Truſt repoſed in the Biſhop himſelf by this Grand Charter, as our Biſhops and Canoniſts thence argue, was certainly to be executed perſonally by the Biſhop alone, not by his Vicar General, Commissary, Official, or Judge of the Arches, who now grant all Administrations, and make the distributions of Intestates personal estates, against the expres words and intention of this Law, which might be more properly interpreted of the Parson, Church-wardens, and Parishioners of the Parish where the deceased person lived, than of the Bishop, his Chancellor and Under-officer, being single Persons, and no * Church:) the Bishops and their Officers by pretext of these words, (which at most gives them only the oversight, not power of or in the distribution, and no more authority to dispose of the Goods, than Overseers usually named in Wills have, wherein there are likewise Executors appointed, to whom the right, power and disposition of the Testators Goods alone belong by Law) [a] usurped a Jurisdiction soon after by degrees, not onely over all deceased Lay-mens Wills, Chattels, but over the Goods and Chattels of all Lay-men dying intestate, committing their administration and distributing them by their Vicars, Commissaries, Chancellors and other Officers at their pleasures to such persons and pious uses as themselves, or their Officials thought meet; yea many times [b] appropriated them to themselves and their Churches, against the true intent of King John and his Barons. Whereupon at the renewing of this Great Charter by K. Henry the 3d. in the 9th year of his Reign, in a grand Parliamentary Council, this premised Clause concerning Intestates Goods, inserted by the Bishops fraud, craft covertly to usurp a Jurisdiction over the Laity, and all Intestates estates, was wholly [c] expunged, as prejudicial to the Kings Prerogative and the Nobles, Free-mens franchises, liberties, properties; and that Charter was then and hath been since successively ratified by above 40. Parliaments, without this Clause; Yea the King and Lords then and immediately after would by no means permit the Bishops or Ordinaries to intermeddle with the Goods and Chattels of any Free-men dying intestate, or to distribute them for their Souls good at their pleasures; although Saint [d] Edmund Archbishop of Canterbury, and Boniface his next Successor (Uncle to King Henry the 3d. his Queen) with the rest of the Bishops, frequently importuned King Henry the 3d. his Nobles and Counsil, not to hinder their Tenants or Villains to make Wills, or prove them before their Ordinaries, nor to disturb or prohibit Bishops to distribute the Goods of Persons dying intestate for their Souls health; nor would they grant them this power upon any termes, but prohibited them to do it, as is evident by this passionat Complaint thereof by Archbishop Boniface, his Suffragans and Clergie, in the Prologue to their Constitutions in the Council of Lambeth, Anno 1251. [e] Regem ipsum frequenter monuimus ac supplicavimus ei, et supplicari fecimus cum instantia sæpius reverenter, necnon apud Principes et Magnates regni, et Consiliarios quorum moderamine disponuntur negotia regni, precibus et exhortationibus pulsavimus importuna oportunitate et frequenter, quatinus intra memoriam recolentes quot plagis Ægyptii tuere percussi, &c. Huic privilegio tam pio, tamque nobili præcio comparatæ deserrent humiliter, ob reverentiam Redemptoris; permittendo Clerum Anglicanum in sollicitudine libertatis sacrificium laudis Domino immolari, &c. Licet autem in precibus inculcandis diu laboraverimus sustinendo, et sustinuerimus laborando; adhuc cum instantia nostra sæpius iterata, ad exauditionis gratiam ingressum mereri non potuit, nec effectum potiri diutius expectatum. Compared with their Articles of Complaint, [f] Art. 25. Item, mortuo laico intestato, Dominus Rex, et cæteri Domini feodorum, bona defuncti sibi applicantes, non permittunt de ipsis debita solvi; nec residuum in usum liberorum et proximorum suorum, et alios pios usus per loci Ordinarium quorum interest, aliqua converti; and their Constitution made against it in this Provincial Council summoned at London by this Archbishop's usurped authority (against the King's expres Writ of Prohibition directed to him, printed in my 2d Tome) attests.

Indeed I find in the [g] Constitutions of Othobon the Popes Legate, made in a Council held at London but 11. years after, (Anno 52. H. 3.) De Bonis Intestatorum, mention of a Provision antiently made by the English Prelates with the assent of the King and Nobles concerning Intestates Goods, which he thus confirms and orders to be strictly observed: Provide super bonis decedentium ab intestato, provisionem quæ olim a Prælatis Regni Angliæ cum approbatione Regis et Baronum dicitur emanasse, firmiter approbantes, districte inhibemus, ne Prælati vel alii quicunque bona intestatorum hujusmodi quocunque modo recipiant vel occupent contra Provisionem prædictam. Which Provision I find likewise mentioned in [h] Archbishop Stratford's Constitutions made Anno Dom. 1342. What this Provision should be, or when or where made, our learnedst Canonists cannot resolve: [i] Will. Lindewode the chiefest of them, in his Gloſs on Archbiſhop Stratford's Conſtitution, on the words abolim, writes ingenuouſly, Cujus Regis temporibus hoc ordinatum ſit, non reperio: But [b] John de Aton in his Gloſs on Ottobon's Conſtitutions, refers it to the Statute of Weſtm. 2. Anno 13 E. 1. ch. 19. But this being made at leaſt 18. years after Othobon's Conſtitutions, and not ab olim, long before them, muſt needs be a groſs miſtake; therefore (if real, not forged by the Biſhops, or a meer dubious report then raiſed by them, without ground or truth, as Ottobon's, dicitur, implyes) we may well conclude, ſince Archbiſhop Boniface, his Prelates, Clergy in the Council and Articles of Lambheth but 11. years before, made no mention at all thereof, (as queſtionleſs they would have done, had there been any ſuch Proviſion) it can be no other, but either the premiſed Clauſe and Proviſion inſerted by the Prelates into King John's Charter, expunged out of K. Henry the Thirds, and Edward the Firſts Great Charters, in all our manuſcript Statutes, in the Statute-Roll in the Tower of London, and all our printed Statutes of Magna Charta 9 H. 3. ch. 19. wherein that Clauſe of Inteſtates Goods is omitted: Or elſe it muſt be the Proviſion in the Laws of King Cnute confirmed by the Confeſſor, Conquerer, or Charter of K. Henry the 1. to which Ottobon's Conſtitution ſeems moſt probably to relate, being the moſt antient Proviſion, prohibiting Biſhops, as well as the King and Lords, to diſpoſe of Inteſtates Goods, as his Conſtitution likewiſe doth in my opinion, ſince made ſoon after K. Henry the 3. and the Kingdoms complaint and appeal to the Pope againſt the Conſtitutions of Archbiſhop Boniface and his Suffragans, promulged by them in præjudicium juris et dignitatis Regiæ, contra libertates, et conſuetudines Regni noſtri Angliæ, et in noſtri et Coronæ noſtræ præjudicium et gravamen, as the King declared in his Patents of Procuration and Appeals againſt them to the Pope, Pat. 45 H. 3. pars 1. m. 8. and Pat. 46 H. 3. m 17, 19. Which Conſtitutions of Boniface, though thus ſolemnly condemned, appealed, proteſted againſt by the King and Kingdom; who would by no means aſſent to them or their Articles, after ſo many reiterated prayers, monitions and importunities, are yet ſince printed, Gloſſed on by Lindewode and Aton, yea now cryed up by ignorant Canoniſts for the Canon-Law of England, and that of Inteſtates Goods revived, enlarged without any legal authority, by Archbiſhop Stratford, in his [c] Provincial Conſtitutions, though not put in practiſe before; & etiam à multis in dubium revocatum. Which voyd illegal Conſtitutions of Boniface and Stratford are in truth the ſole foundations I can yet diſcover, of our Ordinaries uſurped Power to compell Adminiſtrators by bonds and cenſures to diſtribute the ſurpluſage of Inteſtates Goods, to ſuch pious uſes as they ſhall appoint, againſt the expreſs Proviſion of the Royal Charters of Henry 1. and Hen. 3d. Whereupon our Judges of late times upon Complaints of Adminiſtrators, after grand deliberation and debates, have granted [d] Prohibitions out of the Kings Bench and Common Pleas, to reſtrain ſuch coercive dividents of Inteſtates Goods by Ordinaries, as miſchievous, grounded only on theſe illegal Conſtitutions, miſ-interpreted Charters, and this old Popiſh error, [e] That the diſtribution of Inteſtates Goods after their deceaſe, (though without their order, knowledge) by the Biſhop, or their Adminiſtrators, would expiate and procure pardon of their Sins, redeem their Souls from purgatory, or abate the pains thereof, or of Hell; which being exploded by the authorized Doctrine of our Church, the Ordinaries pretended Juriſdiction of diſtributing Inteſtates Goods to pious uſes, in remedium peccatorum et pro ſalute animæ, muſt be exploded with it. Which power of diſpoſing Inteſtates Goods and Eſtates, being reputed by our Biſhops and Nobles, unſafe to be veſted in the King himſelf, as the premiſed Charters of Henry the 1. imply; was, and is much more unfit for every inferiour indigent Ordinary, Archdeacon, Chancellour, or Commiſſary then or now to be inveſted with, uſurp or exerciſe upon ſuch falſe and ſandy foundations.

cordia provenire, in Curia sua per pares eorum secundum Regni consuetudines atque leges, mota deberet dissentio terminari, Barones ipsi, nostro non expectato responso, postquam idem Rex signum Crucis assumpsit in subsidium Terræ sanctæ, contemptu justitiæ, quum ipse Rex superhabundanter offerebat eisdem, contra dominum suum arma movere temeritate nefaria præsumpserunt, non timentes taliter Crucis negotium impedire, ac Regni periculum procurare, cum pecunia quam pro liberatione Terræ sanctæ deberet expendere, in destructionem etiam terræ suæ profundere compellatur: Quodque nefandum est et absurdum, cum ipse Rex quasi perversus Deum et Ecclesiam offendebat, illi assistebant eidem; cum autem conversus Deo et Ecclesiæ satisfecit, ipsum impugnare præsumunt, sicque videtur quod conspirationem inhierint detestandam, ut eum taliter de Regno possint ejicere, dominio et fidelitate sibi præstitis penitus violatis; quod quam crudele sit actu, et horrendum auditu, cum pernicioſi exempli materia sit et causa nostris temporibus inaudita, manifeste cognoscit quicumque judicio utitur rationis: Unde valde dolendum exstitit cum hoc in injuriam summi Dei, Ecclesiæ Romanæ, ac nostrum contemptum, Regis et Regni obprobrium et periculum, et Terræ sanctæ ad cujus subsidium se devoverat Rex præfatus, nimium detrimentum redundet. Cum igitur debeamus & libenter velimus pacem Regni Anglia procurare, ipsius turbationes propellere, ac dicti Regis QUI VASSALLUS NOSTER EXISTIT conservare justitias, et injurias propulsare; maxime cum idem propter caeteram Crucis assumptum sub nostra protectione specialiter consistat, præfatis Archiepiscopo et Suffraganeis ejus in obedientiæ virtute districte dedimus in præceptis, quatinus, nisi præfati Barones infra octo dies post susceptionem literarum nostrarum ab eis vel aliquo ipsorum diligenter ammoniti, receperint et servaverint formam descriptam superius a nunciis eorum præsentibus cum multa deliberatione provisam, idem, omni cavillatione postposita, eos et fautores ipsorum sublato cujuslibet contradictionis et appellationis obstaculo, excommunicationis mucrone percellant, et terras illorum Ecclesiastico subjiciant Interdicto, facientes utramque sententiam per totam Angliam singulis diebus Dominicis et festivis solemniter publicari. Ne igitur propter quosdam perversos universitatis sinceritas in Anglia corrumpatur, quæ hactenus ab infidelitatis contagio fuit prorsus immunis, universitati vestræ per Apostolica scripta præcipiendo mandamus, et in remissionem injungimus peccatorum, quatinus præfato Regi adversus perversores hujusmodi opportunum impendatis auxilium et favorem, ita quod in confusionem ipsius et aliorum Regnorum non possit tanta nequitia prævalere, sed tempestate sedata, Regnum ipsum optata tranquillitate lætetur. Scientes pro certo, quod si Rex ipse remissus esset aut tepidus in hac parte, nos Regnum Angliæ non pateremur ad tantam ignominiam et vilitatem deduci, cum sciamus per Dei gratiam et possumus talium insolentiam castigare. Dat. Terentini, 14 Kal. Julii, Pontificatus nostri anno octodecimo.

* Nota.

From this memorable Bull not (extant in any of our Historians) we may observe, 1. This Popes zealous censures of and declamations against all undutifull, contemptuous proceedings, conspiracies, insurrections of the Barons against K. John, to extort their demanded liberties from him by force of armes, not by humble petitions, dutifulness and obedience to him as their Soveraign, after he became his sworn Vassal; diametrically contrary to his Bulls, Excommunications, Interdicts and Excitations of his own Subjects, Barons, Prelates and the French King against him, to depose & un-King him before he surrendred his Crown, Kingdoms to, and resumed them from him by his detestable Charter. 2ly. That King John's Charter and subjection of his Crown, Realm to the Pope and Church of Rome, as their Vassal, was the principal cause of his Barons and Nobles insurrections against him, and that in contempt of the Pope, Church of Rome and their anti-monarchical usurpations, who for the most part constantly adhered to him against the Pope during the Interdict and his Excommunication. Therefore doubtless, they never assented to, but opposed his Charter of Resignation, and this clause inserted into it, De consensu omnium Baronum suorum, must needs be a forgery, as this his Bull demonstrates. 3ly. That the ground of these his Bulls, was not any real piety or zeal to God, or King John; but because he was HIS VASSAL, and under his Papal protection, as Crossed to relieve the Holy Land. 4ly. This Popes Antichristian spirit, pride, insolency, in denouncing Excommunications and Interdicts not onely against the Barons, but menacing menacing to chaſtiſe King John himſelf, in caſe he were remiſs or cold in executing what he preſcribed by this Bull for the Barons juſt ſatisfaction, and the Kingdomes tranquillity. An. 16 Johan. Regis.

I ſhall here preſent you with the greateſt part of a memorable Letter (the reſidue being illegible) which I found in the White Tower Chappel, ſent from Rome to King John by W. Mauclere his devoted Clerk and meſſenger by whom he ſent Letters to the Pope, rendring this account of his negotiation, and of the Popes, Cardinals and Barons proceedings and complaints againſt him by the Barons Proctors in the Court of Rome, and the affairs of the Emperour his Nephew, worthy publick view.

REverendo Domino ſuo J. Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hyberniæ, Duci Norman. Aquit. & Com. Andegav. ſuus W. Mauclere ſemper valere, fidelis & devotus Clericus ſalutem & cum debita ſubjectione ſemper fidele ſervicium. Noverit excellentia veſtra, Domine reverende, quod quamvis magna infirmitate in itinere eſſem detentus, tandem Dei gratia ſecurus & incolumis die Martis prox. ante feſtum Beati Michaelis Apoſtoli Romam veni; & inveni Dom. Papam apud Lateranum, & eodem die acceſſi ad eum, et eum ex parte veſtra cum debita reverentia ſalutavi, et literas veſtras porreri; quas ipſe benigne ſuſcipiens, et diligenter inquiſivit de ſtatu veſtro, ac de pace Regni veſtri. Cum autem per reſponſionem meam intelligeret, quod omnia circa perſonam veſtram bene haberent, multum gavisus eſt, gratias inde referens Altiſſimo. Set poſtea, ſcilicet die Sabbati prox. ante diem Cinerum, venerunt ad Curiam Johannes de Roreby Clericus, Euſtachius de Veſcy, & quidam Capellanus dictus de Paris, Johannes Sancti Osberti nomine, deferentes literas Magnatum Angliæ, ſuper literas illas in receſſu latoris præſentium Dominus Papa nondum audivit, & quid in literis illis contineatur nondum plenè mihi conſtiterat: Set hoc ſcio pro vero, ſicut didici ex relatione Dom. Johannis de Columpna fideliſſimi amici veſtri, et relatione aliorum amicorum veſtrorum, quod Magnates Angliæ, ſcilicet Barones, & ut prædicti Nuncii dicunt Papæ, omnes Barones totius Angliæ inſtanter Domino Papæ ſupplicant, quod cum ipſe ſit Dominus Angliæ, vos diligenter admoneret, et ſi neceſſe fuerit compellat, antiquas Libertates ſuas per Cartas anteceſſorum veſtrorum et propio juramento veſtro confirmatas, eis illæſas conſervare. Dicunt autem prædicti Nuncii, quod cum vos a prædictis Baronibus inde requiſiti fueritis in Epiphania Domini apud London, ſpreto propio ſacramento veſtro, non tantum libertates ſuas antiquas et conſuetas eis concedere contempſiſtis, immo voluiſtis quod ipſi vobis promitterent, et etiam per Cartas ſuas darent, quod nunquam de cætero tales libertates a vobis vel ſucceſſoribus veſtris exigerent. Quod omnes Barones præter Dominum Wynthon, & Comitem Ceſtriæ, & Willielmum Brimerr hoc facere renuerent: Supplicant autem Domino Papæ, quod ipſe ſuper hiis eis provideret; cum ſatis conſtet ei, quod ipſi audacter pro libertate Eccleſiæ ad mandatum ſuum ſe vobis opponerent, et quod vos annuum redditum Domino Papæ et Eccleſiæ Romanæ conceſſiſtis, et alios honores quos ei et Romanæ Eccleſiæ exhibuiſtis, non ſponte, nec ex devotione, imo ex timore et per eos coactus, feciſtis. Doleo autem Domine, quod tales rumores oportet me Excellentiæ veſtræ ſignificare; Set quia credo, quod expedit honori veſtro, quod vobis ſuper hoc caute quàm citius poteritis provideatis, nullo modo auſus fui tacere. Præterea ſciatis Domine quod multum deſiderant amici veſtri, Dominus Camerarius, & Dom. Johannes de Columpna, quod vos Domino Imperatori Nepoti veſtro efficax conſilium impendatis. Dicitur autem in Curia, quod in bono ſtatu eſſet ſi haberet pecuniam, quia multi de Magnatibus Imperii ad fidelitatem ejus redeunt. Et ut nobis quantum ——— ipſe Dominus Moirguntinus ——— Fredericus verò G. pacem fecit cum Imperatore, & eſt de familia ipſius, ut dicitur, in Curia. Præterea ſciatis Domine ——— treugarum quærelæ ——— quod pro reverentia veſtra, tantam inveni gratiam tam in conſpectu Domini Papæ, quam in oculis omnium Cardinalium, quod dicitur in Curia, quod non fuerit aliquis, &c. omnes Cardinales qui ——— uberius ——— de tua veſtra gratiam inveniret ——— qui & ——— gratiam invenio ——— Domino Ph. de Colet, & fidelitatis ——— pro amore veſtro fecerunt: Et ſciatis, quod Dom. An. 16 Johan. Regis. is illegible in most words) ——— Et sciatis ——— quod non habui adversarium in Curia, set quod potuit in ——— benigne Dominus Papa. The close of the Letter concerns the advancement of some particular person to a Deanry, whose preferment the Pope and Cardinals did most desire, and the suspension of another, with some advice concerning it; which is so sullied and defaced, that I think fitter to omit, then to present some broken fragments of it. From the former part thereof concerning the Barons complaint and suggestions to the Pope against the King, it is observable; First, that the Pope made use of the Barons as well as the Bishops to enforce the King to make his detestable Charter of his Crown, Realm, and resume them from him under an annual rent, sore against his will; which they used as the strongest inducement to perswade the Pope to compell K. John to grant and confirm those Charters, Liberties to them which they contested for. Therefore this Clause inserted into his Charter by the Popes Agents; Non vi inducti, nec timore coacti, set nostra bona, spontaneaque voluntate offerimus et libere concedimus Deo et sanctis Apostolis ejus, &c. must needs be a notorious falshood. 2ly. That the King after this detestable Charter and surrender, made use of the Popes power, Bulls, Excommunications and Interdicts to curb the Barons and Archbishop, and * null the Charter of Liberties they forcibly extorted from him, and to enforce them to disclaim them. Such an ambidexter was he to promote his own usurped authority over them both, as his Vassals, and make them the new instruments of their own servitude and bondage.

Tom. 2. pag. 356. l. 28. after Aprilis, adde; I find this special License to elect a Bishop, granted by the King to the Chapter of Bangor upon their petition, wherein hee recommended a Pastor to them, whom they thereupon elected.

The Prior and Covent of Ely electing Robert of York the same year for their Bishop, contrary to the Kings pleasure and Royal dignity, he thereupon sent three Prohibitions and Appeals against it: one to the person elected, not to accept of his election or confirmation to it; another to the Archbishop, not to confirm his election; a third to the Prior and Monks, not to proceed in the election; and committed the Temporalties of the Bishoprick during his pleasure, to his own special Trustees, as these Records assure us.

UPon the untimely death of King John by poiſon, Anno 1216. his young ſon Henry the 3d. being crowned King at Glouceſter by Gualo the Popes Legate, (more out of zeal to preſerve the Popes new acquired intereſt in England, by King John's Charter of Reſignation, then any cordial affection to the King or Kingdom,) [a] Hujus (Gualonis) conſilio & admonitione idem Puer cruce ſignatus eſt in feſto Omnium Sanctorum eodem anno. Puer novem annorum in Regem erigitur viribus et induſtria Gualonis Legati Papæ, Wintonienſis Epiſcopi, Comitum de Pembroc. & Ceſtriæ: of whom Henry de Knyghton gives us this character. Rex verò novus qui patri barbato impubes ſucceſſit, præventus à Deo benedictionibus dulcedinis à teneris innocentiæ ſuæ annis, ſuperni Regis amorem fervoremque concepit in tota vita: titulo humilitatis & innocentiæ, puritate conſcientiæ, morum ſuavitate & gravitate ſic excellit, ut prædeceſſores ſuos, quibus ſolo nomine Regio congruebat, quaſi ſanctus et inter homines imperabat, et terrenus quidem Angelus videretur. Unde fertur ipſum novum Regem dum die quadam coram altari beati Virginis & Filii ſui Regis (pictured like an * Infant in his Mothers lap) aſſiſteret; tale verbum protuliſſe, Rogo te puerum Regem, ut me Regem puerum de cætero reges et defendas.

After his Coronation, the Legate excommunicating the Uſurper Lewes, with all his adherents, every Lords-day and Holy-day, the Barons adhering to him being informed of his ſecret deſign to baniſh and diſinherit them all, ſo ſoon as he had conquered England, deſerted him; [b] præterea ſententia excommunicationis, quam Angli præ omnibus nationibus formidant, (as Mat. Weſtminſter obſerves) ipſos Barones ad priorem Dominum naturalem, ſpreto Ludovico, diutius revocavit: Et viriliter ſe habentes Barones, (in fighting for King Henry) meruerunt abſolvi, et Regis novi dilectionem. Whereupon the Uſurper Lewes craving leave peaceably to depart out of England, taking an Oath never to return into, or infeſt it more, departed into France with diſhonour.

Tom. 2. p. 374. l. 7. after King, insert. To these I shall annex this memorable Record evidencing the Kings Soveraign Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction in Ireland. The Canons of Lismore electing a Bishop without the Kings precedent License, and sending their Proctors into England, to procure the Kings royal assent to their Election; the King's Council declared it to be illegal and null, being made against his antient Prerogative, ratified by the Pope himself, that * no Elections ought to be made without his special precedent Royal License to elect. Whereupon these Proctors renounced the first Election as void, and by vertue of their Procuration, by the Kings special License re-elected the same Bishop; which election the King approving, issued this Writ to the Chief Justice of Ireland to restore his Temporalties.

REX G. de Mar. Justiciario Hiberniæ, venientes ad nos in Angliam Magister Macrobius & David Canonici Lismorensis Ecclesiæ, in præsencia Domini R. Dei gratia Norwicensis Electi, Domini Papæ Camerarii & Apostolicæ Sedis Legati, coram Consilio nostro proposuerunt, quod Magistrum Robertum de Bedeford elegerunt in Pastorem Ecclesiæ suæ prædictæ tunc vacantis, et petierunt assensum huic electioni Regium erhiberi; set statim objectum fuit eis a Consilio nostro, quod nulla fuit electio illa, nec rite celebrata, cum secundum dignitatem nostram multis diebus optentam, et a Domino Papa confirmatam, debuit electionem suam petita et impetrata a nobis eligendi licencia præveniſſe. Intelligentes igitur dicti Canonici, quod non rite processum fuit in hac parte, renunciaverunt electioni tali, dicto Magistro Roberto de Bedeford eidem pro se renunciante, porrigentes Consilio nostro literas Capituli Lismorensis continentes, quod dictos Magistros M. & D. tam in electione facienda, quam cæteris Ecclesiæ suæ negociis Procuratores constituerunt; Ratum habituri quicquid ex parte Capituli in his ducerent disponendum. Audito verò earum literarum tenore, & data eis audientia, petierunt a nobis humiliter licentiam eligendi: quæ ut laboribus eorum et Capituli parceremus, eis benigne concessa, præhabita deliberatione eundem Magistrum R. de Bedeford in Pastorem sibi elegerunt. Quorum electioni cum sic rite facta fuisset, nostrum præstituimus favorem et assensum. Hæc igitur vobis protestantes, præsentibus literis vobis mandamus, quatinus eidem Magistro R. vel Procuratori suo plenam seisinam habere faciatis de Episcopatu Lismorensi, cum omnibus maneriis ad eundem pertinentibus, & cum omnibus pertinenciis suis plenam seisinam habere faciatis. Teste Domino P. Wintonienſi Episcopo apud Westmonasterium, 12 die Decembris, anno regni nostri tertio. Per eundem & Comitem Marescallum.

By the like reason the Bishops keeping Courts and exercising all manner of coercive Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction by their own authority in their Dominions, without the Kings special License, was as void, illegal, and as much against the Law, Kings Crown and Dignity, as their first Election, the Earl of Cornwalls Sonne holding Plea of an Assize of Mordanceſter, or of Novel disseisin, and constituting Justices of Assise in Cornwall in his County Courts by his own authority, without the Kings License; which being then complained of to the Kings Counsil, they resolved to be against againſt the Kings honour, Crown, and dignity, and thereupon prohibited by this memorable Writ of Prohibition. An. 3 H. 3.

I pretermit all his other Letters in that Bundle, being of leſs publick importance; theſe tranſcribed being ſufficient to manifeſt this Nuncioes domineering power in the Realm, during the Kings minority.

In the ſame Bundle I find this Petition of the Prior of S^t. Patrick of Dune in Ireland to the King to grant them ſome ſmall Cell to reſide in in England, their houſes in Ireland being frequently burnt and conſumed by the Wars, for S^t. Patrick's and other Iriſh Saints ſakes, whoſe Reliques they then ſent to the King for a preſent.

VEnerabili viro Domino & amico in Chriſto, chariſſimo R. de Nevill Decano de Lichfeld; H. Prior Sancti Edmundi & Conventus ejuſdem loci, obſequiorum plenitudo cum ſalute. Serenitati veſtræ ſuper beneficiis totiens nobis & noſtris liberaliter impenſis gratiarum referimus actiones; rogantes quatinus ſolita liberalitate veſtra præcipiatis Capellano & ſervient. veſtris apud Hingham, ne nova et indebita exigant a Dominicis noſtris et hominibus noſtris, ratione Decimarum; turbando nos et noſtros ſuper his quæ pacifice poſſedimus per quadraginta annos; videlicet, Decimas de Fœno, et de Polendinis, et de viduis Denar. Sancti Petri; quod eſt noſtris partibus inauditum. Præterea non lateat vos, quod antiquis temporibus data fuit una Acra Prati pro decimatione Fœni; et eſt Eccleſia, ſicut dicitur, in poſſeſſione illius Acræ. Item, exigunt Decimas de Bruariis, quas nunquam dedimus, nec aliquis vicinorum noſtrorum. Rogamus igitur, ut de pacifica poſſeſſione gaudere poſſimus, donec colloquium habuerimus ſuper hiis vobiſcum. Valete in Domino.

The Biſhop of Lincoln and Abbot of Dorkeſter moleſting, ſuing, and excommunicating the Tenants of the Manor of Benſington held of the King, to their great injury and grievance for their Lay-fees, to defraud the King of his right; they thereupon prayed the Chief Juſtice to ſtay their proceedings, and to aſſign a day to hear both parties before the King and his Counſil in the Exchequer, where they would defend the King's right and Title againſt their encroachments.

About the ſame year, in the ſame Bundle, I met with this Epiſtle of a Roman Cardinal, (formerly a Notary, to whom King John had granted an annual penſion of 20 Marks a year for his good ſervices to him) writ to King Henry his ſucceſſor, importuning him to pay all the arrears of it due unto him for 6 years, and likewiſe to augment his ſtipend ſince his advancement to an higher degree, for the grand ſervices he had done, and would alwayes do for him in the Court of Rome.

Undè non immerito credimus & ſperamus, ut et vos paternis veſtigiis inhærentes, dilectionem illam, quam erga nos Dominus Rex pater veſter habuerat, habere velitis, et erga nos ſuæ liberalitatis propoſitum impleatis. Veruntamen vehementer cogimur non ſine cauſa mirari, quod jam per ſex annos noſtrum nobis non fuerit beneficium perſolutum. * Spelmanni Concil. Tom. 2. p. 137, to 161.

It seems that Anno 1223. (not 1217. as Sir * Henry Spelman mis-conjectures) immediately after the Council of Oxford, An. 1222. mentioned by him, Richard Poore Bishop of Sarum, by his Episcopal authority, took upon him to make several Constitutions for his Dioceſse of Sarum, and also of Durham after his translation thither, to advance his Episcopal Jurisdiction over the Clergy and Laity; wherein as you may observe the frequent whoredomes, and general incontinency of Priests, Prebends, Monks, in keeping of Whores and Concubines openly, to the scandal of the people, (being prohibited marriage, though he makes it a Sacrament, and highly recommended it to all Lay-men, to prevent these sins;) with the frequent abuse of Excommunications in several cases, in pursuance of the Council of Oxfords Decree; So he published sundry Constitutions, prejudicial to the Liberties and Properties of the Laity; witness his Constitutions De Testamentis faciendis. Præcipimus quod Laicis inhibeatur frequenter, ne testamenta sua faciant, sine præsentia Sacerdotis, sicut diligunt quod eorum extremæ voluntates adimpleantur. † Inter alia etiam singuli Sacerdotes infirmos suos moneant & efficaciter inducant, quod fabricæ Sarum Ecclesiæ suæ memores, prout Deus inspiraverit illis, in Testamento suo, de bonis suis relinquant. Sacerdotibus autem similiter inhibemus, ne Testamenta sua per manum eorum ordinant Laicalem: Ne viri Ecclesiastici Sacramentum fidelitatis Laicis præstent, for the Temporalties held of them. Si Patroni, vel Advocati, aut Feudatarii, seu Vicedomini alicujus Ecclesiæ Rectorem, vel alium Clericum ipsius Ecclesiæ, per se, vel per alios occidere ausu nefario præsumserit, Patroni jus usque ad quartam generationem amittant, et posteritas talium in Clericorum collegium nullatenus assumatur, nec in dignitatibus Dominicis alicujus Prælatiæ assequatur honorem; Ne quis Rector Ecclesiæ ædificet in loco Laicali. Which were all likewise decreed in the * Provincial Constitutions made and published by Edmund Archbishop of Canterbury, Anno Dom. 1236. Thus did our usurping Popish Prelates, like so many petty Popes, by their own illegal Constitutions, never consented to by the King and Parliament, encroach continually, by degrees, in matters of Testaments and other things, upon the Liberties, rights, properties and free-holds of the Lay-Subjects, as well as Prerogatives of the King.

Pope Honorius being informed that King Henry forgetting the great and faithfull services done by the Bishop of Wincheſter to him and his Father King John had injured and molested him concerning the Liberties of his Church, and denyed him leave to repair to Rome about the breach of his Vow, in not going to the Holy Land, and the affairs of his Church; which he could not do without the Kings special license, sent this original Bull to him upon these occasions; which I met with in the White Tower.

HONORIUS, &c. Chariſſimo in Chriſto filio Henrico Regi Angliæ illuſtri, &c. Sinceræ fidei & devotionis conſtantia, quam venerabilis frater Wintonienſis Epiſcopus claræ memoriæ Johanni Regi Angliæ patri tuo ac tibi ipſi exhibuit in non parvæ neceſſitatis articulo, excidere non debet à tua memoria, ſed in perpetuis temporibus inhærere. Audivimus autem, & audientes nequivimus non mirari, quod quaſi ejus fida utiliaq; obſequia dicto patri tuo ac tibi exhibita jam oblivionem acceperint, libertates ejus Eccleſiæ ab eodem patre tuo aliisque Regibus Anglorum indultæ (ſicut apparet per literas eorundem) te diſſimulante ſugiter infringuntur. Monemus igitur circumſpectionem tuam & hortamur attentius, quod ejuſdem Epiſcopi fidem et obſequia recolens, et quantum tibi vitanda ſit noſtra et Apoſtolicæ ſedis offenſa diligenter attendens, prædictam Eccleſiam (quam dudum in noſtram protectionem receperimus) cum omnibus bonis ejus habeas propenſius commendatam; et injurias eidem illatas facias emendari: eamque ne ipſe moleſtes ſuper libertatibus et aliis honoribus vel juſtitiis ſuis, nec a tuis permittas ſubditis moleſtari: ſed eam, ſicut ad Regiam pertinet celſitudinem (ſpecialiter conſideratione dicti Epiſcopi) protegas et defendas. Ad hæc cum idem Epiſcopus diſpoſuerit ad noſtram venire præſentiam, tractatum nobiſcum ſuper executione voti, (quod de tranſeundo in ſubſidium Terræ Sanctæ ſuſcepto ſigno Crucis omiſit) aliiſque ſuis et Eccleſiæ ſuæ negotiis habiturus, et his qui volunt ad partes accedere cismarinas egreſſus (ſicut fertur) non pateat abſque tua licentia ſpeciali, præfatum Epiſcopum cum comitatu ſuo libere venire permittas ad nos, et ad Romanam Eccleſiam matrem ſuam, nec impediri per aliquos aliquatinus patiaris; quia hoc non magis in tuam quam in noſtram et Apoſtolicæ ſedis injuriam redundaret. Te ſpero nobis obſequentem exhibueris in omnibus ſupradictis, quod rumorem, qui ſuper his ad nos venerit, comprobes eſſe falſum, et operis exhibitione demonſtres te memorem eſſe et reverentiæ quam debes Apoſtolici ſedi, et puræ fidei Epiſcopi ſupradicti, quarum nullo debet tempore oblivifci. In a Bundle of Letters in the White Tower there is exant this original Letter written by the Biſhop of Liechfield to the Chancellor of England, concerning the Popes and Cardinals great affection, adviſe, and aſſiſtance to the King in his intended Marriage with the Earl of Britains Daughter, and his affairs in Poictiers and France; whereby we may diſcover their craft and delayes, to gain more moneys, penſions, preſentments, and a greater compliance with their demands from the King.

An. 8 H. 3. Pro obtinenda diſpenſatione matrimonii inter vos et filiam nobilis viri Comitis Britanniæ contrahendi, cum venerabili patre Epiſcopo Coventrenſi apud Dominum Papam diligenter inſtitimus et frequenter, fidelitatem et dilectionem veſtram et regni veſtri ſtudioſius exponentes. Qui licet ſinceritatem dilectionis, quam erga vos et regnum veſtrum habet, ſatis nobis exprœſſerit, et ſæpius inculcaverit, quare non facit Rex Angliæ factum ſuum, adjicient placere ſibi, quod efficaciter in negotio proceſſiſſetis eodem, literas tamen ſuas nobis ad præſens ſuper hoc concedere recuſavit. Sed placuit ei, quod de conſcientia ſua noſtras vobis literas mitteremus: nos igitur de certa ejus conſcientia ſerenitati Regiæ duximus conſulendum, quatinus ſecurè ad hujuſmodi conſummandum negotium procedatis. Indubitanter & ut credimus, quod Dominus Papa gratiam vobis in hoc factam minime ſubtrahet, ſed in hoc et in aliis vobis tanquam ſpeciali et devoto filio præſtabit conſilium et favorem. Nos igitur de conſilio dictorum Cardinalium conſulimus Domino Regi, quod ſevere procedat ad hujus negotii conſummationem; quia nihil oportebit vos timere, quoad Deum vel homines, ut ſæpius inculcaverunt nobis prædicti Cardinales. Et etiam Dominus Hoſtienſis, *qui, quia tunc præſens non fuit quando ſignatæ ſunt litera memoratæ, ſigillum ſuum non appoſuit, cum aliis, non minùs ipſis propter hoc laboravit. Præterea petivimus, quod amoverentur Galliei, qui ſunt in partibus Albigenſium, de terris quæ ſunt de feodo Domini Regis, ſi quas forſan invaſerint: ſed quia neſcivimus ſuper hoc certum petere, nec ipſi reſpondere; ſed cum ſciverint, quæ ſunt terræ (ſi quæ fuerint) quod ſuum erit, volenter exequentur; præſertim cum prohibitum fuerit Regi Francia, ne aliquid in partibus illis attemptaret in præjudicium Imperatoris, vel veſtrum, vel aliorum fidelium. Comes autem Tholoſanus juvari non poterit, niſi mittat ad Curiam nuncios ſpeciales. Ad quid autem expediat ei mittere, prout poterimus, inquiremus. In the ſame Bundle of Letters to the Biſhop of Chicheſter Chancellor of England, I find this of the Popes Nephew, a Prebend of the Church of York, for the payment of an Annuity granted him by the King out of his Exchequer; whereby we may diſcern what preferments and favours the Popes Nephews and creatures then gained from King Henry during his minority.

VEnerabili in Chriſto patri, Dei gratia Ciceſtren. Epiſcopo, illuſtris Regis Anglorum Cancellario; Nicholaus nepos Domini Papæ & Eboracenſis Canonicus, ſalutem & recommendationem in Domino. Paternitatem veſtram, de qua plenè confidimus, tenore præſentium duximus exorandam, quatinus quadraginta marcas, quas in Scaccario Paſchæ annuatim debemus percipere, ſecundum quod in reſcripto literarum Domini Regis continetur, Domino Stephano Capellano Domini Papæ pro inſtanti termino Paſchæ, nomine noſtro, ſine difficultate faciatis perſolvi. In the ſame Bundle of Letters, I met with this Epiſtle of William Archbiſhop of Burdeaux to King Henry, relating the great promiſes of the French to draw him to their party from the King, the grand loſſes and extremities he ſuſtained for his fidelity to the King and his Brother, the dangerous condition of their affairs without the Kings ſpeedy aſſiſtance which he craved, with his Excommunication and proceedings againſt the invaders of his Churches liberties.

Et cum ipſe ſibi jam ferè totam noſtram Provinciam ſubjugaſſet, multa incommoda paſſi ſumus, & adhuc etiam ſuſtinemus; quia Caſtra, Civitates, & Villas, quas Francigenæ detinent ſubjugatas, intrare ullatenus non audemus. Redditus etiam noſtros apud Rupellam detinet ſuperatos, quos nobis nunquam reſtituere voluerunt; ſuper multis aliis exiſtentes nobis injurioſi graviter & moleſti. Cumque propter hæc Romanam Curiam adiremus, à Francigenis in Alvernia ad captionem fugati fuimus vel ad mortem, & ſicut per Clericos veſtros qui præſentes erant in Romana Curia potuiſtis plenius edoceri, multum laboravimus pro veſtris & fratris veſtri negotiis promovendis, præter expenſas, quas fere ultra quingentas Marcas fecimus in Curia ſuprædicta, in eundo etiam et redeundo. Et cum de eadem Eccleſia rediremus, cum nobis in pluribus locis inſidias Francigenæ præparaſſent, cum quodam ſolo Clerico ferè per totum iter uſque ad terram veſtram venimus, & quaſi ſimplex Clericus incedentes, noſtram poſt nos manticam ferebamus; Literas etiam de ſecuritate propter cauſam, quæ eſt inter nos & Bituricin. Archiepiſcopum, non niſi per duos menſes, ſcilicet uſque ad Octabas Nativitatis Domini proximò præteritas, Rex Franciæ, ſublatus de vitæ medio, voluit nobis dare. DOmino Papæ, &c. Rex, &c. Cum nuper post festum Pentecostes, venerabiles Patres nostros Archiepiscopos & Episcopos, Abbates, ac omnes Magnates totius Regni nostri vocassemus, ut nobis occurrerent apud Northampton, daturi nobis ibidem consilium, & auxilium facturi ad defensionem terræ nostræ in Pictavia, quam Rex Francorum impugnare parabat. Ad hoc etiam fuimus ibidem per venerabiles patres in Christo Cant. Archiepiscopum, Bath. & omnes Episcopos auctoritate literarum vestrarum quas receperant, diligenter moniti et efficaciter inducti, licet non esset necesse nos pro eo rogari, quod fecimus et facturi eramus etiam non rogati, præsertim cum ipsi qui se voluntarie subtraxerant, nunquam fuerint a nostris Consiliis, nobis jubentibus, aut volentibus, amoti. Etenim per breve tempus præcedens London. in quodam Consilio nostro prædictos Com. Cestriæ, ac alios omnes Nobiles nostros qui cum Justiciario nostro contenderant, ac ipsum cum illis convenire fecimus in pacem. Osculo pacis utrinque dato & recepto, Nos ipsi & obliviscentes volentes potius injuriarum, quæ multa præcesserant, quam reminiscentes, omnes recepimus in pacem et gratiam, qui demeritis suis exigentibus per nos offendi meruerunt; sperantes habere de omnibus et singulis ad nostra negotia Consilium et auxilium tam magnificum quale et quantum a nobis in suis necessitatibus exspectare debent. Sanè cum ad diem Consilii nostri de Northampton in quibusdam partibus terræ nostræ Judices discretos dedissemus & Nobiles, ad audiendas & corrigendas querelas multorum de rapinis & spoliantibus terrarum & bonorum suorum, quas multi detulerant ad aures nostras, secundum Regni nostri consuetudinem obtentam & approbatam ab antiquo; & quidam de Magnatibus nostris, Falcasius nomine, coram Judicibus eisdem in sexdecim Causis fuisset convictus inter alios, & ad restitutionem ablatorum, & satisfactionem plenam debito modo condemnatus. Molestè ferens quod cogebatur esse quietior, qui prius suo vitio renuerat esse pacificus, posuit insidias uni de Judicibus prædictis versus nos venienti Northampton, ac ipsum inermem ac suos, per quendam Willielmum fratrem suum & multitudinem armatorum captum, violenter, viliusque tractatum, in quodam Castro nostro quod habebat in custodia, vinculis & carceri mancipavit. Monitus & vocatus per nuncios solempnes, incontinenti de Consilio Magnatum totius regni nostri qui nobiscum erant, ut & Captos redderet, & statutis die & termino compareret de pace nostra violata, & aliis multis quæ habuimus contra seipsum respondsurus, ac Malefactores suos produceret per Judicium Regalis Curiæ & regni Jura tractandos, nec illos producere, nec seipsum offerre Juri voluit; cum alias teneatur ratione possessionum magnarum, & officii maximi quod habuit in Curia nostra, ad nos in Consiliis nostris venire non vocatus; Exerensque virus quod diu conceperat, indignans ex hoc quod cogi debuit esse sub Domino, qui dominandi cupiditate torquebatur; et captos reddere negavit, et comparere coram nobis, ac suos producere Juri parituros, Castrum nostrum muniens contra nos audacter, quod instanter nobis reddi petebamus: propter quod ad illud obsidendum et expugnandum per Consilium Curiæ nostræ statuimus cum exercitu nostro, quod in proximo dante Domino in Bello habere speramus. Ad hæc licet dolentes & magna necessitate coacti, ut iniquitati ipsius et plurium Complicum, in illius Castri expugnationem concludatur, omissis ad præsens omnibus aliis negotiis nostris, quæ in partibus Hyberniæ & Pictaviæ nos urgent. Yet notwithſtanding after Falcatius his Excommunication by the Biſhops, and judgement, exile by the King and Lords for his Rebellion, the Pope and his Legate being bribed with his large gifts, writ and interceded for his reſtitution to his Lands, and favour; as appears not only by our Hiſtorians, Tom. 2. p. 392, 398. and this Epiſtle, but by two Epiſtles of the Popes Legate, (which I reſcued out of the rubbiſh in the White Tower Chappel) informing the Pope, and Falcatius his friends at Rome, how ill the King and kingdom of England reſented the Popes interceſſion for him, and intermedling with the ſtate and affairs of England, contrary to former cuſtom.

DOmino Papæ. Sanctitati veſtræ duxi tenore præſentium intimand. quod antequam ad me literæ veſtræ, quas mihi miſiſtis pro facto Falkatii pervoniſſent, idem in Burgundia captus erat. Quibus devotè receptis, & quæ continebantur in eis intellectis, ſtatim illis perſonis ſcribere diligentius procuravi, per quas ipſum credebam debere reſtitui libertati. Recepi poſtmodum literas et nuncios ex parte Regis Angliæ illuſtris; quibus intellexi, quod tam ipſe Rex quam fere totum regnum Angliæ pro miſſione ejuſdem F. quam faciatis, turbati ſunt plurimum et commoti, et ipſius inimici derisionem ejuſdem in hac parte percipientes, elati ſunt in ſuperbiam. Unde videtur per hoc, quod negotium pacis vel treugarum inter eundem & Regem Francorum illuſtrem, pro quo tantum (Deus novit) laboravi, non poſſit effectui mancipari; & ſic per conſequens negotium Albign. patet (ſicut credimus) retardari. Cum itaque diebus illis, propter malitias hominum, et Regum et regnorum ſint ſcandala evitanda, cum totus mundus fere ſit poſitus in maligno, plus etiam quam creditis; ſi placet, Sanctitas veſtra provideat quid ſit exinde faciendum. Bundela Literarum in Turre London. An. 8. H. 3.

MAgiſtro T. Paternitati veſtræ tenore præſentium intimamus, quod antequam literæ Domini Papæ pervenissent, quas nobis pro facto Falkatii deſtinavit, idem F. in Burgundia captus erat; ſed ſtatim poſt receptionem Literarum ipſarum illis perſonis ſcripſimus, per quas credebamus ipſum debere reſtitui libertati. Recepimus poſtmodum nuncios & literas ex parte Regis Anglorum illuſtris; quibus intelleximus evidenter, quod tam ipſe quam fere totum regnum Angliæ valde turbati ſunt, plurimum et commoti, pro miſſione quam Dominus Papa facit in Angliam ſuper negotiis Falkatii memorati. Unde videtur per hoc quod negotium pacis vel treugarum inter duos Reges, pro quo tantum (Deus novit) laboravimus, non poſſit effectui mancipari; & ſic per conſequens negotium * Albigen. prout credimus ſit quaſi penitus exſufflatum. Cum itaque diebus illis, propter hominum malitias, Regum et regnorum ſint ſcandala evitanda, cum totus mundus fere in maligno ſit poſitus, plus etiam quam creditis vos et alii; qui cum eſſetis in cameris veſtris non cogitatis hujuſmodi; ſet ut videtur Eccleſiæ Dei parantes excidium, * Reges et regna non ad devotionem Eccleſiæ, ſet potius ad ſcandalum et diſcordias provocantes. Scientes quod plurimum admiramur, et multi alii commoventur, quod cum regnum Angliæ nunc in bono ſtatu conſiſtat, quare Dominus Papa et vos ad vocem unius, ad inquirendum de facto Regum Angliæ, (quod antea de hiis quæ Regiam contingant poteſtatem fieri non conſuevit,) et de ſtatu ipſius regni et Prælatorum ejuſdem, mandatis. Et ideo (ſi placet) provide in hac parte utentes conſilio (ſicut decet) procedatis in ipſo negotio, (Deum ſolum habentes præ oculis) prout melius videritis expedire.

Romam* venimus die Jovis proxima ſequente, quem quidem valde commotum invenimus et turbatum multipliciter, ſtuduimus pro poſſe noſtro reducere ad temperanciam. Dominum Papam quidem et Cardinales non ſolum commotos circa ſtatum veſtrum et regni veſtri perpendimus, verum penitus ſe deſperatos unanimiter fatebantur. Nam Rex Jeroſol. et dicti Gallici prædicabant omnibus, quod Majores Angliæ obſides offerebant uſque ad ——————— de reddendo ſibi terram cum primo venire curaret ad illam. Adjicientes, ſi aliquid in Curia Romana contra voluntatem Regis Franciæ attemptaretur, incontinenter Rex transfretaret in Angliam, et præter illos alii fortan de terra *——— qui aliquandiu ſteterunt pro vobis ——————— etſi alia ſiniſtra (ſicut audivimus) inſinuare nitebantur; Ita quod in narrationibus et petitionibus veſtris plures nobis adverſabantur, et multa obſtabantur. Reſponſio tamen ad illa non fuit difficilis cum veritas nos non lateret, & eadem nos turbatos liberaret, licet hoc ſolum grave nobis eſſet, quod vix potuerunt induci quidam ut aliquam fidem adhiberent veritati. Porro cum ſingulos Cardinales viſitaſſemus et ſuper ſtatu veſtro terrarumque veſtrarum Angliæ, Walliæ, Hiberniæ, et de facto Bedeford. et Pictaviæ, et aliis articulis nobis injunctis inſtruxiſſemus diligenter, habitoque poſtmodum colloquio cum Papa in ſecreto die Mercurii proxima ante feſtum Sancti Thomæ Apoſtoli, coram Papa et fratribus cauſam adventus noſtri plene expoſuimus, peticiones veſtras tunc ibi Domino Papæ committentes. Veruntamen quia Nuncii Comitis Tholoſani, Epiſcopi, Milites & Clerici poſt feſtum Sancti Michaelis in Curia uniformiter ſteterant, et Papa cum fratribus jam per multos dies ſuper facto illo licet nondum plene deliberaverant, diſtulerunt uſque poſt Natale de veſtris negotiis provide re; Et ſperabatur quod dictus Comes competens reſponſum eſſet accepturus, licet Rex, et Gallici prædicti ſibi fortiter reſiſterent. Die Jovis proxima recepit Papa literas Portuenſis Epiſcopi Legati Aleman. quod idem Portuen. tractatum habitum inter Reges Alemanniæ & Franciæ, ſuper Matrimonio de quo ſcitis, impedivit; Dixit tamen nobis Papa, quod Rex Franciæ pro eodem facto Nuncios ſuos ad Imperatorem iterum tranſmiſit, ſed quid egerunt adhuc neſcivimus. De Falkaſio de Brealth dicebatur nobis circa principium adventus Domini, quod erat in veniendo Romam, attamen die Dominica proxima ante Natale Domini quando recederet lator præſencium percepimus, quod non ille erat de quo cavebatur illa die ——————— quia ——————— die Dominica detinet cum quod captus erat in Francia & detentus. Valeat Dominus noſter, et quicquid Papa diſponendum de facto veſtro duxerit, Dominus nichilominus dirigat actus et voluntates veſtros et noſtros, ſi placet vigilatis caveatiſque vobis.

Unde ad instituendam et observandam debitæ sollempnitatis formam tam in Regia dignitate quam in electionis celebracione, examinata postmodum coram nobis eadem electione, ab adversariis Electi plura fuerunt objecta et prolata, tam in personam Electi quam in formam eligendi; propter quæ videbatur ipsa electio minus valida, si universa deberent judicari et conservari secundum aliorum consuetudinem regnorum et Regiæ dignitatis conservacionem, de quibus gentis illius ruditas usque ad tempus præsens noticiam non habuit, nec eas observare consuevit. Dumque videbatur ex hiis quæ omissa sunt tam in modo electionis, quam in observacione Regiæ dignitatis, ipsius Ecclesiæ ordinacio ad nos tanquam superiorem devolvi, quia volumus et affectamus Regiam dignitatem in illis partibus firmari, et induci, et consolidari ubi quondam convaluit, nec obtinuit cum in partibus eisdem nullus Anglicus fructificare possit adhuc, — aut morari; maxime propter loci pauperta-tem et gentis contrariæ hostilitatem; Super ordinacione ejusdem Ecclesiæ consilium et voluntatem veſtram nobis significetis; fideli noſtro præsencium latori credentes, qui de hiis et aliis vobis plenius exponet. How little cauſe this Archbiſhop Henry had to complain to the King, or to Excommunicate Thomas Fitz-Adam, yea how inſolently and violently he demeaned himſelf in Excommunicating this Kings Officer againſt the Kings prerogative and the Kings Juſtices commands, and what an enemy, Traytor he was to the King, this Letter of Fitz-Adam to the King and his Counſil, concerning the difference between him and this Archbiſhop will abundantly evidence, extant in the ſame Bundle in the Tower, with his precedent Letters.

REverendo Domino ſuo H. Dei gratia Regi Angl. Domino Hyb. &c. ſuus, ſi placet, Thomas filius Adæ, ſalutem & fidele ſervicium. Sciatis, Domine, quod terra veſtra Hyberniæ Dei gracia in bono ſtatu eſt, ſet Dominus Dublinenſis nullo modo patitur agenda veſtra adeo bene ſe habere ut vobis expediret in partibus veſtris, et nititur omnibus viribus ſuis vos exhæredare de Foreſta veſtra in Hibernia, ut vobis alias mandavi: Ingerendo michi cuſtodienti Foreſtam illam per præceptum veſtrum diverſa intollerabilia occaſione illius Forreſtæ. Contigit quod quidam octavo Epiphaniæ proximò præteritæ qua Juſticiarius intinerans in Foreſta ad inquirendum pleniùs jura veſtra Foreſtæ, venerunt contra me Foreſtarii turpiter verberati et lacerati, dicentes, quod ex quo poſcunt vadia hominum Archiepiſcopi ſecantium nemus veſtrum in Foreſta veſtra ——— homines Archiepiſcopi, et per præceptum ejus, cum clamore et uthagio inſurgunt in eos, et vi vadia ſua a Foreſtariis extorquent, Foreſtarios turpiter infeſtantes. Eodem die venientes quidam homines de eadem Foreſta indicaverunt michi quendam malefactorem converſantem in Foreſta in terra Archiepiſcopi, qui a longo tempore in vita Domini mei patris veſtri uſque ad hoc tempus deſtruerat Foreſtam; Et eſt malefactor ille * ——— prout tota terra teſtatur tocius regni veſtri. Hoc audito, miſi ſervientes noſtros ad quærendum malefactorem illum, & illo invento in domo ſua, ſervientes ſcrutaverunt domum, ſi poſſent invenire in domo ſua perinde eſſet melius athaciandus, et ſumerant arcum ſuum cum ſagitta ſanguinolenta, et perchias Cervi ſanguinolentas cum corio et quadam portione venationis ——— Servientes duxerunt ad me malefactorem cum athaciamento: Ego verò incontinenti feci convenire omnes probos homines cujuſdam villæ veſtræ de eadem Foreſta, et feci ducere malefactorem illum cum athaciamento coram eis, et athaciamentum coram eis inbreviari, et malefactorem poſui in priſonam veſtram. Hoc audiens Dominus Archiepiſcopus, miſit ad me Decanum Dublin. cum tribus Presbyteris, et poſtulavit hominem ſuum quietum captum ſuper terra Eccleſiæ. Ego vero intelligens illum non eſſe reddendum, et maxime Presbitero (mero,) niſi Archiepiſcopus vellet eum replegiare ad habendum illum in Curia veſtra, nolui eis illum dimittere. Nec mora, eadem die, ſcilicet vigilia Epiphaniæ, mandavit omnibus Presbiteris Civitatis Dublin. et extra, quod (a divinis) ceſſarent dummodo eſſem in villa. In craſtino, in die Epiphaniæ, venerunt ad me duo Preſbiteri, & poſtulaverunt dictum malefactorem quietum ex parte Archiepiſcopi; jubentes de parte ſua ne illum plus tenerem, et niſi illum ita redderem excommunicarent me. (A daring inſolency.) Hoc audito, appellavi ad Dominum Archiepiſcopum ab illo die in viij. dies; ſi hoc nichil eſſet per eum pro vobis et ſtatu veſtro, et

An. 9 H. 3. libertatibus veſtris, et pro me et hominibus meis coram Archiep. in villa Dublin. ad horam; et ſi hoc eſſet parum, ego appellavi ſuppadicto modo in præſentia Domini Papæ; et ſi hoc prodeſſe non poſſet, petii inducias quouſque loquutus fuiſſem cum Juſticiario veſtro Hiberniæ. His omnibus poſtpoſitis ſteterunt in contrariis; in eadem die Epiphaniæ pronunciarunt ſententiam Excommunicationis in me. Super quo nimium motus ivi ad Archiepiſcopum in craſtino, et monſtravi ei gravamen et pudorem minus circumſpecte et conſulte quam deceret michi fore illatum; et ipſe interrogavit hominem ſuum quietum et abſolveret me; et dixit, quod ego nec alius potui capere hominem illum nec alium ſuper terram ſuam quamvis eſſet in Foreſta. * Note his inſolent ſpeeches. Dicens * Terram eſſe ſuam, Nemus eſſe ſuum, Foreſtam eſſe ſuam, Feras eſſe ſuas: Et ex quo audivi quod atraxit ad Jus ſuum omne Jus veſtrum, nolui dimittere ei hominem ſuum quietum niſi vellet replegiare eum ad habendum eum in Curia veſtra, vel ſaltem coram Juſticiario veſtro in adventu ſuo in partes illas: quod omnino refutavit, nec potui abſolvi. Et ego mandavi Juſticiario cauſam Sententiæ in me latæ, rogans quod mandaret ſuper hoc voluntatem ſuam. Juſticiarius vero mandavit michi, quod nullo modo redderem malefactorem quietum, niſi Archiepiſcopus vellet replegiare ad habendum eum in Curia veſtra. Mandavit eciam eidem Archiepiſcopo quod replegiaret Sententiam qualemcumque in me latam, et tantum inde faceret ne deterius inde contingeret, et ne negocia veſtra remanerent facienda, et michi in nullo potuit proficere: Immo per totam terram veſtram facit me proſequi, prohibendo communionem hominum et apſtamenta villarum, ita quod ad quoddam arduum negocium veſtrum exequendum intereſſe non potui; videlicet, quod haberetis donationem Eccleſiarum de Connaſtia, quam nunquam habuiſtis. Ad hoc, quod in tota Hybernia non habetis unam Eccleſiam dandam. Nec eciam potui eſſe ad tenend. Aſſiſas veſtras Dublin. in Octabis Sancti Hyllarii; et ita in hunc modum promovet idem Archiepiſcopus negocia veſtra in partibus Hyberniæ. Quidam vero direrunt Archiep. quod defamaverat me multum; et ultra, quod ad me excommunicand. (non debet procedere) et eciam propter privilegium quod habetis, ut dicunt, quod capitales Vaſſalli veſtri non ſunt excommunicandi, vobis inconſultis. Ad quod reſpondit Archiepiſcopus, quod cum videret privilegium illud tunc crederet vos illud habere, ſet non antea. Ita et in hunc modum ſe habet idem Archiepiſcopus erga vos et erga me pro vobis, ſuper quo, ſi placet, vobis et michi provideatis. Sciturі, quod in mandatis meis non invenietis me alium quam mandatorem certarum rerum: et quamvis vincula quibus ligatus ſum moleſtent me, ſuſtineo illa donec vobis ſuper prædictis providerіtis, quia volo vos pro poſſe meo tenere intus Vallivam libertatum veſtrarum ſuper prædictis, * ——— et pro Deo et ſervicio meo provideatis michi, ſi fieri poteſt, quod abſolver ab alio, non ab Archiepiſcopo, qui fecit pronunciari Sententiam in me latam, quantam hoc vobis cederet ad honorem: deſicut credo, quod tenebat me in Sentencia illa, quouſque acquieſcam in omnibus voluntati ejus ——— ſet hoc non expediret vobis, ſecundum quod adhuc operatur erga vos. Provideatis eciam vobis de aliquibus probis hominibus & legalibus (in terra) Hybern. ad proſequendum negocia veſtra, et maxime contra dictum Archiepiſcopum, qui proponit exhæredare vos in partibus illis ——— ſolus ad jura veſtra manutenenda, quamvis non eſſet niſi contra dictum Archiepiſcopum. Quoniam apponit ſe ——— et principaliter ad libertates veſtras proſternendas. Ego mando vobis agenda veſtra, prout ſe habent, & ——— emendanda illa ——— ubi emendacione indigent libenter emendarem. Voluntatem veſtram & beneplacitum ſuper prædictis & omnibus aliis, ſi placet, michi ſcire faciatis. Valeat Excellentia veſtra in Domino.

The Rector of the Church of Cartheward being Excommunicated by the Pope and his Delegates, and contemning their Excommunication, for ſuing and moleſting the Tenants of the Abby of Ramſey, againſt the priviledges granted them by the Pope; and their Excommunication being certified to the King by the Biſhop of Lincoln, whereby a Capias excommunicatum iſſued againſt them; thereupon the Rector procuring a Prohibition to the Delegates upon this ſuggeſtion, that they Excommunicated him for bringing an Aſſiſe of Mortdanceſter againſt the Abbot and Covent of a Manor, the Delegates made this enſuing Certificate of the ſtate of their proceedings and ſentence againſt him to the King, denying the truth of his ſuggeſtion.

ILluſtriſſimo Domino ſuo, H. Dei gratia Regi Angl. Domino Hyberniæ, Duci Normanniæ & Aquit. Comiti Andegaviæ; H. dictus Abbas de Leeſt, & Prior Sancti Leonardi, & Decanus de Donewico, ſalutem temporalem & æternam. Sereniratı veſtræ ſignificamus, quod cum quædam Cauſa a ſummo Pontifice nobis eſſet commiſſa inter Abbatem & Conventum Rameſeye ex una parte, & Nicholaum Rectorem Eccleſiæ de Cortheurd ex altera. Et partibus in præſencia noſtra conſtitutis, ex parte Abbatis & Conventus Rameſ. facta fuit conditio in hunc modum, Richardus, &c. ſint viri Religioſi et in protectione Domini Papæ conſtituti, et a Sede Romana indultum ſit eis ne liceat cuiquam poſſeſſiones ſuas Eccleſiaſticas auſu temerario invadere vel perturbare, Nicholaus Rector Eccleſiæ de Cartheurd. in diſpendium minæ ſuæ, tanquam filius Leviathan, poſſeſſiones ſuas Eccleſiaſticas perturbare non ceſſat, ipſos & homines ſuos interdum per ſe, interdum per alios inquietando injuſte, et ſic privilegia ſua violare præſumit. Dicunt eciam Abbas & Conventus, quod in privilegiis a Sede Romana eis indultis lata eſt ſentencia Excommunicationis in omnes tales invaſores et perturbatores; inde dicunt ipſum Nicholaum incidiſſe in ſentenciam Excommunicationis a ſummo Pontifice latam, et petunt ut appellatur per Judices ſuos deſiſtere a tali perturbacione, et ſatisfacere commiſſis. Et etiam ut adeat Sedem Romanam, et ibi impetret beneficium abſolucionis a ſummo Pontifice a quo eſt Excommunicatus. Et ut plenius conſtet eidem Nicholao, in quibus dicunt ipſum poſſeſſiones ſuas Eccleſiaſticas perturbaſſe, dicunt quod cum mota fuit quædam Cauſa authoritate Domini Papæ inter ipſos et Thomam Rectorem Eccleſiæ de Anewelle ſuper decimis de Dominico Reginaldi le Moine in villa de Anewelle, idem Nicholaus pro viribus ſuis nitebatur prædictas decimas a Monachis Rameſ. ſubtrahere, et adhuc nititur. Eodem modo fecit Nicholaus in quadam Cauſa mota inter ipſos & Theobaldum de Leke, ſuper decimis de Dominico dicti Theobaldi. Eodem modo fecit idem N. in aliis & ſimilibus Cauſis, ut dicunt dicti Abbas & Conventus. Et propter iſtas cauſas dicunt dictum N. incidiſſe in ſenteniam Excommunicationis a ſummo Pontifice latam. Iſta dicunt ſalvo ſibi jure addendi, mutandi, vel minuendi: Recitatâ igitur iſta conditione coram nobis & eidem Nicholao traditâ, ſigillis noſtris in judicio ſignatâ, ſponte et ſine difficultate aliqua juriſdictioni noſtræ ſe ſubjecit, et litem conteſtatus eſt intentioni dictorum Abbatis & Conventus penitus contradicendo. Et datus fuit dies de conſenſu parcium ad teſtes producendos; quo die idem N. contumaciter ſe abſentavit. Et quia noluimus, licet de jure poſſemus, in ejus abſencia teſtes contra ipſum admittere, fecimus ipſum pluribus et legitimis edictis vocari. Tandem præcedentibus aliis legitimis penis, propter multiplicatam contumaciam ſuam ſententia excommunicationis ipſum innodavimus, et excommunicatum publice denunciari fecimus. Cum autem in prædicta ſentencia per quadraginta dies et longe amplius prædictus Nicholaus perſeverare non erubuit, nec adhuc erubeſcit; dedimus in mandatis Domino Lincolnienſi Epiſcopo, ut ſeriem facti excellenciæ veſtræ ſignificaret, qui quod ſuum erat in hac parte diligenter eſt executus: poſtquam vero decreviſtis ipſum fore juſticiandum per brachium ſeculare; et ſuper hoc litteras veſtras Vicecomiti Huntedon direxiſtis, prout nobis intimatum eſt, ſuggeſſit vobis idem Nicholaus, quod prædicti Abbas et Conventus traxerunt eum in Cauſam coram nobis ſuper hoc; quod idem N. perturbaret pacificam poſſeſſionem ſuam de quodam Manerio ſuo de Stivecle: Maximè quia idem N. aranniavit verſus eos Aſſiſam mortis anteceſſoris ſuper eodem Manerio. Nos verò quia nolumus quod factum noſtrum vos lateat in aliquo, Dominacioni veſtræ ea qua decet reverencia ſignificamus, quod nunquam in præſencia noſtra de prædicto Manerio facta fuit mencio, nec eciam de aliquo Laico feodo dictam cauſam contingente. Set jam per unum annum integrum duravit contencio inter eos ſuper Decimis in condicione præſcripta nominatis, et ſuper perturbacione poſſeſſionis ſuæ de eiſdem Decimis: Si enim ſuper jam dicto Manerio vel aliquo alio Laico feodo vel eciam Laicis catallis coram nobis mota fuiſſet quæſtio, ſtatim decreviſſemus convictionem talium ad nos non pertinere. Valeat dominacio veſtra in Domino.

The Archbiſhops and Biſhops having freely granted the King the 20th. part of theirs and their Villains goods for his ſupply to be taxed and collected only by themſelves; the King thereupon iſſued this Writ to his Collectors, not to intermeddle with the taxing or collecting thereof, but only of the goods and chattels of Abbots, Priors and other religious perſons.

An. 9 H. 3. TAxatoribus & Col. ſalutem. Cum Archiepiſcopi et Epiſcopi regni noſtri viceſſimam bonorum ſuorum et villanorum ſuorum nobis liberaliter ſui gratia conceſſerint, et volumus quod ipſi hujuſmodi viceſimam per manum ſuam taxari, levari, et colligi faciant, in forma eis per nos tradita et injuncta; vobis mandamus, quod de taxatione ſeu collectione viceſimæ Epiſcoporum ſeu villanorum ſuorum in nullo vos intromittatis; proviſo quod viceſimam bonorum et catallorum Abbatum, Priorum, et cæterorum Religioſorum Com. prædicti taxari et colligi faciatis, ſicut viceſima alibi taxatur et colligitur in regno noſtro. Some of the Nobility who had formerly Crowned Lewes of France King, and been the cauſe of King John's death, for which they were baniſhed the Realm, endeavouring to return into England and ſet up the French Kings intereſt, and domineer over the King and his faithfull counſellors, by circumventing Pope Honorius; thereupon Hubert de Burgo, and nine more of the Kings Counſil (about the 8th. year of King Henry's reign, as I conjecture) ſent this memorable Epiſtle to Pope Honorius to aſſiſt the King and them as he formerly had done, and prevent this dangerous Plot and deſign; a Copy whereof in a very excellent hand, I met with in the White Tower.

In Turre London. circa An. 8 H. 3. SAnctiſſimo Patri ac Domino Honorio Dei gratia Summo Pontifici, devoti ſui H. de Burgo Juſticiarius Angliæ, R. Comes Ceſtriæ, Falcat. de Breante, Philippus de Aubigny, Willielmus de Cantilupo, Galfridus de Nevill, Brian. de Inſula, Engelardus de Cigogny, Hugo de Nivona, fideles Domini Regis Angliæ, ſeipſos ad oſcula pedum beatorum. Paternitati veſtræ quaſcunque poſſumus gratiarum referimus actiones, eo quod circa devotiſſimum veſtrum Dominum noſtrum Henricum Regem Anglorum illuſtrem, tam per veſtram, quam per Domini P. Norwicen. electi Legati veſtri ſollicitudinem, manum invictam et curam vigilantem in omnium ſuorum promotione bonorum dignatur veſtra Sanctitas exercere, univerſa ejuſdem Domini noſtri negotia, pluſquam poſſimus dicere, laudabiliter promovendo. Verùm cum juxtà verbum ſapientis, Non ſit minor virtus quam quærere parta tueri, Dominationem veſtram non deſinimus pia ſollicitare inſtantia, ut conſiderantes infinitas anguſtias et labores graves quas veſtra Sanctitas ſibi non parcens, ut nobis poſſet proficere, per ſe ac ſuos in defenſione Domini noſtri et totius regni, non recuſavit nec timuit ſuſtinere: Incrementum adeo boni nominis, et cum tanta difficultate exculti conſervetis ab inimici hominis conculcatione maligna, ne perdatur per aliquorum nequitiam id quod per tantam providentiam, veſtri gratia, in Domino noſtro condidiſtis ac nobis. Sicut enim ex quorundam provida ſignificatione didicimus, quidam perſuaſionibus ſuis Sanctitatem veſtram circumvenire intentos, illos qui pro ſuæ immenſitate maliciæ et ſacroſanctæ Romanæ Eccleſiæ contemptu, ac læſæ Majeſtati Regiæ vicio, et totius regni turbatione, per noſtram et Apoſtolicæ Sedis deliberationem a toto regno ſententialiter ſunt excluſi, ad regnum revocare, et in ipſo promovere nituntur. Ac etiam ſuper ipſum Dominum Regem et regnum, poteſtatem ſuam et dominium ampliare. Cumque nulli ſit dubium quin univerſa Domini Regis et regni detrimenta valeant pullulare, ſi tales ſciſmaticos et perverſos ad regnum, quod abſit, revocari; aut ipſos aut fautores ipſorum in regno promoveri vel exaltari contingat. Paternitatem veſtram exoramus attentius, ut cum Dominum Regem ac regnum tanto diligentius vos oporteat conſervare, quanto ſpecialius veſtræ ſumus dominationi ſubjecti, placeat Sanctitati veſtræ proditis ſciſmaticis taliter claudere viam reverſionis ad regnum, ne de cætero vos præſumat quiſquam ſuper hoc infeſtare; nec liceat illis aut eorum fautoribus nos qui pro fidelitate Domini noſtri et veſtra, ac ſedis Apoſtolicæ devotione, parati ſumus et fuimus qualibet incurrere detrimenta, ad effuſionem noſtri ſanguinis, et turbationem quietis et pacis noſtræ ulterius provocare. Ut autem ſuper hoc Sanctitati veſtræ noſtra intentio penitus declaretur, pro certo teneat veſtra Paternitas, quod in nullius neceſſitatis articulo a devotione ſedis Apoſtolicæ et fidelitate Regia aliquatenus recedamus: unde ut in his firmi et ſtabiles perſiſtamus, præcavere volentes cuilibet eventui ſive facto per quod poſſet noſtro proposito præjudicium generari, nullatenus volumus vel permittemus aliqua ratione, ut hii qui in partibus veſtris malorum omnium initium extiterunt, qui ſacroſanctam Romanam Eccleſiam contemnentes, Domini noſtri majeſtatem niſi honore Regio ſpoliare, et gloriantes ſe cauſam dediſſe mortis claræ memoriæ J. Regis Angliæ Domini noſtri, filii ſui, ac noſtrorum omnium fidelium ejus ſanguinem ſitiebant, ad regnum aliquatinus revertuntur, tuntur, vel ipſi vel aliqui qui eis conſenſum præſtiterant aut favorem, regno præficiantur; aut ulterius promoveantur in ipſo. Non enim decet ut aliqui ſuper Domini Regis et noſtra capita dominentur, de quibus conſtet nos mortali fuiſſe odio perſecutos. Paternitas igitur veſtra circa iſta conſideret, et attendat ea quæ honori ſuo expediant, et ad Domini Regis et regni pertineant tranquillitatem et pacem. An. 9 & 10 Hen. 3.

In the Plea-Rolls of Michaelmas Term, An. 9 & 10 H. 3. I met with this memorable Caſe for ſuing in Court Chriſtian for a Lay-fee, againſt the Kings prohibition.

Philippus de Ardern Clericus attach. fuit ad reſpondendum Johanni filio Roberti, quare trahit eum in Placitum in Curia Chriſtianitatis de Laico feodo ipſius Johannis fil. Robert. contra Prohibitionem, &c. Unde idem Johannes per Attornatum ſuum queritur, quod idem Philippus trahit eum in Placitum de boſco de Lee, et de moza de Wycton; Et ſimiliter de hoc, quod ubi ipſe Johannes & homines ſui capiunt vadia ipſius Philippi pro deteriozacione bladi et prati, et aliozum dampnozum; de illa captione trahit idem Philippus eum in Placitum, per quod deteriozatus eſt, &c. ad valenciam C. Marcarum, et inde producit ſectam, &c. Plac. in octab. S. Mich. An. 9 & 10 H. 3.

Et Philippus venit & dicit, quod non debet eidem Johanni vel Attornato ſuo de aliquo Placito reſpondere, quia excommunicatus eſt; et inde profert literas Domini Archiepiſcopi Ebor. quæ hoc teſtantur in hæc verba; W. Dei gratia, &c. Sciatis quod Abbas de Kokerſand, et de Kokerſand et de Rokeham Priozes denunciaverunt nobis, ſe Nobilem virum Johannem filium Roberti auctozitate Domini Papæ vinculo excommunicationis innodaſſe. Mandantes ut ipſum talem denunciaremus, quod vobis ad inſtanciam Magiſtri Philippi latozis præſencium ſignificamus, ut ſuper hoc certitudinem habeatis. Valete. Dat. &c. Et ideo idem Philippus dicit, quod non vult ei reſpondere niſi Curia conſideraverit.

Et Johannes per Attornatum ſuum venit & dicit, quod de Placito cozam illis Judicibus non queritur, quia de decimis Fœnozum et Molendinozum quod ibi exigebat libenter faciet quod de jure facere debebit, ſet de prædicto Laico feodo ſuo; et præterea de quodam Peremitagio, et de decima Veſtia foreſtæ ſuæ eum implacitavit contra Prohibitionem, &c. cozam W. Theſaurario, et G. Penitenciario Eborum; et inde habet ſectam, &c. et bene concedit ei, &c. decimas Fœni, et Molendinozum, et Pannagii.

Et Philippus hoc totum defendit, niſi tantum de decima Veſtia quam exigit, et unde Eccleſia ſua fuit ſeiſita; & dicit quod ipſe & homines ſui ſemper habuerunt paſturam ſuam per totum in foreſta, & idem Johannes & homines ſui capiunt homines ſuos et auferunt ei paſturam et communam ſuam.

Ad diem illum quia Johannes nichil oſtendit per citaciones vel alio modo, quod idem Philippus aliquod Placitum ſecutus fuit in Curia Chriſtianitatis, de aliquo Laico feodo, conſideratum eſt quod Philippus eat inde quietus, et Johannes in miſericozdia. Et prohibitum eſt Philippo ne ſequatur aliquod Placitum contra Cozonam Domini Regis.

Dies datus eſt ei de audiendo Judicio ſuo in Octab. Sancti Hillarii prece partium.

From which Caſe I ſhall obſerve, 1. That the Eccleſiaſtical Courts had then no Juriſdiction of Lay-fees, Common of Paſture, Lay-contracts or Services, and were ſtrictly prohibited to hold any Plea of them againſt the Kings Crown and dignity. 2ly. That they and the Popes Delegates then held Plea with the Kings permiſſion of the Tithes of Hay, Mills, and Pannage. 3ly. That an * Excommunication by the Popes Delegates in England publiſhed and certified into the Kings Court by any Biſhop or Archbiſhop, was no good barre in Law againſt the Plaintiff; whereof the Judges would take no notice, though pleaded in barre in this Caſe, unleſs Excommunicated by the Archbiſhop himſelf.

Supplicamus igitur Sanctitati vestræ quatinus nobis super hoc literas vestras patentes dignemini destinare. Teste meipso apud Westmonast. 24 die Martii, anno regni nostri decimo.

This is the very first Record I find for the payment of this annual summ by the King to the Pope, after King John's Charter and Grant thereof, omitted in the * second Tome. That which induced the King and his Counsil now to pay it, was his premised Bull, and a Quindism which this Pope had granted him from the Clergy of England and Ireland, with other affairs of grand importance, for which he craved and needed the Popes and his Cardinals favours, mentioned in his Letters to them soon after: towards the speedy granting and collecting of which Quindism, he issued forth these ensuing Writs, wherein to gratifie the Clergy, and induce them to grant him this Fifteen, he did at the Archbishops and Bishops requests, command the Tithes of Hay and Mills to be paid to the Clergy out of all his Crown-land, (not formerly paid, being exempt from Tithes) and promised to induce all the Nobles to pay them likewise out of their demesnes.

Venientem ad nos Imperialis Aulæ nuncium præsencium latorem Militem vestrum, affectu quo decuit recepimus, & porrectis nobis literis Celsitudinis vestræ audivimus & intelleximus diligenter, quæ fuerant in eisdem contenta super statu vestro, & aliis quæ circa personam vestram nuper acta dicuntur, de quibus ante susceptionem nuntii & literarum vestrarum Dominus Papa per literas suas nos secerat certiores: pro quo, si placet Dominus noster, nihil indignationis concipiat, si vos usquequaque non scribimus ad præsens ut deceret, licet ad vos & honorem nominis vestri sincerum nichilominus habuimus affectum. Condolemus quidem, et compatimur quatinus possumus Majestati vestræ, parati pro viribus offensæ vestræ mederi, et Imperiali Celsitudini subvenire, honoris Ecclesiastici semper integritate servata. Attendentes quidem quantum discrimen immineat negocio crucifixi in odio et discordiæ seminario, quod humani generis inimicus inter Ecclesiam Romanam et vos nititur excitare, quantum eciam periculum orbis terrarum exspectare possit ex eodem, sperantes eciam ex parte alia, quod Dominus Papa salubribus Consiliis et precibus nostris et monitis, (utpote qui ei inter cæteros mundi Principes magna et speciali devotione quadam sumus astricti) facilem et favorabilem præbere debeat auditum. Scripsimus eidemcum multo precum et consilii conatu, quatinus humanæ mentis motu domi recluso, ad liberacionem Terræ sanctæ dirigat intuitum interioris hominis et affectum, injuriarum oblivisceus hiis diebus quas, alio forte tempore postente, justicia cogeretur ulcisci, ut eciam vos sine cujus ministerio liberacionem Terræ præfatæ mundus nescit indicare, ad manum suam et Ecclesiæ pacem modis omnibus satagat revocare. Sane quia non nocet admisso subdere calcar equo, currentem decrevimus monere, dum vobis consulimus & facere suademus quod præter consilium nostrum facturi estis eciam non rogati. Consilium igitur nostrum est, ut non contempnentes Ecclesiæ manum quam in personam vestram extendit, relaxacionem sententiæ luæ, pietatis instanter nichilominus insistentes proposito, quod pro liberacione patrimonii Jesu Christi a primævo tempore vestro laudabiliter concepistis, quod absit, hoc tempore quo tradidit omnipotens Deus in manibus vestris vires mundi, tepescere videamini a consummacione laboris quem vobis fœlix fortuna commendavit. Tom. 2. p. 432. l. 27. before How, insert; The Dean and Chapter of Imileth in Ireland unanimously elected this John Colingham their Chancellor for their Bishop; whom yet the Archbishop refused to confirm and consecrate, because elected without the Kings license and subsequent approbation: Pope Gregory the 9th. upon their appeal and complaint issued this Bull to the Archbishops of Armach and Dublin and the Bishop of Fern, to examine the merits of the election and person, and to confirm and consecrate him if canonically elected, and inflict Ecclesiastical censures on the opposers; the original whereof I found in the White Tower Chappel.

GREGORIUS Episcopus, servus servorum Dei; venerabilibus fratribus Armachan. & Casselen. Archiepiscopis, & Episcopo Fernensi, salutem & Apostolicam benedictionem. Ex parte dilectorum filiorum, Decani & Capituli Imilacen. fuit propositum coram nobis, quod eorum Ecclesia Pastoris solatio destituta, ipsi, ad quos electio Episcopi pertinebat, ad tractandum de futuri substitutione Prælati simul in Capitulo convenerunt: ad quorum vota scrutanda tres assumpti fuerunt de suo Collegio fidedigni, qui, singulorum voluntatibus inquisitis & publicatis, postmodum in communi cum fuisset, habita diligenti collatione repertum, quod omnes in Magistrum Johannem, Cancellarium ejusdem Ecclesiæ convenissent, ipsum invocata Spiritus sancti gratia, in suum Episcopum eligerunt. Cumque a te (frater Archiepiscope Cassalensi) confirmari electionem suam humiliter supplicassent, tu, sicut exposuisti per literas tuas, licet tam electionis quam electorum et Electi studiis inquisitis et meritis, invenisses electionem de persona idonea canonice celebratam, eam tamen omisisti hactenus confirmare: unde a nobis fuit ex parte prædictorum Decani et Capituli suppliciter postulatum, ut cum viduatis Ecclesiis mora in præficiendo sibi Pastorem contueverit esse damnosa, providere super hoc paterna sollicitudine dignaremur. Quocirca fraternitati vestræ per Apostolica scripta mandamus, quatinus occasione et timore postpositis, de electionis, electorum et Electi meritis inquisitis, si vobis constiterit, de persona idonea canonice celebratam electionem eandem, confirmationis et consecrationis munus impendatis Electo, et ei faciatis, sicut eorum Episcopo, obedientiam et reverentiam exhiberi. Contradictores per censuram Ecclesiasticam, appellatione postposita, compescendo. Quod si non omnes hiis exequendis potueritis interesse, duo vestrum ea nichilominus exequantur. Whereupon the King appointed Laurence of London his Proctor to defend the rights of his Crown before these Delegates, against this Bishop, being elected without his precedent License or Royal assent.

In the Fragments of Placita Assisarum Term. S. Mich. anno 12 H. 3. Rot. 13. dorso, (extant in the Tower of London) before the Justices Itinerant, I met with this memorable Attachment for suing in Court Christian for all the Tithes belonging to a Chappel, and by consequence for the Advouson it self; the first of this Kind I have observed.

Magister Ricardus de Esseburn attachiatus fuit ad respondendum Johanni de Sancto Georgio, quare secutus est placitum in Curia Christianitatis contra prohibitionem Domini Regis, de advocatione Capellæ ipsius. Johannis de Tudeham; unde idem Johannes dicit, quod antecessores sui fuerunt in seisina de advocatione ipsius Capellæ per 100 annos, & semper præsentaverunt ad eandem Capellanum. Et prædictus Ricardus exigit ab eo omnes decimas ad eandem Capellam spectantes, et ita * indirecte et advocationem, quia si amitteret decimas illas, ita per consequens amitteret advocationem illius Capellæ.

* The ground of the Writ of Indicavit, in like cases, Register, f. 35, 36. Fitz. Nat. Brev. 44, 45.

Et Ricardus venit & dicit, quod de nulla advocatione trahit eum in placitum, sed revera Capella illa sita est infra Parochiam suam, et Ecclesia sua semper habuit tertiam partem decimarum de garbis, et minutas decimas. Ita quod antecessores ipsius Johannis dederunt suas partes illarum decimarum quibusdam Monachis qui illas diu tenuerunt; et postea concesserunt cuidam Capellano decimas illas, qui illas decimas diu tenuit et nunc clamat in Capella, unde Episcopus loci sequestravit decimas illas in manum suam et tenet illas. Et prædictus Johannes semper tenuit illas

An. 12 H 3. illas in manu ſua ſine ſervicio quod faceret Capellæ illi. Et unde idem Ricardus petit illas ſicut de aliis parochianis ſuis, et non alio modo, &c.

Poſtea convenit inter eos, quod ſi prædictus Johannes habeat ibi Capellanum qui Capellæ illi deſerviat. libenter concedit idem Capellano decimas illas percipiendas; alioquin non concedit, quod decimæ remanerent in manu laicali.

By which Record and Plea it is evident: First, That owners of Lands originally, as well as our Kings, did by their Charters give their Tithes to what perſons or Churches they pleaſed, as all the Chartæ Antiquæ, and * Mr. Selden's Hiſtory of Tithes abundantly evidence. 2ly. That they might lawfully give their Tithes to a Chappel, to maintain a Chaplain to do Divine Services therein; which gifts were admitted good in Law againſt the Parſon of the Pariſh Church within which the Chappel was ſituated. 3ly. That the Biſhop ſequeſtred the Tithes belonging to the Chappel; that the Parſon of the Pariſh claimed them, whiles there was no Chaplain to officiate in it; and that the Patron could not juſtly detain them in his own hands, during the vacancy of a Chaplain.

Tom. 2. p. 458. l. 33. after Februarii, adde; The Popes Legates and our Popish Prelates bearing the chiefest sway in King Henry's Councils and Government of the Realm during his Minority, not only endeavoured by degrees to draw the conusance of all Causes touching Advowsons, Præsentations, Church-lands, Freeholds, Debts, Goods, Chattels, and Civil contracts in England and Ireland, into their Ecclesiastical Courts, but likewise to [a] introduce and advance the Canon Laws and Decretals, compiled by Gratian, Pope Gregory the 9th. and others, above the Common and Antient Laws of the Realm. For which end they presumed to read them publickly (without the Kings authority) in the Schools of London, encouraged thereto by Pope Gregory the 9th. his command; (as [b] Mat. Paris assures us, An. 1235.) His quoque tempozibus Papa Greg. videns tædiosam Decretalium pzolixitatem, sub quodam compendio eas eleganter abbzeviatas et collectas, solenniter et authentice per totius mundi latitudinem legi pzæcepit et divulgari. Illas autem ab auctore ipsarum Gzegozianas appellamus. Whereupon the King to preserve the rights and prerogatives of his Crown, and Laws of the Realm against the batteries of those Papal Canons and Decretals, issued not only [c] frequent Prohibitions to Ecclesiastical Judges, not to hold Plea of Advowsons, Free-holds, Trespasses, Debts, Chattels or things not belonging to them, but also prohibited the reading or teaching the Canon Laws in their Schools, as this Writ of Proclamation to the Major and Sheriffs of London imports.

[e] Sr. Edw. Cooke, in his posthumous Institutes, (who had a most unhappy faculty in mistaking most Records he cites) affirms, this Writ was issued to them, to suppress the Readings of such learned men in the Laws of the Realm, who kept Schools of the Law in the City of London, and taught such as resozted to them the Laws of the Realm, taking their foundation of Magna Charta and Charta de Foresta, which the King by ill advice sought to impeach. Whereas our learneder Antiquary [f] Mr. John Selden asserts, Credibile non videtur de Legibus Anglicanis earumque pzælectione mandatum hoc fieri. And Sir Edward Cooke himself in his Commentary on the Statute of Merton, cap. 9. asserts, That the Nobility of England have ever had the Laws of England in great estimation and reverence, as their best Birth-right; and so have the Kings of England as their principal Royalty and right belonging to their Crown and dignity. Yea [g] Bracton, a Judge under King Henry the 3d. and [h] Fleta resolve; Lex facit Regem: Et quia per legem factus est Rex, attribuat igitur Rex legi, quod ler attribuat ei, videlicet, Dominationem et poteſtatem; et dignum eſt quod per ipſum tueatur ler, cui honorem tribuit et poteſtatem. Therefore it is altogether incredible that this Writ was intended either of the Common Laws of England, or Readings on the Great Charters of Liberties or of the Foreſt; but only of the Canon and Roman Papal Laws: formerly burnt, torn, ſuppreſſed, baniſhed the Realm by King Stephen, as Mr. Selden proves at large in his ad Fletam Diſſertatio, c. 5 & 8. and I have [a] elſewhere moſt fully evidenced. An. 19 H. 3.

And great reaſon had the King and his Council to prohibit the Reading and uſe of the Canon Law and Popes Decretals, eſpecially the Decrees of Gratian then moſt cryed up, authorized by Euſebius the 3d. and other Popes; For as Marc de Vulſan a learned French Advocate, in his accurate Treatiſe, [b] De la Puiſſance du Pape, & de Libertes de l' Egliſe Gallicane, l. 3. c. 2. and [c] others irrefragably prove, That all the Ancient Popes Decretal Epiſtles (collected by Gratian) in which his Decrees are founded, are mere forgeries and Impoſtures, never heard of in the World till above 830 years after Chriſt, not mentioned by any antient Eccleſiaſtical Hiſtory or Father; far different both in ſtyle, matter, from theſe Popes genuine Epiſtles, inconſiſtent with the ſtate of the Church in the ages wherein they lived, yea not extant in the ancient Roman Code of Canons; as [d] Gratian himſelf acknowledgeth. And as there are ſuch a grand number of Errors, Falſities, Forgeries, in the body of the Canon Law compiled by Gratian, that Antonius Auguſtinus in the firſt Dialogue of his firſt Book [e] De Emendatione Gratiani, aſſerts, it will be a very difficult thing to number all his Errors in a whole day, (amongſt which he enumerates the antient Popes forged Decretal Epiſtles, out of which there are about 500 Canons and Rubricks extracted by Gratian;) So theſe their Decretal Epiſtles and his Decrees out of them, were purpoſely publiſhed, to overturn the antient Orthodox Doctrine of the Apoſtles, primitive Church, Fathers, the Canons of ſeveral Councils, the Prerogatives, Rights, Laws of all Chriſtian Emperors, Kings, Realms, and to advance the Popes, Prelates, Clergies uſurped Juriſdiction over them: For which end theſe forged Epiſtles and Decrees of Popes are thus cryed up by Pope Nicholas and Gratian, as irrefragable, yea equal to the Canonical Scriptures. [f] Inter Canonicas Scripturas Decretales Epiſtolæ connumerantur: Whence they decree; Omnes ſanctiones Apoſtolicæ ſedis irrefragabiliter obſervandæ ſunt, tanquam ipſius divina voce Petri firmatæ. Quicquid Romana Eccleſia ſtatuit, ab omnibus eſt obſervandum; et Pontificalibus ſit alienus officiis, qui Apoſtolicis non vult obedire præceptis: (to wit, the Popes not Chriſts Apoſtles precepts.) Tolerandum eſt jugum quod a Sancta ſede imponitur licet intolerabile videtur. [g] Ab Apoſtolicis præceptis non licet recedere. Apoſtolicis præceptis nullus ſuperbe reſiſtat. Non poteſt ſtatutis Pontificum conſuetudo cujuſquam refragari. Yea more, [h] Conſtitutiones Principum et Imperatorum Eccleſiaſticis Conſtitutionibus non præeminent ſed obſequuntur. Leges et Judicia Imperatorum Eccleſiaſtica jura diſſolvere non poſſunt. Conſtitutiones Regum contra Canones et Decreta Pontificum Romanorum, nullius ſunt momenti. In Eccleſiaſticis cauſis Regia voluntas Sacerdotibus eſt poſtponenda. Tribunalia Regum Sacerdotali ſunt poteſtati ſubjecta: Conſtitutiones Principum Eccleſiaſticis legibus poſtponendæ ſunt ubi Canonicis Decretis obviaverint. Dedit enim Deus Sacerdotibus Principatum multo perfectiorem Principatibus Regum. Nunquid juſtum vobis videtur ſi cedat ſpiritus carni (id eſt Eccleſiaſtica conſtitutio ſeculari conſtitutioni, as Johannes de Thierry, Bartholomeus Brixienſis, and others Gloſs it) ſi a terrenis cœleſtia ſuperentur, et ſi divinis (as they ſtyle their Canons) præferentur humana? To omit other Paradoxes of this nature.

Pope Eugenius the 2d. having confirmed theſe and the reſt of Gratian's Antimonarchical Canons, Rubricks, extracted out of his predeceſſors forged Epiſtles, ſent them to all Univerſities and Chriſtian Realms to be publickly read, interpreted, obſerved; and ſent [i] Gratian himſelf, (who firſt taught them in Rome) to the Univerſity of Paris, and Vacarius into England there openly to read and expound them in the Univerſity of Oxford; as the Laws by which all Churches, Kingdoms, Kings, Chriſtians, ought to be governed, eſpecially in all Eccleſiaſtical affairs.) Which as the Univerſities and Churches of France would never receive nor ſubmit to, as Marc de Vulſan, [k] Claude Fauchet, and Pierre de Pithou aſſert; ſo King [l] Stephen as ſoon as they were taught in England, ſilenced Vacarius from reading them, tearing and

An. 19 H. 3. and burning the Books themselves. After which being introduced again and publickly read in the Schools in London during King Henry's minority; together with Pope Gregory the 3d. his Decretals, then newly published and sent into England and all other Countries to be publickly read and taught: when he came to years of discretion, he prohibited the reading and teaching of them, by the premised Writ, as inconsistent with his royal Prerogative, the Common Laws, Statutes, and Priviledges of the Realm, which Popes, their Legates, and his own usurping Prelates endeavoured to subvert, or enervate by their Canons and Ecclesiastical constitutions.

It was the Observation of Henry de Bracton (a Justice Itinerant, An. 29 & 30 H. 3d. writing about this time,) in his Book, b De Legibus & Consuetudinibus Angliæ. Episcopi contrarii sunt Legibus et Consuetudinibus Angliæ; et Curia Christianitatis in quibusdam contraria est Legi et consuetudini Angliæ; especially in cases of Bastardy; they then endeavouring with all their might to subvert the c Common Law, in making children born before marriage legitimate, and inheritable, by their Canon Laws and Constitutions, which were Bastards, illegitimate, and not capable to inherit Lands by the Common Lawes and Custom of England. Whereupon if Bastardy were pleaded generally in barre of any real action, it ought not to be tried in Court Christian, nor by Certificate from thence to the Kings Court, d cum nihil aliud sit, sub tali obscuritate transmittere inquisitionem de Bastardia faciendam, quam venire contra Legem et Consuetudinem Angliæ. Ad talem igitur errorem tollendum, necesse est causam (bastardia) addicere. Besides the Popes and Bishops e before and about this time, by their Canons and Constitutions, engrossed the Conusance of all causes touching Advowsons, Presentations, Church-lands, Suits by or against Clergy-men and Religious persons, antiently belonging to the Kings Crown, Courts alone, to their Ecclesiastical Courts, and attempted to make the King, as well as other Patrons subject to Lapses, if he presented not within 6 moneths to Bishopricks, Abbies, Churches and Ecclesiastical Dignities whereof he was Patron, or to which he had right to present by his Prerogative; against the rights of his Crown, and this Maxime of the Common Law, Nullum tempus occurrit Regi; which f Edmund Archbishop of Canterbury then endeavoured by a special Bull from the Pope to divest him of, to the prejudice of his Crown; yea they g prohibited Clergymen to grant any Aydes to Kings, without the Popes special license, and exempted the Clergy from all Secular Jurisdiction. Whereupon he, his Judges and Council, had very good reason to issue forth the precedent Writ, to prohibit the publick Reading or Professing of the Canon Law, so diametrically contrary to his Prerogative, and subversive to the antient Laws and Customes of the Realm. The rather, because some h Canonists then and since have publickly asserted, Statuentes contra libertatem Ecclesiæ sunt excommunicati. Item scriptores Statutorum, Consiliarii, Potestates, Consules, atque Rectores locorum ubi Statuta edita sunt: item judicantes secundum illa atque redigentes judicata in publicam formam. Et quod statuta hujusmodi sint nulla. Imprimis igitur, non solum Papa sed etiam quilibet Episcopus potest dicta Statuta tollere, et declarare esse contra Ecclesiæ libertatem, atque mandare sub excommunicationis pœna ipso facto incurrenda, illa non esse observanda, etiam non citatis Statuentibus: Et quia Episcopus tenetur ex debito officii præcipere Statuentibus contra libertatem Ecclesiæ, ut de libro Statutorum illa cassent; nec sufficit si permittat illa revocari tantum, quia tenetur ex debito officii illa cassari facere, et ad id sunt jurejurando astricti; ideò non satisfecerit debito Episcopalis officii si tantùm declaraverit esse contra libertatem Ecclesiæ, quia hoc non est exequi Canones, mandantes dicta Statuta cassari debere, quæ contra Ecclesiæ sunt libertatem. Item Episcopus animabus eorum, qui excommunicationem incurrunt provivere non posset concedendo absolutionem, nisi vere et realiter dicta Statuta cassata fuerint; Quare debet præcipere Statuentibus quibus ab universo populo commissum est, ut dicta Statuta cassent, et nisi obedierint, censuris affectos esse declarandi sunt, atque eorum loca interdicto supponenda donec obedierint, et pœnitentiam condignam egerunt. Therefore it was great reason for K. Henry and his Counsil strictly to prohibit the Readers and Teachers of such Antimonarchical, Papal Canons, Laws, and Decretals, which thus Excommunicated, Interdicted all Kings, Parliaments, Peers, Judges, and Officers of Justice to make Acts or execute any Statutes in defence of their Crowns, Realms, Laws, Properties, Persons, against the Popes and Bishops Antimonarchical usurpations on them, or their pretended Liberties of the Church; till they should not only repeal, but null their Statutes of this nature, Nota.

Rex verò admodum perturbatus, ſuorum cupiens Baronum ſibi gratiam conciliare, ſe ex tunc deinceps, quicquid factum fuerat antea, dedit ſe conſilio fidelium ac naturalium hominum ſuorum. Præterea, de hoc quod dicebatur, quod conabatur ea quæ conceſſerat, et Chartis confirmaverat, * per authenticum ſummi Pontificis tuſtrmare: dicebat Rex, hoc falſum eſſe. Et ſi tale quid forte fuerat ſuggeſtum ei, in irritum affirmavit, ſeque talia penitus revocare. Præterea, ſereno vultu, et ſpontanea promiſit voluntate, libertates Magnæ Chartæ ſuis fidelibus regni ſui, ex tunc inviolabiliter obſervare. Et quia videbatur non penitus immunis a ſententia, quam tulerat Archiepiſcopus Stephanus cum omnibus Epiſcopis Angliæ, in omnes violatores prædictæ Chartæ, quam malo conſilio fretus in parte læſerat, fecit in publico innovare ſententiam præparatam, in omnes ejuſdem Chartæ contradictores aut violatores. Sic, ut ſi ille per aliquem conceptum rancorem forte eam non obſervaret, in latam ſententiam gravius recidivaret. (Thus did the King voluntarily ſubject himſelf to the Excommunication and Cenſure of his Biſhops, as well as his other Subjects, to procure their favours and a ſupply of his preſſing publick neceſſities.) Unde factum eſt, ut omnium corda hæc audientium, ibi mirabiliter in verbo illo conciliavit. Et deliberatum eſt, quod videretur durum, ſubito conſilium quod in præſentiarum habuit, ab eo quaſi reprobum ſequeſtrare, appoſitione aliquorum Magnatum additorum illud roboraverunt, adjungentes ei Comitem Warenniæ, Willielmum de Ferrariis,

Et fecit eos Rex jurare quod nullo modo muneribus, vel aliquo alio modo a via veritatis deviarent, quin parent ipſi Regi ſanum et ſalubre regno conſilium, ſicut antea fecerat Rex apud Windleſhores. Conceſſa eſt igitur benigne tali conditione Regi ea vice triceſima regni pars; omnium ſcilicet mobilium, ad theſaurum ſuum reſtaurandum; ſalvis tamen unicuique auro ſuo & argento, equis & armis, in Reipublica militatem expendendis. Quæ pars triceſima, ſub hac forma per quemlibet Comitatum diligenter colligetur. Eligendi ſunt quatuor fide digni Milites, cum Clerico, quem Rex ipſis addet in unoquoque Comitatu, & jurati de fidelitate una cum Clerico Regis, pecuniam colligent; & collecta reponetur in Abbatia, ſacra Æde, vel Caſtro, ita ſi forte velit Rex a propoſito (quod tamen abſit) reſilire, & reddatur unicuique quod ſuum eſt, fideliter diſtribuendum. Conſentientibus igitur primum Archiepiſcopo Cantuarienſi cum ſuis Epiſcopis et Clero, ſub hac conditione conceſſa eſt Regi triceſima mobilium regni ab omni Prælato, ſecundum tenementum Baroniæ ſuæ, et Milite, per totum regnum generaliter colligendum. Sæpè tamen annexum fuit in conditione, quod et tunc et deinceps conſilio alienigenarum, (eſpecially of Othobon, and other the Popes Legates, who moſt ſwayed, infatuated him, and pillaged his Subjects) qui ſemper ſui, non regni amici eſſe conſueverunt, et regni bona diſtrahere, non adunare, et omnium innaturalium derelinto, ſuorum fidelium et naturalium hominum conſiliis adhærebit. Et ſic ſoluto Concilio, non ſine interiori murmuratione & multa concepta indignatione, eo quod cum difficultate tanta Regis animum ad ſalubre conſilium convertissent, & conſiliis eorum, à quibus omnem honorem terrenum habet, obſecundarent, ad propria quiſque remeavit.

The King in purſuance of his promiſe to the Biſhops and Nobles in this Parliament, for the ſalvation of his ſoul, and exaltation of the Church, &c. re-confirmed the Great Charter of Liberties, and of the Foreſt, being now of full age, notwithſtanding they were made during his minority, by this Charter enrolled in his Charter-Roll of that year (in the Tower of London) not formerly publiſhed to my knowledge.

The Abbot of S*t*. Saviours of Blavia in Gaſcoigne, as the Popes Delegate, having denounced a ſentence of Excommunication and Interdict againſt the Earl of Tholouſe and William A. de Tantalo, the Kings Subject, on behalf of the Prior of Manſo, whom they baniſhed and deprived of his Lands and Goods, for oppoſing and acting againſt them by the Popes command, and refuſing to make reſtitution of them to the Prior according to his ſentence; he thereupon revived and aggravated his ſentence of Excommunication againſt them, and all places, perſons that ſhould harbour, or any wayes converſe with, or aſſiſt them. Which they notwithſtanding contemning, the Abbot thereupon certifying the King of this their contempt, deſired and required him to compel William A. de Tantalo, being his Subject, to obey his ſentence, in making reſtitution to the Prior according to the ſentence, or elſe to enforce him thereto by his ſecular power, by ſeiſing his Caſtles and Lands, or by any other means, till he performed his ſentence; threatning to denounce a ſentence of Interdict againſt all the Kings Lands and Subjects in Gaſcoigne, in caſe he neglected to do it: Whereupon the King iſſued forth this Writ to his Seneſchal of Gaſcoigne, to ſeiſe his Lands and Goods, if he made not reſtitution to the Prior within 40 dayes after admonition to do it; as this memorable Record (diſcovering the inſolency, tyranny of Popes Legates and Delegates over Kings, Earls perſons, Lands and Subjects) informs us.

Tom. 2. p. 489. l. 44. after utilitatem, adde: The occaſion of the Kings ſending to the Pope for this Legate Othobon, and his proceedings in this Council, are thus briefly related by * Mat. Weſtminſter. Ipſis quoque temporibus, pœnituit Regem tot & tantos honores fratri ſuo Richardo, necnon & Gilberto Mareſcallo, & quibuſdam aliis, qui ſibi videbantur ingrati, contuliſſe. Miſit igitur Romam nuncios ſecretos et familiares ad Papam, rogans attentius, ut per Legatum in ipſum Angliæ regnum, (quod ſibi ſpecialiter ſpectare videbatur) quem dignaretur ſine dilatione diſtinare, ſtatum regni pericitantem procuraret reformare. Magiſter igitur Otho, Sancti Nicholai in Carcere Tulliano Diaconus Cardinalis, venit Legatus in Angliam, circa feſtum beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ (Anno 1237.) qui poſtea in Octavis beati Martini ſolenne celebravit Concilium London. in Eccleſia Sancti Pauli, quod per tres dies continuos perduravit. Convocatis omnibus Prælatis Angliæ & Walliæ, Dominis Cant. & Ebor. Archiepiſcopis, de prima et proxima ſeſſione a dextris ipſius Legati altercantibus, in dicto Concilio, multa ad reformationem ſtatus Anglicanæ Eccleſiæ fuerunt agitata, et quædam vetera innovata. Et ne videretur nihil feciſſe, aut pro nulla Eccleſiæ reformatione in Angliam veniſſe, juſſit ſub formidabili pœna, ut Eccleſiæ non dedicatæ dedicarentur.

Tranſcriptum Bullæ Gregorii Papæ, per quem mandat Prælatis et Nobilibus, quod inducerent Regem ad revocandum alienata, &c. et quod pareant O. (Ottoni) Cardinali, quem Papa miſit ad Regem ad injungendum ei, quod non obſtante, &c. ſua revocet alienata.

To which Note there is this memorable Cedule affixed, which I conjecture to be a Decree of this inſolent Pope, vacating an Act made by the King, Prelates and Nobles in Parliament but the * year before, againſt the Aliens governing or reſiding in the Realm. * See p. 93, 94.

Caſſamus illud ſtatutum factum, quod regnum Angliæ de cætero per indigenas gubernetur, necnon exirent alienigenæ non reverſuri, exceptis illis quorum moram fideles regni communiter acceptarent. Ordinantes per dominium noſtrum, quod liceat alienigenis morari in dicto regno ſecure. Et quod Rex poſſit alienigenas et indigenas vocare ſecure ad conſilium ſuum, quos ſibi viderit utiles et fideles, ſicut facere potuit ante tempus prædictum: That ſo his Legate Otho might thereby rule both the King and Kingdom at his pleaſure, as he did to their grand prejudice and oppreſſion. On the Dorſe whereof is written with the ſame hand, Non oſtendatur alienigenis nec indigenis niſi Magiſtris Ricardo de Chaddewell, & Henrico de Cantuaria, the Popes and his Legates Privy-Counſellors.

* Mat. Paris, and † Mat. Weſtminſter relate this memorable Story of Pope Gregory's grand indignation againſt King Henry the 3d. and the Engliſh for ſending ayd to the Emperour Frederick his Brother-in-law, againſt his Italian Rebells, and writing an Epiſtle to this Pope, to deal more mildly with him: Eodem anno (1238, An. 22 Hen. 3.) ſtatim poſt Paſcha, miſit Dominus Rex Angliæ militare præſidium ad Dominum Imperatorem juvandum contra Rebelles ſuos in partes Italiæ ſub ducatu Henrici de Trubleville, viri in re militari periti ſſimi, & Gulielmi Electi Valentini, cum quo etiam miſit J. Manſel, & Willielmum Hardel Clericum & Civem Londinenſem, cum pecunia ſtipendiariis diſtribuenda. Et ſtrenuè per totam æſtatem exercitus Regis Imperatori militavit, & quorundam Civitatum Cives, volentes obſtare, vicerunt, & Imperio reddiderunt non ſine magno damno Longobardorum, Imperio Rebellium; ubi ſtrenue dictus J. Manſel geſſit, a Rege ſtipendiatus. Quod Papa nimis moleſte tulit, unde maximam contra Anglos accepit indignationem. Et circa idem tempus direxit * Rex elegantem Epiſtolam Papæ, petens, ut mitius ageret cum Domino Imperatore (whom he Excommunicated, abſolving all his Subjects from their Allegiance and obedience to him, and ſtirring them up to rebell againſt him to depoſe him:) quod gravius accepit Papa, ſecus reſpondens quam deceret, et commotus eſt in tantam iram, ut per aliquod tempus omnia negotia, præcipue Anglicorum ſuſpenderentur. To ſuch an height of Antichriſtian inſolency was this arrogant uſurping Pope grown, that King Henry muſt neither aſſiſt his Brother-in-law and Ally againſt his rebellious trayterous Subjects with his Forces or Purſe, nor preſume to write to this Pope to deal more Chriſtianly and mildely with him, without incurring his high indignation, and ſuſpending all Engliſh-mens Suites and Affairs in the Court of Rome: Yet notwithſtanding his indignation for a ſeaſon; circa idem tempus Domino Imperatore circa Mediolanum obſidionem continuante, omnes fere mundi Principes, exemplum a Rege Angliæ accipientes, ei præſidium militare deſtinarunt; being all their Caſes and concernment to ayde each other againſt their rebellious Subjects, though fomented, excited, protected by Popes themſelves in their Rebellions. * Hiſt Angliæ, p. 454. † Flores Hiſt. p. 148. * Here, p. 76, 77.

* Eodem anno accidit Regi periculum omnes audientes reddens nimis attonitos; in crastino enim Nativitatis Mariæ, (circa festum Sancti Matthæi, quidam facinorosus Pseudoclericus, (as Mat. Westminster, Ranulphus Cestrensis, Henry de Knyghton and others style him;) though Mat. Paris for the Clergies honour terms him, Armiger quidam literatus (ut dicitur) venit ad Curiam Regis apud Wodestok, infatuatum se simulans, donec secreta diverticulorum explorasset in Curia Regis, dicens Regi, Resigna mihi Regnum quod injuste usurpasti. Addidit quoque, quod signum Regale gestabat in humero; Quem cum ministri Regales arripuissent, volentes eum baculatum à præsentia Regis propellere, Rex irruentium in eum impetum compescuit: dicens, Sinite infatuatum, ut talem decet, desipere; verba enim talium carent pondere veritatis. Media autem nocte, ecce ille idem per fenestram Regis thalami introgressus, cultellum portans extractum, lectum Regis adiit furibundus; quem cum non invenisset, confusus est, Rege & Regina in alia camera, divina eos protegente clementia, eadem nocte decubantibus. Festinus igitur quæsivit eum per plura thalami diverticula. Erat autem tunc temporis, Domino providente, Rex quiescens cum Regina. Quædam autem puella Reginæ, cum forte vigilaret Psalterium psallebat ad candelam, erat enim sancta & Deo devota, nomine Margareta Brisetb. Ista cum videret prædictum furibundum, omnia abdita ut Regem jugularet, perscrutari, & voce terribili, ubi Rex esset, percunctari, attonita nimis cœpit clamare. Ad cujus clamorem terribilem ministri Regales expergefacti festinanter prosiliunt occurrentes, & ostium, quod ipse latro repagulo firmiter obseraverat, confringunt, & ipsum repugnantem arripiunt, vinculis astringunt arctius angustis. Qui tandem ore polluto confessus est, se missum illuc, ut Regem more assassinarum occideret, a Willielmo de Mariseo, filio Galfridi de Mariseo, alios quoque in idem facinus asseruit conspirasse. Quo cognito, Rex eum, quasi Regiæ Majestatis occisorem, membratim laniatum apud Coventre, post modicum temporis intervallum, exemplum terribile, et spectaculum lamentabile præbere jussit omnibus audientibus talia machinari. Primo enim equis distractus, postea decollatus, et corpus in tres partes divisum est. *Quælibet enim pars per suam de majoribus Angliæ Civitatem pertracta est, et postea Cruci appensa latronali; notwithstanding his Clerk-ship.

Et Episcopus venit*, et quia manifestum est, quod catalla illa sunt de Patrimonio sicut idem cognoscit, consideratum est, quod Episcopus eat sine die, et procedat in causa si voluerit; Et Godefridus in misericordia. Pauper est. Et dictum est Episcopo, quod rationabilem faciat taxationem de prædictis catallis inter ipsum Galfridum et prædictam mulierem, &c. ne ipse penitus amittat catalla illa, eo quod videtur (to the Judges) quod non debent omnino cedere in usus ipsius mulieris. In which Case the Kings Justices directed the Bishop how to proceed according to Equity, Law and Justice, even in the case of these Goods, whereof they granted he had Jurisdiction to hold Plea.

An. 31 H. 3. Tom. 2. p. 706. l. 31. after Junii, adde: That these Inquisitions and Recognitions upon Oath, thus successively prohibited by all the premised Writs to the Bishop of Lincoln, his Archdeacons, Officials, Rural Deans and Clerks, were Articles of Inquiry in their Visitations, which † some peremptorily deny, not acknowledgements of Deeds or Civil Contracts with Oaths to perform them under pain of Ecclesiastical Censures, as they assert, is most evident. 1. By the Writs themselves. 2ly. By Archbishop Boniface and his Suffragans Articles and Constitutions against these Writs and Prohibitions, Tom. 2. p. 890. * Artic. 9. Cum Prælati Ecclesiastici inquirere volunt de peccatis subditorum, prohibentur Laici ne de veritate dicenda, aut de credulitate, aliquod Juramentum exponant, aut Prælatis super hujusmodi obediant, propter quod multorum excessus et peccata mortalia incorrecta et impunita relinquuntur, &c. p. 907. Cum insuper Prælati Ecclesiastici ex officii sui debito inquirant, de morum disciplina, peccatis et excessibus subditorum, quia Rex, Magnates et aliæ Potestates seculares ipsorum officia impediunt in præmissis, Laicis sibi subditis * inhibendo, ne ad mandatum ipsorum Prælatorum, de veritate dicenda subeant juramentum, &c. Impedientes vero ne hujusmodi juramenta præstentur, per Interdicti et Excommunicationis sententias arctius compescantur. 4ly. By Archbishop Stratford's and his Councils Constitutions, An. 1340. De impedientibus Jurisdictionem Ecclesiasticam: Accidit novitate perversa, quod cum Ecclesiarum Prælati de morum disciplina, peccatis et excessibus subditorum nituntur inquirere, Magnates et Potentatus alii seculares, officia impedire molientes eorum, inhibent laicis ipsorum tenentibus aut nativis, (by the Kings Writs to the Sheriffs and them) ne ad Ordinariorum citationes pro suorum criminum vel excessuum correctionibus canonice subeundis, (quorum correctio et punitio ad ipsos Ordinarios noscitur pertinere de consuetudine vel de jure, &c.) * extra locum sui dominii veniant vel compareant coram eis: Et ne in locis sui dominii per Prælatos exerceantur præmissa, impediunt, et procurant nequiter impediri; sibique super his Jurisdictionem Ecclesiasticam exercentes, et suis subditis, et pro eorum culpis et excessibus pœnitentias corporales, seu pecuniarias imponentes, ac ipsos facere cogentes, eadem sicut ordinare ipsis licet; aut pœnitentiis corporalibus juxta modum excessuum suorum impositis, redemptiones pecuniarias prout juste poterunt admittentes, vel et super extorsionibus et excessibus indictant; sicque indictatos attachiant ac incarcerant; ac super his in foro seculari eos sibi respondere compellunt: quibus multas pecuniarias ea occasione in dicto foro seculari imponi procurant et faciunt indebite (as they falsly suggested) pro libito voluntatis. 5ly. This is most irrefragably evident by Bishop Grosthead's own Articles of Inquiry, (whereupon those Writs then issued) intituled, Articuli Inquisitionis per Archidiaconatus Episcopatus Lincoln. à singulis Archidiaconis faciendæ, being 50 in number, published of late in the 2d. On these very Articles of Inquiry, the King, his Council and Judges prohibited any Lay-men to be cited, to make Inquisitions or Recognitions upon Oath, by the * premised Writs.

* Tom. 2. p. 699, 701, 704, to 712. 718, 760, 818, 830, 831, 892, 907, 969, 970.

From these Visitation Articles we may observe: 1. That the prohibiting of Priests marriages, (against Gods Law and institution) made them very incontinent, to keep Whores, Concubines, frequent Nunneries and defleur Nuns, to satisfie their lusts. 2ly. That sundry Priests in that age were married and had children, whose sonnes sometimes succeeded their Fathers in their Benefices, notwithstanding all Canons and Constitutions made against it. 3ly. That Pluralities, Non-residence, and Clergy-mens exercising any Temporal Jurisdiction, Office, or imployments, and studying the secular Laws of the Realm, were prohibited as scandalous and criminal in this age. 4ly. That the Bishops in all their Visitations and Inquiries, amongst other things endeavoured to advance their Jurisdiction over all Laymens persons, rights, priviledges, to subject them to their own and their Archdeacons, Officers, Inquisitors censures; which Encroachment King Henry and his Council thought meet to restrain, by successive Writs of * Prohibitions issued to this Bishop of Lincoln Grosthead, and others.

* Tom. 2. p. 692. 704. 705, 706, 969, 970.

If the premises be not sufficient to answer the Objection, that these Prohibitions were not intended of these Visitation Oathes and Articles of Inquiry, then set on foot by Grosthead; I shall then adde for further satisfaction, that it is generally agreed, that all [a] Episcopal Visitations were originally founded on Acts 15. 36, 42. Then Paul said unto Barnabas, let us go again, and (ἐπισκεψώμεθα, Visitemus) visit our brethren in every City, where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do: and Paul went through Syria and Silicia confirming the Churches, (by his preaching personally to them) without using any such Citations out of their own Parishes, or Articles or Oaths of Inquiry, as Grosthead with his Archdeacons, Deans and Officials then prescribed to and enforced on the people of his Diocesse, of which we find no mention or intimation in the Acts of the Apostles, nor in the antient Canons or Constitutions we read of concerning Bishops Visitations in our own or other Churches; Witness those of [b] Boniface Archbishop of Mentz (an English-man, and Popes Legate,) sent by him to our English Bishops, Anno Domini 745. of the Council of Cloveshove under Cuthbert Archbishop of Canterbury, Anno 747. cap. 3. of the Council of Calcuth under the Popes Legates, An. 787. cap. 3. and of Odo Archbishop of Canterbury, An. 943. c. 3. which enjoyn every Bishop at least once every year, to go in circuit throughout his Diocesse, cum omni vigilantia [c] prædicando verbum Dei (as Saint Paul did) populumque diversæ conditionis ac sexus aperte doceat, diligenter Conventicula per loca congrua constituendo, quo cuncti convenire possunt ad audiendum verbum Dei, et omnibus viam salutis demonstret, utpote eis qui raro audiant verbum Dei, Prohibens et inter cætera peccamina, paganas observationes, *gentilium*que errata, ne aliquis per incuriam pastoris per devia cujuslibet ignorantiæ errans, rugientis leonis morsibus invadatur; & vigilanti cura gregem sibi commissum pascat, confirmet: Et ne quis turpis lucri gratia, sed spe mercedis æternæ, gregem sibi commissum pascere studeat. Quod enim gratis accipimus, gratis impendere non differemus, without any Fees, Procurations or Articles of

An. 31 H. 3. Bishops or Archdeacons out of, and remote from their own Parishes, to their great travel and expence; no more than a Bishops, Archdeacons, or Ministers summoning all the Sick persons or Prisoners in their Diocesse, Archdeaconries or Parishes to meet them at the places where they visit, or at their Parish-Churches, is or would be reputed a real, legal or canonical visitation of the Sick, or Prisoners, within our Saviour Christs, or S^t. James words or meaning, Mat. 25. 36, 39, 40, 43, 44. Jam. 1. 27. c. 5. 14, 15 or within the Order for visiting the Sick, in the Book of Common Prayer prescribed by Act of Parliament; which orders Ministers, to go and enter into Sick-persons Houses, Chambers to visit them, not they to send for them into the Church, or their own Houses: this new kind of Visitation being in truth a visiting of the Bishops and Archdeacons by the Ministers, Churchwardens and others repairing to them; not a visitation of them by the Bishops or Archdeacons, contrary to the Apostolical primitive constitution, custome, and the antient Canonical legal form of all Episcopal and Archidiaconal Visitations; who personally repaired to every Church they visited, and there first of all preached Gods Word unto the People, and then with all care and diligence viewed the Fabricks, Ornaments, Vestments, Utensils, Books and necessary appurtenances of each Church, the persons, manners of the Mimsters and People with their own eyes, and so needed no such Inquiries or Visitation Artioles upon Oath concerning them, their Ministers or Parishioners, as Bishop Grosthead, his Archdeacons, Deans and Officials then endeavoured to inforce upon the People or Churchwardens by Ecclesiastical censures; which King Henry the 3^d. his Council, and Judges thereupon prohibited as illegal Innovations, Grievances, Vexations by the premised Writs: Much less needed they such printed Books of numerous, various, unauthorised Articles, Oaths, as others have since illegally invented, inforcing the Churchwardens of every Parish to buy their Books of Articles at dear rates, and then to make Presentations on them upon Oath; for which Presentations they must likewise pay Fees: A device of later times rather to pick the Peoples Purses, and ensnare their Consciences, than to reform their vices; Which the premised Councils condemn as a gross abuse; and * Claudius Espencæus (a learned French Bishop) thus long since complained of: Minores non tantum Episcopi, sed & Archidiaconi, eorumque malè Officiosi (absit verbo invidia, nam de malis loquor) Officiales & Vicarii dum Diœceses & Parochias obequitant, non tam facinorosos & criminum reos pœnis & correctionibus à vitiis deterrent, quo fine peregrinationes hujusmodi olim jam fuerunt jure canonico ordinatæ, quam pecunia præsenti et numerata, titulo Procurationis, ne dicam fictitiæ Jurisdictionis emungunt, et exigunt tum Clericos, tum Laicos: and Saint Bernard long before him severely censures, in Sermone 77. super Cantica, & Concione ad Clerum in Concilio Rhemensi, to omit all others. If every Judge of Assise or Sessions of the Peace should Print all the Articles of their Charges and Inquries, and enjoyn every Grand-Jury-man and Constable to buy them, and exact Procurations from them, it would be reputed an intolerable, illegal Innovation and Exaction in them. Therefore it can be deemed no other in Bishops, Archdeacons, and other Visitors. All which considered, will abundantly answer the premised Objection, grounded on the misconstruction of the words, Ad recognitiones super Sacramentum faciendas, which properly signifie, to make Inquisitions or Presentments upon Oath, as the words Recognitio, facere Recognitionem, & Recognitores Assisarum in cases of Assises, with our † Law-books and Statutes clearly resolve.

Theſe with ſome more ſuch Suits in the Plea-Rolls of this Term, ſufficiently diſcover the Biſhops and other Eccleſiaſtical Judges frequent uſurpations upon the Kings Crown, Temporal Courts, and Subjects Free-holds, Liberties, with their manifold contempts and illegal Excommunications againſt his Prohibitions to reſtrain their uſurpations; without which they had engroſſed to themſelves by degrees all Suits for Lands, Advowſons, Treſpaſſes, Debts, Contracts triable in the Kings and Temporal Lords Courts; which theſe Prohibitions, and Actions for damages againſt the Proſecutors, and Eccleſiaſtical Judges, ſometimes fined to the King for their contempts, and exceeding the bounds of their Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdictions, did in a good meaſure prevent, though not totally redreſs.

As the King by his premiſed Patents granted Tithes of all Hay and Mills in his Demeſn Lands to Churches, and likewiſe of his Veniſon taken in his Foreſts to ſeveral Biſhops and Abbots; ſo he did by this Charter grant to the Prioreſs and Nuns of S^t. Maries in Cheſter the 4^th. part of the Tithes of all the Victuals ſpent by him in his houſe, whiles he held the Earldom of Cheſter in his hands, and that his Son and all Earls of Cheſter and their heirs, ſhould be chargeable with theſe Tithes, where ever they reſided, according to a former Charter of Hugh Earl of Cheſter, which he hereby confirmed.

REX omnibus, &c. ſalutem. Sciatis nos conceſſiſſe Priorissæ et Monialibus Sanctæ Mariæ Ceſtriæ quartam partem Decimationis omnium victualium domus noſtræ quotieſcumque, quandocumque et quamdiu nos eſſe contigerit apud * Caſtrum, dum retinuerimus in manu noſtra Comitatum Ceſtriæ; Ita quod alicui, ſive filio noſtro, ſive alii Comitatum prædictum Ceſtriæ dederimus, Comes ille, et qui pro tempore fuerint ſucceſſores ſui Comites Ceſtriæ, dare teneantur prædictis Prioriſſæ et Monialibus et earum ſucceſſoribus quartam partem Decimationis omnium victualium domus ſuæ, ubicunque iidem Comites aut familiæ ſuæ fuerint per totam Angliam, prout per Cartam Hugonis quondam Comitis Ceſtriæ prædeceſſores ſui ſpecialiter obligantur. Teſte Rege apud Radynges, ſeptimo die Novembris. Pat. 31 H. 3. m. 8. intus. Pro Monialibus Ceſtriæ. * Ceſtriam.

The like Donations of the Tithes of all ſorts of Victuals, Wine, Liquors, Fiſh, Fowls, Butter, Cheeſe, &c. ſpent in Caſtles or houſes, (for which no Tithes were due by Law) I find made by William de Braoſa to the Monks of [a] Bergavenny, by [b] Nigellus de Munevilla to the Monks of Folkeſtan: yea [c] William Peverel granted to the Monks of Lenton; Duas partes omnium Decimationum de Dominicis meis, de omnibus rebus quæ decimari poſſunt. Item totam Decimam pullorum et pullarum ſuper Dominicas paſturas meas. Item totam decimam plumbi mei, et denationis meæ, tam in corijs quam in carnibus, et totam decimam piſcariæ meæ de Notingham: which our Kings confirmed by their Charters.

REX dilectis & fidelibus suis Magistro Simoni de Wanton & Stephano Brabanzan, salutem; Sciatis, quod assignavimus vos, una cum Vicecomite nostro Wigornia, & coronatoribus nostris ejusdem Comitatus, ad inquisicionem faciendam de submersis & interfectis nuper apud Kemeseye, unde multi multos appellant, & multi rectati sunt tam de facto quam de præcepto, utpote tota familia Wygornienſis Episcopi de Kemeseya, et R. Plac. de Term. S. Mich. &c. An. 34 H. 3. in Turri London

In the Plea-Rolls, Termino Pasch. & Term. Sancti Michaelis, An. 34 H. 3. in the Tower, there are these Suits upon contempts for suing in Court Christian, against the Kings Prohibition, Crown and Dignity.

Kermerd.

Thomas Episcopus de Sancto David. attach. fuit ad respondendum Mereduk fil. Ros de placito, quare tenuit placitum in Curia Christianitatis de furcis levat. in terra ipsius Mereduk. in Keytheynoc, quod spectat ad Cozonam et dignitatem Domini Regis, &c. Et unde queritur, quod cum detulisset ei Literas Prohibitionis apud Kermerd. ubi fecit ordines suos, dictus Episcopus nichilominus tenuit dictum placitum postea in Curia Christianitatis; unde dampnum habet ad valenc. &c. Et inde producit sectam, &c.

Et Episcopus venit & defendit vim, &c. Et dicit defend. quod nunquam tenuit placitum de furcis levatis in Curia Christianitatis, &c. Et hoc benè defend. contra ipsum & sectam suam. Et ideo conf. est quod vad. Legem suam se 12 mann. Et veniat cum lege die Pasch. in 15 dies: pleg. de Lege Willielmus Hay & Willielmus de Wilton. Et ad diem illum venit dictus Episcopus & sufficien. fecit legem suam. Et ideo consideratum est, quod Episcopus inde sine die. Et Mereduk in misericordia.

Ibidem.

Idem Episcopus attach. fuit ad respondend. prædict. Mereduc. de placito, quare ad præsent. ipsius Mereduc. non admisit idoneam Personam ad Ecclesiam de Landeveny, cujus Ecclesiæ Advocationem idem Mereduc disrationavit versus ipsum Episcopum per Assisam ultimæ præsentacionis inter eos captam, coram Ballivo de Kermerd. sicut ei Dominus Rex alias mand. &c: Et unde queritur, quod cum secutus fuit breve Domini Regis ultimæ præsentationis in Curia de Kermerd. versus ipsum Episcopum de Advocatione prædictæ Ecclesiæ, & dicta Assisa ibidem capt. fuit: Ita quod per Assisam illam recuperaverit seisinam suam, & habuit breve Domini Regis ad ipsum Episcopum, quod ipse admitteret idoneam personam ad præsentationem suam, dictus Episcopus recusavit idoneam personam admittere, in præjudicium et destructionem Cozonæ et dignitatis Domini Regis, et ad dampnum ipsius Mereduc. C. Libz. &c.

Et Episcopus venit & defendit vim, &c. & dicit, quod non debet hic in Curia Laicali respondere. Quia dicit, quod examinatio Personæ, utrum sit idonea vel non, mere spirituale est, et ad sozum suum spectat; nec vult, nec debet inde hic respondere. Nota. Præterea dicit, quod placitum de Advocationibus Ecclesiarum in partibus suis est mere spirituale, et ipse et prædecessozes sui semper placitaverunt prædictum placitum; unde non vult, nec debet de illo placito hic respondere, nec parere, nec facere inde ad mandatum Domini Regis, licet plac. illud deducatur in Curiam Domini Regis. (A strange, disloyal, contemptuous Plea.)

Nota. Et quia Dominus Rex est in seisina de placitis Advocationum Ecclesiarum in Curia sua per totum regnum suum; ita quod omnes Episcopi postquam loquela inde deducta sit in Curia Domini Regis debent ad mandatum Regis idoneam personam admittere. Et Dominus Rex non petit, quod ipse Episcopus respondeat de examinatione idoneitatis, quia si unus non idoneus præsentatus sit, admittat alium qui sit idoneus, * tantum. set * tamen quod ad mandatum suum de loquelis deductis in Curia sua, idoneum Clericum admittat, &c. Et ipse Episcopus dicit, quod non vult hic inde respondere, nec mandato Regis parere, set dicit quod ipse vult habere dictum placitum in Curia sua, quod est manifeste contra Cozonam et dignitatem Domini Regis, Regis, et ad exhæredationem Domini Regis. Et Epiſcopus non vult aliud dicere, conſideratum eſt, quod prædictus Epiſcopus eſt indefenſus in Curia Domini ſui; Et prædictus Mereduc recuperet dampna ſua, et Epiſcopus in miſericordia; Et Dominus Rex prouideat ſibi de Jure ſuo, &c. Poſtea præceptum eſt Ballivo de Kermerden quod diſtringat Epiſcopum per Baroniam, quod admittat idoneam perſonam, &c. Et damna taxata ſunt ad 20 Marc. et mandatum eſt dicto Ballivo quod fac. denar. levari, &c. (A memorable Caſe.) An. 34 & 35 Hen. 3.

Wall. ſſ. Idem Mereduc per eundem Atturn. opt. ſe 4 die verſus eundem Epiſcopum de placito, quare tenuit placitum in Curia Chriſtianitatis de furcis levatis in terra ipſius Mereduc in Keytheynor quod ſpectat ad Coronam et dignitatem Domini Regis, &c. Et quare tenuit placitum in eadem Curia de laico feodo ejuſdem Mereduc in eadem Villa, contra prohibitionem, &c. Et ipſe non venit, &c. Et Vic. mand. quod Epiſcopus attach. fuit per Tankard de Hoſp. & Johannem Dumeit. Ideo ponatur per mel. pleg. & quod ſit ad eundem Terminum. Et primi, &c. Ibidem.

Et prohibitum eſt prædicto Epiſcopo, ne ſequatur dictum placitum infra prædictum tempus. Et ſi occaſione prædictorum placit. promulgavit ſententiam in ipſum et homines ſuos, quod interim abſolvet eos, &c. Tom. 2. p. 797. l. 29. after inſtigations, ſubjoyn. It is very obſervable, Firſt, That the form of this General Excommunication then denounced was preſcribed and aſſented to by the King, and all the Temporal Lords. 2ly. That whereas the Biſhops and Clergy in the Council of Oxford, and other Synods had thruſt into their General Excommunications ſundry Clauſes concerning their pretended Church-liberties, which the King and Lords never aſſented to, and which they publickly denounced every year; thereupon the King, Nobles, and all the Commons publickly proteſted before the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and all the Biſhops in this Parliament, That if any of them, or any other ſhould inſert into this or any publick form of Writings or Excommunications already made, or to be made, any other thing, clauſe, or articles, than they herein preſcribed and agreed to, that they never aſſented, nor would aſſent thereto, but did plainly contradict the ſame. 3ly. That the King himſelf, with his own mouth in the pronunciation of this Sentence, exempted out of it all pretended Liberties claimed by the Pope or Clergy, againſt the antient and accuſtomed Liberties of his Realm, and the Dignitie, Rights of his Crown, An. 37 H. 3.

Pat. 37 H. 3. m. 12. dorſo. NOverint univerſi, quod Dominus H. Rex Angliæ illuſtris, R. Comes Norff. & Mareſcallus Angliæ, H. Comes Hereford. & Eſſex. J. Comes de Warrewico, Petrus de Sabbaudia, cæterique Magnates Angliæ, conſenſerunt in Sententiam Excommunicationis generaliter latam apud Weſtm. tertiodecimo die Maii anno regni Regis prædicti 37. in hac forma, ſcilicet, Quod vinculo præfatæ Sententiæ ligentur omnes venientes contra libertates contentas in Cartis communium libertatum Angliæ, et de Foreſta; et omnes qui libertates Eccleſiæ Anglicanæ temporibus Domini Regis et Prædeceſſorum ſuorum Regum Angliæ optentas et uſitatas, ſcienter et malicioſe violaverint aut infringere præſumpſerint. Et omnes illi qui pacem Domini Regis et regni perturbaverint; et ſimiliter omnes qui Jura et libertates Regis et regni diminuere, infringere, ſeu immutare præſumpſerint. Et quod omnes venientes contra præmiſſa, vel eorum aliqua ignoranter, et legitime moniti, infra quindenam poſt monitionem præmiſſam dictam tranſgreſſionem non emendaverint, extunc prædictæ Sententiæ Excommunicationis ſubjacebunt. Ita tamen, quod Dominus Rex tranſgreſſionem illam per conſiderationem Curiæ ſuæ faciat emendari. Sciendum autem, quod ſi in ſcriptis ſuper eadem Sententia a quibuſcunque confectis ſeu conficiendis, aliud, vel aliter appoſitum, vel adjectum fuerit, aut articuli aliqui alii in eis contenti inveniantur, * Dominus Rex, et prædicti Magnates omnes, et Communitas populi proteſtantur publice in præſentia venerabilium Patrum B. Dei gratia Cantuarienſis Archiepiſcopi totius Angliæ Primatis, necnon et Epiſcoporum omnium in eodem Colloquio exiſtencium, quod in ea nunquam conſenſerunt, nec conſenciunt, ſet de plano eis contradicunt. Præterea, præfatus Dominus Rex in prolacione præfatæ Sententiæ omnes libertates contra conſuetudines regni noſtri * antiquas et uſitatas, et dignitates, et Jura Coronæ ſuæ, ore propio ſpecialiter ſibi, et regno ſuo ſalvavit, et excepit. In cujus rei memoriam et in poſterum veritatis teſtimonium, tam Dominus Rex, quam prædicti Comites, ad inſtanciam aliorum Magnatum, et populi, præſenti ſcripto ſigilla ſua appoſuerunt.

* Nota.

* Ratified in a Parliament at Clarendon. See Tom. 1. p. 610, to 614.

By which Record it is apparent; First, That the King and Nobles then had and claimed an antient legal Right to preſcribe the Forms of all publick Excommunications, not the Biſhops alone, and to [a] joyn in the denuntiacions of them with the Biſhops. 2ly. That the Biſhops could not legally make nor preſcribe any new Forms, Clauſes or Articles of Excommunication without them or their aſſents thereto. 3ly. That all the Clauſes and Articles of Excommunication thruſt by the Biſhops and Clergy into their General Sentences of Excommunication, made and publiſhed by Simon Langeton Archbiſhop of Canterbury in the Council of Oxford, by Archbiſhop Boniface in the Council of Lambheth, by Archbiſhop Peckham in the Council of Reding, and other Biſhops in their Synods, not ratified by the King and Lords, (publiſhed as Canonical, by [b] Lyndewode, [c] John de Aton of old, and in [d] Sir Henry Spelmans Second Tome of Councils of late,) are illegal, contrary to this Royal proteſtation of the King, Lords and Commons of England, and the Great Charter of Liberties, yea meer uſurpations on the Subjects Liberties and Conſciences, fit to be exploded, and ſeverely puniſhed by Regal proſecutions againſt thoſe who maliciouſly or preſumptuouſly denounced, or ſhall hereafter denounce them againſt the King, his Officers or Subjects.

From theſe and ſundry other Prohibitions, and Attachments, Suits upon them this year, in one or two Terms ſpace in the Common Pleas, with above one hundred more during King Henry the third his reign, extant in the Plea and Clauſe Rolls, and in Henry de Bracton (a learned Lawyer and Juſtice under this King) De Legibus & Conſuetudinibus Anglia, l. 5. c. 2, to 17. we may evidently diſcern, not only the ſtudious endeavours of Eccleſiaſtical Courts, Judges to enlarge their Juriſdictions, and uſurp, engroſs to themſelves the conuſance of all Temporal cauſes, againſt the Kings Crown, Dignity, frequent Prohibitions and Attachments ſucceſſively iſſued by his Judges to reſtrain theſe injurious Uſurpations; but likewiſe conclude, that Biſhops, Ordinaries, and Courts Chriſtian, had then no legal Juriſdiction at all to meddle with, diſpoſe of, or diſtribute the Chattels or Debts of any Lay-perſons dying inteſtate; they being not Catalla & Debita de Teſtamento, but Inteſtatorum, or de Inteſtato decedentibus, as * their own Canons ſtile them; which are as oppoſite, as contradictory to each other, as the Goods, Debts of perſons unmarried, are to Catalla & Debita de Matrimonio; as is evident by Glanvil, l. 7. c. 5, 6, 7, 8, 16. l. 12. c. 20. and Bracton, l. 2. c. 26. And that their diſpoſition or diſtribution of them, as well as holding ſuch Pleas, was then declared to be an illegal Uſurpation, as the [a] Prohibition in the Clauſe-Roll of 39 H. 3. m. 17. dorſo, (Quod uſurpaſtis vobis placita de laicis feodis, et de catallis et debitis quæ non ſunt de Teſtamento vel Patrimonio) with others, evidence. Constitutions Anno 1342. De Impedientibus Ecclesiasticam Jurisdictionem, thus complain of and acknowledge. Quidam etiam Domini temporales et eorum Baillivi bona decedentium ab intestato in suis districtionibus ex ipsos * Dominos pertinentes fore, quamvis erronee devoluta, ne per Ordinarios bona hujusmodi pro debitorum solutione sic decedentium, ac in alios pios usus pro ipsorum animarum salute convertantur utiliter, (prout consensu Regio et Magnatum regni Angliæ, tanquam pro jure Ecclesiasticaque libertate, ab olim extitit ordinatum) impediunt, in derogationem Ecclesiasticæ libertatis, jurisque et jurisdictionis Ecclesiasticorum impedimentum et læsionem enormem. Whereupon they then denounced a Major Excommunication against all opposers or hinderers of their disposal or distribution of Intestates Goods. To justifie which their Innovation and usurped Jurisdiction, they pretended they had it antiently granted them by an * Ordinance of Parliament assented to by the King and Nobles of the Realm, (prout consensu Regio et Magnatum regni Angliæ, tanquam pro jure Ecclesiasticaque libertate, ab olim extitit ordinatum:) Which Ordinance must needs be either a wilfull forgery, (there being no such Ordinance extant in History or Record, as Lindwode ingenuously confesseth in his Gloss thereon,) or else a gross mistake, or perverting of the † premised Clauses in King Henry the 1. King John's, or King Stephen's Charters of Liberties; neither of which gave them any legal Jurisdiction at all over Lay-mens Chattels or Goods dying intestate, as I have proved, and the premised and subsequent Suits, Attachments on, and forms of Prohibitions clearly evidence: Wherein I am much confirmed by this passage in Ranulphus de Glanvilla, (most expert in the antient Laws and Customs of this Realm) Chief Justice of England under King Henry the 2d. in his Tractatus de Legibus & Consuetudinibus Angliæ, tempore Regis Henrici secundi compositus, printed Cum Privilegio, London. 1604. lib. 7. cap. 16. who resolves, that this was then and in former ages the Law and Custom of the Realm concerning Intestates Goods; Cum quis Intestatus decesserit, omnia catalla sua sui Domini esse intelliguntur; si vero plures habuerit Dominos, quilibet eorum catalla sua recuperabit, quæ in feodo suo reperiet. * Usurarii vero omnes res, sive Testatus, sive Intestatus decesserunt, Domini Regis sunt. This then being the antient Law, Custom of the Realm, Prerogative of the King, and Right of every Lord of Manors, it is very improbable that the King and Lords would devest themselves of this their Jurisdiction over, and Right in Intestates Goods, to vest them in the Bishops and Ordinaries disposal, by any such Parliamentary Ordinance, as Archbishop Stratford and his Suffragans pretend in their premised Constitution, and Otho-bon before them, there being none such extant; who could not pretend the least Jurisdiction or Right thereto by any Law of God, nor of the Realm, except that clause they thrust into King John's Charter, which really gave them no such Jurisdiction, and was omitted in King Henry the 3d. * his Grand Charter of Liberties, ch. 18. As for the Charter of King Stephen to the Bishops and Clergy, (extending only to their own Goods and Chattels in right of their Churches, not to Lay-mens) made at the Bishops own solicitations, (who advanced him to the Crown against their Oaths) he being a meer Usurper, his Charter was of no greater validity to binde his successors in point of Prerogative, then his other Charters were in case of the Crown-Lands granted by him to his Prelates, Nobles and Adherents; which were soon after resumed by King Henry the 2d. (notwithstanding King Stephen's Charters) upon this ground; * Quia Chartæ invasoris præjudicium legitimo principi minime facere deberent. Whereupon our Bishops in succeeding ages, procured special † Patents and Licenses from our Kings to make their Wills, and dispose of their Goods by them, without insisting on King Stephen's Charter, authorizing them freely to make their Wills and devise their Church-goods without such Licenses. If therefore they could not devise their own Goods and Chattels by their Wills without our Kings special License, much less could they dispose or distribute the Goods, Chattels of all Lay Intestate persons, without the special consent of the King and Lay-Lords by Act of Parliament, which they cannot produce. As for their Plea of Prescription, that they have used to dispose of and distribute the Goods of Intestate persons to pious uses time out of mind; they may likewise argue, they have used to hold Plea of Lay-fees, Advowsons, Debts, Chattels, and other things not belonging to them, time out of memory, notwithstanding all Prohibitions, Complaints, Attachments against them for it; but being done by usurpation only, not not of right, yea apparently againſt the Kings Prerogative, Laws and Cuſtoms of the Realm, they ſhall not take advantage of their own wrongs to deprive the King, his Courts, Subjects of their juſt Rights, Liberties; and Nullum tempus occurrit Regi, will be a ſufficient anſwer to this and all other their gradual Uſurpations on the Crown or Subjects Rights. Which I humbly ſubmit to the grave conſideration of the learned Judges and Profeſſors of the Common Law, for whoſe information, benefit, and the juſt defence of the Kings Crown, Dignity, Prerogative, againſt the Uſurpations of Popes, Biſhops, Legates, Nuncioes, Ordinaries, Eccleſiaſtical Courts, Judges in former and late times, I have inſerted into this Chapter moſt of the Suits and Attachments upon Prohibitions extant in the Plea-Rolls or Writs, of King Henry the 3d. (in the Tower of London) omitted in my Second Tome; which will ſatisfie the World, and all uſurping Canoniſts, that ſuch Suits, Prohibitions, and Attachments on them, are no Innovations, nor Invaſions of the antient Rights, Liberties of the Church, as they and their predeceſſors falſly pretend, and moſt confidently publiſh in their * Conſtitutions, Gloſſes, Diſcourſes, which they cry up for the Eccleſiaſtical Laws of our Church and Realm, though never ſo reputed by our Kings, Parliaments, or learned Judges, as I ſhall further evidence (if God permit) by examining moſt of them, in their due Chronological ſeries. An. 38 H. 3.

Tom. 2. p. 820. l. 1. before The King, adde; In the Plea-Rolls in the Tower, Anno 38. H. 3. I met with this memorable Record in vindication of the Kings Eccleſiaſtical Prerogative againſt the Pope himſelf and his Delegates, in a caſe concerning the Priviledges of his Free-Chappel of S*t*. Mary of Salop, and others.

Henricus Abbas Salopiæ attachiatus fuit ad reſpondendum Domino Regi de placito, quare in Domini Regis et liberæ Capellæ ſuæ beatæ Mariæ Salopiæ præjudicium non modicum, quæ exempta eſt, ita quod * Dominus Papa, nec aliquis alius Judex Eccleſiaſticus Juriſdictionem aliquam in ea habeat, exercuit Juriſdictionem in Capella de Fyteſho, quæ pertinet ad Capellam Domini Regis prædictam, ſpoliando de eadem Capella de Fyteſho Clericos dictæ Capellæ Salopiæ, qui eam ex collacione Decani & Canonicorum ejuſdem Capellæ optinuerunt. Et unde Laurencius de Brok qui ſequitur pro Rege queritur, quod prædictus Abbas miſit ad Eccleſiam de Fyteſho, quæ eſt de Capella Regia prædicta, & de advocatione Domini Regis, in qua quidam Clericus Domini Regis fuit inſtitutus per Ballivos Domini Regis ſicut pertinet ad libertatem Domini Regis, miſit ibidem homines ſuos ad deſtituendum prædictum Clericum, et inſtituendum alium Clericum, qui dicebat ſe eſſe admiſſum per Epiſcopum, qui nullam Juriſdictionem in ea habuit, et quandam ciſtam contra privilegia Domini Regis, quæ depoſita fuit in prædicta Eccleſia cum Jocalibus, et aliis bonis fregerunt, & bona in eadem inventa ceperunt & aſportaverunt, & triturare fecerunt blada prædicti Clerici Domini Regis, & aſportari, in dedecus Domini Regis, et magnum præjudicium libertatis Capellæ Domini Regis prædictæ, unde dampnum habet ad valenciam 100 Marcarum. Plac. 38 H. 3. rot. 7. * Nota.

Et Abbas venit & defendit vim, &c. Et dicit, quod quicquid ipſe fecit in prædicto negocio, fecit per mandatum Magiſtri Hugonis de Sancto Edmundo, cui commiſſum eſt Juriſdictio in negocio Crucefignatorum, et per Literas ſuas patentes, quæ teſtantur, quod mandavit dicto Abbati quod ſuper injuriis et violenciis manifeſtis Roberto de Acton Clerico Crucefignato, Perſonæ Capellæ de Fyteſho a Richardo de Honton Canonico Eccleſiæ beatæ Mariæ Salopiæ, et quibuſdam aliis tam Clericis quam Laicis, celerem juſticiam de die in diem præcedendo ſine omni ſtrepitu Judiciali, eidem exhibere curaret. Et ſi dictum Richardum et alios dictas violencias et injurias dicto Crucefignato intuliſſe invenerit, eoſdem ad ſatisfactionem condignam per cenſuram Eccleſiaſticam compelleret, contradictores et rebelles per cenſuram eandem appellatione remota compeſcendo. Ita ſe gerentem, &c. Profert etiam formam qualiter debebat procedere ſub ſigillo prædicti Hugonis, quæ teſtatur, Si Crucefignatus aliquis dicat Conſervatori ſeu Executori Crucis; Talis tenetur michi vel tali in tanta ſumma pecuniæ ex Teſtamento vel aliunde, veluti ex mutuo vel hujuſmodi, ſive per fidei dationem, ſive per Cartam, vel aliam rationem, quia non procedetur per indaginem judicialem, ſed inquiſicionem, nequaquam citet, ſed denunciet Executor ſive Conſervator per aliquem Bedellum, ſive per duos nuncios juratos, illi qui dicitur teneri in aliqua ſumma pecuniæ Crucefignato nomine ipſius Crucefignati, ſive nomine executorio, ſive etiam idem Executor Teſtamenti vellit in Terræ Sanctæ ſubſidium aliquam Et si ille cui denunciatum est venerit vel comparuit coram Executore Crucis, Quærat statim Executor, Teneriſne tali Crucesignato in tanta? &c. vel sic, Feciſtine talem iniuriam tali? &c. Si confiteatur se teneri vel feciſſe, Executor compellat eum ad satisfaciendum de die in diem sine strepitu Judiciali nullo obstante privilegio: si negetur, Juret incontinenti de veritate dicenda, &c. Unde dicit, quod per prædictam commissionem et prædictam formam ipse restituit quendam Robertum de Acton audita probatione sua, quod ipse spoliatus fuit de Ecclesia de Fyteſho, in cujus possessione extitit per unum Annum & amplius per Episcopum Lycheſeldenſem. Et quia prædictus Abbas non dedicit, quin Ecclesia de Fyteſho sit de advocatione Domini Regis, et de Capellaria ejus; Et eciam dicit, quod ipse destituit Clericum per Decanum & Capitulum admissum, & restituit prædictum Robertum, et hoc est contra libertatem Domini Regis, quod ipse aliquam Jurisdictionem deberet exercere, nec sua Jurisdictio in tantum se extendit ut possit destituere et instituere aliquem, maxime de eis quæ pertinent ad Capellariam Domini Regis, consideratum est, quod Dominus recuperet dampna, et Abbas in custodia, &c.

From which memorable Record I shall observe: First, That neither the Pope himself, nor his Delegates, no more than the Bishop, could exercise any Jurisdiction in or over the Kings Free-Chappels, or the Churches belonging to them. 2ly. That the large Priviledges granted by Popes to those who Crossed themselves for the Holy Land, and speedy righting of their Injuries in a summary way, extended not to the Kings Free-Chappels, or Chaplains in them. 3ly. That the King by Judgement of his Court and Judges recovered Damages against this Abbot, and likewise committed him to Prison, for violating the Priviledges of his Crown and Free-Chappel, notwithstanding this his Plea and Justification, by the Pope and his Delegates authorty.

Rot. 19. dorso. In the same Plea-Rolls upon an Attachment for suing in Courts Christian for two Chappels, the Prosecutor renounced his Suit there to avoid the like Fine and Imprisonment for this offence to the King.

Richardus de Chastyllun Procurator Willielmi de Chastyllun venit & dicit, quod non vult sequi versus Magistrum Galfridum de Tetheſe in Curia Christianitatis super Capella de Cheleſham, et Beleſham. Et de hoc invenit plegium Priorem de Wenelok qui manucepit pro eo, &c.

As the King and his Judges this year were carefull to prohibit all encroachments of Bishops and Ecclesiastical Courts upon the Rights and Prerogative of his Crown, so were they likewise to prevent it in Corporations and other Temporal Courts, as this memorable Record attests, relating to the City of Bathe, (for which I serve in Parliament,) who were not guilty of those disloyal usurpations, or illegal exactions then suggested against them, as their Plea and Issue manifests.

Plac. 38 H. 3. rot. 24. * Nota. Præceptum fuit Vicecomiti, quod venire faceret coram Consilio Domini Regis 12. et discretioribus et discretioribus Civibus Bathoniæ, ad respondendum Domino Regi pro se et tota Communitate Civitatis Bathoniæ, de placito, quare * sine assensu Domini Regis, eligerunt sibi Majorem et 12. Juratores, qui placita quæ placitari solent in Hundredo Domini Regis, tenent et determinant coram eis, ad exhæredacionem Domini Regis, &c. Et unde queritur, quod elegerunt sibi Henricum le Taillur, qui gerit officium Majoritatis, et capit consuetudines de Summariis et Pannicis Civitate Bathoniæ.

† To wit, by their own authority, or for the purposes suggested, they having then a Maior for other purposes, by Charter. Et Cives Bathoniæ veniunt & defendunt, & dicunt, quod nunquam elegerunt sibi Majorem, nec † Majorem habere clamant, nec Juratores elegerunt ad aliqua placita terminanda, nec unquam aliquas emendas ceperunt ratione Majoritatis de aliquibus transgressionibus in Civitate Domini Regis. Et de hoc ponunt se super Patriam. Ideo præceptum est Vicecomiti, quod venire faciat, &c. nisi H. de Bracton prius ad partes illas venerit 12. de visneto, &c. qui nec, &c. & qui non sunt de homagio Prioris Bathoniæ ad recognoscendum, &c. à die Sancti Michaelis *in quindecim dies, &c. The Kings Proctor in the Court of Rome being this year authorized by the King to take up 300 Marks for dispatch of the Kings businesses there by his Commission, and taking it up from the Popes Usurers, Merchants there, entred into this ensuing Obligation to them for payment thereof, under severe forfeitures and penalties, which the King must incurr in case of non-payment thereof.

By all these premised Complaints, Suits and Attachments upon Prohibitions in the Common Pleas in one or two Terms, we may clearly discern; First, our Bishops, Archdeacons, Officials, and other Ecclesiastical Judges manifold encroachments upon the Rights, Prerogatives of the King, and Jurisdiction of his Temporal Courts. 2ly. Their frequent high contempts of the Kings Prohibitions issued to them. 3ly. Their intollerable oppressions, vexations of Subjects by such injurious Suits, to their great damage, enforcing them to sue to the Kings Courts for Prohibitions, Attachments, and Writs to recover their damages thereby sustained, with their manifold delayes, defaults, and contempts, in refusing to appear upon summons and Attachments against them. 4ly. Their frequent malicious Excommunications of them; and such who conversed with them, when enjoyned by the Judges to absolve them, of purpose to hinder, discourage them and others to sue for Prohibitions to restrain these their injurious usurpations. 5ly. The Kings, Judges care and readiness in that age to restrain these their Usurpations and Excommunications, by Prohibitions and Attachments against the Ecclesiastical Judges themselves, and Prosecutors of such Suits before them, by their instigation, who were for the most part Clergy-men, (as you may observe) they all combining about this time by their * Articles and Constitutions, to trample the Kings Prerogative, Courts, Judges, Officers, Laws of the Realm, and Subjects Liberties under their feet, and bring them under their Interdicts and Excommunications for issuing Prohibitions and Attachments against them.

In the ſame Term and Roll, I finde this Plea in an Aſſiſe of Darrein Preſentment to the Church of Malleberg, wherein the Popes proviſion of it to his Nephew upon the Biſhop of Sarums tranſlation to Bath, was pleaded and allowed.

Aſſiſa venit recognitura quis advocatus tempore pacis præſentavit ultimam perſonam qua mortua eſt ad Eccleſiam de Mallebergh quæ vacat, &c. Et cujus advocationem Ricardus filius Stephani clamat verſus Walterum Epiſcopum Sarum; et unde dicit, quod quidam Willielmus anteceſſor ſuus tempore pacis, et tempore H. Regis avi Domini Regis nunc, præſentavit quendam Robertum Clericum ſuum ad prædictam Eccleſiam, qui ad præſentacionem ſuam fuit admiſſus et inſtitutus, et ultimo obiit perſona in eadem tanquam à vero patrono præſentatus. Et Epiſcopus per Attornatum ſuum venit, et dicit, quod non debet ei ad hoc breve reſpondere, quia dicit, quod prædicta Eccleſia non eſt Eccleſia per ſe, imo Capella pertinens ad matricem Eccleſiam de Alfynton, unde petit Judicium de brevi ſuo. Rot. 19. dorſo Devon.

Et Ricardus dicit, quod qualitercunque prædicta Eccleſia de Mallebergh modo conſolidata ſit prædictæ Eccleſiæ de Alfynton; tempore quo prædictus Willielmus anteceſſor ſuus præſentavit prædictum Robertum Clericum ſuum ad prædictam Eccleſiam, fuit Eccleſia illa matrix Eccleſia et per ſe parochialis.

Et Epiſcopus dicet, quod poſt tempus prædicti H. Regis avi, quidam Ricardus, quondam Epiſcopus Sarum tempore Domini Regis nunc præſentavit quendam Martinum de Patteſhull, qui ad præſentationem ſuam fuit admiſſus et inſtitutus. Et poſt mortem prædicti Martini quidam Robertus tunc Epiſcopus Sarum præſentavit quendam ——— Clericum ſuum ad prædictam Eccleſiam, qui ad præſentacionem ſuam fuit admiſſus, et inſtitutus. Et poſtquam ——— Rogerus conſecratus fuit in Epiſcopum Bathonienſem et Wellenſem, Dominus Papa contulit eandem Eccleſiam Andreæ nepoti ſuo, et quod advocatio illa pertinebat ad Epiſcopatum Sarum, et Ricardus non poteſt hoc dedicere. Ideo prædictus Epiſcopus inde ſine die, et prædictus Ricardus in miſericordia pro falſo clamore.

In a Fragment of Plea-Rolls (in the Tower) before the Justices Itinerant, about Anno 55 of Henry the 3d. as I conjecture by the hand, I met with this Case and Resolution upon an Attachment for a Suit in Court Christian against the Kings Prohibition.

Linc. Rot. 10.

Magister Willielmus de Branucewell attachiatus fuit ad sectam Gilberti Parleben, quare traxit eum in placitum in Curia Christianitatis de catallis ejusdem Gilberti, quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio. Et Henricus Decanus De la Ford attachiatus fuit ad respondendum eidem Gilberto, quare tenuit placitum illud. Et Willielmus & Decanus veniunt et dicunt, quod post Prohibitionem Domini Regis nunquam tenuerunt nec secuti sunt placitum illud; sed verum volunt dicere, quod revera idem Willielmus vendidit eidem Gilberto et cuidam participi suo decimas garbarum suarum de Ecclesia sua pro 37 marcis; et quia denarios illos non reddidit ad terminos statutos, ille sicut persona implacitavit eum in Capitulo ante Prohibitionem: Et petit Judicium, si illud potuit facere vel non? Et Gilbertus venit et hoc totum cognoscit, sed dicit, quod reddidit ei prædictos denarios, sed nullam sectam inde habet: Et dicit, quod idem Willielmus petit ab eo quandam pœnam: Et Willielmus dicit, quod nullam pœnam ab eo exigit nec exiget. Et ideo consideratum est, * quod bene licet eidem Willielmo sequi placitum illud in Curia Christianitatis cum sit de Decimis, et prædicto Decano tenere illud. Et Gilbertus in misericordia.

By all the premised successive Prohibitions, Attachments, Suits, Proceedings, besides sundry others contained in the Fragments of the decayed Plea-Rolls in the Tower, which I pretermit, and those printed in * Bracton and † Fitzherbert during the long Reign of King Henry the 3d. it is most apparent, that notwithstanding his over-great compliance with, and connivances at the Usurpations, Exactions of the Popes, and Court of Rome, their Legates, Instruments in sundry particulars, to which he was necessitated to procure their favour, advise, and assistance against the frequent invasions, injuries of the French, and other potent Enemies abroad, and of his undutifull, refractory, rebellious Prelates, Barons at home, invading, undermining the Rights and Prerogatives of his Crown; and to obtain the Realms of Sicily and Apulia for his Son Edmund: yet he with his Parliaments, Judges, and Courts of Justice constantly maintained, asserted his Soveraign Ecclesiastical Prerogative against all Papal and Prelatical usurpations thereon, and the Lawes, Liberties, Properties of his Realms, Subjects in England and Ireland, in the Particulars of greatest moment, and most publick concernment to him and his people.

2ly. In ſummoning all Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Popes Delegates, and other Eccleſiaſtical Judges, Perſons to appear before him and his Jugdes in his Temporal Courts, in all cauſes wherein their Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction or uſurpations on his Crown were brought in queſtion, as the ſole proper Judges thereof, not the Pope or themſelves, as well as of all Temporal Juriſdictions, they being both originally veſted in and flowing from the King; whence [b] Bracton and his Judges then reſolved: In Spiritualibus debet Rex æſtimare vel Juſticiarii ſui, an ſua ſit Juriſdictio vel non? Si Judex Eccleſiaſticus falcem ponens in meſſem alienam aliquid præſumpſerit contra Coronam et dignitatem Regiam, ſicut de laico feodo vel de Catallis, cum Prohibitionem a Rege ſuſceperit, ſuperſedere debet in omni caſu, ſaltem donec conſtiterit in Curia Regis, ad quem pertineat Juriſdictio: quia ſi Judex Eccleſiaſticus æſtimare poſſet an ſua eſſet Juriſdictio, in omni caſu indifferenter procederet non obſtante Regia Prohibitione. Debet igitur vel omnino ſuperſedere, vel cum attachiatus fuerit, venire, vel mittere, quod examinato placito in Curia Regis, de conſilio Curiæ ſuperſedeat, vel procedat, quod ſi non fecerit pœna debita puniatur. Since then the King, and his Temporal Courts, Judges who repreſented his Perſon, did thus ſummon Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Popes Delegates, and all other Eccleſiaſtical Judges perſonally to appear before them, determine all Cauſes concerning the extent of their Papal or Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdictions, reſtrain, correct their uſurpations, exceſſes, contempts; but they on the contrary could not ſummon, examine, inhibit the Kings Temporal Courts, Judges, nor excommunicate, interdict them by our Laws for any of their Judgements, Prohibitions, Proceedings, reſtraining their pretended Church-Liberties, or Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdictions or Exorbitances, (though they [c] oft-times attempted it by their antimonarchical Canons and Conſtitutions) they muſt be acknowledged to be Supreme, and Super-intendent over, not ſubject or ſubordinate to them, as well in Eccleſiaſtical as Temporal Cauſes and Affairs.

neant impunita, apponat Rex manum ſuum in defectu Epiſcopi, ita quod Clericus arreſtetur et detineatur quouſque Epiſcopus eum petierit ex officio ſuæ juriſdictionis ut ei liberetur, vel ex certa cauſa detentus remaneat, nec propter hoc Vicecomes nec Ballivi ſui pœnam incurrant, cum executio juris non habeat injuriam. Epiſcopus autem et Superiores poſſunt pro injuria, et pro crimine arreſtari. By all which Forms of Legal Proceſs and Proceedings both againſt our Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other Clergy-men of inferiour degree in that Age, the Soveraign Juriſdiction of King Henry and his Temporal Courts, and Judges over them as his Miniſters, is moſt perſpicuous to all the World. An. 56 H. 3.

4ly. This his, and his Courts of Juſtice Soveraign Juriſdiction over them, was likewiſe evidenced by ſeveral ſorts of Writs and Mandates then frequently iſſued to our Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Eccleſiaſtical Judges and Ordinaries for ſeveral purpoſes and occaſions, commanding them to do and execute, or prohibiting them not to do or perform ſuch or ſuch Actions relating to their Epiſcopal Juriſdictions or Functions; witneſs theſe Writs of Quare impedit, Quare Incumbravit, Quare non Admiſit, De Clerico Admittendo, De Copia Libelli deliberanda, De Cautione admittenda, De Aſſiſa Ultimæ Præſentationis, Ceſſavit de Cantaria, Ne admittas, De Nonreſidentia pro Clericis Regis, De Præſentatione ad Eccleſiam, Præbendam, Capellam, &c. De Revocatione Præſentationis, De Permutatione Beneficiorum, * De Reſidentia facienda, and other Writs of like nature, whereof there are multitudes (over-tedious to tranſcribe) in the Clauſe and Patent Rolls of King Henry the 3d. ſince printed in Bracton, the Regiſter of Writs, the Old and New Natura Brevium, and Books of Entries, and their puniſhing them by legal Actions, Attachments, Fines, ſeiſures of their Temporalties, Perſons, and Judgements againſt them, in Temporal Courts for their neglects or contempts therein. * Here, Tom. 2. p. 1011, 1012. 1200.

5ly. It moſt evidently appears by this Kings and his Judges taking no notice of, but rejecting all * Excommunications or other Eccleſiaſtical Cenſures denounced againſt any of his Subjects by the Pope or his Delegates, not allowing them to be certified and pleaded in barre in any of his Courts of Law. By his and his Judges ſtrict Examinations of the Juſtice and legality of all his Archbiſhops, Biſhops, or other Eccleſiaſtical Judges Cenſures, Excommunications denounced againſt any of his Subjects, cauſing them to be put in due execution when concluded by him and his Judges to be juſt, legal; but ſuperſeding, * commanding, inforcing them to be repealed, and the Subjects to be abſolved from them, yea enlarged out of Priſon, if taken by Capias Excommunicatums, when adjudged to be illegal, fraudulent, vexatious, iſſued againſt his Prohibitions, or after Appeals, and awarding damages to the Parties injured, for their vexation; as the premiſed Inſtances, and theſe Paſſages of Henry de Bracton flouriſhing under him, moſt clearly demonſtrate. * See Here, p. 69. * See Here, f. 104, 107, 108, 114, 115.

* Competit etiam tenenti exceptio dilatoria, ex perſona petentis, eo quod ſeparatus eſt a communione gentium, propter lepram quæ eſt in anima, ut ſi fuerit ſpecialiter excommunicatus, quia ſicut quis poterit habere lepram in corpore, ita & in anima. Excommunicato enim interdicitur omnis actus legitimus, ita quod agere non poteſt nec aliquem convenire, licet ipſe ab aliis poſſit conveniri. Qui autem hujuſmodi exceptionem apposuerit, oportebit eum habere probationem, quia ſimplici voci tenentis non erit fides adhibenda, nec etiam cujuſlibet de populi teſtimonio, quia oportebit eum qui excipit in hoc caſu, habere literas Ordinarii, ſicut Archiepiſcopi, vel Epiſcopi, vel alterius Judicis Ordinarii, vel Delegati, rei veritatem teſtificantes, quod talis nominatim excommunicatus ſit; et ex tali cauſa: vel ſi Ordinarius præſens ſit, et hoc teſtificetur viva voce. Funeſtam enim vocem interdici oportet, potius quam audiri; nec ſolum vox eorum interdicitur, ſed ſi quid ab ipſis fuerit impetratum, firmitatem non obtinebit. Cum excommunicato autem nec orare, nec loqui, nec palam, nec abſcondite; nec veſci licet, exceptis quibuſdam perſonis. But was the Biſhops and Ordinaries Sentence and Excommunication then concluſive to the Party, King, or Judges, that they might not except againſt, or examine the reaſon and legality of it, for the Subjects relief, if injured or grieved by it, without appealing againſt it to the Archbiſhop or Pope? No verily, for he ſubjoyns in the ſame Chapter, that the Party himſelf might thus except againſt it, when pleaded. Item dicere poterit, quod ſi excommunicatus fui, hoc fuit de facto, quia nulla ſubfuit cauſa alia, niſi quod Judici Eccleſiaſtico obtemperare * Lib. 5. De Exceptionibus, cap. 23. fol. 426, 427. See Fitzh. and Brookes Abridgement, Tit. Excommengement.

An. 56 H. 3. noluit cognoſcenti de laico feodo, vel de catallis et debitis quæ non ſunt de Teſtamento vel Patrimonio, et unde hora congrua exhibui eis literas Domini Regis prohibitorias ne procederent, et quibus prædicti Judices differre noluerunt. Item reſponderi poterit, quod excommunicatio nulla fuit, vel injuſta, quia a tali Sententia rite fuit appellatum, et plures alias prætendere poterit reſponſiones ad tuitionem ſtatus ſui, ſed ad manum ſtatim habeat probationem, quia cum extiterit de excommunicatione, de abſolutione conſtare oportebit. (All which particular allegations the Kings Judges were to examine and determine.) In fine verò notandum, quod ubi quis fuerit rite excommunicatus, et in ea pertinacia et excommunicatione pertinaciter perſeveraverit per 40. dies, claves Eccleſiæ contemnendo, tunc (ut gladius gladium adjuvet) ad mandatum Epiſcopi vel ejus Officialis capiatur excommunicatus. Sed nunquam capietur aliquis ad mandatum Judicum Delegatorum, et Archidiaconorum, vel alterius Judicis inferiorís; quia Rex in Epiſcopos coercionem habet propter Baroniam. Cum autem talis capi debeat rationabili de cauſa, cum Cancellarius literas Epiſcopi reciperit, fiat Breve in hac forma: Rex Vicecomiti, ſalutem. Significavit nobis venerabilis Pater N. per literas ſuas patentes, quod talis ob manifeſtam contumaciam ſuam excommunicatus eſt, nec ſe vult per cenſuram Eccleſiaſticam juſticiare. Quia vero poteſtas Regia ſacroſanctæ Eccleſiæ in ſuis querelis deeſſe non habet, (when juſt) tibi præcipimus, quod prædictum talem per corpus ſuum (ſecundum conſuetudinem Anglia) juſticies, donec ſacroſanctæ Eccleſiæ tàm de contemptu quàm de injuria ei illata ab eo fuerit ſatisfactum. Teſte meipſo apud Weſtm. &c. Qui cum captus fuerit & Eccleſiæ ſatisfecerit, deliberabitur ad mandatum Epiſcopi per tale Breve. Rex Vicecomiti, ſalutem. Quia venerabilis Pater talis Epiſcopus ſignificavit nobis, quod talis quantum ad mandatum ſuum, vel ad mandatum talis venerabilis Patris talis Epiſcopi, à te capi, & per totum corpus ſuum tanquam contemnentem claves Eccleſiæ juſticiarii præceperimus, beneficium abſolutionis impendit, tibi præcipimus, quod a priſona noſtra qua detinetur, ipſum deliberari facias quietum, &c. Et notandum, quod ad nullius mandatum deliberari debeat, niſi ad mandatum Domini Epiſcopi; nec antequam ipſe mandaverit quod Eccleſiæ ſic ſatisfecerit, niſi captus fuit per fallam ſuggeſtionem Ordinarii, vel aliorum Prælatorum, vel ſi per maliciam Adverſarii, ut eum excludat ab actione quam verſus eum inſtituit. (A common practice in that and ſucceeding Ages, to maintain the uſurped Juriſdiction of theſe Court, and bring much griſt to their Mills. To prevent which the King and Judges ordained this remedy:) Et ſi ita, tunc fiat tale Breve ad ipſius deliberationem. Rex Vicecomiti, ſalutem. * Oſtenſum eſt nobis ex parte talis, quod cum aliquando appellaſſet quendam talem in Comitatu tuo de Roberia & hujuſmodi, & tibi à nobis præceptum eſſet, quod talem appellatum attachiares: Idem apellatus ut ipſum talem appellantem gravaret, et appellum ſuum adnihilaret, falſo ſuggeſſit Epiſcopo tali, quod idem appellans in quadam excommunicatione perſeveravit contumaciter per quadraginta dies et amplius, et ita quod literas ab eodem Epiſcopo impetravit ad nos directas, quod extenderemus brachium ſeculare, per cujus deceptionem idem appellans captus eſt, et in priſona noſtra detentus, ut dicitur. Et quia nemini debet fraus ſua patrocinari, tibi præcipimus, quod ſi prædictus talis appellans fecerit te ſecurum de clamore, &c. tunc pone per vadium, &c. prædictum talem appellatum, quod ſit coram, &c. inde reſponſurus. Et interim facias prædictum talem appellantem deliberari a priſona noſtra, niſi captus fuerit alia occaſione quare deliberari non debeat. Teſte, &c. Si autem forte captus non fuerit, et Judex aliquis malicioſe ſuggeſſerit Epiſcopo, quod quis excommunicatus fuerit, fiat Breve Vic. de non capiendo talem, ut ſupra de * prohibitionibus. Beſides the Party in ſuch caſes, by a Suit at Law againſt the Proſecutor and Judge, might then recover his full damages for his illegal vexation and impriſonment; and the Proſecutor and Judge be alſo fined, impriſoned for their uſurpations and contempts againſt the Kings Crown, Dignity, and Writs of Prohibition.

6ly. This King evidenced his Eccleſiaſtical Soveraignty, by his own, his Nobles, Commons, Parliaments frequent publick oppoſitions, and Prohibitions, not only againſt Papal Extortions, Proviſions, Innovations, but likewiſe againſt all Canons and Conſtitutions made by Popes, Prelates, Clergy-men in General Councils at Rome or elſewhere abroad; or in National, Provincial or Dioceſan Councils or Synods in England, derogatory or prejudicial to the Rights or Prerogatives of his Crown and Royal Dignity, or to the Laws and Cuſtoms of the Realm, or Inheritances, Free-holds, or Liberties of his Subjects; as is evident by his forecited Writ* prohibiting the publick reading of the Canon Law in Schools, the Prohibitions iſſued by him to his Archbiſhops and Clergy in their Councils, not to act or enact any thing to the prejudice of his Crown, Prerogative, Dignity, Realm, his Prohibitions and Appeals * againſt the Canons and Conſtitutions of Archbiſhop Boniface and his Suffragans; and all the fore-mentioned Prohibitions, Attachments reſtraining their uſurped Juriſdictions, and encroachments upon his Crown, Laws, Temporal Courts, Subjects properties or Liberties, by colour of Popes, of General Councils, or their own Canonical Conſtitutions, which they endeavoured to advance above the Kings Prerogative, the Laws and Cuſtoms of the Realm in Caſes of Baſtardy and other particulars; and that by pretext of his general Clauſe in the Great Charter of Liberties, frequently confirmed by him, Chap. 1. Quod Eccleſia Anglicana libera ſit, & habeat omnia jura ſua integra, & libertates ſuas illæſas; which was intended both by the King, Nobles, Parliament, only *of * ſuch legal Rights and Liberties, as the King and his Royal predeceſſors had formerly granted and confirmed to them and their Churches*, by their Royal Charters, conſiſtent with the Rights and Priviledges of the Crown, the Laws of the Realm, and his Lay Subjects Liberties; whereof he, his Juſtices, and Temporal Courts were the proper and ſole Judges: not ſuch as Popes in or by their Bulls, or the Clergy themſelves in or by their own Councils, Synods, Canons or Conſtitutions ſhould declare, define, enlarge, create, or uſurp at their pleaſures, to advance their Juriſdiction above, or extend it beyond its ancient legal boundaries. All which particulars I thought meet to obſerve, for the honour of the Common Laws of England, and the Judges and Profeſſors of it in that Age; Wherein though the Lord Chancellors, Treaſurers, with other Chief Officers of State, and ſundry of the Judges were Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Popes Legates, and Delegates, by means whereof they much advanced the Popes and their own Juriſdictions by degrees, to the prejudice of the Crown, the Kings Temporal Courts, and Subjects Liberties; yet they could never ſubvert, undermine, or overthrow the Common Laws, and Liberties of the Realm, nor Kings Prerogatives, grounded on, ſupported by them, and by his Temporal Judges, Nobles, Officers entruſted with their execution; the chief Supporters of him and his Prerogative, againſt all Papal and Prelatical uſurpations or underminings. I ſhall therefore conclude King Henry the 3d. his Reign, and this Chapter, with * Bracton's reſolution, Ipſe autem Rex non debet eſſe ſub homine, (therefore not under the Pope or any other Prelates) ſed ſub Deo, et ſub Lege, quia LEX FACIT REGEM: ATTRIBUAT IGITUR REX LEGI, QUOD LEX ATTRIBUIT EI, videlicet DOMINATIONEM ET POTESTATEM; non eſt enim Rex ubi dominatur Voluntas et non Lex.

REverentiſſimo Domino ſuo H. Dei gratia illuſtri Regi Angl. Domino Hiberniæ, Duci Normann. Aquit. & Comiti Andegaviæ; devoti ſui P. Saracenus, S. de Eketon, S. de Lucy, devotam in omnibus reverentiam. Noverit Excellentia veſtra quod ego P. Saracenus veniens ad Legatum die Lunæ proxima poſt Aſſumptionem beatæ Mariæ apud Audomarum, audivi ab ipſo quod ad illum acceſſerat die præcedenti Johannes Lemovicen. portigens ſibi litteras Domini Papæ pro Falkaſio, ut procuraret quod pacifice morari poſſit in Francia dum habuerit neceſſe, et ſcripſerunt vobis multi Cardinales adjicientes, quod idem F. rediens a Sede Romana captus eſt à quodam Milite in Burgundia & detentus, ſcilicet Anſelmo de Dinne, Anno 9 H. 3. in Turri Lond.

An. 9 H. 3. Dinne, quem F. quandoque cepit in Anglia, & detinens eum diu captum, tandem multam pecuniam ab eo extorsit, ac ejusdem Johannis instancia jam scripserat Legatus Regis Franciæ et Ducissæ de Burgundia pro deliberatione dicti F. ignorans penitus, quod aliquid contra vos vel Majestatis vestræ dignitatem optinuisset vel optinere potuisset in Curia; credens adhuc firmiter, quod Magister O. Nuncius Papæ tantum ad hoc veniret, ut preces vobis offerret pro dicto F. Verum cum litteras vestras quas ex parte vestra Legato attuli inspexisset, advertens prudenter et diligenter quæ, quot, et qualiter cedebant in vestræ dignitatis læsionem evidentem, et alia pericula quæ ex hoc vobis, quod absit, imminebant; admirans facilitatem et instanciam ejusdem et aliorum quorundam eidem assistencium versuciam et ingratitudinem, vestræ condolens Magnificentiæ, et ——— studens attente, quomodo vestræ provideret indempnitati, vocato ad se Magistro Ada de Magno ponte Clerico Regis Franciæ qui tunc aderat, eidem patefecit, quod præfatus F. multa in Curia in sui ipsius præjudicium & dedecus procuraverat, injungens eidem, quod ea cum festinatione Domino suo Regi Franciæ cautè & sine scandalo insinuaret. Nos autem S. & S. die Jovis sequenti ivimus ibidem ad Legatum, & auditis supradictis ab ipso, tractavimus communiter sollicitè quâ viâ melius processus supradicti Nuncii ——— dari, saltem quousque nos a Curia Romana reverteremur, & tandem in hanc formam descendit Legatus, quod cum Magister (O. accederet) ad ipsum, persuadebit ei, ut nullatenus recedat à regno Francia priusquam sæpedictum F. liberaverit, et ejusdem F. detencio ita procurabitur in quantum poterit Legatus sine scandalo quod sufficiens tempus nobis supererit de revertendo, Deo dante, antequam ille F. (intelligat) hanc intencionem (nostram,) De voluntate Legati consensimus in hoc, ut Magister E. de Eketon, qui Magistros Simonem de Langetote, & Adam de Magno ponte notos habet, festinanter ad illos accedat impetraturus ab illis, & per illos, & pro posse suo quæ erga Regem Franciæ, Ducissam Burgundiæ, & prænominatum Anselmum crediderit expedire, afferens secum literas Magistri P. de Colle —— scribentis efficaciter Silvanectrino Episcopo & Domino B. de Rote super eodem; nec erit dictus Magister E. eis suspectus quasi pro nobis laboraret, quia credetur quod negocium Domini Cant. in hac parte gerat, contra quem sæpedictus F. fecit notorium, & multa proposuit —— (Quod) si per liberacionem F. quod absit, vel alia ratione præmissa non procedant, Legatus ostendet Magistro O. litteras quas à vestra Majestate suscepit, multas persuasiones dicturus eidem per quas sufficienter moveri debebit, quod nec tutum nec honestum erit ei, ut progrediatur in Angliam antequam secundam super hoc receperit a Domino Papa jussionem, et de voluntate et consilio Legati processit Dominus P. Saracenus ad Magistrum O. ut iram & indignationem (vestras contra F. propter contumacia) vobis illata ei manifestet, ut sic cum venerit ad Legatum facilius inducatur ad propositum. Et vult Legatus omnibus modis quod Dominus P. una cum Magistro O. revertatur ad ipsum, ut plenius per eum instruatur quid facturus esset idem O. et de hiis quæ a Domino Papa eidem O. sunt injuncta, et quæ fuerit intencio Papæ super eisdem; nam talia forsitan poterit ei præsenti revelare quæ scriptis nullatenus committeret. Legatus autem si aliqua inductione potuerit Magistrum O. in partibus Franciæ retineret, omnia necessaria ei inveniet, & nos eidem Legato promisimus fideliter, licet hoc recusaret audire quod de hoc ei plenè satisfiet. Ad hæc, si nulla ratione potuerit sæpedictus O. retineri, & processerit in Angliam. Consilium etiam Legati, quod admittatur honorifice et subtiliter intendatis dilatoribus, primo cum tractatu audientes quomodo et ad quid venerit, unde deliberetis cum dilacione, super eisdem dicturi postea ei, quia quædam inveniistis proposita quæ vos & regnum vestrum tangunt, (& necessarium est) in hiis fidelium vestrorum uti consilio, et ad hoc quanta poteritis assignetur dilacio; ——— necesse fuerit producatur, ut in omnibus hujusmodi subsistat, quousque mandatum Domini Papæ inde habueritis. (Interim) cum omni (cavendum) diligencia ne pendentibus dictis dilacionibus discurrat per regnum, et inimici vestri in hac causa seu (propriis personis, vel) per interpositam personam vel literatorie, nullam habeant accessum ad ipsum in quantum fieri poterit, ne alias dum vos tractaretis de differendo ipsi suggerentes ei quæ vellent more consueto, et inducentes eundem ad scribendum Domino Papæ pro voluntate sua sequantur ——— quia illa scripturs (vim) inquisitionis de plano faciendæ optineret. Sarè ego S. de Lucy literas Domini Legati ——— quas Domino Papæ transmittit, & aliis Cardinalibus de quibus confidit specialius; nec visum fuit Legato expediens, ut

ipſe ad aliquem de ſuprædictis, quia noverunt quod tantum veſtris agendis intendo, & in hiis quæ vos contingunt me maximè ſuſpectum haberent; ſet Magiſter S. de Eketon & ego Deo dante convenimus apud Triticas ——— ad prænominatum Militem Anſelmum de Dume, ſi viderimus expedire: deinde, Domino ——— proceſſuri uſque Leon. ſuper Rodanum, niſi forſan eundum viderimus melius per Alemaniam, expectaturi ibidem Dominum P. Saracenum, ut ſic ſimul proficiſcamur ad Curiam. Ex præmiſſis conjici poteſt, quod per 8. dies ad minus retardabimur ex eo quod idem R. vadit ad Magiſtrum O. & reverſurus eſt ad Legatum; & hoc noſtræ negligentiæ, ſi placet, non eſt imputandum: nos tamen interim pro poſſe noſtro non erimus inutiles. In receſſu latoris præſencium nichil certum audierat Legatus de adventu Magiſtri O. nec eciam quod adhuc veniſſet Pariſiis, & nondum reverſus fuit garcio Domini P. Saraceni quem miſit ad Magiſtrum —— cum litteris quas idem P. & ego S. de Lucy eidem O. ſcripſimus quando fuimus London. ——— Dominus noſter ——— ſcrinula tenere velitis ſecretiſſima quia ſunt ibi quædam quæ (ſecreta) tangunt Legati. Et ſicut nobis videtur, ipſe negocia veſtra quaſi propria eciam in hac parte ſibi aſſumit. Mittimus tranſcripta ——— Papæ, & formam in qua ſcribit Cardinalibus; & dixit quod expedit ut ——— tangit ——— rationes ſuſpectus ——— videatur; Semper vale. An. 9 & 21 Hen. 3.

By this Letter we may clearly diſcover the hypocritical carriage, diſſimulation, and Machiavillian policies of Popes, Legates, Cardinals and Romiſh Agents in that Age.

Here, p. 92. l. 14. after decimo, this ſhould have been inſerted; I likewiſe found this Bull of Pope Gregory and Otto his Legate to Walter Biſhop of Coventry, to abſolve his beloved daughters the Nunnes of the Monaſtery of Cornebury, from the obſervance of the Hoſpitalers of Jeruſalem, whoſe Habit they had then taken upon them out of ſimplicity; and to profeſs the Rule of Saint Auguſtine in that Monaſtery, there to ſerve God in it; which was delayed and oppoſed for five years ſpace by the Hoſpitalers oppoſition: whereupon he ordered his Legate upon the Nunnes requeſt to ſee it executed: this Bull, with Appeals and proceedings thereon I found in the White Tower, in this Inſtrument. An. 21 H. 3.

Here, fol. 114. b. lin. 10. after secundo, this should have followed: The Bishop of Bethlehem the Popes Legate, with the Hospitalers and Templers in Syria sent this Letter to King Henry the 3d. about the 32d. year of his Reign, declaring their distressed condition and danger by reason of the power and successes of the Babylonians, their want of ayd against them from other Christian Princes, after many Letters and Messengers, and imploring his assistance with all earnestness, on whom they principally depended for the relief of the Holy Land, and for victory over and confusion of these enemies of the Cross of Christ, not extant in our Historians; which I rescued out of the rubbish in the White Tower. An. 32 H. 3.

præsens omni destituta subsidio, & ex destructione præteritæ magnæ oppressæ Castilliæ, Babiloniorum est exposita faucibus, ut Soldanus ipse cum (exercitu) copioso totam Provinciam usque ad portas Acon. hostili jam occupatam insolum, & spiritu superbiæ tumidus, vendicare sibi Civitates & Castra in suæ fortitudinis impetu comminetur, treugarum fide quas hactenus cum Christianis injerat non servata. In quibus omnibus non est qui redimat, neque qui salvum faciat, nec qui ferat auxilium, nec qui terram miserabilem consoletur ex omnibus extis ejus; circumspicit undique quærens in tribulatione subsidium, & non venit. Jacet obsessa canibus, nec invenit liberantem; Regionem nostram labore multiplici & gravibus expensis exultam, in temperamentum Castiliæ alieni devorant & circumquaque dissipant; nec solus sine resistentia exteriorem infideles absorbent propriam ——— dilato ——— quam desperato subsidio fiduciam habent, ut in ——— ipsorum castra influant, & maxithimæ civitates maximæ quas cismarinæ Christianitatis paucitas tenere non sufficit, & contra hostilem frequentiam defensare, quin potius quasi parvus grex in luporum medio constitutus, circumseptus undique ac direptus ubique suarum ovium depræda-tionem eo formidat, immensis quo frequentius prædictorum luporum molestat incursibus & discurrentibus exercitibus agitatur. Ut quis igitur, Rex inclite, Regia potentia non consurgit, & Regalis ——— brachium non insurgit? usquequo exaltabitur contra nos Christiani nominis inimicus? quamdiu terra Christi sanguine rubricata conculcari tam enormiter à bestiis permittetur, quæ sic posset de facili liberè & perpetua pace muniri, & in antiquum integritatis statum ——— de prædictis partibus resarciri? Cum enim aliorum hostium undique subtracta formidine Babiloniorum timorem nocumenta supersint, & cæteris quodammodo spinarum aculeis ac frue ——— hostilibus dissipatis, Babilonica tamen radicis offendiculum habeat ——— cujus custodiæ tribulationes multimodas & periculosas inquietudines experitur. Ad extirpationem ipsius quam præsentis potissimè temporis opportunitas subministrat, adventus vester diutina oblatione præmissus et anxie ab omnibus expectatus fozet necessario festinandus, ut Babilonis nomen, et germen, et progenies, simul et reliquiæ perderent. Ne qua de cætero radix hostilis amaritudinis sursum germinans superesset quæ in eradicationem Christiani nominis efferatis animis consurrexit; & jam si radix illa nullis impedita, quod absit, obstaculis germinationem hostium fidei, & virium collectionem diutius permittatur excrescere, tunc pax subveniendi voluntas perficeret ubi foret congrui temporis possibilitas retardata. Meminisse debet magnificentia Regia damna gravia & injurias graviores quas gens Babilonica adversus Christicolarum exercitum pluries intemptavit; non quidem ex suo robore, sed aut permissione divina juxta nostrorum & exigentiam prædictorum, aut ex multiplicatione roboris quæ sibi contra Christianitatem ex regnis Saracen. adjacentibus influebat; mox enim dum contra Babiloniam Christicolæ prævalerent, concurrebat undique infidelis populus infidelitatis suæ undique afferens fulcimentum: sed ubi Baldasa, Mosa, Halapia, & Damascus, opulentissima revera regna ——— nociffimæ civitates. Ex quibus utique si robur validum accedebat, si confortabantur brachia pessimorum nullus ambigit qui temporis illius supputat rationem, verum Radye H. pessima ramis his detruncatis quam de facili extirpationi pateat & eradicationi subjaceat leviorum, dictat non ——— comprobat manifestum. Proinde Celsitudinem Regiam flebilibus vocibus quantum possumus obsecramus in Domino Jesu Christo, quatinus felicem ac potentem vestrum adventum, vel saltem auxilium (quod in prædictæ terræ ——— defensionem, et confusionem inimicorum crucis Christi suspirantes et anxii expectamus) dignemini, sicut imminens requiret negotium, Crucifixi (amore) maturare, ut novissimis Deo auctore temporibus in perhenne nominis vestræ præconium, in Terræ sanctæ liberationem et pacem ex Regiæ strenuitatis potentia contra hostes residuos desiderata victoria subsequatur. I find alſo by the ſame Bundle, that the Sheriff of Cumberland informed the Chancellor, that Ralph Biſhop of Carliſle did then hinder his men and tenants within his liberty to take the Oath of Fealty to the King, whereupon he diſtrained them to come and take it before the Chancellor himſelf by a certain day, to their great vexation: the Biſhop hereupon ſent this Letter to the Chancellor, denying the information againſt him as falſe and ſcandalous; deſiring that he and his Tenants might take the Oath before the Sheriff, or any others he ſhould appoint to receive it, as they formerly proffered to do.

This Biſhop (as it ſeems by way of revenge), excommunicated the Sheriff in his Eccleſiaſtical Court without Citation or Articles, upon complaint of the Abbot of Hulmo, for diſtraining him for Debts due to the King, and executing his Office. Whereupon I find (in the ſame Bundle of Writs) this memorable Prohibition iſſued to the Biſhop, informing him, that he had no power to queſtion or excommunicate any of the Kings Sheriffs or Officers for doing their Duties, or executing his Commands; in which, if they offended, they were onely reſponſible to the King, upon complaint; that theſe Proceedings of his were againſt the Kings Crown and Dignity, and his Oath of Fealty to the King; commanding him forthwith to abſolve him from his Excommunication.

The King being acquainted with his Chancellors proceedings, and his impartial Juſtice in righting his oppreſſed Subjects in his abſence, againſt the Biſhops Uſurpations, and others vexations; returned him this Letter of Thanks, commanding and encouraging him to proceed as he had begun, promiſing to ratifie whatever he Hereupon the Chancellor iſſued forth this Writ in the Kings name to prohibit the injuries and oppreſſions of Reginald de Gray Juſtice of Cheſter, and his Officers, againſt the Liberties and Cuſtomes of the Country, of which the generality of the County had often complained; which yet they increaſed, inſtead of reforming, notwithſtanding former Inhibitions to reſtrain them.

The Kings Peace being thus proclaimed, and juſtice executed in England and Ireland, all Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and Clergy-men ſwearing Fealty to the King, as well as the Nobility and Laity; the firſt thing he and his Council did, was to make a publick Declaration and Proteſtation againſt Pope Clement the 4th. his late uſurpation; who a little before his Father King Henry's death had by his abſolute Papal * Proviſions conferred the Biſhoprick of Winton on John de Pontiſſera, and the Archbiſhoprick of Canterbury upon Robert Kilwardby, without the Kings precedent licenſe, approbation, or Monks election, contrary to the Kings Prerogative, the antient Rights of his Crown, the Laws of the Realm, and Liberties of the Church; rejecting William de Chilenden (duly elected by the Monks of Canterbury by King Henry's licenſe; whom he approved after their election) when preſented to him, without any legal reaſon by his abſolute Papal power, that ſo he might uſurp the diſpoſal of all other Biſhopricks in England by theſe & other former like preſidents. Theſe Biſhops being thus intruded by the Popes Proviſions into theſe Biſhopricks in King Henry's reign, King Edward the 1. and his Counſil, to prevent the like uſurpations for the future, refuſed to reſtore the Temporalties to them, before they had made this publick proteſtation by their Proctors in the Kings name, for the vindication of the Prerogative and rights of his Crown againſt theſe Proviſions, in the Biſhops, Chancellors and ſundry others preſence, called togethes for that purpoſe, in S^t. Stephen's Chappel in Weſtminſter, (where-

In a Bundle of Writs of King Edward the Firſt in the White Tower, in the ſecond year of his Reign, I met with the draught of this Prohibition concerning Tithes of Aſſarts within the bounds of Windeſhore Foreſt, belonging to the King, prohibiting any Suits for them in the Eccleſiaſtical Court by the Dean an Chapter of Sarum.

Bundela Brevium An. 2. E. 1 in Turri London.

CUm Decimæ de Aſſartis factis infra Foreſtam ſeu bundas Foreſtæ noſtræ de Wyndelſore ſunt de advocatione noſtra, et ad noſtram pertinere debent collationem, et ſuper perceptione earundem ſit querela ſive placitum inter vos et Decanum et Capitulum Sarum in Curia Chriſtianitatis motum, cum hujuſmodi placita ad Coronam et dignitatem Regiam pertinere noſcuntur: Vobis mandamus, quatinus proſecutioni dictæ querelæ ſeu placiti in Curia Chriſtianitatis ſuperſedeatis omnino uſque ad proximum Parliamentum noſtrum, in quo Parliamento comparatis cum munimentis veſtris ad faciendum et recipiendum coram Nobis quod juris fuerit et rationis. By which it appears, that all the Juriſdiction of Pleas for Tithes originally belonged to the Kings Crown, Dignity, Courts; not to Courts Chriſtian; and even in that Age, the tryals for the right of Tithes of Aſſarts within the Kings Foreſts, whereof the King had the advowſon and collation, was to be tryed and determined onely before the King in his Parliament, or other Temporal Courts, not in Eccleſiaſtical. Whereupon the King afterwards iſſued a Writ to the Conſtable of Windeſore Caſtle, to ſequeſter theſe Tithes to his uſe.

The Biſhop of Bath and Wells laying claim to the Patronage and Cuſtody of the Temporalties of the Abby of Glaſtonbury during the vacancy, the King iſſued this Writ for ſequeſtring the profits thereof till the right between them ſhould be determined.

I found in the White Tower this Original Bull of Pope Gregory 10. to K. Edw. 1. imploring his royal favor to, and protection of the Lands, goods and perſon of this Archbiſhop of Caſſal, againſt ſuites and oppreſſions, who had taken up the Croſſe for the Holy Land (purpoſely to ſecure himſelf from his Debts and Creditors) whom this Pope had taken into his own and St. Peters protection upon that account.

Honori Regio ſatis addicitur, ſi ob reverentiam ſummi Regis (* qui ſolus habens in regnis dominum poteſtatem, ſolus Regibus dat ſalutem) Eccleſiæ ac earum Miniſtri terrenorum Regum ac Principum potentiæ oportunis præſidiis foveantur. By these several Attachments and Suits upon Prohibitions we may discern; 1. The Prelates, Clergies, and Ecclesiastical Courts continual, restlesse Encroachments and Usurpations upon the Kings temporal Jurisdiction, Courts, Rights, Priviledges, Crown, Dignity, and Subjects liberties in the beginning of the reign of King Edward the 1. as well as during the reign of King Henry 3. notwithstanding all former Prohibitions, Attachments, Suits, Complaints and Judgements against them in such cases. 2ly. This Kings and his Judges constant care to obviate, prohibit, suppresse, punish these their bold usurpations and encroachments, by Prohibitions and Attachments against the Prosecutors of such Suits, and the Ecclesiastical Judges who held and encouraged them. 3ly. That their Courts and Jurisdiction Ecclesiastical, were then confined only to Chattels and Debts which concerned Matrimony and Testaments, (not to other Chattels, Debts, Advowsons or Freeholds;) which Jurisdiction they enjoyed, not by any Original Archiepiscopal, Episcopal, or Ecclesiastical right inherent in themselves, or derived to them from Christ or his Apostles, (as Popes, Popish Prelates, Canonists, and others most erroniously assert;) but by the mere grant, grace, favour, or connivance of our Kings, and other Christian Emperors, Princes in forreign parts, and that only in their Right, Steeds, Names, as their Deputies, Delegates, and Substitutes.

This is most perspicuously evident; First, by our Saviour Christs own resolution and answer in a case of the same nature, thus recorded to posterity by St. Luke the Evangelist, Lu. 12. 13, 14. And one of the Company said unto him, Master, Speak to my Brother, that he divide the Inheritance with me: And he said unto him, Man, Who made me a Judge or divider over you? By the 12. Apostles and whole Churches determination, Acts 6. 2, 3, 4. Then the 12. (Apostles) called the multitude of the Diſciples unto them and ſaid, It is not reaſon that we ſhould leabe the Woꝛd of God and ſeꝛbe Tables; wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you 7. men of good report, full of the Holy Ghoſt and wiſdom, whom we may appoint foꝛ this buſineſs; But we will gibe our ſelbes continually to pꝛayer, and to the Miniſtꝛy of the woꝛd: And the ſaying pleaſed the whole multitude. By St. Pauls poſitive reſolution, 2 Tim. 2. 4. No man that warreth (a ſpiritual warfare) intangleth himſelf with the affairs of this life, that he may pleaſe him who hath choſen him to be a ſouldier; compared with 2 Tim. 4. 1, 2, 4, 5. 2ly. By St. Bernards Reſolution from the precedent Texts, who wr.t thus to Pope Eugenius, his Scholar; * Putáſne hac tempora ſuſtinuerint, ſi hominibus litigantibus pro terrena hæreditate & flagitantibus abs te judicium, voce Domini tui reſponderis; O homines, Quis me conſtituit Judicem ſuper vos? In qualem tu Judicium mox venturis? &c. Et tamen non monſtrabunt puto, qui hoc dicent, ubi aliquando quiſquam Apoſtolorum Judex ſederit hominum, aut dibiſoꝛ terminoꝛum, aut diſtributoꝛ terrarum. Stetiſſe denique lego Apoſtolos judicandos, ſediſſe judicantes non lego. Erit illud, non fuit. Itane imminutor dignitatis ſervus, ſi non vult eſſe major Domino ſuo? aut diſcipulus, ſi non vult eſſe major eo, qui ſe miſit? aut filius, ſi non tranſgreditur terminos quos poſuerunt patres ſui? Quis me conſtituit Judicem? ita te Dominus & Magiſter: & erit injuria ſervo diſcipuloque, niſi judices univerſos? Quidni contemnant judicare de terrenis poſſeſsiunculis hominum, qui in cœleſtibus et Angelos judicabunt? Ergo in criminibus, non in poſſeſsionibus poteſtas veſtra: quoniam pꝛopter illa, et non pꝛopter bas accepiſtis clabes regni Cœlorum, Pꝛæbaricatoꝛes utique excluſuri, non Poſſeſſoꝛes. Quanam tibi major videtur & dignitas & poteſtas, dimittendi peccata, an pꝛædia dibidendi? Sed non eſt comparatio. Habent hæc infima et terrena Judices ſuos, Reges et Pꝛincipes terræ. Quid ſines alienos inbaditis? Quid falcem veſtram in alienam meſſem extenditis? Non quia indigni bos, ſed quia indignum bobis talibus inſiſtere, quippe potioꝛibus occupatis. The very ſame is likewiſe aſſerted by moſt antient and modern Commentators and Expoſitors on St. Luke, ch. 12. v. 13, 14. Yea by Johannes Ferus in his Commentary on St. Matthews Goſpel, lib. 3. cap. 16. on theſe words of Chriſt to Peter, Tibi dabo claves regni cœlorum; who from thence, and St. Bernards premiſed paſſages concludes, That neither St. Peter, noꝛ the Pope himſelf hath any Tempoꝛal Monarchy, Judicature, oꝛ Juriſdiction, in oꝛ ober any Tempoꝛal poſſeſſions oꝛ affairs, to dibide, diſtribute any Tempoꝛal eſtates, goods oꝛ chattels, by any Dibine oꝛ Eccleſiaſtical right: Therefore no other Apoſtle, Biſhop, or Eccleſiaſtical perſon whatſoever can pretend thereto.

3ly. It is undeniable; That the Juriſdiction, Probate, Conuſance, Judicature of all Wills, Teſtaments concerning Lands or Goods, together with the diſpoſition and adminiſtration of all Inteſtates Goods, Chattels, Debts, & all cauſes concerning them, or Matrimony, antiently belonged to Emperors, Kings, Princes Temporal Courts, Juriſdictions, & Judges alone, (not to Biſhops) who made many Laws, Conſtitutions, Reſcripts, Judgements and Reſolutions concerning them, collected and recorded by the Emperor Juſtinian, Codicis lib. 1. 4ly. That Bishops, Ordinaries, Ecclesiastical persons, Courts, both in forraign parts and our own Realm, obtained the Conusance, Jurisdiction of all Testamentary Chattels, Debts, Cases, and Probates of Testaments, and also of Matrimony, by the grant of Princes, and consent of our Kings and Nobles in Parliament, or else by Custom, connivance, or gradual insensible usurpations on the rights and prerogatives of the Crown, is evident not only by the last recited Laws, Authorities, but confessed by Othobon the Popes Legate, by Boniface, and John Stratford Archbps of Canterbury in their Constitutions, and by * Will. Lyndewode himself, our greatest Canonist, in his Gloss on Archbishop Stratford his Constitutions, De Testamentis: where he propounds and resolves this question; Sed possit queri, unde provenit hæc libertas (Ecclesiæ) quoad casum nostrum (de Testamentis?) Videtur namque quoad primum, quod Ecclesia non haberet se intromittere de tali approbatione Testamentorum, sed potius pertineret ad Judices Laicos, ut in L. consulta divalia, &c. Dic, quod hæc libertas quoad approbationem hujusmodi (Testamentorum) fundatur super consensu Regio et suorum Procerum in talibus ab antiquo concesso. Item, super consuetudine in ea parte de scientia Regum Angliæ diutius conservata.

*2 Report, f. f. 37, 38. 5ly. Sir * Edward Cooke and our other Judges resolved in Hensloes Case Trin. 42 Eliz. and before that, in the Year-Books of 2 R. 2. Fitz. Testament 4. 11 H. 7. f. 12. b. Brooke Administrator 50. & Testament 27. That the Probate and Conusance of Wills and Testaments did not anciently, but of late times belong to the Spiritual Courts within this Realm, and that not by the Spiritual Law, but by the consent of the King and Nobles; the Temporal Lords in all other Countries except England, and the Lords of Manors in many places of England, having till this day the probate of Wills by Custom and Prescription. In what particular year, or by what Kings particular grant our English Bishops, Ordinaries, and Spiritual Courts first obtained this new Jurisdiction of proving, disapproving, and holding Plea of mens Wills, Testaments, and matters conteined in or relating to them, I cannot positively determine, but I conjecture they began after the reign of King William the Conqueror, and his Sons, in the reign of King Henry the 2. That which induceth me hereunto, is this passage in Ranulphus de Glanvilla, Tractatus de Legibus & Consuetudinibus Regni Anglia, lib. 7. where after he had treated of the manner of making Testaments, c. 5. & 6. Debet autem Testamentum fieri coram duobus vel pluribus viris legitimis Clericis, vel Laicis, & talibus qui testes inde fieri possunt idonei, &c. (which this King H. 2. likewise * setled for a Law in Ireland, in the Council of Cassal, An. 1172. c. 6.) He thus begins his 8. Chapter. Si quis autem authoritate hujus brevis conventus aliquid dixerit contra Testamentum, scilicet, quod non fuit rationabiliter factum, vel, quod res petita non fuerit ita ut dicitur legata, tunc quidem placitum illud in Curia Christianitatis audiri debet et terminari: Quia placita de Testamento coram Judice Ecclesiastico fieri debent, et per illorum qui Testamento interfuerunt testimonia, secundum juris ordinem terminari. Which being the first authority I meet with concerning the Jurisdiction of Ecclesiastical Courts in cases of Testaments, and questions arising on them; whereof I finde no mention in any of our antient Saxon, Danish, Norman Kings Lawes or Constitutions, nor in the Lawes or Charters of King Henry the 1. or King Stephen, I thereupon conjecture, that King Henry the 2. by some Charter or Condescention first granted them this Jurisdiction; And that upon this account, because most mens [1] Wills and Testaments in that age were written and attested by Priests and Clergymen, when they came to visit them in their sick beds, (few others being then able to read or write) and all Clergymen being [2] prohibited by the Canons and Constitutions of Pope Honorius, Eugenius the 2. and Alexander the 3. in the Council of Lateran under him, Anno 1180, before Glanvil vil writ his Book, or was made chief Juſtice, (viz. [3] Anno 1181, or 1194. as others compute) to take any Oath, or give Teſtimony upon Oath before any Secular Judges or Court in any Criminal or Civil Cauſe, without the Popes or their Biſhops [4] ſpecial licenſe; thereupon they obtained this Juriſdiction of Probate of Wills, and all cauſes, goods concerning them, from King Henry 2. at or about the time he purged himſelf from the murder of Thomas Becket, and quitted much of his antient Soveraign Regal Juriſdiction to the Pope and Engliſh Prelates, to purchaſe his peace from their vexations and Cenſures.

6ly. This point was likewiſe thus unanimouſly reſolved by our Judges in Ireland, in Sir J. Davis his Iriſh Reports, The Caſe of Trial of Legitimacy and Baſtardy, f. 51, 52. Our Kings of England though they (of later times) granted or permitted their Biſhops & Eccleſiaſtical Courts to have Conuſance & Juriſdiction of Cauſes of Matrimony and Teſtament; yet they allwayes had and reſerved a Superintendency and Juriſdiction to direct and regulate their proceedings therein by the rules of the Common Law, and to reſtrain and correct their proceedings if extrabagant or illegal, by their Writs and Prohibitions directed to Biſhops and Ordinaries, and by Attachments and Conſultations, extant in all ages in our Records and Law-books.

In the Book ſtiled Regia Majeſtas, or the Statutes of Scotland, collected by John Skene, printed at Edingburgh, An. 1609. dedicated to King James, Book 1. ch. 2. Canſes pertaining to the Kirk, Sect. 1. & 6. there is this clauſe, The Pley of Douries and Teſtaments pertains to the Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction. And l. 6. c. 36. Of Teſtaments; & ch. 37, 38, 39. Of the Diviſion of any gudes on ane Teſtaments, of Witneſſes and Executors, Payment of Debts approved by the Teſtator, I finde ſundry Laws concerning Teſtaments, which he in his Margin, and Sir Henry Spelman in his Councils, Tom. 2. p. 37. attribute to Malcolme the 2. King of Scotland in the year of our Lord 1130. in the reign of our King Henry the 1. But theſe pretended Lawes are tranſcribed verbatim out of Glanvil and Magna Charta, by Mr. Skene, who quotes Glanvil in his Margin; and ſo is his Law of Inteſtates goods, which he attributes to William King of Scots, Anno Dom. 1165. ch. 22. as his quotation of Glanvil to it clearly manifeſts; the Scots Kings deriving ſundry of their Laws from our Engliſh Kings as their Supream Lords, to whom they did homage* and ſwore fealty, not our Engliſh Kings from them. This Juriſdiction in the probates and caſes of Teſtaments and laſt Wills derived from our Kings, our Eccleſiaſtical Courts, Judges, have for the moſt part enjoyed ever ſince King Henry the 2. his reign, but not before, for ought appears.

* See Matth. Weſtm. Ann. 1301. p 426, to 437.

But though they then obtained this Juriſdiction in caſes of Matrimony, Teſtaments, Wills, Legacies, Teſtators Debts and Chattels, yet neither before, then, nor for many years after, did they receive or enjoy any legal Juriſdiction over the Chattels, Goods, or Debts of perſons dying inteſtate, eſpecially Laymens.

The firſt Law extant which ſeems to ordain ought concerning Inteſtates Goods, is this, in the laſt Claſſis of our [5] King Edmunds Laws, An. Dom. 944. De Sponſalibus contrahendis, c. 4. Si quis virginem vel viduam ducere velit, & hoc illi placeat & amicis ſuis, &c. Poſtea dicat Sponſus, qua bonorum parte uxorem donat, præter hanc quam ex ejus beneplacito ipſa prius coaptaverat: Et quid ei deſtinet ſi ſupervixerit ipſum. Si ſic quoque eveniat, tunc juſtum eſt, ut ipſa habeat dimidiam partem omnium bonorum, ut ſi prolem inter ſe ſuſceperint, integritatem ipſam donec tranſeat ad ſecundas nuptias; whether he made a Will or died inteſtate, as ſome expound it. But this Conſtitution ſeems to be only by vertue of the husbands præcontract at the eſpouſals, to which this recited Law relates, and not by this or any precedent Law or Cuſtom of the Realm touching Inteſtates goods, of which I can find no mention or footſteps in any of our old Saxon Kings Lawes or Conſtitutions.

The firſt Expreſſe Law now extant made in this our Realm concerning Inteſtates Goods, is that of King Edward the Confeſſor, (which Sir [a] Henry Spelman conceives not to be firſt made and introduced by him, ſed Anteceſſorum ſuorum legibus (præſertim Regis Canuti, ut animadvertit Malmesburius) ducta plerunq; ſtiled, Leges S. Edwardi Regis, quas in Anglia tenuit, id eſt, obſervavit, non quas tulit, hoc eſt, inſtituit) viz. cap. 5. De inteſtatorum bonis, ( promulged about the year of Chriſt 1056.) Si quis Inteſtatus obierit, liberi ejus hæreditatem ( to wit, his Goods and Chattels) æqualiter dividant; yet with a ſalvo of the Wives portion, as ſome conjecture.

conjecture. This Law was afterwards inſerted verbatim into the Lawes of King William the Conqueror, Lex 36. publiſhed by Mr. [b] Selden out of the Copy of Abbot Ingulphus, and into the Charter of King Henry the 1. Upon which Law (thus ratified both by the Confeſſor and Conqueror) the antient Writs De rationabili parte bonorum, extant [c] in Glanvill, [d] Bracton, [e] Fleta, the [f] Regiſter of Writs, and [g] other Lawbooks (in common uſe in the Reigns of King Henry the 2. and his ſucceſſors) were originally grounded. From whence it is moſt irrefragably evident, that both before and during the Reigns of King Edward the Confeſſor, William the Conqueror, William Rufus, (and likewiſe of King Henry 1. and 2. Richard the 1. King John, and Henry the 3d. as I have [h] elſewhere proved) the Biſhops, Ordinaries, and Eccleſiaſtical Judges of this Realm had no legal power at all to diſtribute or diſpoſe of the Goods, Chattels or Debts of thoſe who dyed Inteſtate, but only their Children, and Kinred; or the King, or Lords of whom they held their lands.

This Law of the Confeſſor and Conqueror was grounded on, and tranſcribed out of the Law of the twelve Tables, the Lawes of the Roman Emperors Severus, Antoninus, Diocleſian, Maximinianus, Valentinianus, Theodoſius, Juſtinianus, and others made and uſed among the Romans, recorded by Juſtinian, Codicis lib. 6. Tit. 54. De legitimis liberis, & ex filia nepotibus ab Inteſtato venientibus, Tit. 57. de legitimis Hæredibus; Tit. 59. De bonis maternis & materni generis; which enacted, that the Goods and Eſtates of perſons dying inteſtate ſhould be equally ſhared, and divided between their Children, Nephews, and thoſe of the ſame Stock. But if they died inteſtate without Children or lawfull Heirs; that then they ſhould uſually accrue to the publike Treaſury; unleſſe in caſes of Mariners, Souldiers, Military Officers, Courtiers, and ſome ſort of Artificers; whoſe Goods and Eſtates by the Lawes of the Emperors [i] Conſtantine, Theodoſius, and Valentinian, (made out of ſpecial favour to them) were to remain to, and be diſtributed if they died Inteſtate without Children or heirs, among their fellow Soldiers, Officers, Courtiers, Artificers, for their better encouragement.

i Juſtinian. Codicis, l. 6. Tit. 1. De Hæreditatibus Decurionum in Cohortalium Militum & Fabricenſium.

The like [k] Laws I meet with among the antient Laws of the Wiſigoths, made by King Euricus about the year 504. Si pater vel mater Inteſtatus diſceſſerint, tunc ſorores cum fratribus in omni parentum facultate abſque alio objectu, æquali diviſione ſuccedant.

k Legis Wiſigothorum, l. 4. tit. 2. De ſucceſſionibus, Lex 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, &c. Fridericus Lindebrogus Codex legum antiquarum, p 72, 73.

In hæreditate illius qui moritur, ſi inteſtatus diſceſſerit, filii primi ſunt. Si filii deſunt, nepotibus debetur hæreditas. Si nec nepotes fuerint, pronepotes ad hæreditatem vocentur. Si vero qui moritur, nec filios nec nepotes, ſeu patrem vel matrem relinquit, tunc avus aut avia hæreditatem ſibi vindicabit.

Quando ſupradictæ perſonæ deſunt, quæ aut de ſuperiori aut inferiori genere diſcreto ordine veniunt, tunc illæ perſonæ quæ ſunt à latere conſtitutæ requirantur, ut hæreditatem accipiant defuncti, qui inteſtatus diſceſſerit. Nam illa perſona quæ ſunt à longioribus conſtitutæ, nihil ſe exiſtiment illis prioribus poſſe repetere.

De ſucceſſoribus eorum qui ſic moriuntur, ut nec donationem, nec ullum faciant teſtamentum, nec præſentibus teſtibus ſuam ordinant voluntatem, qui gradu illis proximi fuerunt, eorum obtinebunt hæreditatem.

Qui fratres tantummodo & Sorores relinquit, in ejus hæreditate fratres & ſorores æqualiter ſuccedant; Si tamen unius patris & matris filii eſſe videantur. Nam ſi de alio patre vel de alia matre alii eſſe noſcuntur, unuſquiſque fratris ſui aut ſororis, qui ex uno patre aut ex una matre ſunt geniti, ſequantur hæreditatem. Filii tamen qui ex diverſis patribus & una matre ſunt geniti ad accipiendam maternam facultatem æquali ſucceſſione deveniant. Similiter quoque hii, qui de diverſis matribus ſed uno patre oriuntur, diviſionis ordinem teneant.

Agreeing with theſe Laws I finde the [l] Edict of Theodoricus King of Italy, cap. 22. 24. Si quis inteſtatus moriuus fuerit, is ad ejus ſucceſſionem veniat qui inter agnatos atque cognatos gradu vel titulo proximus invenitur, Salvo jure liberorum ac nepotum. Fiſcus tunc agat, quando nec parentum, nec filiorum, nec nepotum, nec agnatorum, nec cognatorum, nec uxoris & mariti, quæ ſuccedat extare comperitur perſona, ſecundum beterum conſtituta.

l Fridericus Lindebrogus Codex Legum antiquarum, p. 247.

Since then theſe antient Laws not only of the Pagan, but Chriſtian Roman Emperors & Kings of the Wiſigoths and Italians, out of which the Confeſſors and our other Laws concerning Inteſtates Goods and Eſtates were derived or tranſcribed, did thus expreſly diſtribute them to their Children and Kinred, or for want of ſuch to the publique Exchequer, or other perſons, and not leave them to the arbitrary diſtributions or adminiſtrations of their Biſhops, or other Eccleſiaſtical Perſons or Courts; no doubt our antient Kings and Laws, (from King Edward the Confeſſor, even to King Edward the 1. after the Conqueſt) did the like, eſpecially in the caſes of Laymen. And although the aforeſaid [m] Lawes of the Wiſigoths, lib. 4. tit. 2. Lex 12. enacted in the caſe of inteſtate Clergy-men, Monks and Nuns; Clerici, vel Monachi, ſive Sanctimoniales, qui uſque ad ſeptimum gradum non reliquerint haredes, & ſic moriuntur, ut nihil de facultatibus ſuis ordinent, Eccleſia ſibi cui deſerbirent, (not the Biſhop or Ordinary) eorum ſubſtantiam vindicabit; Wherewith this [n] Edict of Theodoricus King of Italy accords; Clericos religioſaſq; perſonas inteſtatas deficientes, quotiens defunctus qui jure ſuccedat, lotum Eccleſiæ ſuæ ſecundum leges facere debere præcipimus; yet neither of them gives the leaſt power to Biſhops or Ordinaries to diſtribute any of them to pious, or retain them to their own uſes. By what Law of our Realm, or lawful Juriſdiction, any of our Biſhops, Ordinaries, or their Officers can then either claim or exerciſe authority to diſtribute any inteſtate Temporal or Eccleſiaſtical perſons goods to pious or other uſes in this age, I cannot diſcern.

In quibus inter alia de confeſſione fidei, qua docet & prædicat, & confitetur Sacroſancta Romana Eccleſia, continebatur, & oportebat de his magnis reſponſionem facere decenter: Ecce hæc facit Imperium meum, habeat autem Confeſſio Fidei in litera ſic; Credimus Sanctam Trinitatem, Patrem, & Filium, & Spiritum Sanctum, unum Deum Omnipotentem, totamq; in Trinitate Deitatem, ejuſdem naturæ, &c. (at large related in Matthew Weſtminſter.) To which this new Article was ſubjoyned, concerning the Supremacy of the Pope and Church of Rome. Ipſa quoque Sancta Romana Eccleſia ſummum et plenum Primatum ſuper univerſalem Eccleſiam Catholicam obtinet, quod ſe ab ipſo Domino in beato Petro, Apoſtolorum Principe ſive virtice, cujus Romanus Pontifex eſt ſucceſſor, cum poteſtatis plenitudine recipiſſe, veraciter et humiliter recognoſcit. Et ſicut præ cæteris tenetur fidei veritatem defendere, ſic, et ſi quæ de fide ſuborta fuerint quæſtiones ſuo debent judicio definiri. Ad hanc quilibet grabatus, ſuper negotiis ad Eccleſiaſticum forum pertinentibus, poteſt appellare, et in omnibus cauſis ad examen Eccleſiaſticum ſpectantibus, ad ipſius poteſt judicium recurri, et eidem omnes Eccleſiæ ſunt ſubjectæ. Ad hanc autem ſic poteſtatis plenitudo conſiſtit, quod alias Eccleſias, et Patriarchales præcipue, diverſis privilegiis eadem Eccleſia Romana honorabit, ſua tamen obſervata prærogativa. Hæc quidem in Generalibus Conciliis, hæc autem in aliquibus aliis, ſemper ſalva ſubſcripta fidei veritate, prout plene lecta eſt, et fideliter expoſita, veram, ſanctam, catholicam, et orthodoxam fidem eſſe recognoſcimus, et eam acceptamus, etiam corde et ore profitemur, quia hanc veraciter tenet, docet, et prædicat Sancta Romana Eccleſia, indiolabiliter obſervatura eandem confeſſionem, et in ea omni tempore perſeveraturos, nec ab ea unquam ullo tempore receſſuros quoquomodo, aut debiaturos, vel, diſcrepaturos, promittimus. Quem quidem Primatum ipſius ſacroſanctæ Romanæ Eccleſiæ, prout in præmiſſa ſerie continetur, ad ipſius Eccleſiæ obedientiam ſpontaniam venientes, fatemur et recognoſcimus, acceptamus et ſponte ſuſcipimus: prædicta ſiquidem profitentes, et attendentes, et acceptantes, et promittentes nos ſervaturos, prout dictum eſt; Rogamus magnam Sanctitatem veſtram, ut Eccleſia noſtra Græcorum dicat ſanctum Symbolum, ſicut dicebat hoc ante ſchiſma uſque in hodiernum diem, ut permaneamus in ritibus noſtris, quibus utebamur ante ſchiſma; qui ſcilicet ritus non ſunt contra ſupradictam fidem, nec contra divina præcepta, nec contra doctrinam novi & veteris Teſtamenti, nec contra Concilium univerſalium illorum Patrum approbatorum, à ſanctis ſpirituali dominatione Sanctæ Romanæ Eccleſiæ celebratis. Sed ea quæ sunt discordiæ eligimus, & bono pacis amisso, invenire non quærimus illud quod ex bono zelo nobis declarabatur?* Nullus autem erat qui conjungeret omnes in unum, & sufflaret quasi ad unum flamen singulorum concordiam: quàm autem secundum Christi desiderium a Deo coronandus sanctus noster Imperator totus ad seipsum, intellectum attendens (ut oportebat) nunc in hac parte Dei præhonorabilibus aliquibus deputavit. Prius ipse in seipso laborabat, quo utique modo non declinaret nec ad remissionem, donec scissuram Ecclesiæ ad unam interim compaginaret unitatem: deinde non deficiebat communicando nobis, (quod in voluntate habebat semper) et ostendendo qualiter habet suum præpositum animæ. Ut autem ad ipsam venerabiles nuncii vestræ Sanctitatis apostolicas literas & porrexerunt & præsentarunt, quam vestra beatitudo desiderantium accelerat conjunctionem, totus exurgit promptus, & prætermittit, quod alienum esset, & quasi in secunda consideratione omnis negotia sua reputat, proponens ea quæ mandatorum vestrorum sunt, & suarum sollicitudinum & dispositionum. Quidam tamen nostrum statim convenerunt, & quæ pacis fuerant, amplexati sunt; quidam vero magis obstinationes apparuerunt temporis antiquitatem revolventes in mentem, et opponentes alii quasi de necessitate hoc imponeretur eis. Sed a Deo coronati Imperatoris diligentia dicit in finem, et habet omnes jam concordes ad unicam hanc unionem, per quam Apoſtolicæ Sedi antiquæ Romæ (ab antiquiſſimis attributos) Primatus attribuere aſſentimus. Hoc ſcilicet Dei gratia cooperata eſt, ut habeat et nobis apoſtolica magnitudo noſtræ ſanctitatis ſententiam agnoſcere, qualiterque magnifico Imperatori noſtro ſimul communicaverimus in ſententia: et quæ quidem attenderit et bene libenter, et nos acceptamus: breviter præſentem Epiſtolam annotamus, & ad conſpicuam excellentiam veſtræ magnitudinis tranſmittimus. Scitote quod nos volumus, quod Pontificalis ſedis tota plenitudo, cum toto venerabili Clero, et omnibus Officiariis, Sacerdotibus, Diaconis, et Lectoribus, ſanctiſsimæ Eccleſiæ Dei convenit in unum, ut attribuat prompte veſtræ Sanctitati et Apoſtolicæ ſedi, quod ad honorem pertinet, nec alium primum et ſummum Pontificem Eccleſiarum omnium, nominaturi. Sed antiquam internuntiorum confectionem agnovimus, quam & patres noſtri ſemper attenderunt toto præterito tempore uſque ad tempus hoc. Unde noſtrum Patriarcham & ſubſequenter omnes alios (quotquot convenerunt) ut in unum hæreant & ſedis ponerent concordiam, obſecravimus. Ipſe vero cum magna inſtantia tenet, quod agnoſci debet primus, & poſtea (ut indicat) non decidet a ſua voluntate, nec adhuc à prima ſententia, cum aliqua intentione mutatus eſt. Unde et pluries nos prælati coegimus ipſum, ipſe nequicquam ad præſens acquiebit. Nos autem et nobiſcum potentiſſimus Imperator injunximus illi a Patriarchali ſede recedenti, omnia in una forma ſollicitudinis manere, quæ ſunt Conſtantinopoli Monaſteriorum, donec nuncii ad veſtram Sanctitatem accedant, & audiant ſermonem veſtrum, & ſi magnitudo veſtra ita recipiat, delegat certos delegatos cum noſtris reverſis Legatis. Et nos hunc finem obtinentes, communiter & interim convenientes, attrahemus Patriarcham noſtrum, ut ſi recedere ipſum ab intentione contingat, nobiſque inclinaverit, et nos reddet benevolos eſſe, quod præteritis temporibus throno Apoſtolicæ ſedis inſuper excellens honor attributus eſt: ſic habebimus ipſum Pontificem etiam ſpiritualiter, ſicut prius præſidentem. Si vero immutabiliter ſe habeat in ſententia, tunc dependebit omnis neceſſitas et ipſum dejicere, et Patriarchiali principatu privare. Nos autem conſtituemus et promovebimus alium; qui utique conſentiat nobiſcumque ejuſdem voluntatis eſſe, et reddere convenientem primatum ſummitati Sanctitatis veſtræ. Hoc igitur proponimus (à Deo honorate Domine) nos, quos Patriarchalis Conſtantinopolitana ſedis ſublimos Pontifices cum omnibus (qui circa nos) venerabilibus Clericis per hoc ſcriptum noſtrum vobis conjungi habes, qualiter ſi ſolum veſtra magnitudo, ea quæ legationis ſunt admittat, non eſt quod tempus teratur, & nos inclinamus prompte, et magnæ veſtræ altitudini ſubmittimus, et valde gratanter ea quæ ſunt ſpiritualia ſubjectionis totius aſſerimus, et nihil eorum denegamus, quæ ante ſchiſma præſtabant, patres noſtri, his qui apoſtolicam regebant ſedem, ſed et ſtatim nos attribuimus. Alia quidem ſignificabunt nuncii, & glorioſæ veſtræ Sanctitati notificabunt. Finaliter, ſicut in ſpiritualibus potentiſſimus noſter Imp. et nos pontificum collegium Epiſcopis commiſimus: ſicut cæteri ſpiritualiter ab Imperiali magnificencia mandatum acceperunt, de quibus quicunq; ad ſeculares principatus pertinent gubernationem veſtræ ſanctitati referabunt à Deo coronato noſtro Imperatore. Confidimus autem quod pacis author Deus unitatem de paterna victus clementia adaperiet, noſque & Magiſtratus grataner ſuſcipiat inclinatos, & veſtram familiaritatem invocantes & paternitatem. Sacramentum Græcorum ego nuncius habens ab eiſdem ſufficientem (ad infraſcripta mandata) ſubſcriptam fidei veritatem, prout plenè lecta eſt & fideliter expoſita à me Dei & Domini noſtri nomine veram ſanctam catholicam fidem eſſe cognoſco, eam accepto, & corde & ore confiteor, ipſamque prout tenet fideliter, docet, & prædicat S. The Pontificians then, and ever since have much triumphed in these publick acknowledgements and submissions of this Greek Emperor, and the Patriarchs, Bishops, Clergy, Churches of Greece, to the Primacy of the Popes and Church of Rome, which they could never before inforce, or induce them to acknowledge or submit to: But if they will seriously consider, 1. The great probability that these Epistles were meer forgeries, as the barbarousnes of their stile, the names of the Patriarch, Bishops Sees, and other Historians pretermission of them, import. 2ly. That the submission of the Emperor and Grecians therein made, was not voluntary; But 1. By urgent necessities extorted from the Emperor himself. 2ly. That he used great violence to enforce his Bishops and Clergy to submit unto it. 3ly. That the Patriarch of Constantinople, and other Greek Prelates, Clergymen, Nobles, Magistrates, and the People stoutly opposed it, and that it produced great Schisms in that Church and Empire. 4ly. That the Emperor was forced to make sundry Apologies to them thereupon, that it was done only out of necessity, and policy, to avoyd present dangers threatning both that Church, Empire, and Constantinople it self, without any prejudice to the Greek Church for the future; not upon any real grounds of conscience, piety, or verity: upon all these considerations, this submission will be no advantage at all to the Pontifician Cause or Primacy; the verity whereof this passage of * Nicephorus Gregoras, a famous Greek Historian flourishing in that age, most clearly discovers. Proinde tot difficultatibus circumbentus Imperator Palælogus, pene ad desperationem compulsus, Legatos ad Papam mittit, de ineunda veteris et novæ Romæ Ecclesiarum concordia, modo * Caroli expeditionem averteret. Ea Legatio à Pontifice benignè audita est: ea se facile, quæ Imperator petibisset, consecturum esse *pollicito. Statimque suos Legatos illis adjungit, qui concordiam conciliarent atque amplectarentur. Cujus hæc tria capita fuerunt. Primum, ut in sacrorum velaminum hymnodiis, Papæ cum quatuor Patriarchis mentio fieret. Alterum, ut liceret cuivis Romam veterem, quæ Curia major & perfectior esset, appellare. Tertium, ut illi Principatus in omnibus deferetur. De appendice vero sacri Symboli, quam illi novarunt, aut alio quovis argumento, tum nulla acrior contentio incidit: sed (quod ad eas quidem res attinebat) pacata & tranquilla fuerunt omnia. At Patriarcha Josephus, ea concordia repudiata, sede sua cessit: nec multò post, relicta urbe, se in Archistrategi Monasterium ad Bosphorum contulit, ubi reliquum ætatis tranquillo & religioso otio exigeret. His rebus Sacerdotum collegium concitatum, haud obscure ferebat, se non esse quieturum: plebemque ab Imperatoria illa concordia revocabat, Martyrii et Coronarum tempus esse clamitans; ita ut magnus inde tumultus excitaretur, atque in atrocem tempestatem erumperet: & Imperator externis negotiis relictis, omne suum studium ad res domesticas transferre cogeretur, urbana pericula externis graviora ratus. Erant enim non pauci e Magistratibus etiam, qui decretis illius acriter adversarentur. In eas igitur redactus angustias, duas sibi patere vias arbitratus, summa necessitate nihil tertium admittente in præsentia: ut aut omnes sibi assentirentur, aut hostium loco haberentur, Quamobrem adversariorum animos, principio verborum blanditiis, et comitate morum conciliare sibi, et obnoxios reddere studebat: cæptam eam esse rem, nullo studio nobilitatis, sed propter difficultates temporum. Esse autem prudentiæ, impendentes præcabere calamitates: et si quid ad grabiora mala abertenda nobandum sit, non esse cunctandum. Si enim hostes adventarent, urbe adhuc multis in partibus lacerata, modoque instaurata, & velut à multiplici dudum morte revivisceute, præsentia mala graviora futura superioribus; ac dominos fore hostes, non tantum sacrorum, sed omnium simul, liberûm, conjugum, & rerum: quorum domini vi abrepti, libertate cum servitute commutata, non corporibus tantum, sed animis etiam hostium sequi voluntates cogerentur. Id etiam reliquum fore, ne quis mores patrios ac vetera instituta tueretur; immo ut sacræ leges et sanctiones expeditissime et deprayberentur et everterentur. Qua cum ipse prævideret, necessitati parere haud recusasset: exiguumq; damnum, quod prudentiæ munus sit, magno emolumento posthabuisset:

Maxima vero pars veri judicii expers, fæx plebis, et circumfozanea turba, ſemper nobis rebus gaudens, aſperis velut in ſcena pallijs induti, ubique terrarum ſparſim et paſſim vagati ſunt, ubi Chriſtianos eſſe audiverunt: in Peloponeſo (inquam) Achaia, et Theſſalia, et Colchide, ubique denique gentium extra ditionem Imperatozis: neque univerſalem pacem conſervare volentes, neque inter ſeſe: ſed alijs aliis nominibus aſcitis, partim Arſenii aut Joſephi Patriarchæ ſectam profitendo, partim alia jactitando, tempus terebant; plerique et decipientes et decepti. Nec enim deerant, qui oracula in vicis & urbibus, quaſi modo à Dei conſpectu reverſi, cantarent: nec poſt Eccleſiæ inſtaurationem, vitæ ratione mutata. This was the ſad iſſue of this Emperors compliance with the Pope and Church of Rome, ſoon after generally diſavowed by the Greek Church and Prelates.

[a] Thomas of Walſingham, [b] Ranulphus Ceſtrenſis, [c] Henry de Knyghton, and others, give us this brief account how many Biſhops, Abbots, Prelates, were preſent at, and what was decreed in this General Council. Hoc anno Gregorius Papa decimus, Kalendas Maii, apud Lugdunum Generale Concilium celebravit, ad quod Græci & Tartari, ſolennes nuncios tranſmiſerunt; Græci ad unitatem Eccleſiæ ſe redire ſpondent, in cujus evidens ſignum cum cantaretur Symbolum, hortante Domino Papa, trina vice nuncii eorum, & in Spiritum Dominum vivificantem, qui ex Patre Filioque procedit, replicaverunt celebriter & devotè; without making any mention at all of their premiſed Epiſtles and acknowledgement of, or ſubmiſſion to the Popes or Church of Romes Supremacy. Nuncii vero Tartarorum baptizati, & infra tempus Concilii ad propria redierunt. Affuit ibi Prælatorum numerus, quingenti Epiſcopi, Abbates ſexaginta, Prælati vero alii circa mille; unde dixit quidam,

Gregorius Dennis congregat omne genus:

Ibi ſtatutum eſt illud inſigne, & a retroſeculis inſolitum; quod omnes Rectores Curati deinceps fozent Sacerdotes: Prohibiti ſunt et Bigami primam tonſuram deferre; et quod nulli hominum deinceps liceat Decimas ſuas ad libitum, ut antea, ubi vellet aſſignare; ſed matrici Eccleſiæ omnes Decimas perſolvent: Ipſe quoque Gregorius Decimam ſexennalem univerſali Eccleſiæ impoſuit; pluralitatem beneficiozum Curatozum damnavit. Aliquos ſtatus de ozdinibus Mendicantium approbavit, utpote Prædicatorum, et Minorum, aliquos toleravit, utpote Carmelitas et Auguſtinenſes. Aliquos reprobavit, ut Saccinos, qui intitulantur de Pœnitentia, ſive Valle viride, et conſimiles. What elſe was there decreed, you may read at large in [d] Binius his Councils, and *Centur. Adivit idem Abbas Generale Concilium Lugduni in expenſis CC. librarum, and [f] Henry de Knyghton notes: That in this Council, Papa petiit auxilium ab Eccleſia ire in terram ſanctam, Archiepiſcopus Cantuarienſis Robertus de Kylwarbi non audebat negare petitionem Papæ, eo quod ipſum promoverat. Inter alios, qui nolebant concedere, fuit Richardus de Peccham, Decanus Lincolnienſis, propoſuit unam bullam erudituriam, quod terra Angliæ in tantum fuit depauperata per diverſas Guerras, et Decimas, et Subſidia, per Papas conceſſa per ſex annos, quod non pollent levare aliquod Subſidium, et vix vivere. Statimque Papa privavit eum ab omni beneficio, (ſuch was his tyrannical Papal injuſtice) et tradidit Decimam de ſex annis ad Eccleſia; et tertia die reſtituit eum ad beneficia ſua. Papa fecit plusquam Conſtitutiones, quæ vocantur Grægorianæ; & moliebatur eodem anno ultra montes.

In this Council there was this Antimonarchical Decree, or Conſtitution made, to advance the Popes and Prelates illegal Sentences, Interdicts and Excommunications, denounced againſt Kings, Princes, Nobles, Judges, and Kings Officers, for executing their legal Writs againſt them, and the denouncers of them.

By which it is apparent; Firſt, that the Conſtitutions of Popes in this and other General Councils, did not oblige the King, Kingdom, Church or Subjects of England, unleſſe they were publikely received, approved, and ordered to be obſerved by the King and his Council after their publication. 2ly. That the King, his Council, and Judges, not the Pope or Biſhops alone, were the proper Expoſitors of the Decrees and Conſtitutions of General Councils, and in what ſenſe they ſhould be obſerved. 3ly. That the Conſtitutions of Popes in General Councils, to which the Kings Proctors diſſented, though over-ruled therein, did not oblige the King or his Subjects within his own Dominions, though other Kingdomes or Churches embraced and ſubmitted to them, as in this, and the premiſed Conſtitution in this Council, concerning Interdicts and Excommunications.

Beſides this particular Law, there were many excellent uſefull Statutes made in this firſt Parliament of his, as the Laws themſelves well known to all Common Lawyers, and Sir Edward Cookes Commentary on them in his ſecond Inſtitutes ſufficiently evidence: I ſhall only preſent you with the Prologue, and ſome few of his Lawes relating to the Priviledges and Juriſdiction of the Clergy, controlling ſome Canons of the Pope formerly uſed, to the obſtruction of publike juſtice, proper to my Hiſtory. * Page 156, to 266.

Theſe be the Acts of Kyng Edward, ſonne to Kyng Henry, made at Weſtminſter at his firſt Parliament generall after his Coronation, on the Munday of Eaſter Day the 3. year of his Reign, by his counſel, and by the aſſent of Archebyſhops, Byſhops, Abbots, Priours, Erles, Barons, and all the Comminalty of the Realme, being thither ſummoned; becauſe our Soverayne Lord the King had great zeal and deſire to redzeſs the State of the Realm in ſuch things as required amendment, for the common profit of holy Church, and of the Realm. And becauſe the ſtate of holy Church had been evill kept, and the Prelates and Religious Perſons of the Land greved many wayes, and the people otherwiſe intreated then they ought to be, and the peace leſſe kept, and the Lawes leſſe uſed, and the offendours leſſe puniſhed, then they ought to be, by reaſon whereof the people of the Land leſſe feared to offend; the Kyng hath ordained and eſtabliſhed theſe Acts under-writtten, which he intendeth to be neceſſary and profitable to the whole Realm. From which Prologue I ſhall obſerve; 1. That this King eſteemed it a principal part of his Kingly office, to promote the common welfare of, and redreſſe and reform the grievances in and of the Church, as well as in and of the State and Realm of England; and that by adviſe of his Lords and Commons, as well as of his Biſhops, Prelates and Clergy, in his high Court of Parliament, not in a Convocation. 2ly. That when Prelates, Clergymen, and their Officers grieve and intreat the Subjects otherwiſe then they ought, they may without ſcandal be complained of in Parliaments, as well as Temporal Officers, who grieve, or evil intreat them or the Kings Lay-Subjects. 3ly. That it is an antient proper Right of our Kings and Parliaments to take diligent notice of, and make Lawes to reform all abuſes and oppreſsions, as well of and in the Church as Civil State, and that in the firſt place. c Weſt. 1. Anno 3 E. 1. The Preface. See Cooks 2 Inſtit. p. 156, 157.

Chap. 1. Firſt the Kyng willeth and commandeth, that the peace of holye Churche and of the Land be well kept, and maintained in all points. And that common right be done to all, as well poore as ryche, without reſpect of perſons. And becauſe that Abbots, and the Religious of the Land habe been overcharged and ſore grebed by the reſort of great men and other, ſo that their Goods habe not been ſufficient for themſelbes, wherebY they habe been greatly hindered and impoberiſhed, that they cannot maintain themſelbes, nor ſuch Charity, as they habe been accuſtomed to doe. It is provided, that none ſhall come to eat or lodge in any houſe of Religion of any others foundation then of his own, at the coſts of the houſe; unleſſe he be required by the Governour of the houſe before his comming thither: And that none of his own coſts, ſhal entre and come to lye there againſt the will of them

Anno 3 *E.*1. that be of the houſe. And by this Statute the King entendeth not, that the grace of boſpitality ſhould be withdrawen from ſuch as need, nor that the Founders of ſuch Monaſteries ſhould overcharge or greve them by their often comynge. It is provided alſo, that none high nor low, by colour of kindred, affinity, or allyance, or by any other occaſion, ſhall courſe in any Parke, nor Fyſh in any Pond, nor come to eat, or lodge in the houſe or Mannour of a Prelate, or any other Religious perſon, againſt the will of the Lord or his Bailiffe, neither at the coſt of the Lord nor at his own. And if he come in, or enter with the good will or againſt the will of the Lord or his Bailiffe, he ſhall cauſe no doore, locke, nor wyndowe, nor nothing that is ſhutte, to be opened or broken by himſelf or any other, nor no maner of vitaile not other thinge ſhall take by colour of buyinge or otherwiſe. And that none ſhall threſhe corne nor take corne, nor any manner of vyttaile, nor other goodes of Prelate, man of Religion, or any other Clerk, or Lay perſon, by colour of buying, nor otherwiſe, againſt the will and licenſe of him, to whom the thing belongeth, or of the Keeper, be it within Market Town, or without. And that none ſhall take Horſes, Oxen, Ploughs, Carts, Ships, nor Barges, to make carriage, without the aſſent of him to whom ſuch things belong. And if he do it by the aſſent of the party, then incontinent he ſhall pay according to the covenant made between them. And they that offend againſt theſe Acts, and thereof be attainted, ſhall be committed to the Kynges priſon, and after ſhall make Fyne, and be puniſhed according to the quantity and manner of the treſpaſſe; and after as the King in his Court ſhall think convenient. And it is to be known, that if they to whom ſuch treſpaſſe was done, will ſue for dammages, they ſhall be thereto received, and ſhall be awarded and reſtored to the double. And they that have done the treſpaſſe, ſhall be likewiſe puniſhed in the manner aboveſaid. And if none will ſue, the Kinge ſhall habe the ſuite, as for a thing committed againſt his commandement, and againſt his peace. And the Kynge ſhall make enquiry, from yere to yere, what perſons do ſuch treſpaſſes after as he ſhall think neceſſary and convenient. And that they that be indicted by ſuch enqueſts ſhall be attached and conſtrained by that great diſtreſſe to come at a certain day containing the ſpace of a moneth, in the Kynges Court, or where it ſhall pleaſe the Kynge. And if they come not at that day, they ſhall be diſtreined again of new by the ſame diſtreſſe, for to come at another day, conteining the ſpace of ſix weeks at the leaſt, and if they come not then, they ſhall be judged as atteinted, and ſhall yeld double damages (at the Kings ſuit) to ſuch as habe taken hurt or damage, and ſhall make a grebous fyne after the maner of the treſpaſs; And the Kynge forbiddeth and commandeth, that none from henceforth do hurt, damage, or grebance to any Religious man, or perſon of the Church, or any other, becauſe they habe denyed meat or lodging unto them, or becauſe that any complaineth in the Kynges Court, that he hath been greved in any of the things abobementioned. And if any do and thereof be atteinted, he ſhall incurre the pein aforeſaid. And it is further provided, that the points aforeſaid ſhall as well binde our Counſellours, Juſticers of Foreſts, and other our Juſticers, as any other perſons, and that the foreſaid points be maintained, obſerved and kepte. Likewiſe the King forbiddeth upon grebous forfeitures, that no Prelate, Abbot, man of Religion, or Baylliffe of any of them, or of other, receibe any man contrary to the form aforeſaid. And that none ſhall ſend to the houſe or Manour of a man of Religion, or of any other perſon, his men, horſe, or doggs to ſojourne, nor none ſhall them receibe, and he that doth (ſeeing the King hath commanded the contrary) ſhall be grebouſly puniſhed. Yet it is further provided, that Shyriffes from henceforth ſhall not lodge with any perſon, with any more then 5. or 6 horſes; And that they ſhall not grebe Religious men nor other by often comyng or lodging, neither at their houſes nor their Manours. This Act was principally made for the benefit of Prelates and Religious perſons, to redreſſe the grievances and abuſes therein ſpecified.

Chap. 2. It is alſo provided, that when a Clerk is taken for gilt of felony, and is demanded by the Ordinary, he ſhall be delibered to him according to the priviledge of holy Church, on ſuch peril as belongeth to it, after the Cuſtome aforetimes uſed. And the King admoniſhed the Prelates, and enjoyned them upon the faith that they owe to him, and for the common profit and peace of the Realm, that they ſhould be be endited of ſuch offences by ſolemn enqueſt of lawful men in the Kings Court, in no maner ſhall be delibered without due purgation, ſo that the King ſhall not need to provide any further remedy therein. An. 3 E. 1.

This Priviledge of Ordinaries demanding Clerks impriſoned for felony, and delivering them to them, was contrary to the antient Lawes and Cuſtom of the Realm, introduced after Beckets death, by the Kings ſpecial grace and condeſcention: The abuſe whereof by Prelates and Ordinaries, was reſtrained by this Act in 3. particulars. *1. In demanding thoſe for Clerks who really were not in ſacred Orders. 2ly. In delivering them without making any Inquiſition of the felony or crime for which they were committed; ſo as they eſcap'd unpuniſhed, or unattainted, & the King loſt the forfeiture of their lands or goods. 3ly. By their delivering them out of their Priſons without any legal purgatiõ after they were found guilty by Inquiſition before the Kings Judges. And if they did any thing againſt the Kings ordination and Injunction, he threatens puniſhment and further remedy of theſe their exorbitances, to the publike prejudice and diſturbance of the Realm.

Chap. 5. And becauſe elections (of Biſhops and others) ought to be free, the King commandeth upon great forfeiture, that no great perſon nor other, by force of arms, or menacing, ſhall diſturb any to make free election.

Chap. 21. That the Guardians of Archbiſhopricks, Biſhopricks, Abbots, Churches, and all Spiritual Dignities, in time of Vacation, ſhall keep and ſuſtain the Lands without waſte and deſtruction.

This was intended only of what was waſte and deſtruction by the Common Law and Statutes, againſt waſte. But the King and his Guardians of them did, and might by Law take Deer out of their Parks, Conies out of their Warrens, Fiſh out of their Ponds, and ſell their Cops woods for the Kings proviſion and benefit, as far forth as the Biſhops themſelves might do; as I finde by the Liberate Roll of 3 E. 1. m. 9. that very year, and ſundry other Records of ſuch Guardians accounts and allowances, in the Fine and Liberate Rolls.

Chap. 28. And that none of the Kings Clerks, nor of any Juſticer, from henceforth ſhall receive the preſentment of any Church, for the which any plea or debate is in the Kings Court, without ſpecial licenſe of the King; and that the King forbiddeth upon peine to leſe the Church and his ſervice.

This puniſhed the frauds and abuſes of the Kings own Clerks, and Chaplains of his Judges and Officers, who prejudiced Patrons and their Clerks; by turning them out of the livings they injuriouſly uſurped, and out of the Kings ſervice.

Chap. 40. Touching the oathes of Champions it is thus provided, becauſe it ſeldom happened, but that the Champion of the Demandant is forſworn, in that he ſweareth, that he or his Father ſaw the ſeiſin of his Lord, or his anteceſſor, and that his Father commanded him to deraigne the right; that from henceforth the Champion of the Demandant ſhould not be compelled ſo to ſwear: Nevertheleſſe his Oath ſhall be kept in all other points.

This Act regulated and aboliſhed inconvenient clauſes in antient Legal Oathes to prevent perjury; much more then * New illegal Oathes impoſed on the Subjects without Act of Parliament, to preſent on numerous Articles deviſed by Ordinaries and Viſitors, wherein there is more apparent danger of perjury, then in Champions Oathes, ought to be prevented.

Chap. 48. And for as much as it is great Charity to do right unto all men at all times (when nede ſhall be) by the aſſent of all the Prelates it was provided, that Aſſiſes of Novel diſſeiſin, Mortedaunceſter, and Darrein preſentment ſhould be taken in Advent, Septuageſima, and Lent, eben as well as Enqueſtis maybe taken, and that at the ſpecial requeſt of the King, made unto the Byſhops.

Before this Statute, the Kings Juſtices Itinerant could not hold theſe Pleas, nor ſwear Juries, or take Oathes on theſe times before them, without the Popes or * Archbiſhops ſpecial licenſes & diſpenſations in whoſe Province they were held, as this Statute intimates, & Pat. 8 H. 3. m. 2. Clauſ. 11 H. 3. m. 8. inform us; without incurring Eccleſiaſtical Cenſures: Which was firſt grounded (as I conceive) upon this Eccleſiaſtical Law of King Edw. the Confeſſor c. 3. * *De Temporibus & diebus Pacis Regis. The Biſhops being many of them Judges, by their Canons extended this Law beyond its intention, which was only to ſecure perſons from arreſts, not to prohibit neceſſary legal trials on theſe times and days. John de Briſton, (a Judge and Biſhop under King Edw. the 1. at this time, as * ſome obſerve,) records, that Pleas on thoſe times were prohibited by the Canons of the Church, his words are theſe. * *Ou ſi ils ſoient aſſets des Jurours uncore purrount aſcuns eſtre remuables par vereys challenges de parties, et auſi pur le temps en cas. Les Evesques requedent et les Prelates de Peyne Egliſe ſount diſpenſations que Aſſises et Juries ſount priſes en tiels temps par reſnables encheſons. But theſe real or pretended Canons being prejudicial to publike Juſtice and Legal trials, were now aboliſhed as a grievance in this Parliament at the Kings requeſt, and that by the aſſent of his Biſhops, which elſe he would have reformed without them, being a publike grievance, againſt the Great Charter, ch. 29. and his Coronation Oath, Not to delay Juſtice to any man, eſpecially in theſe Actions requiring ſpeedy remedies.

By which Record it is apparent, 1. That notwithſtanding the Kings great obligations to this Pope Gregory for the two Diſmes granted him, his entertainment in his Court in his return from the Holy Land, and his double Letters and Nuncio ſent to him, to demand and receive this annual rent of 1000 Marks, granted by King Johns Charter, yet he denied to pay it without the adviſe and conſent of his Prelates and Nobles in Parliament. 2ly. That he conceived it contrary to the Rights of his Crown, and his Coronation Oath newly taken, to preſerve and maintain them inviolable. 3ly. That he delayed his anſwer thereto from one Parliament to another, yea never paid him one farthing thereof, nor his 4. next ſucceſſors.

The Biſhop of Coventry and Lichfield and his Official ſuing a Merchant in their Spiritual Court for Debts and Chattels in his hands belonging to the King, againſt his Prohibition to them; thereupon the King iſſued this Writ to ſummon them to anſwer this their contempt.

It being the Kings ſpecial office and duty to provide that the Alms and Lands beſtowed by him and his anceſtors on Churches and religious Houſes, ſhould be duly preſerved, and rightly imployed, without any waſte, ſale, or deſtruction, he thereupon iſſued out Writs for that end, to the Sheriff of Kent on the behalf of the Prior and Cell of Leueſham.

Teſte ut ſupra.* Ibidem.

The Archbiſhop of Canterbury having nulled an election of an Abbot to the Monaſtery of Faverſham, and thereupon provided them another Abbot, to whom the King had given his royal aſſent, he made this certificate and requeſt to the King, for Reſtitution of the Temporalties to him.

The King ſending a Prohibition this year to the Dean of the Arches, not to hold Plea of a Debt, belonging to his Temporal Juriſdiction, the Archbiſhop of Canterbury certified him, that he was there impleaded not by the Dean of the Arches, but by the Popes ſpecial command, whom he ought to obey, and would obey.

A very inſolent Certificate of an Arch-prelate to his Soveraign; but being advanced to the Archbiſhoprick by the Popes proviſion, not Kings previous aſſent and approbation, no wonder he preferred and obeyed the Popes commands before the Kings.

I ſhall conclude this 5th. year of King Edward the 1. with this moſt memorable Record and Caſe. Gilbert de Thychevell being ſued in the Eccleſiaſtical Court for Chattels and Debts, whereof they had no Juriſdiction; and ſending a Prohibition to them out of the Kings Court to ſtay the proceedings, delivered in open Court by the Kings Meſſengers to Nicholas Chapple the Judge, he in a moſt inſolent contemptuous manner, (encouraged as it ſeems by Archbiſhop Boniface and his Suffragans * Antimonarchical Conſtitutions, appealed againſt by the King and Nobles) inſtead of obeying it, denounced a publick Excommunication againſt thoſe who delivered the Prohibition, and againſt all who ayded, countenanced or favoured that Writ; not excepting the Kings perſon; citing the ſaid Gilbert to remote places, to attend them from day to day to vex and weary them, and cauſed him to be Excommunicated in Churches with Bells ringing, and Tapers burning and extinct: For which high contempt againſt the Kings Prohibition, Crown and Regal authority, illegal Excommunication and vexation, he was proſecuted at the Kings ſuit to his damages of 1000 l. and at the Parties ſuit to his damage of 100 mark, and found guilty by the Jury and impriſoned; as Placita coram Rogero de Seyton & ſociis ſuis Juſticiariis de Banco apud Weſtm. à die Paſche in 15. dies, Anno regni Regis Edwardi quinto, Rot. 15. dorſo, (remaining in the Treaſury of the Receipts of the Kings Exchequer) thus record to poſterity.

Nota.

From which memorable Record I ſhall obſerve, 1. The ſtrenuous endeavours of Eccleſiaſtical Judges and Courts in that age, to enlarge their Juriſdiction, and uſurp the conuſance of Pleas of all Goods, Chattels, Fees, and other Temporal things, not belonging to them. 2ly. Their ſtrange inſolencies and contempts, in fulminating Excom-

An. 5 E. 1. Excommunications in their open Courts, and Churches, with Bells and Candles, againſt all ſuch who ſued, proſecuted or delivered the Kings Writs of Prohibition to reſtrain their Uſurpations, and againſt all who adviſed, counſelled, aſſiſted or granted ſuch Prohibitions, not excepting the King himſelf. 3ly. Their great and intollerable vexations of ſuch who ſued ſuch Prohibitions by new Citations, to attend them de diem in diem at remote places, and denouncing new Excommunications againſt them. 4ly. The Kings deep reſentments of theſe their high contempts, and affronts againſt his Crown, Dignity, Regal Juriſdiction, and of the vexation of his Subjects, and his royal proſecutions againſt them for it, both at his own and the parties ſuit, to recover dammages againſt, fine and impriſon them for theſe contempts, uſurpations and vexations. 5ly. Their impudency in denying and pleading a ſpecial Not guilty, though moſt guilty thereof, againſt their own knowledge; with their manifold defaults and delayes to tyre out and diſcourage their proſecutors, and prevent Judgements againſt them. 6ly. That all ſuch general Excommunications denounced by Eccleſiaſtical Judges, are illegal, and that the King by his Prerogative ought to be ſpecially excepted out of them.

An. 6 E. 1. * About the ſame time Walter Broneſcombe Biſhop of Exeter (of whoſe frauds and oppreſſions you may read in * Godwins Catalogue of Biſhops) and his Officials, cited ſundry of the Kings Subjects, and Officers into his Eccleſiaſtical Courts for Debts and Chattels, that concerned not Matrimony or Teſtament, and for Treſpaſſes, Freeholds, and other things of which they had no legal Juriſdiction; excommunicating, and putting them to pecuniary redemptions and grievous penalties, to their great oppreſſion and vexation, and withall exacted illegal Oathes and obligations from them, againſt the Kings Crown, Dignity, and Subjects Liberties; the King upon the complaints of Edmund Earl of Cornwall and his Officers, and of the whole County of Cornwall, of theſe his exorbitances, iſſued a ſpecial Commiſſion in the 6. year of his reign to ſome Judges, to inquire of, hear and determin theſe his Exorbitances and Uſurpations, before whom he was proſecuted at the Kings ſuit, to his Dammages of 10000 l. which the Biſhop denying in ſome ſort, appealed to the King, Pope, and Court of Rome, from the Kings Juſtices; for which his miſdemeanor, high affront and diſhonour to the Kings Crown and Dignity, he was adjudged undefended, ordered to ſatisfie the King his 10000 l. Dammages: and likewiſe to anſwer his contempt for this his enormous appeal to the Pope, in affront of the Kings Crown and Dignity, before the King and his Counſil; as this memorable Record at large informs us.

The Biſhop inſtead of reforming and forbearing theſe high illegal Uſurpations, Excommunications, and treaſonable, tyrannical proceedings againſt the Kings Prerogative, and the Subjects Rights, Liberties, upon theſe Informations and Judgements, after ſundry complaints againſt him, that he procured the Biſhop of Bangor, by command from the Archbiſhop, to come into the Dioceſs of Exeter, and to excommunicate all thoſe Clerks and others of what quality ſoever, who had complained to the Kings Juſtices, accuſed, or given evidence or verdicts before them againſt him, in every Pariſh Church on all Lords-dayes and Holy-dayes, with Bells ringing, Tapers burning and extinguiſhed; yea ſummoned many people of Devonſhire and Cornwall to appear before him, and to travel from one County to another, examining thoſe upon Oath, who had appeared before the Kings Juſtices upon their ſummons, (to ſerve the King and inform againſt the Biſhop for invading the Rights of the Kings Crown, violating his Laws, and injuring and oppreſſing his Subjects) who excited them thereto, and re-examining what the Juſtices had examined before them, againſt the Laws and Cuſtom of the Realm, to the ill example of other Prelates, and ſubjecting of the Kings Crown, Dignity, Laws, and peoples Liberties to the Biſhops Uſurpations. Moreover the Biſhop himſelf and his Officials Excommunicated the Under-Sheriff of Cornwall, and divers of the Kings and Earls Bayliffs, for arreſting Felons, and diſtraining him and other Clergymen for Debts and Amerciaments due to the King, till they releaſed the priſoners and diſtreſſes, and entred into Bonds to pay great ſums to the Biſhop; and ſome Bayliffs dying excommunicate, the Biſhop by his Officials caſt their corps out of the Churchyard when buried, till their Friends compounded with his Officers for great ſums of money to re-interr them, to the high contempt, diſhonour and dammage of the King, the Earl, County and People, the diſinheriſon of the Rights of the Crown, the prejudice of the Kings Officers, Service, and great diſcontent, terrour and oppreſſion of his people; as this new Remonſtrance, Complaint of the Earl and County of Cornwall againſt him to the King, informs us more at large, thus recorded in this Plea Roll.

An. 6 E. 1. By this memorable Record, Petition, Remonstrance, Complaint, and others preceding and following, it is most evident: 1. That our Bishops, with their Officials, Archdeacons, Deans, and other Officers in this age, endeavoured to usurpe and engrosse all sorts of Temporal Causes into their own hands, and Spiritual Courts, to fulminate Excommunications, with other Ecclesiastical censures against them for Civil offences, extort moneys, bonds, and imposse pecuniary Fines upon them, to the great prejudice of the Kings Prerogative, and peoples intollerable vexation. 2ly. That they endeavoured to exempt themselves from all secular and Regal Jurisdiction or Censures, for such Exorbitances or Usurpations, and to subject themselves wholly or principally to the Popes Judicature, to which they appealed from the Kings Justices, who was ready to protect, comply with them against the King and Subjects. 3ly. It is observable, That the King by his Attorney declared the dammages he sustained by these several Usurpations of this Bishop upon the Rights of his Crown and peoples Liberties, to amount to no lesse then Thirty One Thousand Pounds, which he had Judgement to recover against him; that the Earl of Cornwall declared his dammages thereby received, to amount to Ten Thousand Pounds, for which he had likewise Judgement, and a Writ of Execution against him; and the Sheriff of Cornwall One Hundred Pound dammages awarded against the Bishop, for his injurious Excommunication denounced against him; besides the Thousand Pounds dammages to the King and Earl, specified in the last Remonstrance: Which presidents if strictly pursued, would deterre all Bishops, with their Chancellors, Commissaries, Officials, from the like Usurpations and injurious Excommunications, since revived, continued, to the Kings dishonour, and the peoples unsufferable vexation. 4ly. That this Bishop by way of revenge, caused the Pope and Archbishop of Canterbury to Excommunicate and Interdict those of Cornwall, who complained against, and prosecuted these Usurpations, Oppressions of the Bishop and his Officers; who after two years contest, to avoid the Judgements given against him upon the premised Verdicts by the Kings Justices, solicited Queen Alienor and the Bishop of Bath and Wells (then Chancellor of England) to become Arbitrators, to make a final accord and release of all Suits, Judgements, Differences pending between him and the Earl of Cornwall, their Officers and Tenants, in all Temporal or Ecclesiastical Courts whatsoever; which they accordingly did, as appears by this their award made between them, to the Earls and Kings great disadvantage, by the Chancellors power, who favoured his brother Bishop, and caused this award to be entred on Record in his favour An. 8 E. 1. which I shall here insert.

* Ralph Holinſhed in his Chronicle, and Biſhop Godwin in his Cataloge of Biſhops, p. 328. render us this further account of this Biſhop of Exeters frauds and oppreſſions. He did by a Policy purchaſe the Lordſhip and Houſe of Clift Sachfeld, and enlarged the Barton thereof by gaining of Corniſh Wood from the Dean and Chapter fraudulently; building then a very fair and ſumptuous houſe there, he called it Biſhops Clift, and left the ſame to his Succeſſors. Likewiſe he got the Patronage of Clift Fomeſone, now called Sowton, and annexed the ſame to his new Lordſhip, which (as it was ſaid) he procured by this means. He had a Frier to be his Chaplain and Confeſſor, which died in his ſaid Houſe of Clift, and ſhould have been buried at the Pariſh Church of Farringdon, becauſe the ſaid Houſe was and is in that Pariſh; but becauſe the Pariſh Church was ſomewhat farre off, the wayes foul, and the weather rainy, or for ſome other cauſes, the Biſhop commanded the Corps to be carryed to the pariſh Church of Souton, then called Clift Fomeſon, which is very near, and bordereth upon the Biſhops Lordſhip; the two Pariſhes being then divided by a little Lake called Clift. At this time one Fomeſon, a Gentleman, was Lord and Patron of Clift Fomeſon; and he being advertiſed of ſuch a Burial towards in his Pariſh, and a leech way to be made over to his Land, without his leave or conſent required therein; calleth his Tenants together, goeth to the Bridge over the Lake between the Biſhops Land and his; there meeteth the Biſhops men, bringing the ſaid Corps, and forbiddeth them to come over the Water. The men nothing regarding the Prohibition, do preſs forwards to come ober the water, and the others do withſtand, ſo long, that in the end, my Lords Fryer is fallen into the Water. The Biſh praiſeth this matter in ſuch grief, that a holy Fryer, a Religious Man, his own Chaplein and Confeſſor, ſhould be ſo unreverently caſt into the Water, that he falleth out with the Gentleman, and upon what occaſion I know not, he ſueth him in the Law, (in his own Eccleſiaſtical Court, where he was both party and Judge) and ſo pereth and tormenteth him, that in the end he was fain to yeld himſelf to the Biſhops diſpoſition, and ſeeketh all the wayes he could to curry the Biſhops good will, which he could not obtain, untill for Redemption he had given up and ſurrendered his Patronage of Sowton, with a peece of Land; all which the ſaid Biſhop annexed to his new Lordſhip. Thus by Policy he purchaſed the Manour of Biſhops Clift; by a Device gaineth Corniſh Wood; and by Power wreſteth the Patronage of Sowton from the true Owner. Yet becauſe he thus enlarged his Churches poſſeſſions and Juriſdiction by theſe unchriſtian frauds and oppreſſions, he was at his death (July 22. 1280.) cryed up for a moſt ſincere Father of the Church, an unparalleld Saint, worthy all love and honor, by this Epitaph engraven on his Tomb in our Ladies Chappel of Exeter, where he was buried. * Page 1303, 1304

The Chancellor, Biſhop Burnel, being very wealthy, chuſing rather to recede from his right to the Archbiſhoprick, then to conteſt it with the Pope, or Peckam, to avoid the Popes diſpleaſure, and the King then needing the Popes favour to promote his forreign affairs, was content to connive at this Papal uſurpation for the preſent. An. 6 E. 1

Our Records inform us; 1. That the Archbiſhoprick of Canterbury became ipſo facto voyd in Law, by this Popes creating Kilwardby Cardinal of Oſtia, and tranſlating him to the Biſhoprick of Portua; whereupon the King forthwith committed the Cuſtody of the Temporalties, and preſented to Livings becomming voyd by this his tranſlation. On which [d] Polydor Virgil hath this ſpecial obſervation; Hinc cernere licet apud noſtros Pontifices aliquid ſpurcæ tam tum fuiſſe, cum per legem paucis liceret duas ſimul obtinere Provincias, quando Robertus Portuenſem Epiſcopatum conſecutus, ſe Cantuarienſi abdicabit. A ſharp, but true cenſure of this abuſe by the Popes own Collector of Peter-pence in England, when he penned his Hiſtory. 2ly. That the King out of ſpecial grace and favour to this tranſlated Archbiſhop, granted him liberty to receive the rents of ſeveral Livings he had reſerved to himſelf, after his tranſlation, belonging of right to the King by the vacancy, and received the ſtock of the Archbiſhoprick from him, at the ſame rate he received it upon his inſtallment from the Guardian of the Temporalties: I ſhall preſent you with ſome of theſe Records to theſe purpoſes. d Hiſt. In most of the Fine and Clause Rolls of King Edward the 1. I find sundry Writs of like nature, for delivering the Goods and Chattels of Bishops, Abbots, and also of Laymen who held of the King in Capite, on their Demesne Lands or elsewhere, seised by the Escheators, Sheriffs or Bayliffs of the King, for satisfaction of Debts and Duties owing to them, to the Executors of their last Wills and Testaments, only upon sufficient pledges or security given by them to the King, to satisfie all Debts and Duties owing to him in the first place; but I find no one president in any Records during his reign, nor before or after it, of any such Writs for restoring the Goods of any Bishop, Abbot, Tenant in Capite, or other Tenant of the King dying Intestate, to his Administrators: From whence it seems most apparent to me; 1. That Administrators of Bishops, Abbots, and other of the Kings Tenants dying Intestate, are not within the meaning or intention of that Act, but only the Executors of such of them who actually made Testaments in their life time, as the words, quod clarum fuerit et residuum relinquatur Executoribus ad faciendum Testamentum defuncti, most fully and positively declare. 2ly. That our Bishops and Canonists training, extending this Law to Administrators of persons dying Intestate, and reputing the surplusage of their Estates, after their Debts and Duties satisfied, and Wives and Childrens shares deducted, to be de Testamento; and thereupon distributing them to such pious uses as they think meet, is a direct contradiction to the words and intention of this Act, and repugnancy in it self; Testate & Intestate, Executoribus ad faciendum Testamentum defuncti, & Administratoribus Intestati ad faciendam voluntatem Ordinarii, being as opposite and contradistinct to each other, as Life and Death, Executors and no Executors, Testament and no Testament; which all their Evasions to enlarge their Jurisdiction over Intestates Estates can never reconcile, no more then they can * Light and Darkness, God and Mammon.

Upon which the King was pleaſed to reſtore his Temporalties.

Thus this Pope by his Proviſions uſurped a power to conferr the Archbiſhopricks of Canterbury and Yorke, and likewiſe to ratifie the election of the Abbey of St. Edmunds, as appears by this Patent.

Pat. 7 E. 1. m. 4 intus. De Temporalibus reſtitutis.

This Pope not content with theſe Proviſions and Uſurpations in England, the Archbiſhoprick of Dublin in Ireland being then void, and in the Kings hands, he did by his Papal plenitude of Power conferr it by Proviſion (without the Kings licenſe, or the Deans and Chapters election) on Freer John de Derlington, his former * Taxgatherer in England; who reſorting to the King in perſon, and taking an Oath of Fealty to him, (entered verbatim in the Patent Roll) he out of his ſpecial grace not only reſtored the Temporalties of the Archbiſhoprick to him, but likewiſe granted him the free uſe and exerciſe of all Liberties and ordinary Juriſdiction within his Archbiſhoprick, as amply as any of his predeceſſors claimed or enjoyed them by his or his Progenitors Charters, as theſe Records atteſt.

A ſtrange ſalvo for ſuch an high contempt, which the King ſo highly reſented, as he had juſt cauſe. Theſe Prohibitions and Writs demonſtrate how bold the Prelates, Archdeacons, and their Officials were then grown, in contemning and trampling under foot the Kings Prohibitions and Regal Authority, and invading the rights of the Crown, being encouraged by the Popes premiſed Uſurpations, and their new Archbiſhops, which I ſhall next relate.

John Peckam, Archbiſhop of Canterbury, was no ſooner ſetled in his Metropolitical Chair by the Kings extraordinary favour, but like a Pope of our other World he preſumed to ſummon a Provincial Council of his Suffragans and Clergy at Redding, by his own Archiepiſcopal authority. The main deſign whereof was, to publiſh ſome New Conſtitutions againſt Pluralities and Commendaes, (againſt which he was very zealous all his life) but eſpecially to enforce all former, and adde ſome new Clauſes of Excommunication againſt ſuch of the Kings Judges, Miniſters and Subjects, who ſhould grant or ſue forth any Prohibitions to controll their Uſurpations upon the Kings Prerogative, or Subjects Rights, Liberties, Priviledges; or not execute their illegal Excommunicarions, for not obſerving ſuch Decrees as Popes, their Nuncioes, or his prædeceſſors had publiſhed in former Councils; thus regiſtred to Poſterity.

earundem,

An. 7 E. 1. earundem, per nos et fratres Coepiscopos nostros, et eorundem Confessores nunciamus, et volumus imposterum nunciari, quod nec ad dignitates Ecclesiasticas, nisi demum, purgato vitio, possunt assumi; et si de facto ad easdem ascenderint, non posse absque periculo ministrare, nec salvari poterunt in die Judicii, nec in præsenti accipere pœnitentias factas quæ non proficiunt ad salutem, nisi cum renunciaverint Beneficiis, quæ sic de facto detinent occupata: Verum etiam de fructibus Ecclesiæ sic consumptis, Ecclesiæ Dei quam graviter offenderunt, quatenus poterunt, satisfaciant competenter, cum ista beneficia taliter invadentes scienter falcem in messem inserunt alienam; cumque non intrent per hostium, non pastores, sed fures pariter existunt, et latrones; miseraque animas imprudenter decipiunt, quas nec utique solvere valent nec ligare. Et illos quoque qui Confessores talium Clericorum existunt, qui eisdem in pœnitentia non injungunt, ut fructus Ecclesiarum taliter non perceptos, sed furtive surreptos restituant, seu de eisdem satisfaciant, prout possint Ecclesiis, quas sic de eisdem fructibus retinendo læserunt, imperitos decernimus, aut minus benignos, et callidos animarum Clericorum hujusmodi deceptores. Inhibentes sub pœna Excommunicationis, ne ad talium absolutionem manus extendant temerarias, cum hujusmodi Ecclesiasticorum Beneficiorum improbi sint detentores, in scelere continuantes. Huic quoque vulneri Cancerosо, per quod per modum alium in futurum ut cernitur, sanari non potest; ferrumque quod adhuc superest ignitum injicimus, mucrone Anathematis tam enormis flagitii piacula resecantes; decernentes, et in perpetua stabilitate firmantes, ut quicunque in posterum plura beneficia curam animarum habentia, absque Sedis Apostolicæ dispensatione, receperit, vel fuerit affectus per modum Institutionis, vel Commendationis, seu Custodiæ, vel unum titulo institutionis, aliud titulo Commendationis, sive Custodiæ, præter modum illum quem Constitutio Gregoriana edita in Concilio Lugdunensi permittit, sit eo ipso privatus omnibus sic obtentis beneficiis ipso facto, Excommunicationis sententia permaneat innodatus, a qua, non nisi per nos, vel per Sedem Apostolicam Absolutionis gratiam valeat promereri; ut ad beneficiorum vacantium, per hunc modum, vel per alium pervenire notitiam valeamus. (A very memorable, usefull Constitution, worthy observation.)

Nota.

Nos, fratres charissimi, firmiter injungendo mandamus in virtute obedientiæ, quatinus per vos, seu Officiales vestros, Archidiaconos et Decanos, nomina et numerum Ecclesiarum cum cognomine, agnomine, vel Prænomine, ita quod possit haberi notitia personarum, tempora ipsarum Ecclesiarum collationum factarum ipsis Rectoribus, seu assignationum per modum quemcunque; quo titulo eas obtineant, Institutionis, Commendationis, aut solius Custodiæ; cujus ætatis sint memorati Rectores, seu Ecclesiarum hujusmodi detentores, in quo ordine fuerint constituti; utrum alibi quam in una Ecclesia beneficiati existant? Item, utrum cum eis dispensatum fuerit super pluralitate hujusmodi obtinenda, et qui sunt, et in quibus modis censeantur earum Ecclesiarum Patroni; In cujus æstimationis sint singulæ Ecclesiæ seu valoris, juxta taxationem Norwicensem, faciatis distincte conscribi, et scripturas hæc omnia continentes clare et distincte confectas, singuli Episcopi de singulis Diocesibus suis nobis ad Civitatem London. transmittant in Octava Sancti Hilarii; quibus loco et die, favente Altissimo, ad ipsius laudem congregati erimus iterato. Illi autem qui in renuntiatione seu descriptione præfata, nobis ut supra, injunximus facienda, fraudem vel dolum commiserint, vel veritatem instructioni nostræ necessariam subticendo, aut falsitatem (quod absit) aliquam immiscendo, vel per vias alias callide comento quocunque circa præfata versando, quo minus ad nos perveniat veritas atque notitia præmissorum, pœnam falsarii merito poterint formidare.

By which Constitution it is most apparent; 1. That the Plurality of Ecclesiastical Benefices and Commendaes, especially with Cure of Souls, was prohibited, condemned by several Popes, Popes Legates, the Constitutions and Decrees of General, National, Provincial Councils both abroad and at home, as most scandalous, pernicious, impious mischiefs, dishonourable to God, destructive to the peoples, and Pluralists souls and prejudicial to Gods Church, Worship and Christian Religion. 2ly. That notwithstanding all former Canons and Constitutions made against them, yet through the avarice, ambition, impiety of Pluralists, the dispensations or connivance of Popes and Prelates for their own filthy lucre, they still increased more more and more, and continued unredreſſed (as they do till this very day) as a growing miſchief, and cancerous ulcer paſt all cure, to the eternal infamy of thoſe Popes, Prelates, and Eccleſiaſtical Officers who ought in duty, conſcience effectually to ſuppreſs them, for the honour, advancement of Religion, Gods Worſhip, Service, and ſalvation of the peoples ſouls. 3ly. That the principal end of theſe Canons and Conſtitutions of Popes and Archbiſhops againſt Pluralities and Commendaes, was but to gain more monies for diſpenſations with them, or a new power to diſpoſe of ſuch Churches and Benefices for which they could not procure ſuch ſums for diſpenſations as they demanded, as the pretedent and this next Conſtitution manifeſts. An. 7 E. 1.

The King ſo highly reſented theſe Uſurpations, Inſolences, Conſtitutions, Excommunications, and proceedings of this Archbiſhop, that in a Parliament held this year ſoon after, he publickly convened him as a Delinquent, enforcing him to make this open memorable Revocation of them, recorded in the Clauſe Rolls in the Tower for a perpetual memorial, worthy all our Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Canoniſts, and our Judges ſerious conſideration.

By which Record it is apparent: First, That our Archbiſhops and Biſhops by the Laws and Cuſtom of the Realm can ſummon no Provincial Council, nor make any new Articles or Cauſes of Excommunication, Canons or Conſtitutions to binde the King, kingdome or people, without the Kings ſpecial Writ, licenſe, and his Nobles, Parliaments approbation or confirmation of them; and that all ſentences of Excommunication, Canons and Conſtitutions otherwiſe made and publiſhed, are void and unobligatory to the King and kingdom, as I have elſewhere evidenced by former Preſidents. Secondly, That theſe Excommunications, Canons, Conſtitutions, though thus publikely revoked by the Archbp in Parliament before the King and his Counſil the ſame year they were made and promulged; were yet publiſhed, gloſſed upon, printed, and cried up for the received Canon Law of England, by William Lyndewode, John Aton, and other bold or ignorant Canoniſts, and arbitrarely publiſhed as ſuch in Sir Henry Spelmans Councils. An abuſe, yea Impoſture, worthy our eſpecial obſervation. Thirdly, That this Archbiſhop and his Suffragans, as well as his *predeceſſors, were very active, induſtrious in their Provincial Synods, Councils, by new Canons & Conſtitutions, to advance their own uſurped Authority and Juriſdiction paramount the Kings Prerogative, Judges, Miniſters, Courts, and to ſubject them to their Eccleſiaſtical Cenſures, for ſuing out, granting, or executing any Prohibitions or Writs to reſtrain their Uſurpations or Exorbitances to the prejudice of the Kings Prerogative, or Subjects Liberties or Properties; and that the King, his Parliament, Counſils, Judges, were as ſedulous to oppoſe and prevent their encroachments of this nature.

In this Parliament (wherein the Archbiſhop made this recantation and revocation) the King and Nobles, leſt the inſatiable avarice, ambition of Abbots, Monks, and other religious perſons, Prelates and Clergymen ſhould ſwallow up all the Lands, Rents, wealth of the Crown and Kingdom by degrees, as they had formerly done a great part thereof, to the exceſſive prejudice of the Crown and other temporal Lords, againſt the Statute of Magna Charta, c. 36. which enacted, It ſhall not be lawfull from henceforth for any man to give his lands to any Religious houſe, and to take the ſame again to hold of the ſame houſe. Nor ſhall it be lawfull to any houſe of Religion to take lands of any man, and to leaſe the ſame to him of whom he received it. If any man from henceforth give his lands to any Religious houſe, and thereupon be convict, the gift ſhall be utterly void, and the Land ſhall return to the Lord of the fee. (Which they had quite eluded by crafts and ſubtilties,) made this further Act againſt the alienation or purchaſe of Lands in Mortmain, ne omnes ſoli poſſeſſiones in Eccleſias tandem transferantur, cujus ferendæ legis fratrum et prædicatorum avaritia, qui poſſeſſiones acquirere contra ſuum inſtitutum cæperunt, cauſam dedit; as [a] Matthew Parker obſerves out of Walter Gisburne, and Peter de Ickham. Rex, Pontifices et Principes Anglicani venerunt in unum, ſtatuentes, Quod religioſæ perſonæ in ampliationibus terrarum non creſcerent, dicentes, quod ad detrimentum Regni, et obſequii militaris, feoda militaria et aliæ poſſeſſiones ad religioſos in manum moztuam devenerunt; intelligere forte nolentes, quod potius oratiónibus Moyſes (the chief Civil Magiſtrate, not of Popes, Prelates, Abbots, Monks,) quàm pugna filiorum Iſrael Amalachitarum exercitus vincebatur. But this Act made little or no reformation of this abuſe, and general grievance, the Biſhops, Abbots, Monks, Nuns, and religious perſons of all Orders, by frauds, flattery, favour, or for fines and ſums of money to the King, immediately after this Act procuring pardons of, or licenſes for alienations of Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Churches, Advowſons to them in Mertmain from this King and his ſucceſſors, notwithſtanding this Statute, as all the Patent, Charter, and Fine Rolls atteſt, being over-fraught with ſuch diſpenſations every year, ſince this Act.

The King by his Prerogative having the diſpoſal of the Temporalties of the Abby of St. Michael in Normandy of his progenitors foundation, and of all Cells thereto belonging during the vacancy of the Abbey, and the Covent thereof during the vacation violently intruding a Monk of theirs into the Cuſtody of the Cell of St. Clements in Gerneſey thereunto belonging, in contempt of the King, and to the prejudice of his Crown and right, he thereupon iſſued this Writ to the Bailiffs of the Iſlands of Gerneſey and Jerſey to ſeiſe the Temporalties of the Cell into his hands, and anſwer the profits thereof to his Exchequer.

Rex qui hujusmodi transgressionem relinquere non vult impunitam, mandavit Ballivo prædicto, quod ad Cellam prædictam personaliter accedat, et Temporalia ejusdem sine dilatione capiat in manum Regis, et ea salvo custodiat donec aliud inde præceperit. *Ita quod Regi inde respondere possit ad Scaccarium suum, proviso quod Monachi Cellæ prædictæ rationabilem sustentationem suam interim habere possint de Temporalibus supradictis. King Edward the 1. out of his Soveraign Regal authority, and duty towards God, to suppresse the manifold Blasphemies of the Jews against Christ crucified, and the Christian Religion, prevent their seducing of Christians to Judaism, and the Apostacy of Jews converted to Christianity; as also to reform their usury, brocage, and clipping of money, for which many of them were executed this year, issued this memorable Writ and Proclamation in the 7th. year of his reign.

REX dilecto & fideli B. de Suley, & sociis suis, &c. & Johanni le Faukonner, salutem. Quia datum est nobis intelligi, quod quidam Judæi regni nostri fidem Catholicam et sacramenta Ecclesiastica hactenus diversimode blasphemare non formidarunt, nec adhuc formidant, in divini nominis contumeliam, et totius Christianæ professionis opprobrium: Nos hujusmodi blasphemias, sicut Principem Catholicum decet reprimi cupientes, volumus, quod nullus Judæus taliter de cætero blasphemiare præsumat, videlicet, aliquod enorme, detestabile, aut abominabile dicendo, vel faciendo in blasphemia Crucifixi, fidei Catholicæ, seu beatissimæ matris Mariæ Virginis, seu Ecclesiasticorum sacramentorum. Volumus etiam, quod hoc per omnia loca regni nostri in quibus Judæi morantur publice proclametur, et ne aliquis Judæus sub periculo vitæ et membrorum talia facere vel dicere præsumat. Et si quis notorius blasphemiator inveniatur, ita quod per Inquisitionem per Sacramentum Christianorum bonorum et gravium inde faciendam inde convinci possit evidenter, volumus quod quilibet talis puniatur secundum quod in hujusmodi casibus aliàs fieri consuevit. Idem fiat de ipsis qui aliquando ad fidem Catholicam verè baptizati fuerant, et postmodum ad Judaicam pravitatem perversi ab eadem fide Apostatare præsumpserunt. Quod mulieres Judææ de cætero portent signa in superiori veste sua, sicut Judæi mares. Et quod Judæi de cætero nullos habeant servientes Christianos, mares aut fœminas, secum in quibuscumque obsequiis commorantes, nec in domibus propriis, nec aliàs in Civitatibus aut locis aliis ubi morantur, sed ipsi Judæi sibi invicem in omnibus serviant et ministrent, et hoc utique præcipiatur tam Christianis quàm Judæis, sub gravi forisfactura nostra. Volumus insuper, quod omnes Christiani qui pignora sua inter bona Judæorum damnatorum inventa redimere voluerint, hujusmodi pignora per testes fideles et bonæ famæ probent esse sua, et ea per certa signa et indicia describant, et hujusmodi testibus eatenus credatur, quatenus majoris vel minoris famæ esse constiterit. Et si fortè pignora illa sua esse per testes probare non possint, & quod testes defuncti vel absentes sint, ita quod eos habere non possint, vel quia secretè & absque testimonio impignorata fuerunt, tunc ad pignora illa recuperanda sufficiat tantummodo sacramentum ipsorum quorum pignora illa existunt, dum tamen pignora illa certis signis & indiciis describant, sicut prædictum est; & hoc propter lapsum anni à tempore impignorationis hujusmodi nullatenus omittatur. Volumus insuper, quod omnes illi qui per testes fide dignos probare possint debita sua pro suis pignoribus persolvisse, & pignora illa propter aliquam certam rationem per ipsos coram vobis ostendendam, aut propter maliciam ipsorum Judæorum ab eisdem Judæis non recepisse, ad iteratam solutionem debitorum illorum faciendam nullatenus compellantur, & testibus illis credatur juxta famam personarum, additis testibus

What Liberties of Free Warren and Markets the King granted to the Biſhop of Midden in Ireland this year, you may peruſe at leiſure in Charta 7 E. 1. num. 16, 17.

I finde this ſad Complaint and Petition made to the King, againſt the Archbiſhop of Caſſel in Ireland by Margaret le Blund, for detaining her inheritance, and for ſundry barbarous murders of her Father, Mother, Grandfather, her ſix Brothers and Siſters, and ſundry other Engliſhmen whom he ſlew, or caſt into priſon, there ſtarving them to death, and other miſdemeanors, againſt whom ſhe could obtain no juſtice after divers journeys into England. An. 7 E. 1.

M*Argareta le Blunde* de Chaſſell petit gratiam Domini Regis, ut poſſit habere hæreditatem ſuam quam recuperavit coram Juſticiariis Domini Regis apud Clummele coram Magiſtro Johanne de Sampford, Domino Ricardo de Excur. & Willielmo de Caſham tunc Juſticiariis de Banco apud Clummele. Et ſunt nunc præſentes in Villa London. verſus David Macmakerwayt Epiſcopum de Caſſell. recuperavit hæreditatem ſuam. Brevia Regis, An. 7 E. 1.

Item, dicta Margareta petit remedium de hoc, quod pater ſuus per dictum Epiſcopum occiſus fuit. Item, petit remedium ſuper incarceratione abi et matris ſuæ, eo quod incarceravit eos et eos in priſona detinuit quouſque pro fame moriebantur, quia voluerunt perquirere remedium de morte filii ſui patris prædictæ Margaret e qui per ipſum Epiſcopum erat occiſus. Item, petit remedium de morte ſex fratrum et ſororum qui mortui fuerunt per prædictum Epiſcopum ob defectum ſuſtentationis, quia idem Epiſcopus quando patrem eorum occidit, hæreditatem eorum in manu ſua habuit. Et ſciendum, quod idem Epiſcopus conſtruxit quandam Abbaciam in villa de Caſſell ſuper terram Domini Regis, quam in eleemoſina pro anima ſua dedit, et illam replevit latronibus qui occidunt Anglicos et depræ dantur patriam. Et cum Conſilium Domini Regis inde loquitur, quia inde loquuntur in ipſos fulminat ſententiam Excommunicationis. (Such was his inſolency.) Et ſciendum quod prædicta Margareta jam quinquies mare Hibernicum tranſivit, unde petit pro Deo quatinus compaciatur ei Regia dignitas, ut ad hæreditatem ſuam poſſit appropinquare. Et ſciendum quod prædictus Epiſcopus culpabilis eſt de morte plurimorum Anglicorum, adeo bene ſicut de morte patris ſui.

Et ſciendum quod pluries brevia Domini Regis prædicta Margareta optinuit, ſed nichil proſunt ei ob favorem ipſius Epiſcopi, et donis ipſius Epiſcopi mediantibus.

Et petit pro Deo dampna, expenſas & jacturas cum laboribus ſuis ſibi reſtitui per prædictum Epiſcopum quæ occaſione prædicti placiti ſuſtinuit. What recompence ſhe obtained againſt this murdring, oppreſſing, bribing Archbiſhop at laſt, I find not.

Some counterfeit Freers of the Order of St. Antony of Vienna, wandring abroad and collecting alms throughout England, the King upon complaint thereof iſſued this Writ for their apprehenſion.

What good effects this zealous pious project of the Frees Preachers, and King in pursuit thereof, produced in converting any considerable number of Jews to the Catholick Faith, I finde not in our Histories or Records: But their universal banishment out of England within 8. years after, * principally for their Infidelity, sufficiently manifests, that all the endeavours then used for their conversion, by drawing them to these Preachers Sermons, and the provisions made by the King for the Converts support elsewhere specified, were very successlesse.

* See the First & Second Part of my Brief Demurrer to the Jews long discontinued Remitter into England.

The Pope encouraged by his former Usurpations, in preferring Archbishops by his own Provisions to both our Archbishopricks, by the Kings connivance, presumed this year to conferre the Bishoprick of Carlisle by his Papal Provision on Ralph de Ireton, as this Patent (for restoring the Temporalties to him out of the Kings grace) attests.

How far this Papal perfidious Archbiſhop and his Suffragans, were from obeying this Royal mandate, according to their Oaths and bounden duties, will moſt evidently appear by the Prologue to their Canons and Conſtitutions made therein, wherein they highly extoll that Arch-traytor Thomas Becket, as a moſt glorious Martyr, for oppoſing the antient Rights of the Crown and Kingdom, as inconſiſtent with the Churches pretended Liberties; and revived, confirmed the Conſtitutions of Archbiſhop Boniface and his Suffragans, (againſt which the * King had ſolemnly appealed to the Pope, as prejudicial to the Rights, Prerogative, Cuſtoms, Liberties of his Crown and Kingdom) by ſeveral Canons made therein, and the Excommunications republiſhed in it; but more eſpecially by the Archbiſhops inſolent Epiſtle to the King, in anſwer to this his Royal Inhibition and Mandate ſent unto them; the moſt of which Conſtitutions I ſhall here preſent you with at large. * See Tom 2. p. 983, 990, 991.

Abſit enim, ne à quodam Catholico credatur tantum intentione prodeſſe Miſſam unam devotè celebratam mille hominibus, pro quibus forſan dicitur, quantum ſi mille Miſſæ pro eis devotione conſimili canerentur. Licet ipſum Sacrificium, quod eſt Chriſtus, ſit infinitæ virtutis, non tamen in Sacramento vel Sacrificio in ſua immenſitatis ſumma plenitudine operatur; alioquin pro uno mortuo nunquam oporteret niſi unam Miſſam dicere. Operatur enim in hujuſmodi miniſteriis diſtributione certa ſuæ plenitudinis, quam ipſe eiſdem lege infallibili alligat illos qui pro Annalibus ſeu Anniverſariis celebrandis ſtipendia receperunt, nec ex certa malitia ſeu acidia ſatisfaciunt, ut tenentur, monemus, ut omiſſa ſuppleant, & ad plenum ſatisfaciant in futurum. De Inſtitutionibus.

Ex ſolito curſu cauſarum multis recepimus conquerentibus, quod nonnulli Coepiſcopi noſtri Clericos præſentatos ad vacantes Eccleſias admittentes, literas teſtimoniales eis recuſant impendere facti ſui, propter quod ſuborta inter hujuſmodi præſentatos & alios materia quæſtionis, ſuccumbit plerumque veritas falſitati. Nos autem Eccleſiaſticis regulis adhærentes, qua fidem geſtorum ex legalibus colligunt miniſtris; Statuimus, ut unuſquiſque Epiſcopus Clerico quem ad Eccleſiam aliquam admittit, literas patentes ſuper ſua admiſſione concedat, inter alia continentes in quo conſiſtit ordine, quo articulo ad hujuſmodi Beneficium admittatur.

The

An. 9 E. 1. The Constitution made against Pluralities in this Council (against which this Archbishop was very zealous) is very observable; worthy all Pluralists and their Dispensers, or abettors consideration.

De Clericis Beneficia plura occupantibus.

Languor prolixior grabat Pedicum; nec facilitèr ebellitur plantatio infernalis quæ innumeris perditionis filiis est infixa; nec alicui mortalium hactenus legitur fuisse concessum, simul totam convertere multitudinem impiorum, sacra pagina attestante, Deus (inquit) consumet nationes has in conspectu tuo paulatim atque per partes. Sane Ecclesia Anglicana a membris *putredinis, a falsis Clericis eb olim * sustinuit plagas diras; qui pompæ et avaritiæ æstibus inflammati, beneficia cum cura absque dispensatione Apostolica, ac contra Canones acervantes, non veriti sunt hactenus animas perdere acquisitas sanguine Redemptoris; nec erubuerunt fures existere, et vitam infamem agere tamdiu, donec horrenda morte (ut in multis vidimus) divinæ severitatis percussi fulmine, de medio sunt sublati: quam plagam paulatim, atque per partes sanare cupientes, hujusmodi multiplicationes salubriter præcipiendo inhibuimus, circa adventus nostri principium, sub certi formæ rigoris, ne quis auderet extunc hujusmodi Pluralitate se inbolbere ullo modo. Præteritam etiam pluralitatem minis salubribus deterrentes, quas minas intendimus (Deo authore) ad effectum mancipare; ut sic juxta sacra eloquia radicatam nequitiam valeamus paulatim funditus extirpare; paulatim quidem, dicente Scriptura, non poteras eas delere pariter, ne fortè multiplicarentur contra te bestiæ terræ. Hujus autem processus nostri conatibus boni fructus exordium contulit pietas Redemptoris, dum saltem prohibita est pristina effrænatio beneficia hujusmodi sine scrupulo admittendi. Multisdam etiam dedit Deus compunctionis spiritum, ut damnatæ pluralitatis suæ magnam partem abscinderint, quibusdam etiam insuper, ut superfluitatem suam nostræ submiserunt discretionis arbitrio moderandam; qua submissione noverint universi hujus excessus non purgari vitium, cum non possumus cum ipsis in talibus dispensare, sed purgationem ipsius quodammodo quamvis tenuerit inchoare. Cæteros autem omnes et singulos hujusmodi pluralitatem damnabiliter occupantes, et in suæ adhuc pertinentes arrogantiæ supercilio, monemus primo, secundo, et tertio, quod, *cum pæna sit eos absolvere (nisi citius pœnitentiam egerint) horago infernalis, mola asinaria deprimente, ulteriori deliberationi nulla poterit concedi dilatio, quatinus hujusmodi Beneficia, libere et absolute, infra ter mensium spacium, in Episcoporum suorum manibus omnino resignent: satisfacientes nihilominus, ut eorum status patitur, Ecclesiis sic fraudatis, nunquam per se vel per alias, clam vel palam, verè vel imaginariè, aliquid de hujusmodi Ecclesiarum fructibus illicite recepturi. Salvo nobis jure de illis Beneficiis ordinandi, quorum collatio est ad nos per lapsum temporis deoluta. Alioquin extunc contra ipsos (favente Altissimo) in forma Canonica procedemus. Interim etiam hac monitione nec nobis nec fratribus ac Coepiscopis nostris præjudicare intendimus, quin contra hujusmodi ordinario progressu particulariter procedatur.

De Advocatis.

Veloces ad audiendum existere & tardos ad loquendum, sanctus Jacobus imperat, & à juventute usque ad maturitatis annos edoctum docet cæteris præstare Ducatum. In Schola siquidem Pithagoræ *quinquennale tenebant auditores silentium, prinsquam de illa gentium sapientia dicere finerentur; Cujus prudentia disciplinam plurimi Advocatorum hujus temporis non sectantur, quin potius post unum librum juris vix auditum vel dimidium, arrogant sibi Officium in Causis Ecclesiasticis publicè postulandi; * & quia veritatem juris ignorant,* ad fraudes horribiles impeditivas processus judiciales tantummodo se convertunt. Cui pesti remedium apponere cupientes, statuimus, ut nullus de cætero permittatur advocationis officium publice exercere, nisi prius ad minus per triennium audiverit cum debita diligentia Jus Canonicum et Jus Civile; hujus autem fidem ubi nec de condigno apparet testimonio, nec per facti evidentiam, propria faciat Juramento.

What the issue of this appeal was, [b] Mat. Parkers informs us; In eodem Concilio exemptos quos vocant, qui Metropolitani jurisdictione continere, ejusque jussu ad Concilium accedere recusarunt, (which they would not have done, if summoned to it by the Kings Writ or Mandate) Excommunicationis atque suspensionis pœnis afflixit. Inter hos Westmonasterii, S. The King and his Counsil being highly offended with the Archbishop and his Suffragans for sundry of their Canons, Excommunications, and proceedings in this Council, against the tenor of his premised Writ, and Proctors appeals: Archbishop Peckam (magnus et robustus Antichristi Satelles, as * John Bale not improperly stiles him) writ and sent this most insolent, undutifull Epistle to him and his Counsil, to justifie what they had done; wherein he advanceth the Ecclesiastical and Papal Jurisdiction, Power, Canons, Laws, far above the Regal, to which all Emperors, Kings, and Temporal Lawes ought to submit; whose fallacies and mistakes therein I shall observe, and answer, as they occurre in his Epistle.

Thus doth this Papal Arch-prelate, inſtead of obeying the Kings premiſed Writ, and obſerving his Oath of Fealty to him, in maintaining, not attempting or decreeing any thing to the prejudice of the antient Rights and Priviledges of his Crown and Realm, in this his inſolent Epiſtle moſt perfidiouſly, trayterouſly, and profeſſedly oppugn, argue, conteſt againſt them; and by wreſted, miſapplyed Texts of Scripture, falſe ſuggeſtions, and the preſidents of his moſt ſeditious trayterous predeceſſors Beckt and Boniface, whom he highly magnifies, to endeavour to juſtifie his and his Suffragans Antimonarchical proceedings and Conſtitutions in this Council, yea to ſubject the Kings, and all other Chriſtian Emperors, Kings, Princes perſons, conſciences, Oathes, Laws, Crowns, Prerogatives, to the Juriſdiction, Canons, Conſtitutions not only of the Pope, but of their own Prelates and Clergy, aſſembled in Synods without their Regal authority or preſence in them, and that under pain not only of incurring Gods temporal Judgements on their Perſons, Realms, but of eternal damnation, as oppugners of the Churches pretended Liberties, though conferred on them by their meer Regal Charters and favours.

This Archbiſhop of Canterbury (who loved Veniſon better then his Soveraign, or peoples ſouls) claiming 13 Bucks and 13 Does annually out of the Foreſt of Arundell, by a compoſition made between Archbiſhop Boniface and the Earl of Arundell, the King notwithſtanding his premiſed inſolencies againſt him, iſſued this Writ for payment of them to the Keeper of the Foreſt.

The sum of his Embassy and Message to the Pope was, that his Brother the Earl of Cornwall might receive all the monies collected in England for ayd of the Holy Land towards his expedition, whom he intended speedily to send thither, since himself could not yet go in person; to which the Pope at present deferred to give any answer, pressing the King himself to go thither in person, as the Popes Epistle to the King in answer thereunto, hereafter cited, informs us.

The King to ingratiate himself and his Messengers with this New Pope, (whom he had exasperated by stopping the exportation of, and seising the 6. years Dismes) gave order for the payment of the 8. years arrears of the annual Pension, so oft demanded; which having satisfied by several payments, his Agents thereupon required an Acquittance from Pope Martin the 4. who thereupon sent him this discharge, both entred on the Dorse of the Clause Roll of this year.

Pope

An. 10 E. 1. Pope Martin this year ſent this Bull to King Edward the 1. to require his favour to, and protection of the Monks of the Order of Cluny, whoſe piety he highly extolled.

In Turre London. MARTINUS Epiſcopus Servus ſervorum Dei, Chariſſimo in Chriſto Filio Regi Angliæ Illuſtri, ſalutem & Apoſtolicam benedictionem. Libenter Excellentiæ Regiæ illa ſuggerimus quæ ſaluti proficiunt, famam ampliant, ſtatum proſperitate communiunt & conſervant. Hæc, fili chariſſime, non eſt dubium, et pietatis operibus prodenire; inter quæ non eſt minimum extimandum Religioſos favorabiliter proſequi, præſertim propulſando eorum injurias, et ipſos in ſuis juribus defendendo. Quanta vero inter Religiones cæteras Cluniacen. Ordo claritate reſplendeat, tua Sublimitas non ignorat, propter quod eundem Ordinem Serenitati Regiæ, ut id tibi cedat ad ſalutis præmium eique ad tutaminis proveniat commodum, redemptoris omnium cujus eſt ordo ipſe, obſequiis deputatis intuitu commendamus. Regalem Celſitudinem obſecrantes in Domino, quatenus eundem Ordinem ac profeſſores ipſius ob divinam reverentiam et Apoſtolicæ ſedis ac noſtram habens in charitatis viſceribus commendatos ipſos in ſuis opportunitatibus Regii favoris auxilio proſequaris, ut exinde præter humanæ laudis præconium retributionis æternæ conſequaris augmentum. Sir John Lovetot Knight (moſt likely by the Kings connivance, encouragement) apprehended and impriſoned the Præcentor and Treaſurer of the Church of Lincolne, for preſuming to examine Witneſſes in a cauſe referred to them by the Pope, upon an Appeal and Complaint of the Dean of Stafford the Popes Chaplain, touching the Archbiſhop of Yorkes refuſal to admit him to the Church of Adelingflet to which he was preſented by the Counteſſe of Glouceſter, the right Patron thereof as was pretended; and ſuppreſſing the depoſitions taken in the cauſe, which were to be returned by them to the Pope, to the high contempt of his Papal authority, and forcing the Dean to flie out of the Realm and deſert the proſecution of his ſuit. Pope Martin thereupon iſſued this Bull to the Prior of Tonbridge, to cite Sir John to appear in perſon before him to anſwer this high contempt by a certain day within two moneths, (which Bull I found in the White Tower) worthy obſervation, wherein theſe proceedings are recorded.

What the Prior did thereupon I finde not in Hiſtory or Record, ſuch Citations out of the Realm, being againſt the priviledges of the King and Subjects, and little done upon them.

The Pope upon this occaſion, when St. Peters ſword would not prevail againſt Peter, ſent this Bull to King Edward the 1. (the original whereof I found in the White Tower, and there reſcued with ſundry others from oblivion) lamenting theſe Warrs between theſe Princes, and likewiſe between [d] Alphonſo King of Caſtile, his Sonnes and Nobles, (whereof he and his prædeceſſors were the original authors) and craving his aſſiſtance to pacifie the differences between them, for the preſervation of the Churches Liberties, and preventing the loſſe of ſouls, as being moſt able to effect it.

Iſti ſunt Articuli intimati Domino L. Principi Walliæ, & populo ejuſdem loci, ex parte Domini Archiepiſcopi ſupradicti.

Primo, quia propter ſalutem eorum ſpiritualem & temporalem ad partes iſtas venimus, quos ſemper dileximus uſque modo, ſicut plures eorum noverunt.

Secundo, quia venimus contra Domini Regis voluntatem, cui etiam adventus noſter dicitur plurimum diſplicere.

Tertio, quia rogamus eos, & ſupplicamus eis pro ſanguine Jeſu Chriſti, quatenus venire velint ad unitatem cum gente Anglorum, & ad pacem Domini Regis, quam eis intendimus, quanto melius poterimus procurare.

Quarto, volumus eos ſcire, quod in hiis partibus Domini non poterimus remanere.

Quinto, volumus eos attendere, quod poſt receſſum noſtrum non invenient forſitan aliquem, qui ita velit ſua amplecti negotia promovenda, qui vellemus, ſi placeret Altiſſimo, vitâ noſtrâ temporali ipſorum pacem honeſtam & ſtabilem perpetuò procuraſſe.

Sexto, quia ſi noſtras partes ſpreverint & labores, ſtatim intendimus eorum pertinaciam ſcribere Summo Pontifici, et Curiæ Romanæ propter peccata mortalia, quæ multiplicantur occaſione diſcordiæ omni die.

Septimo, noverint quod niſi citius ad pacem venerint, aggravabitur eis Bellum, quod non poterunt ſuſtinere, quia creſcit Regia potentia omni die.

Octavo, noverint quod regnum Angliæ eſt ſub ſpeciali protectione Sedis Apoſtolicæ, et quod Romana Curia plus inter regna cætera diligere conſuevit.

Nono, quod eadem Curia nullo modo volet permittere ſtatum regni Angliæ vacillare, quod ſibi ſpecialibus obſequiis eſt devotum.

Decimo, amariſſime plangimus hoc, quod dicitur, Wallenſes crudeliores exiſtere Saracenis; quia cum Saraceni capiunt Chriſtianos, eos ſervant pecuniâ redimendos; quos Wallenſes captos dicuntur illico jugulare, quia ſolo ſanguine delectentur; immo —— quod eſt deterius, quos permittunt redimi, tradunt, ut dicitur, jugulandos.

Undecimo, quod cum conſueverunt, Deum & perſonas Eccleſiaſticas revereri, a devotione hujuſmodi videntur multipliciter receſſiſſe, qui in tempore ſanctiſſimo in redemptoris injuriam moverunt ſeditionem, homicidia perpetrantes, in quo eos nullum poterit excuſare.

Duodecimo, petimus, ut tanquam veri Chriſtiani ad cor redeant pœnitentes, quia cœptam diſcordiam non poſſent diu continuare, etiamſi inraſſent.

Tertiodecimo, petimus, ut nobis ſignificent, quibus modis velint & valeant turbationem pacis Regiæ, læſionem Reipublicæ, & alia mala emendare.

Quartodecimo, ut ſignificent nobis, qualiter valeat ipſa concordia ſtabiliri; fruſtra enim pax firmari videbitur, quæ tam aſſidnè violatur.

Quintodecimo, ut ſi dicunt leges ſuas vel fœdera ex pacto inita non ſervari, ut ſignificent quæ ſint illa.

Sextodecimo, noverint, quod etiam poſito quod eis derogatum fuiſſet, quod noſcimus nullo modo licebat eis, quia eſſent Judices in cauſa ſua, taliter Majeſtatem Regiam impugnare.

Septimodecimo, quod niſi modo pax fiat, procedatur contra eos forſitan ex decreto militiæ Sacerdotis et populi convocati.

Reſponſiones Lewelini Principis ad Articulos ſupradictos.

Caterum quod nos rogaſtis, ut ad pacem Domini Regis veniamus; ſcire debet veſtra ſanctitas, quod ad hoc prompti ſumus, cummodo idem Dominus Rex pacem debitam & veram nobis & noſtris velit obſervare. Ad hæc licet gauderemus de mora veſtra facienda in Wallia, tamen per nos non eritis impediti, quin pax fiat quantum in nobis eſt, quam optamus per veſtram induſtriam magis quàm alicujus alterius roborari; & ſperamus, nec per Dei gratiam erit oportunum propter noſtram pertinaciam aliquid ſcribere Domino Papæ; nec veſtras paternas preces ac graves labores ſpernemus, ſed eas amplectimur omni cordis affectu, ut tenemur; nec erit opus quod Dominus Rex aggravet contra nos manum, cum prompti ſumus ſibi obedire, juribus noſtris & legibus nobis, ut pramittatur, reſervatis. Et licet regnum Angliæ ſit Curiæ Romanæ ſpecialiter ſubjectum et dilectum, tamen cum Dominus Papa, necnon et Curia Romana audierint quanta nobis per Anglicos mala ſunt illata, videlicet, quod pax prius formata non ſit nobis ſervata nec ——— deinde Eccleſiarum devaſtationes, combuſtiones, et Eccleſiaſticarum interfectiones, Sacerdotum videlicet et Incluſorum, et Incluſarum, et altarum Religioſarum perſonarum paſſim mulierum et infantium lugentium ubera, et in ——— portiarum combuſtiones etiam Hoſpitalium et aliarum Domorum Religioſarum, homicidiorum in Cimiteriis, Eccleſiis, et ſuper Altaria, et aliorum ſacrilegiorum et flagitiorum auditu, etiam horribilium auditui paganorum, ſicut expreſſius eadem in aliis rotulis conſcripta vobis tranſmittamus inſpicienda. Speramus inprimis, quod veſtra pia & ſancta Paternitas clementer nobis compatietur, necnon & Curia ſupradicta: nec per nos Regnum Angliæ vacillabit, dum ut pramiſſum eſt pax debita nobis fiat & ſervetur. Qui vero ſanguinis effuſione delectantur, manifeſtum eſt ex factis; nam Anglici hactenus nulli ſexui vel ætati, ſeu langore pepercerunt, nulli Eccleſiæ vel loco ſacro detulerunt, qualia vel conſimilia * ——— non fecerunt. Super eo autem ——— unus redemptus fuit ——— multum dolemus, nec occiſarem manutenemus, ſed in ſylvis uti latro vagatur. De eis vero qua fecimus contra Dominum, ut veri Chriſtiani per Dei gratiam pœnitebimus, nec erit ex parte noſtra quod Bellum continuetur, dum ſimus indempnes, ut debemus, ne tamen exheredemur & paſſim occidamur, oportet nos defendere, ut valemus. Cum vero injuria & dampna hinc inde conſiderentur & ponderentur, parati ſumus emendare pro viribus qua ex parte noſtra ſunt commiſſa, dum de predictis injuriis & dampnis nobis factis & aliis emenda nobis fiat. Et ad pacem firmandam & ſtabiliendam ſimiliter ſumus prompti debitis modis, quia tamen Regales Carta & pacta inita nobis non ſervantur, ſicut nec hucuſque ſunt obſervata, non poteſt pax ſtabiliri, nec quia nova exactiones & inaudita contra nos & noſtros omni die adinveniuntur, vobis autem tranſm—— in rotulis dampna illata & fœdera niſi quod ſecundum factum pacis ——— factam. Quod vero guerravimus, quia neceſſitas nos cogebat, nam nos & omnes Wallenſes eramus adeo oppreſſi & ſubpeditati & ſpoliati, & in ſervitutem redacti per Regales Juſticiarios & Ballivos contra formam pacis & omnem juſtitiam amplius quam ſi Saraceni eſſemus vel Judæi (ſicut credimus, et ſæpe denuntiavimus Domino Regi) nec aliquam emendam habere potuimus, ſed ſemper mittebantur Juſticiarii & Ballivi ferociores & crudeliores, & cum illi erant ſaturati per ſuas injuſtas exactiones, alii de novo mittebantur ad populum excoriandum, in tantum quod populus mallebat mori quam vivere; hac oportet militiam ampliorem convocari, vel contra nos moveri ——— dum nobis fiat pax & ſervetur modis debitis, ut ſuperius eſt expreſſum; nec debetis, Sancte Pater, omnibus verbis credere noſtrorum Adverſariorum, ſicut enim nos factis oppreſſerunt & opprimunt, ita & verbis diffamant vobis impotentes ——— volunt, ipſi enim ſæpe vobis ſunt præſentes, & nos abſentes, niſi opprimentes, nos oppreſſi & ——— fidem eis in omnibus non exhibeatis, ſed iſta potius examinetis.
